

WALL STREET REVEALED

MONEY EASIER AND STOCKS GOING UP AGAIN.

Reviews of What Came Near Being Another Black Friday—Cause of the Panic and Cause of the Quick Recovery—The Enormous Losses Distributed Among Outside Speculators and the Big Bulls Now Come to Their Profits—The Bank Conspiracy Supposed to Have Been Carried Its Full Length and Accomplished Its Purpose.

New York, Feb. 26.—Wall street and the stock exchange were in a whirl of excitement at the opening, but as the market grew stronger under the impulse of treasury redemptions, what promised to be a memorable financial panic proved to be happily averted, at least for the present.

The evening post's review: "Where the rates for calls to stock brokers were yesterday one-half to one per cent. plus six per cent. per annum, this morning they were one per cent. plus six per cent. per annum, and we write as usual to plain six per cent. on United States bonds and six per cent. plus one-eighth on good stock.

A quiet feeling is reported from country banks, and in the opinion of bank officers the worst is over. President Dowd, of the bank of North America, when questioned concerning the financial condition said: "The refunding bill is as good as killed and I do not anticipate any further serious trouble. Besides, in addition to the $100,000,000 to be paid for United States bonds which is beginning to circulate, the government owns the clearing house $4,000,000 which will help the market."

WASHINGTON DISPATCH SAYS THAT SECRETARY SHERMAN, IN CONVERSATION REGARDING THE FINANCIAL SITUATION, SAID THERE WAS NOTHING FURTHER HE COULD DO. "WHAT A GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY THEY HAVE MISSED IN CONGRESS," HE SAID, "BY NOT PASSING A 3 PER CENT. FUNDING BILL. THE WHOLE BUSINESS COULD HAVE BEEN FINISHED IN TEN DAYS, BUT NOW I DON'T KNOW HOW IT IS COMING OUT. THERE IS A GOOD DEAL OF DIFFICULTY, I FEAR."

mercantile remarks: "We have reason to believe that the bank averages are about the last that will be reported complete, through the clearing house. Several banks will undoubtedly decline to make their average, account on lodging no obligation to the clearing house, to report their condition, other than on periodical calls of bank controller at Washington. The practice of weekly averages is lawless, like the wild and reckless certificates for stock brokers and the resolution repudiating silver as a legal tender. Under the incoming administration of the treasury, the stock exchange will have to change the role of speculation to cash sales and purchases, and to sales and purchases for account days. The $100,000,000 of certificates by national banks in utter violation of the laws will have to cease. If it be said that the bank controller sanctioned certificates last year the reply is that the controller is a subordinate of the treasury and will not be allowed to violate the spirit of the law against bank certificates. We predict that the Saturday averages of more than one prominent bank will not be sent to the clearing house, and that concern will have to give over their impertinent interference with the business of the members. The scandalous expenses of this week will have done the business for the clearing house, as a ruling banking power. The forty-eighth national bank, in which Mr. Gould has his account, called on Importers' Bank of which Mr. Sage is vice president, will probably decline to make averages to the clearing house next week. The Continental and other banks will take the same course by way of protest against the mischievous and lawless interference of the clearing house with their responsibility solely due five times a year to the treasury department. It is intimated to us this afternoon that if any of the banks decline to make weekly averages they will be thrown out of the clearing house. The membership of the clearing house will be protected by the courts if anything of this kind is attempted. The original purpose of the clearing house or association banks was to make and settle daily exchanges, nothing more or less."

AN OPERATOR'S TALK. Said one of the largest operators this afternoon: "Confidence hasn't been shaken. People haven't sold out because they wanted to do so, but because they have been compelled, against their wishes. They have been unable to carry the stock and have thrown it over without regard to value. There is a dispatch from Boston, saying the banks are full of customers anxious to buy. The New York market is not better, but margins, as soon as the banks will take orders, stocks will be purchased with a rush that shows how they feel in Boston and there is much the same feeling here. Of course we may have a telegram from New York, but we can see now there is a feeling that the funding bill will be vetoed by the President, if it should pass Congress, unless the bill be put in shape which will be satisfactory to all parties. There are hopes in Wall street to-day to carry up the prices, if brokers were in a position to carry stocks, and just as soon as we are at a point where brokers can get accommodation at the banks we shall see stocks go beyond the price level at which they have been shaken out and the stocks are in strong hands. Jay Gould is willing to be put on record as saying the end of the money stringency is in sight; that the public confidence is not shaken, and that the nervous and prices will advance with a rush."

A banker's opinion: "A quiet feeling is reported from country banks, and in the opinion of bank officers the worst is over. President Dowd, of the bank of North America, when questioned concerning the financial condition said: "The refunding bill is as good as killed and I do not anticipate any further serious trouble. Besides, in addition to the $100,000,000 to be paid for United States bonds which is beginning to circulate, the government owns the clearing house $4,000,000 which will help the market."

A large short interest was made yesterday, and it has been mostly covered to-day. The buyers at low prices yesterday, having to do with the danger of a panic extending beyond the stock market, has passed, it is not at all unlikely that as soon as the short interest in the stock market is fully covered, and prices will react from the advance of this afternoon.

THE STREET IS CAUTIOUS. A large short interest was made yesterday, and it has been mostly covered to-day. The buyers at low prices yesterday, having to do with the danger of a panic extending beyond the stock market, has passed, it is not at all unlikely that as soon as the short interest in the stock market is fully covered, and prices will react from the advance of this afternoon.

Berry, of Chicago, a brother of Judge Berry, is in the city, a guest at the Metropolitan hotel. Mrs. Charles H. Bigelow at her residence, No. 106 College avenue, will give an evening party to-morrow evening. There will be a juvenile party to-morrow evening at the residence of J. E. A. Studdard, Esq., No. 9 Virginia avenue. Representative A. C. Dunn's daughter, of Winnebago city, was visiting with her father last week and attended the reception. Mrs. C. W. Griggs will entertain her friends by giving an evening party on Monday evening at her residence, 42 Arundel street. The regular semi-monthly sociable of the Jackson street M. E. church, was held last Friday evening, in the parlors of the church. The Young People's Literary club, of St. Anthony Hill, met at the residence of Mr. I. A. Gilbert, on Summit avenue last Friday evening. Mr. Isaac W. Holman and wife returned to their home in Milwaukee on Friday, after a very pleasant two weeks' visit in this city with friends. The ball given by lodge No. 7, U. A. O. D., last Wednesday evening, at Pfeiffer's hall, was largely attended, and a very handsome amount was realized. There was a meeting of the members of the Episcopal church on St. Anthony hill last evening at the Dayton avenue Presbyterian church. Representative Armstrong's daughter, Miss Ovil, of Washville, and her friend Miss Mamie Griffin, of Northfield, were guests at the Clarendon last week. The fifth and last party of the series under the auspices of the Union club, will take place at their hall, Seventh and Jackson streets, to-morrow evening. Mrs. W. J. Ives, of Hutchinson, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, of Littlefield, and Mrs. J. Simmons, of Little Falls, were visiting with their husbands at the Merchants last week. The Ladies' Parsonage Aid society gave an oyster supper at the Clinton avenue M. E. church (Sixth ward) last Tuesday evening. It was a success both financially and socially. The wedding of Wm. Corlies, Esq., and Miss Laura Draper was celebrated at St. Paul's church Wednesday morning. The happy pair have gone East for an extended bridal tour. The friends of Mr. Winslow, of Auerbach, Finch and Van Slyck, will be pleased to learn that he has so far recovered from his late illness as to be at his desk to-morrow morning. The St. Andrews society held their fourth sociable at Pfeiffer's hall on Friday evening. The attendance was large, music, dancing and social intercourse was the order of the evening. The annual ball of the cadet military of St. Paul took place at Turner hall last evening. There was a large turnout and the taffy-pullers and their sweethearts enjoyed a jolly time. Mr. W. G. Evans, wife and daughter, went to Chicago last week, which place they will make their future home, leaving a large circle of friends here, who wish them all success in their new home. The art section of X. L. society met at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Higgins last Monday evening. The subject was the artist Raphael, and on which very interesting papers and studies had been prepared. The Eldersden Literary society met last Monday evening, at No. 154 East Ninth street. The officers are, Mr. Pardee, president; Miss Maggie, vice president; and Miss Susie Clark, secretary and treasurer. The following St. Paul people are guests at the Chicago hotels: H. B. IRELAND'S SHADOW.

A Dismal Prospect of Wholesale Evictions, With Imprisonment Without Trial for Every Man Accused of Resistance by Any Process Server—A London Lie Exposed and a New York—Proposed State Convention of Sympathizers With Ireland. LONDON, Feb. 26.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the secretary of the Irish Land League, was in a cabriolet from John Devey, of New York, saying that he (the secretary) should answer with his life for his language in the house of commons referring to Devey. Harcourt's telegram had been interviewed with Bishop Paris and was cordially received. New York, Feb. 26.—A Dublin special says: Lord Annerly's threat to evict all tenants on his Langford estates and take into his own hands about one-third of the entire county has directed attention to the black shadow of eviction which is looming over a vast number of farmers in Ireland. The tenants are in three classes, first, those who are ready to pay their rent, second, those who can pay but will not, and third, those neither able or willing to pay. The first class are very numerous. They already show signs, as Dillon says, of giving way. The second class, it is presumed, will follow the example of the first, but in respect to the third class, it is feared great difficulty will arise. Under the coercion bill it will be impossible to resist eviction. The tactics which have worked so successfully heretofore will be utterly useless now because the person resisting a process server or bailiff will be liable to arrest on the spot, and imprisonment eighteen months without trial. The following is a copy of the cablegram sent by John Devey to Harcourt, mentioned in London dispatch to-day: "To the home secretary, London: You say you will stamp out. Two can play at the game of stamping out. The days when you can stamp out the Irish people are passed forever. (Signed) '40 Days'."

DUBLIN, Feb. 26.—The amount of money invested by the land league is considerably over £50,000; principally in American securities. A portion will be placed in French securities, but the majority will be in London. The following is a copy of the cablegram sent by John Devey to Harcourt, mentioned in London dispatch to-day: "To the home secretary, London: You say you will stamp out. Two can play at the game of stamping out. The days when you can stamp out the Irish people are passed forever. (Signed) '40 Days'."

THE GLOBE HOROSCOPE. As it Casts its Light on the Chicago Markets. (Special Telegram to the Globe.) CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Cables firm, our private cable closing three cents higher on wheat and corn. Our wheat market, opening at 98c April, declined 98c on report of unsettled matters in Wall street, but rallying closed at the extreme on more favorable reports. The panic in Wall street seems to be over, and we look for a better market. We think the market has shown much strength and confidence, from the small decline under the circumstances. Corn quiet and steady. Oats unchanged. Provisions less active and steadier, closing firm at outside prices of the day. The receipts of hogs to-day were 12,000. Curb prices, April wheat, 99c; April pork, $14.80; April lard, $10.17c. A Coming Treat. We understand a movement is on foot for a grand brewers' and wholesale and liquor dealers' ball to be given at Market hall sometime in March. The entertainment is to be given in honor of the defeat of the temperance bill in the legislature. It is proposed to make it a State affair, and a large attendance from abroad is expected. The last in the series of hopes, given under the auspices of the ladies of the St. Paul Lyceum and Dramatic club, occurred last Friday evening at Seibert's hall on Seventh street. It proved a very enjoyable affair, the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, with the many friends, and the ladies have made their series a social success. A charming party was given at the residence of Mr. A. B. Slickney Friday night, gotten up by the young people of R. O. Strong's family and the Misses Slickney. There were about thirty-five young ladies and gentlemen present and an evening of delightful festivity was enjoyed. The music was furnished by Miss Grace Vance. Invitations have been issued for a veterans' reunion to be given at Pfeiffer's hall to-morrow evening. A large number of ex-soldiers is anticipated and short addresses are announced by Gen. Adams, Gen. Baker, Gen. Jenkinson, Col. Hicks, Col. Baxter, Major Gould, Major Shearson and others. Music will be furnished by the Great Union band and Stein's orchestra. The social club were entertained in a delightful manner on Thursday evening at the residence of J. E. Hozie, Esq., No. 8 Pleasant avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hozie made the

The Senate Passes the River and Harbor Bill—The House Ready to Vote on the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill—Bitter Attack on Ignatius Donnelly—Republican Plan with Mahone's Help, to Capture the Senate Organization—Hayes' Cabinet to Remain with Garfield Until a Successor to the Late Senator Carpenter is Elected. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—In the Senate, the river and harbor bill was taken up and the committee amendments were agreed to. The opposition to the bill was vigorous, but it was finally reported and passed. Ayes 33, noes 12. The House had up the sundry appropriation bill and increased the appropriation for surveying public lands from $300,000 to $250,000. An amendment to appropriate $35,000 to revise the civil service commission, was adopted. An amendment offered by Mr. Springer, which gave the commissioners representing the United States at the international monetary conference to agree to no adjustment which does not recognize silver coins as part of the money system of government, was not called out by the name of Van Voorhis moved to strike out the sum of $30,000 for Ignatius Donnelly, whom he denounced as a legislative pirate and freebooter in politics, who had not the color of a claim to be considered in such conference. Mr. Springer's amendment was defeated and the bill passed. A decree of foreclosure was rendered by Judge Nelson, of the United States circuit court, yesterday, in the case of the Phoenix Mutual Life insurance company against Josiah Thompson. Mr. Wm. Shelley received a letter yesterday from George W. Crummin, of Tucson, Arizona, formerly a well known resident of this city. He writes that he is flourishing like a green bay tree. Simon Lodermeier was before United States Commissioner Corozzo yesterday charged with cutting timber from government lands. He gave bonds in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of court. In excavating for a new house on West Fourth street, near St. Peter, yesterday forenoon, one of the blasts shook down plaster from the adjacent buildings. The men were ordered to let up by Officer Clauss. A horse belonging to E. H. Judson, attached to a sleigh, backed into the cellar opposite Auerbach, Finch and Van Slyck's wholesale house, on Third street, yesterday morning. The horse, in endeavoring to get out, received serious injury. A musical and literary entertainment will take place at Turner hall to-morrow evening under the auspices of the proprietors of the Review, a paper edited and published by colored men. An excellent programme has been prepared and those who attend will enjoy a rich entertainment. The case of Anna Pawlicek, against John Kleacik, in which action is brought for $1,000 damages for defamation of character, came before Judge Brill yesterday, on a demurrer, denying the allegations of the complaint. It was taken under advisement. The jury in the case of J. W. McClung vs. P. O'Grady returned a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $110 instead of $10 as heretofore reported. Plaintiff residing at Oakdale, on the grounds that the verdict was against the instructions of the court and not in accordance with the evidence. To-night Rev. Dr. Dana is to make his promised plea in behalf of the new high school building. Those who differ with him as to the expediency of this project just now, will be invited in hearing what he has to say in advocacy of it. St. Paul does not mean to fall behind other competing cities educationally, and fair and open discussion of the matter is at all events wise, and for this the committee is ready. Sergeant Walsh returned Friday from a visit to Alexandria, and when on route home he stopped at Oakdale lake, the home of Patrick Shinners, confined in the county jail on the charge of robbing a granger of $500. He states that there are three brothers of the Shinners family residing at Oakdale lake and it is alleged that three of them became noisy and abusive. He was arrested by Officer Galvin. Mr. Erwin appeared for the defendant and demanded a jury trial, which was granted. A verdict of guilty was returned, and he was sentenced to a fine of $10, which was paid. To-day, after the usual high mass at Assumption church, the so-called "forty hours services" will be commenced in this church. A sermon will be rendered every evening by one of the fathers. On Tuesday night the will be closed by a grand procession, formed by members of the different societies of the congregation marching around the church with burning candles. The above service is held in order to make up for the many sins committed during these frivolous days of the carnival. Yesterday's Grons recorded a suit brought on a lien against James Smith, Jr., and others. It is due Mr. Smith to explain that he contracted with a carpenter named McNeil to build him a home. The building was erected and Mr. Smith paid for it, but McNeil absconded with money and appointed the lumber in the building. He gave Mr. Smith a bond and the surety claims he has a valid defense against the claim of the man who furnished the lumber. The surety claims the right to have the matter settled in the court, and hence Mr. Smith is made a party of soles soles. The case of the State against Frank Augustin, charged with the larceny of cigars and money, was called for hearing in the municipal court yesterday afternoon. A box partially filled with cigars was produced in the evidence, the same having been abstracted from the stock by the defendant, who was also charged with collecting money and appointing the proceeds. He acknowledged the theft of the cigars, and testified that he had merely taken small sums to defray temporary expenses, his intention being to make the amount good when he received his salary. He was held to the grand jury and released in bail of $300. The case of Kate T. Ashton against Mrs. Horace Thompson and others came before the full bench of the district court yesterday afternoon on a motion for judgment on the original decision. It will be remembered that judgment for an accounting was rendered several months ago in favor of the plaintiffs. An appeal was taken to the supreme court and proceedings were stayed pending the decision on the appeal which comes up next April. The motion yesterday was to set aside the stay on the appeal and for judgment. Messrs. Allen and O. D. O'Brien argued the case for the plaintiffs and Gordon E. Cole and Henry Worn appeared for the defendants. The motion was taken under advisement. Still They Sell. Lace and embroideries 2 cogs a yard and upward. New York Novelty Store, 23 West Third. John Menz was muled three dollars, yesterday, for dumping manure on the ice. The report that a man had been arrested from the American house with delirium tremens was unfounded. Strangers and travelers are invited to attend the services at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A handsome $36 gray overcoat was stolen from one of the freight houses on the lower levee yesterday. It was the property of one McDermott. The divorce of Kristine Landaa, vs. Peter Landaa, action for cruel treatment, came before Judge Brill yesterday, and was taken under advisement. The trial of criminal cases will be resumed in the district court to-morrow morning. It is expected that the Pollard polygamy case will be taken up first. The regular concert, being the fifth of the series, under the auspices of the German society and Seibert's orchestra, will take place at the Atheneum to-night. A large new safe—nearly double the size of the one at present in use—will soon be in position in the Merchants hotel office, it having been received yesterday. CITY GLOBULES.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

John Menz was muled three dollars, yesterday, for dumping manure on the ice. The report that a man had been arrested from the American house with delirium tremens was unfounded. Strangers and travelers are invited to attend the services at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A handsome $36 gray overcoat was stolen from one of the freight houses on the lower levee yesterday. It was the property of one McDermott. The divorce of Kristine Landaa, vs. Peter Landaa, action for cruel treatment, came before Judge Brill yesterday, and was taken under advisement. The trial of criminal cases will be resumed in the district court to-morrow morning. It is expected that the Pollard polygamy case will be taken up first. The regular concert, being the fifth of the series, under the auspices of the German society and Seibert's orchestra, will take place at the Atheneum to-night. A large new safe—nearly double the size of the one at present in use—will soon be in position in the Merchants hotel office, it having been received yesterday. A decree of foreclosure was rendered by Judge Nelson, of the United States circuit court, yesterday, in the case of the Phoenix Mutual Life insurance company against Josiah Thompson. Mr. Wm. Shelley received a letter yesterday from George W. Crummin, of Tucson, Arizona, formerly a well known resident of this city. He writes that he is flourishing like a green bay tree. Simon Lodermeier was before United States Commissioner Corozzo yesterday charged with cutting timber from government lands. He gave bonds in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of court. In excavating for a new house on West Fourth street, near St. Peter, yesterday forenoon, one of the blasts shook down plaster from the adjacent buildings. The men were ordered to let up by Officer Clauss. A horse belonging to E. H. Judson, attached to a sleigh, backed into the cellar opposite Auerbach, Finch and Van Slyck's wholesale house, on Third street, yesterday morning. The horse, in endeavoring to get out, received serious injury. A musical and literary entertainment will take place at Turner hall to-morrow evening under the auspices of the proprietors of the Review, a paper edited and published by colored men. An excellent programme has been prepared and those who attend will enjoy a rich entertainment. The case of Anna Pawlicek, against John Kleacik, in which action is brought for $1,000 damages for defamation of character, came before Judge Brill yesterday, on a demurrer, denying the allegations of the complaint. It was taken under advisement. The jury in the case of J. W. McClung vs. P. O'Grady returned a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $110 instead of $10 as heretofore reported. Plaintiff residing at Oakdale, on the grounds that the verdict was against the instructions of the court and not in accordance with the evidence. To-night Rev. Dr. Dana is to make his promised plea in behalf of the new high school building. Those who differ with him as to the expediency of this project just now, will be invited in hearing what he has to say in advocacy of it. St. Paul does not mean to fall behind other competing cities educationally, and fair and open discussion of the matter is at all events wise, and for this the committee is ready. Sergeant Walsh returned Friday from a visit to Alexandria, and when on route home he stopped at Oakdale lake, the home of Patrick Shinners, confined in the county jail on the charge of robbing a granger of $500. He states that there are three brothers of the Shinners family residing at Oakdale lake and it is alleged that three of them became noisy and abusive. He was arrested by Officer Galvin. Mr. Erwin appeared for the defendant and demanded a jury trial, which was granted. A verdict of guilty was returned, and he was sentenced to a fine of $10, which was paid. To-day, after the usual high mass at Assumption church, the so-called "forty hours services" will be commenced in this church. A sermon will be rendered every evening by one of the fathers. On Tuesday night the will be closed by a grand procession, formed by members of the different societies of the congregation marching around the church with burning candles. The above service is held in order to make up for the many sins committed during these frivolous days of the carnival. Yesterday's Grons recorded a suit brought on a lien against James Smith, Jr., and others. It is due Mr. Smith to explain that he contracted with a carpenter named McNeil to build him a home. The building was erected and Mr. Smith paid for it, but McNeil absconded with money and appointed the lumber in the building. He gave Mr. Smith a bond and the surety claims he has a valid defense against the claim of the man who furnished the lumber. The surety claims the right to have the matter settled in the court, and hence Mr. Smith is made a party of soles soles. The case of the State against Frank Augustin, charged with the larceny of cigars and money, was called for hearing in the municipal court yesterday afternoon. A box partially filled with cigars was produced in the evidence, the same having been abstracted from the stock by the defendant, who was also charged with collecting money and appointing the proceeds. He acknowledged the theft of the cigars, and testified that he had merely taken small sums to defray temporary expenses, his intention being to make the amount good when he received his salary. He was held to the grand jury and released in bail of $300. The case of Kate T. Ashton against Mrs. Horace Thompson and others came before the full bench of the district court yesterday afternoon on a motion for judgment on the original decision. It will be remembered that judgment for an accounting was rendered several months ago in favor of the plaintiffs. An appeal was taken to the supreme court and proceedings were stayed pending the decision on the appeal which comes up next April. The motion yesterday was to set aside the stay on the appeal and for judgment. Messrs. Allen and O. D. O'Brien argued the case for the plaintiffs and Gordon E. Cole and Henry Worn appeared for the defendants. The motion was taken under advisement. Still They Sell. Lace and embroideries 2 cogs a yard and upward. New York Novelty Store, 23 West Third.
