AMUSEMENT NOTES. John E. Clark, the English comedian, is doing well in Philadelphia. Charlotte Thompson is playing among the Hoosiers with good success. Lotta has ceased her kicking at Louisville. Her engagement has been quite profitable. Salvini's engagement at McVicker's theater, Chicago, has been highly successful. His audiences have been large and enthusiastic. There is no less than fourteen Uncle Tom's Cabin companies on the road. And yet Bob Ingersoll says there is no place for future punishment. Aldrich and Parsloe open at Haverly's Chicago theater to-morrow evening in Bartley Campbell's "My Partner." They always draw well in Chicago. Herne's "Hearts of Oak" combination has played to good business at Hooley's, Chicago, during the week. It goes back to New York for the remainder of the season. Neil Burgess' "Widow Bedott" will fill the week at Hooley's, Chicago, on route for St. Paul, where the absurdity will cause people to burst the buttons off their clothes. "Thos. W. Keene will appear in tragedy at the Opera house next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The furor he has created at the East will be duplicated here without doubt. "The Black Venus" has been withdrawn from Niblo's, New York. Though the audiences have been large of the spectacle has been great, and the run has not been very profitable. Maggie Mitchell will be in St. Paul on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The charming little woman never fails to attract large audiences, and will crowd the Opera house to its utmost capacity. Thomas W. Keene, who fills an engagement in this city next week, has crowded the Grand Opera House, Chicago, nightly during the two weeks of his engagement there. His success is without a parallel in stage annals. The new opera by Gilbert and Sullivan is nearly finished. The subject is the over-pretentious aesthetic mania of society. Of "H. M. S. Pinafore," since 1878, when it was written, over 200,000 have been sold. Of "The Pirates of Penzance," published on November 11, there were sold on December 31, 52,000. Lyton Sothern, a son of the late E. A. Sothern, intends to come to this country next season and act in "Fogarty's Fairy," a comedy which his father was to have produced here. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, who are the London favorites in polite comedy, will also make an American tour, possibly with an English company. The Cincinnati operatic festival was a grand success, both artistically and financially. The receipts were simply enormous, and all the standard operas were produced on a scale never before attempted in this country. Some of the best soloists in the country sang in the chorus. Theodore Thomas managed the orchestra, and Gerster-Casy, Belocca, Campanini and Del Puente were the principal solo singers. Helen Potter's Pleiades. The Opera house contained two large and appreciative audiences yesterday, the attraction being the brief engagement, matinee and evening performances, of Helen Potter's Pleiades combination, which has earned the reputation of being without a peer. The impersonations of Miss Potter were given with that remarkable versatility and power of detachment customary with this finished artist. The members of the company are all artists of acknowledged ability and as such they were appreciated. The performances consisted of vocal and instrumental music of a superior order, interspersed with the characterizations of Miss Potter, which are marvellously life-like and truthful. The Eichberg quartette are a musical host by themselves, and their concerted violin numbers were executed in faultless style and each number was encased. Mr. Macy and Miss Earnest gave finished performances, and the entertainments were a rare treat to all present. Masquerade to-morrow night. To-morrow evening at the Athenaeum will witness the grand masquerade ball given annually by the members of the German society. The indications are that it will prove the most elegant and elaborate ball masquerade ever gotten up in this city. The arrangements have been in charge of gentlemen of taste and culture who have spared no pains or expense to make the affair a brilliant success and credit to the society. A number of novelties are promised and many of the costumes will be seen for the first time in this city. The tableaux representations will be especially magnificent and grand, several of which are classic in their arrangement and the effect will be that of surpassing beauty. There will be groupings and studies from mythology, illustrative of the combat between Ajax and Hector, Mercury, Navigation, Hercules carrying Jupiter, Cain and Abel, and a grand tableau scene from the "Magic Flute." Seven prizes will be awarded for elegant, comic, character and grotesque masks. "What Next?" In the St. Paul Library course is already inquired of. In answer we are authorized to say that Judge Geo. B. Young will deliver the next lecture of the course on Tuesday, March 15. The subject will be heretofore announced. We do not hesitate to say, however, that the library patrons and general public may look forward to this lecture with both pleasurable and profitable anticipations. The Late Adam Heck. Elsewhere appears the announcement of the death of Adam Heck, well and favorably known to all old settlers. Adam Heck was born in Germany on the Rhine in 1832. He came to America in 1849, and settled in St. Paul in 1855, at once entered into business, in which he was engaged up to the time of his death, late being associated with Col. A. H. Kiefer, present clerk of the district court. Mr. Heck was a steady plodder in his business pursuits, slow, careful and honorable. Socially he was slow to form friendships, but a friendship once formed nothing but the basest ingratitude would disrupt it. While not occupying a prominent position in the business or social world, his death will be sincerely mourned by those who knew him in his true light. STILLWATER. Isaac Staples is taking stock in his lumber yard preparatory to the opening. Fred McKusick, who has been spending a few days in Chicago, returned home yesterday. Eugene Smith, of the firm of Eugene Smith & Co., of St. Paul, is in town looking over the lumber business in this city. Geo. F. Sabin, of Marine, is down on business. We understand that he intends to open a law office here this spring. Inspector Armstrong reports that on Friday there was stored in this city 4,000 bushels of grain, the largest amount brought in since last November. Tom Miller, formerly book-keeper for the firm of J. H. Townsend & Co., has returned. Tom has been spending the winter at his home in Springfield, Mass. The present reporter wishes to disclaim the article referred to in Friday's edition under the head, "Correction," and commented upon by several members of the Methodist church. Hereafter the Globe will come to the city on the early morning train by the way of Stillwater Junction, so that subscribers will receive their paper about three hours earlier than formerly. Mr. C. J. Thompson can't see why the warden is so much of a secret regarding the warden's office. After he gets the prison contract the warden and inspector's will no doubt initiate him into the unseen mysteries. Mr. Ed. Hetfield has resigned his position as prison guard and left yesterday for his home in Polo, Ill., where he will stop and visit his friends for a few days, and go from there to the Black Hills, where he is intended to go into the business of stock raising. Clerk of the court Bennett has been present and dancing was continued until 2 o'clock, when all left the pleasant home, where happiness abounded. They all returned to their homes feeling that the evening had been well spent. Many were the wishes extended to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Esterbrooks at Oak Park, Thursday evening. There was quite a number there and all seemed to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Esterbrooks, who did all they could to make the party enjoyable. Music was present and dancing was continued until 2 o'clock, when all left the pleasant home, where happiness abounded. They all returned to their homes feeling that the evening had been well spent. Many were the wishes extended to Mr. and Mrs. Esterbrooks that they might enjoy a happy and prosperous life.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS. MINNEAPOLIS GLOBE. No business at the probate court yesterday. Only five insane patients now at the county jail. One of these unfortunates is a woman. E. A. Hendrickson, of St. Paul, had a wolf robe stolen from his sleigh in front of Market hall last night. Two men were arrested with the robe in their possession. James G. Griffin, Robert Feck and Wm. Pendleton were on trial yesterday before Judge Bailey for assaulting Mrs. Griffin. Their examination will be concluded to-morrow. The Minneapolis Light Infantry will give a promenade and exhibition drill on the evening of March 4th. At the conclusion of the drill the band's orchestra will furnish music for dancing. The special term calendar before Judge Young was disposed of yesterday. Out of the thirty-nine cases on the calendar only two were finally disposed of, the balance being continued. Peter Holscher and James McCabe were before Judge Bailey yesterday for being drunk and disorderly. Holscher paid $10, and McCabe in default of a like sum went to jail for fifteen days. The Sunday School class will meet this afternoon, at which time the subject discussed at the meeting held two weeks ago will be taken up. The question is, "Is there a basis for spiritualism?" The annual invitation ball given by Scandia lodge No. 6, K. of P., will be held at Pythian hall on March 3d. The arrangements are in the hands of a committee consisting of J. W. Brand, P. R. Holmberg, and a delightful time is expected. The Minneapolis club considered last evening the challenge of the Geo. H. Thomas rifle club at Chicago and the Milwaukee rifle club to shoot a match at Milwaukee May 26th. A meeting will be held at that time to organize a Western rifle association. The club will consider the question further on Wednesday. The twenty-seven hours go-as-you-please walking match, at Association hall, closed last evening at eleven o'clock. The score at that time was as follows: Hunt 113 miles and 9 laps, Middleton 146 miles and 19 laps, Guion 89 miles and 15 laps. Brown 68 miles and 6 laps. Berry 61 miles. Hunt was given $200, and Middleton the 2d, of $100. The attendance has been small, and the winners of the prize money will scarcely have enough for expenses. DOOMS DAY. To the Prisoners Sentenced by Judge Vandenberg. The prisoners who had plead guilty or been convicted at the present term of the district court, were brought up for sentence yesterday. Charles Gear, who on the night of February 6th, shot his wife, Nellie Watters, in the left breast, and was indicted and convicted for assault with intent to kill was the first sentenced, and was given two years of hard labor. James Loghry, who stole from the safe in Aldrich's auction store, where he was employed, about $370, after being indicted, plead guilty, and was sentenced to two years and six months. Michael Kelly, who was indicted and convicted of stealing a watch and money from Mrs. Swiller, was sentenced to one year and eight months. Also Bank Read, indicted for assaulting Thomas Prescott, with intent to kill, but who was found guilty of simple assault by the jury, appeared for sentence. The court ordered him to pay a fine of $100. Bank, who had been "skrimishing" for the past three days with a subscription list, had gathered up that amount, and on payment was discharged. Wm. P. Boyden, indicted for embezzlement of $300 from Burgess & Manley, by whom he was employed, plead guilty and was sentenced to two years and six months. The four prisoners will be taken to Stillwater on Monday morning by Sheriff Rustis. The criminal cases to be tried at this term of the court are all disposed of with two exceptions, that of W. W. Brown, indicted for "maintaining a nuisance," and the case of J. C. McNaughton, indicted for "obtaining money under false pretenses" from G. F. Jackson. It is probable that these cases will go over until the close of the civil calendar which will be taken up to-morrow morning.

Commerce and Fruit Growers. The Gardeners and Fruit Growers' association met at Market hall yesterday morning. Prof. Porter, who was expected to deliver an address, was not present. Wyman Elliot stated the object of the meeting was to consider the annual renting of the city market stalls. The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That in the sense of this meeting that we do not wish the widening of sidewalk on Hennepin avenue in front of the market. It was stated that the grocery men were circulating a petition to forbid the gardeners from unloading and displaying their goods on the walk in front of the city market, and the committee were instructed to see that no such ordinance was passed by the city council. The meeting adjourned to meet one week from date. Bold Burglars. Some time during Friday night thieves broke one of the window panes in Henry Kreuger's gun store and stole from the show case in the window ten revolvers and a rifle, the value of the articles taken amounting to about $75. It was an exceedingly bold break, as a light breeze in the store all night and the store is but a few doors from Nicollet avenue. Detective Hoy is investigating the affair and yesterday afternoon a young man named John Collins was arrested on suspicion of having a hand in the robbery. Collins has been an inmate of the jail both here and in St. Paul, and although he may not be concerned in this act, has a very bad reputation. The Weather To-day. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27-1 A. M.—Indications for the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, colder fair weather, preceded in the eastern district by occasional rain, northwesterly winds and rising barometer. COMMERCIAL.
