The Wilmington (Delaware) Daily Reblican says: Some few weeks ago it that C. P. Hallet passed through this city on his way from Brainerd, Minnesota, to Milford, in this State, with the remains of his wife, to lay them in their old family burying round at her native home. Accompaareft at an early age of a mother's r care and a mother's Mr. Hallet left Milford April 9, 1878, for Brainard, where he was engaged in trading with the Indians. About the t of March his wife was taken sick and died after a very short illness. Mr. Hal-lett's wife was a Miss Mary Gertrude Bridgeham, of Milford, and is connected with several of the best and leading families of Delaware. Mr. H. is pleased with his western home, and goes back with a crushed heart to begin life almost anew
