

THE SENATORS' COURT. A FAIR TRIAL OF THE HERO OF CANOECH.

The fact that Albany and throughout the State Dividing—Prominent Defections From His Following Reported—Evidence that the Administration Under the Leadership of Blaine Will Make a Determined Fight Against His Re-election—Robertson's Nomination Reported Favorably From the Committee—And His Almost Unanimous Confirmation Predicted To-Day—Final Senate Adjournment Promised Saturday—Garfield Somewhat Better—Gossip and Speculation.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—So far, all intelligent enquirers among the Senators of both parties are of the opinion that Conkling expects to be re-elected. There is no difference of opinion about this, though a few suggest that possibly he may find it harder to get back than he has had.

The action of the New York Senate in adjourning before receiving the notification of the resignation yesterday is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

Learning a short time after that Fish was unwilling to stay in Switzerland, and thinking he might possibly remain in the diplomatic service, Secretary Blaine telegraphed him April 15th, asking him to go to Denmark.

Conkling's Mistake. NEW YORK, May 17.—Times Postmaster General James said to-night he had no conversation with the President touching the nomination of Judge Robertson.

It is understood ex-Senators Conkling and Platt will endeavor to postpone action on Judge Robertson's nomination.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

The resignation of Conkling is considered a mistake. It is believed that the Senate will adjourn this morning, and that the resignation will be received before the adjournment.

Messrs. Conkling and Platt to their resignation. There is no written law of certainty, no unwritten precedent, no custom, no usage, that entitles the Senators from this State to demand they should be consulted before the nomination of a new collector of customs in New York.

Robertson Favorably Reported. WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate committee on commerce this morning decided to report in favor of confirming the nomination of Judge Robertson.

A Suggestion For Don. HARRISBURG, May 17.—In the Senate Mr. Alexander offered the following:

Resolved, by the Senate if the house concur, That we heartily endorse the course of Senators Conkling and Platt.

Stanley Matthews Assigned. WASHINGTON, May 17.—Stanley Matthews appeared at the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court this morning.

NOT SO UNANIMOUS. The nominations of Judge Robertson, General Merritt and General Badeau were then reported back from the committee on commerce.

Trouble at Albany. ALBANY, N. Y., May 17.—There is talk of Chauncey Depew entering at once into a renewal of the canvass for Senator.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the course recently pursued by the President in attempting to remove Judge Robertson.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 17.—Thirty-five members of the assembly, including Speaker Sharpe, met to-night in the rooms of the Republican caucus.

Grant As Well As Conkling. DENVER, May 17.—This morning's Republican contains a long article on the Garfield-Conkling controversy.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate went into executive session the nomination of Fred Douglass to recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

be so regardless of the interests of the party in the United States, they are, and for which the money subscribed will be totally insufficient.

Mrs. Garfield More Comfortable. WASHINGTON, May 17.—Mrs. Garfield's physician furnishes the following bulletin.

General Capital News. WASHINGTON, May 17.—During the last session of Congress there was an appropriation, at the instance of Representative Deuster.

MARRIAGE BELLS. Six Souls with but a Single Thought, Six Hearts That Beat as Three.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Valentine Schmitt, the groom being William Schmitt, and the bride Miss Maggie Lizzie Denzer.

John Sullivan Knocks John Flood Out of Time in Eight Rounds. NEW YORK, May 17.—The long pending prize fight between John Sullivan, the noted pugilist, of Boston, and John Flood, of this city, was decided last night on the Hudson river.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE. Second Day's Proceedings—Interesting Session and Interchange of Views.

A very pleasant wedding was solemnized at the Cathedral at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, being the marriage of Mr. Frank McCarron, of the city engineer's department.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, corner of Twelfth and Cedar, was the scene of an auspicious event yesterday afternoon.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate went into executive session the nomination of Fred Douglass to recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate went into executive session the nomination of Fred Douglass to recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

KENTUCKY DERBY. A Great Crowd in Attendance and Interesting Sports—Hindoo Wins the Great Event Hands Down, Lata, Second—Ironquods Lands Another English Trot for Lorillard, While Keene's North Star is Second in Another Race—Trotting at Philadelphia—Ball Play.

HINDOO WINS THE KENTUCKY DERBY. LOUISVILLE, May 17.—There is an immense crowd present to witness the first day's event of the Jockey Club.

Trotting at Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—This was the first day of the spring trotting meeting at the Grand Breese park.

THE GLOBE HOROSCOPE. As it Casts its Light on the Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, May 17.—The cable advices were of better tone, some quotations higher, wheat cool and pleasant, favorable for the crops.

PRIZE FIGHT ON THE HUDSON. NEW YORK, May 17.—The long pending prize fight between John Sullivan, the noted pugilist, of Boston, and John Flood, of this city, was decided last night on the Hudson river.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE. Second Day's Proceedings—Interesting Session and Interchange of Views.

A very pleasant wedding was solemnized at the Cathedral at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, being the marriage of Mr. Frank McCarron, of the city engineer's department.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, corner of Twelfth and Cedar, was the scene of an auspicious event yesterday afternoon.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate went into executive session the nomination of Fred Douglass to recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The Senate went into executive session the nomination of Fred Douglass to recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia.

THE FIRE FIEND. Serious Conflagration at Nashville, Tenn.—Loss Half a Million Dollars—Other Fires.

MEMPHIS, May 17.—Fire at Nashville, Tenn., this afternoon, burned the Noel building, including the Western Union telegraph office.

OTHER FIRES. MIDDLEBURG, Vt., May 17.—Fire in Brookville destroyed the factory and finishing shop of the edge tool company.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Fleming oil works, at New Town creek and Misereux, were destroyed by an explosion of gas.

OLD WORLD NEWS. TROUBLE THREATENED. LONDON, May 16.—The Daily News in a leading article says: If some day Gen. Breaud's triumph should result in France having on her hands at the same time an international war.

THE NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY. Mr. Eldridge, a traveling agent of the Northern Pacific and Chicago and North Western, reports that the Scythia, Malta and Plynia landed at New York the other day about two thousand European immigrants.

THE FREIGHT TRAFFIC ON THE NORTHERN PACIFIC. The freight traffic on the Northern Pacific is very large this season, and that, with the more constant use of the material, keeps all the company's rolling stock steadily employed.

THE LUMBER LINE. The lumber line, which has been employed in the Wisconsin Central & Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha; Sioux City & Pacific, and Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs railroads.

THE MISSOURI DIVISION. The Missouri division he found that the track layers were within thirty miles westward at the rate of nearly two miles a day.

THE DULUTH SHIPPING NEWS. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] Duluth, Minn., May 17.—Arrived at Duluth, Minn., this morning, 116 tons of Canadian Pacific steel rails; bargo Thomas Palmer, with 595 tons of coal; schooner Agarie, with 975 tons of coal.

THE AFFECTIONS OF HER, bilious disorders, sick headache, etc., are thoroughly cured by Dr. J. C. Smith's Pills.

THE STEEL WAYS. Bringing Thousands of Immigrants—The Lumber Line's Two Thousand Cars Moving—General Haupt's Tour of Inspection—The Bad Lands To Furnish Plenty of Material for the Ballasting—Social and Personal Hall News.

Col. R. M. Newport, chief of the Northern Pacific land department, has gone to Miles City, to see for himself what sort of lands he will have to sell for the company in the Yellowstone valley.

The Wisconsin Central company has issued a beautifully printed and bound prospectus, entitled "Summer Saunterings in North Wisconsin."

The Wisconsin Central company has issued a beautifully printed and bound prospectus, entitled "Summer Saunterings in North Wisconsin."

THE NORTHWESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY. Mr. Eldridge, a traveling agent of the Northern Pacific and Chicago and North Western, reports that the Scythia, Malta and Plynia landed at New York the other day about two thousand European immigrants.

THE FREIGHT TRAFFIC ON THE NORTHERN PACIFIC. The freight traffic on the Northern Pacific is very large this season, and that, with the more constant use of the material, keeps all the company's rolling stock steadily employed.

THE LUMBER LINE. The lumber line, which has been employed in the Wisconsin Central & Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha; Sioux City & Pacific, and Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs railroads.

THE MISSOURI DIVISION. The Missouri division he found that the track layers were within thirty miles westward at the rate of nearly two miles a day.

THE DULUTH SHIPPING NEWS. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] Duluth, Minn., May 17.—Arrived at Duluth, Minn., this morning, 116 tons of Canadian Pacific steel rails; bargo Thomas Palmer, with 595 tons of coal; schooner Agarie, with 975 tons of coal.

THE AFFECTIONS OF HER, bilious disorders, sick headache, etc., are thoroughly cured by Dr. J. C. Smith's Pills.

THE AFFECTIONS OF HER, bilious disorders, sick headache, etc., are thoroughly cured by Dr. J. C. Smith's Pills.