THE WEEKLY GLOBE. The Weekly Globe is a mammoth sheet, ready to be folded into a pocket.

CONKLING has finally succeeded in giving to the public "the greatest gift of his life." He shouldn't have a chance to repeat it.

CONKLING says it is better to be right than Senator. Probably. But when a man is neither right nor Senator the case is altered, and this is the box that Conkling seems to be in at present.

CONKLING has long been contending against what he denominated "the heresy of State rights." That same heresy, however, appears to be his only refuge in this time of his greatest affliction.

CONKLING and Platt say they never asked Garfield for any offices. Then why are they making such a fuss because they are not getting them? If they were worth resigning for they were certainly worth asking.

SOME people at Albany think, or profess to think, that Conkling will not be re-elected to the Senate. It is probable that these have been undergoing a course of training for a residence at the institute for the feeble-minded.

THE magnanimity of the Democrats in declining to take advantage of the present emergency to reorganize the Senate takes the Republicans by surprise.

ROBERTSON doesn't propose that Conkling and Platt shall have a monopoly of the business of resigning. He, too, has resigned—only temporarily, however—the presidency of the New York Senate.

It is a war to the knife in the Republican party now. Garfield cannot back down and Conkling will not surrender.

WILL Postmaster General James resign? He united with Arthur, Conkling and Platt in the request that the name of Robertson be withdrawn.

THE people of Chicago are organizing with the purpose of inducing Congress to make an appropriation for completing the Illinois and Michigan canal from Hennepin, its present western terminus.

CONKLING'S FAUX PAS. Will Conkling and Platt be re-elected to the Senate by the New York legislature? It is now the question agitating the public mind.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Council Meeting Yesterday—Street Work—The New Fire Engine Purchased—Ponded A Competitive Trial Talked of.

A regular meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon. Present—Aldermen Allen, Dowlan, O'Connor, Griggs, Otis, Ringwald, Cornish, Conkling, Brennan, Trot, Mines and Mr. President.

Conkling and Platt will be endorsed by the New York legislature. Of this there is no question. The present legislature elected Platt at Conkling's dictation, and there is no reason to suppose that it will prove any less obedient to its master in this emergency than in January last.

A resolution was unanimously adopted confirming the vacation of certain streets for use of the St. Paul & Manitoba railroad, before the council for several months.

The official bonds of Stephen J. Murphy and Joseph Guion, as constables, and S. B. Hanft, as justice, were accepted.

A petition of Beupre & Keogh, for permission to erect a one story frame building for temporary use as a wholesale grocery store, upon the site of the Hopkins' addition, until their permanent building was erected, was referred to the committee on ordinances.

A petition largely signed, praying that the slaughter house, corner of Randolph and Warsaw streets, be declared a nuisance, was referred to the board of health.

The official bond of W. P. Murray, as city attorney, was presented and accepted.

The award of the board of public works to Philip Smith for grading Marshall street, between Rice and Dale streets, was approved.

The board of public works was instructed to proceed with the grading of the streets and alleys in Park Place addition.

The extending of the Fort street sewer to its present southwestern terminus to Western avenue, was referred to the board of public works for report.

The matter of constructing a sewer on Wilkin street, from Exchange street to Ramsey street, and on Exchange street from Sheridan street to Wilkin street, was referred to the board of public works for report.

The matter of grading Arch street, between the Ohio and Columbia streets, was referred to the board of public works for report.

Not important changes in Stocks—Wheat Active, Firm, and a Little Higher—Corn Advancing—Oats Steady—General Review of Trade and Prices in St. Paul.

Throughout the whole of this city the reports of this week are very favorable. Generally prices are steady, and in dry goods and groceries there are no notable changes.

In drugs and oils changes are noted as follows: Declined—Citric acid, balsam cop, camphor, chloroform, gum opium, iodine pot, morphine and lard oil.

An advance on the glass demand of the season and the summer being about to shut down for the summer. In hardware, etc., prices of copper bottom and sheet zinc are a shade lower.

The trade in hardware metals, etc., continues to be embarrassed by the non-arrival of goods, which are held by the freight blockades at Chicago.

The best are quoted at $3.50 per barrel. Onions are received at the sea coast in bad condition this season and suffer from the demand at the time of the year—arriving sometimes half in repacking for shipment.

For round and packed we quote, Massias $5.50 per barrel, Imperia $4.75 per barrel, extra large $4.00 per barrel.

320, according to size. Cranberries, choice packed in 14 lb. boxes, $2.00 per box, in 14 lb. boxes, $1.50 per box.

The seed trade of the season has been very quiet, but the party over Clover and Timothy seed were nominally unchanged at $4.75 and $2.85 respectively.

Mr. Hood, the Tribune reporter who got his leg hurt while on the excursion last week, is doing well as could be expected and will be out in a few days.
