The Telegraphic Batteries and Ledged Hall of the Newspapers Turned Against Him, and a Good Deal of Lying Being Done to Influence Opinion and Vote—The Hand of Blaine Guiding Pen and Pencils in Washington, New York and Albany—Each Faction to Advance on Albany To-morrow.

Two Years of Albany. NEW YORK, May 21.—The Commercial's Albany special says: The city is nearly empty of Representatives to-day. They have all gone home to learn the views of their constituents in regard to the Senatorial election.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Democratic leaders are watching the situation at Albany closely with a view of getting one Senator if possible. If that cannot be done, the Democratic members of the Legislature will vote with the stalwarts for Conkling.

FOREIGN MISSIONS. Meeting of the Baptist F. M. Union at Indianapolis—The Work of the Year, Condition of the Missions and Financial Statement.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 21.—The twentieth anniversary of the Baptist foreign missionary union was held to-day under the presidency of Rev. Dana Boardman, D. D., of Philadelphia, president of the year. The report showed that four missionaries had been sent abroad during the year. Seven had returned to their field of labor and twelve have either returned or are on their way. In Asia and in Europe there are now a total of thirty-two and 1,100 native preachers. The baptisms reported are 9,143 and church members 9,973. There are employed in missions in Asia 30 natives, 120 married missionaries, 6 unmarried men and 46 unattached women, including wives of missionaries. The receipts were $313,774.52, of which $24,971.68 was for additions to the invested funds, leaving $288,802.84 applicable to current expenses and last year's debt. The year's appropriations were $300,000, leaving a deficit of $11,830.68. The receipts were from the following sources: Donations from churches, etc., $167,685.78; legacies, $28,651.10; Women's society, $41,530.68; Women's society of the West, $41,530.68; Women's society of the Pacific, $74,120; miscellaneous, $305.66. After the address of the president, presentation of the report and appointment of committees an address on missions in Burma was made by Rev. McMillan James. A message of greeting was read from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church now in session at Buffalo, and a brief address was delivered by Dr. Dewitt Talmage, of Brooklyn, visiting in the city.

The afternoon meeting was given up to addresses by missionaries, Rev. Dr. Barabath from China, Rev. A. Newhall of India, and Rev. W. H. Roberts of Upper Burma, participating Rev. G. Boardman, of Pennsylvania, was re-elected president; Hon. W. M. Merrill, of Wisconsin, as vice president; and Rev. P. L. Barrage, of Maryland, as recording secretary. A board of managers was also appointed, and the name of H. Dean, of New York, was chosen. Dr. Nathan Bishop, of the same State, upon the board of managers. The question as to whether the next meeting of the society should be in Brooklyn, N. Y., New York or Saratoga, was left for decision by the general assembly. The report of the churches in the city will be occupied by eminent clergymen of the convention, and it is estimated there are now in attendance twelve hundred delegates.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS. STANTON, Va., May 21.—In the Presbyterian general assembly to-day Dr. Girardon of South Carolina, chairman, read a long and exhaustive report on the deaconate, in which the relative functions of deacons and elders were ably discussed. The report was an elaborate argument in favor of reform in government, though it was in direct connection with the subject. The order of the day being the report on retirement and reform, Dr. Agur read a paper on the subject, which was read Monday, and taken up after Dr. Girardon's report had been discussed. Dr. Lefebvre, who is recognized as leader of the opposition to the reform movement, favored postponement of action on the subject until the next assembly. After considerable discussion, participated in by a number of the most influential ministers, the order of the day was taken up by an overwhelming vote. This was looked upon as somewhat of a test question, and its result is believed to have clearly forewarned the defeat of the reformers, represented by the minority report of the committee to which the subject had been referred at the previous assembly.

Dr. Hopkins, of Virginia, then presented the majority report on reform. It recommended, first, that the five executive commissioners of the assembly be continued, as at present, and that the publication and education committee shall hereafter publish the minutes of the assembly. Second, that the general assembly shall exert its influence on the lower courts to bring about a rigid inspection of all accounts, and systematic and exact management of money matters by all discolored officers.

NORTHERN PRESBYTERIANS. BUFFALO, May 21.—In the Presbyterian general assembly the committee on elections presented the names of D. M. McKee, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Vincennes, C. T. Chambers, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Iowa, and H. W. Swinton, of the Presbytery of Otago, as members. The following telegram was sent the assembly of Southern Presbyterians in session at Stanton, Virginia. The general assembly of the Presbyterians in the United States in session at Buffalo, gratefully acknowledge the greeting of the assembly met at Stanton, Va., and invoke upon the officers and members grace, mercy and peace, from God, the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ. (Signed, N. H. Darling, moderator.)

The report of the standing committee of the board of ministerial relief was presented, showing that four hundred and seventy families were aided the past year, and that $59,000 were expended in the purchase of 197 orphans, and $74,645 expended, limited only by the amount at the disposal of the board. A resolution commending the work of the board, and urging the church to tender assistance to the same, was adopted. The following members of the board, whose term of service expires, were reappointed: Dr. Reed, Rev. Thomas Shepperd, and Elder Jno. J. Farr; and Elder B. B. Conners was appointed in place of W. C. Howell, deceased. Addresses were made by Rev. Geo. Halsey, of the board, and Rev. Dr. Hoekman, of Cincinnati, on the subject of ministerial relief.

Where Are You, James? I Am Here, Dad But what we want to know is, where are those twenty thousand five-dollar bonus diplomas that have been issued in the past fifteen years to doctors? Where are these doctors? Echo answers "Where?" Who knows but one of the best identified following of the medical physician, practicing to make himself perfect with others? Who knows but the very next dose he gives you may send you to your long home? Then he will pronounce it apoplexy, heart disease, or anything to get you under the cover of his patent medicine. The doctors who are crying down patent medicines, calling them humbugs. A physician, with a genuine diploma, who is honest at heart, will tell you "Anything that will help you to live is my patent, or other." Among the many thousands of bottles that have been sold in the past five years in St. Paul, of Dr. Halliday's Blood Purifier, it has not killed anyone yet, but has made cures by the hundreds and is endorsed by our best citizens. We say, stick to the Blood Purifier and you will live long and be happy, and let the quacks alone. This medicine is for sale by all Western druggists.

Fischbein Bros., Seven Corners, Has just received the largest invoice of Lace Ties and Fichus and Lawn Ties in the city. Ladies, don't fail to place them before you buy elsewhere.

Parasols. Parasols. By far the cheapest at the NEW YORK BARBER. I want one of those daisy lace bonnets. They only cost 50 cents at the New York Novelty Store, 39 West Third street.

Great reduction in prices, and all of the newest styles. Splendid assortment to select from at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's.

THE GLOBE HOROSCOPE. As it Casts its Light on the Chicago Markets. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, May 21.—Cables higher. Weather cool and pleasant. Wheat active and advanced, the shorts buying freely and forcing up prices. At the close prices declined about half a cent a bushel, on some selling to break the market purposefully. There is some "deal" under way, and we may look for some reactions, but prices are tending up, and a lively deal is to be expected. From the present outlook it is not safe to be on the short side. Corn less active but in good demand at the decline. Oats quiet and steady.

Provisions quiet, with a small business in pork, but lard in good demand and firm. Curb prices: June wheat $1.05; corn 42c; oats 30c; pork 11c.50; lard $1.60.

AMUSEMENT NOTES. The Emma Abbott Opera company closed their season at Scranton, Pa., last week. Mrs. Scott-Siddons, Dion Boucicault and his son, sailed for Europe on the Arizona last week. Percy J. J. Cooper, primo tenor, has signed a three years' contract with the Emma Abbott Opera company. John A. Stevens has signed a contract with Annie Pixley, to write her a play for next season. The price will be $5,000.

Brooks and Dickson will manage Fanny Davenport's business next season, and have signed a contract by which she will play under them. Adeline Patil, it is announced, has been engaged for a series of concerts in this country next season by D'Oyly Carte and Michael Gunn. C. J. Whitney, of Detroit, Mich., has purchased from A. M. Palmer the right to produce Felicia. Boston Baylye will star in the play next season under his management.

Fred. Vokes received a cable dispatch on Monday, stating that his little boy, aged 4, died on Sunday last in London. He fears to break the news to his wife, who is quite ill in New York. Bernhardt wrote in a Niagara album: "How good God is to have created each beautiful thing! With exclamation signed, Sara Bernhardt." The Lord was overwhelmed with blushes when he read the compliment.

Gran and his French opera have "caught on" in the extreme South. Havana has been a great success; in Mexico all has been serene; and now the impresario is to start touring South America, beginning at Rio Janeiro. Samuel Oulville, who purchased the American right to Michael Strogoff from French & Son, found that he had to purchase the London version also to protect his title. He now contemplates suing French for half the purchase money of the original French play.

The New York Dramatic News says: The Strakosch Grand English Opera company returned to town last Friday, after a prosperous tour in the Northwest. The money that was left over from the tour was used to purchase the losses that were suffered when Marie Kozze belonged to the company. Strakosch and Hess, however, will both of them come out well on the season through their Olivette company, which is making money fast.

Coming Events in St. Paul. The Roland Reed and Alice Hastings combination will play a brief engagement in this city next Friday and Saturday evenings. Both of the above are superior artists and they are supported by a good company. Mr. Reed has earned the reputation of being one of the best comedians in the country. Claverly's Grand Opera, fresh from their European tour, is announced to appear at the Opera house on the 29th and 31st of June. They will enjoy success.

Artistic circles of St. Paul are promised a rare treat in the coming of Remenyi, the violinist who has just returned from the Opera house on the evening of the 4th of June. In the appearance of the emotional actress, Rose Wood, who is announced at the Opera house for the 6th and 7th of June, St. Paul patrons of the drama are promised some of the best acting of the season. Her favorite characters, "Camille" and "Miss Maltree." Miss Wood will be supported by Lewis Morrison, Forrest Robinson, Russell Bassett, John Lane, Harry Wood, Ella Wren, Eugenie Blair, Miss Mosher and Oza Masoy.

"Olivette" and "Billie Taylor." The fifth Avenue Opera company is to open its St. Paul engagement to-morrow evening with the charmingly bright opera of "Olivette," which is the greatest success of the year, and will follow with "Billie Taylor." Of the latter, as produced by this company at Milwaukee, the Republicans of that city say: "The opera is in itself charming. The music is light, but even the cultured musician finds in it a degree of originality that equals any of the recent successes of like character. It was well selected, Messrs. Henri Laurent, and James Sturges and the Misses Hattie Richardson and Genevieve Reynolds sharing the plaudits of the audience."

Of this company's presentation of "Olivette" the same paper said: "One of the most entertaining comic operettas ever given in Milwaukee, was the Fifth Avenue Opera company's rendition of Olivette at the Academy of Music last evening. Although the audience was not large, it brought forth a splendid assemblage gathered in Milwaukee in a long time. The operetta is delightful, and has created a furore at the East equalled only by the rage over Paris. The singers were all equal to their parts, and the performance could hardly have been better."

ALL ABOUT THE GLOBE. Two million copies of the revised New Testament have already been sold in London. Battery A, St. Louis, took the third prize in the artillery drill at New Orleans Saturday. At Buffalo Saturday the Conklingites fired one of the most brilliant displays of the formation of Gould to be collector of that port. Over 20,000 people joined Saturday at Augusta, Ga., in celebrating the centennial of the capture of Fort Mifflin from the British by the Americans under Gen. Henry Lee. A Washington special says a gentleman from Mexico says ex-President Grant will not receive the concessions he desires for his latest railroad enterprise, and that he is coming home discouraged.

The Cincinnati police Saturday upon telegraphic instructions from Pittsburgh, arrested George Rose and Frank Shaver, respectively 14 and 13 years, who had fled together from Coulterville, Pa., as they said, to better their conditions. The girl had obtained work. The boy had not. A special from Atlanta, Ga., says: Nearly all the children have been withdrawn from the schools here on account of an epidemic which began by carrying off Mr. Perkins, wife and three children in thirty-six hours. Eighteen physicians declare it is scarlet fever, and one says it is yellow fever.

About 9:30 o'clock last night fire was discovered coming from a frame house situated on the lot in the Sixth ward. The house was tipped over the street, and was owned by Mr. Lewis, and was unoccupied. The department was called out by an alarm from box No. 17, but the blaze was hardly won by powder. The loss is not definitely known, but is not considered heavy.

Children's Dresses Made in Cambric, Gingham, Linen, Lawn and Paris Muslin, to suit all ages. NEW YORK BARBER. F. T. Williams, J. C. Shandrew, E. T. Metcalf, W. S. Shank, A. E. McGill, R. O. Strong, C. O. Miles, James Cullen, John M. Berry, W. T. Donaldson, Stanford Newell, C. G. Gilbert, Edward S. Ross, W. F. Mason, D. Kameley, R. F. Lewis, M. D. Flowers, J. H. Sturges, H. J. Sturges, David Day, H. L. Williams, W. R. Marshall, D. L. Lambie, A. Winters, W. T. Donaldson, Miss Devers, Geo. R. Martin, Chas. Shandrew.

SOCIAL GOSSIP. Last night Sheriff Richter wore in nine deputes, to perform special duty at Union Park. The Knights of St. Paul will drill to-morrow evening at their hall, Seventh and Jackson streets.

On account of cleaning water mains the water will be shut off from the city to-day from 3 to 5 o'clock P. M. "Kavanaugh's Column" occupies two columns on the eighth page of the Sunday Globe, and is interesting reading. John Falon was arraigned before Judge Wilkin yesterday to plead to an indictment for perjury. He entered a plea of not guilty.

The case against the two festive youths who stole a buggy ride a few evenings since, was dismissed yesterday for want of presentation. The case of George Henry, charged with fraying with a colored pussan named Caldonia McCadden, will be heard on the 24th inst. Sheriff Eckstrom, of Litchfield, arrived in St. Paul last night, having in charge an insane man, who is to be taken to the insane hospital at St. Peter.

John Marslitt, who was committed a couple of weeks ago for insulting a lady while drunk, on Seventh street, paid $25 yesterday, and was released from duress. P. T. Kavanaugh sold yesterday afternoon auction, a house had five acres on the Little Canada road, about two miles from the Merchants hotel, for $3,100 cash. The case of the State against James Roach, the young man who forged an order for a horse and buggy, under pretense that he was going to a funeral, was dismissed yesterday, as no one appeared to prosecute.

The only case of pure and simple drunkenness before the honor court yesterday was that of James Casey, whose love for the roscote got away with both his legs and his judgment. He wanted to sober up and was sent to the roof for five days. The ukase has gone forth, and the shuffles purp will have to go. Yesterday Mayor Dawson appointed Mr. Phillip Steiner and Mr. H. R. Haro to the position of dog catcher for the corporation of St. Paul. The grand descent will commence next week. An incorrect announcement has been made in one of the city papers, that the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, A. F. & A. M. would meet in St. Paul this afternoon. It is the Grand Comandant who is to meet on that date, and in Stillwater, not in St. Paul.

Matilda J. Prettie commented suit in the district court yesterday against Wm. Dowlan. It alleged that on the 7th inst. defendant seized and carried away her furniture and household goods and that he was unjustified in so doing. Plaintiff asks for the return of the goods and for $200 damages. Mayor Dawson issued his fiat yesterday in the case of Officer Gruber, and the result is that the officer will be requested to hand in his resignation. The unfortunate affair which resulted in this case took place on the 7th inst., when Officer Gruber resented an insult on his maternity by hitting a man named McDowell with an oak log.

Friday night a boy named Adam Fisher was arrested on Third street, for drunkenness and reckless driving. Upon sobering up he gave $5.75 for his appearance in the morning, and was released. Yesterday he failed to show up, and upon representation that he would be taken care of in the future, the bail was forfeited, and the matter dismissed. When the name of Chas. Palmer was called at the police court yesterday, that elegant gentleman failed to show up. He is a Minneapolis snooter who does the lace work for the best tailors of that province, and he was arrested Friday night for driving a plug over the sidewalk. He put up $15 for his appearance and the money was forfeited.

The St. Paul Rifle club will on Sunday, May 29th, hold its first annual opening at their newly arranged park on Dayton's Bluff. In connection with this festival there will be a prize shooting, the best shot to be crowned "The Shooting King." The Great Union band will furnish delightful music. Those attending will be sure of a pleasant time. An action for $300 damages was commenced in the district court yesterday by M. J. Cummings. The suit is the result of a row which took place in plaintiff's place on Sunday, the 9th inst. It is alleged that defendant, in a fit of anger, unlawfully and without cause maliciously struck plaintiff's saleroom, broke and destroyed his furniture, tore his clothing, and otherwise offended him.

Although only a boy, Martin Gaus represents the utmost limit of human depravity. The young fellow was arrested yesterday on complaint of his aged mother, who charged him with beating and abusing her. When brought before the court, the brazen fellow was defiant. The police had seen that the culprit struck with a shovel, and had a great deal of water over her. Judge Burr administered a severe rebuke to the rascal, and he was sent up for sixty days. A daughter of Mr. J. Clark was attacked and severely bitten by a vicious dog on Thirteenth street yesterday afternoon. An order was obtained for the killing of the dog, but the lady owning him secreted the brute and declared that she was "too nervous" to have him killed. The police had seen that the vicious dog is killed immediately before more mischief is done, and arrest the owner if the animal is not produced. It is about time the public should have some protection from savage dogs.

Friday night a man giving the name of G. B. Carter, claiming to be a business man at Shakopee, lashed up on bad benzine and went to sleep in Simon's saloon, on West Third street. While sleeping he was held up by a hood named Ben. Warner, who sawed him for a watch and chain. The business man who was caught in such bad company squealed, and Warner was arrested. The latter turned up the rig and he was arraigned yesterday on the charge of larceny. He pleaded guilty and was sent up for ninety days. Frank Pierce, proprietor of the rendering establishment, on Seventh, near Robert street, was arraigned at the police court, yesterday charged with maintaining a nuisance. Mr. Meyerding stated that the place gave rise to villainous compounds, which smelled to heaven, and that the noisiness of the neighborhood were greatly offended thereby. The neighbors were in arms, and something must be done. He was fined $100, and sentence was suspended for a week, by which time he intended to move out.

A painful accident occurred on Fourth street about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, resulting in quite serious injuries to a lad named John Flaherty, the eight year old son of ex-officer Flaherty. At the hour named the rig and he was arraigned yesterday on the charge of larceny. He pleaded guilty and was sent up for ninety days. Frank Pierce, proprietor of the rendering establishment, on Seventh, near Robert street, was arraigned at the police court, yesterday charged with maintaining a nuisance. Mr. Meyerding stated that the place gave rise to villainous compounds, which smelled to heaven, and that the noisiness of the neighborhood were greatly offended thereby. The neighbors were in arms, and something must be done. He was fined $100, and sentence was suspended for a week, by which time he intended to move out.

Kavanaugh advertises a big sale of hats and caps on the eighth page, and also several other important sales. Workingmen's heavy solid leather carmen made shoes at Schlick's Shoe Store, Best and cheapest in the city. Immense bargains in Linens, Lawns and Cambrics. Lower prices than ever offered before. At Lindeke, Ladd & Co's.

Washington News. Mrs. Garfield's Condition Hopeful—Reduced Breadstuffs Exports—Spanish-American Wins—A Question of Naturalization—Windman's Three and a Half-Increasing Bank Circulation—Excursion to Mt. Vernon, etc. WASHINGTON, May 21.—Mrs. Garfield's condition remains unchanged to-day. An, however, this is the alternate day upon which her fever is expected to be higher, the attending physicians consider her general improvement as a most hopeful symptom.

The total exports of breadstuffs in the ten months ending with April, 1881, were $225,155,871. In the same period in 1880, $238,844,877. At a meeting this afternoon of the Spanish-American Association, held at the Commodore Hotel, under the presidency of Gen. Wm. M. Macias, a naturalized citizen of the United States, who claimed from the Spanish government damages to the amount of $100,000, and interest, for losses caused by the seizure of his plantation near Matanzas in 1867. His United States citizenship was admitted, as were the general facts of the case, the plantation having been seized under misapprehension as to its ownership. The arbitrators having failed to agree upon the amount the case was submitted to Gen. Macias, who rendered a decision to-day awarding the claimant, principal and interest, amounting to $225,000. The latter of Durant upon the arbitrators' questions, raised in a former decision, will be submitted to Gen. Macias on Monday, when it is understood it will be made public.

At close of business to-day notices had been received at the treasury department for continuing $200,470,000 of the 5 per cent bonds. In most instances the bonds are already received at the department. It is thought the limit of $200,000,000 registered $5 which can be converted into 3 1/2 per cent will be reached Monday next. Quite a large number of telegrams were received at the treasury department to-day inquiring if 6 per cent bonds would be accepted for conversion into 3 1/2 per cent if forwarded to-day. The following reply was telegraphed in each instance: "Discontinue the conversion of the 5 per cent bonds into 3 1/2 per cent bonds for continuance has expired and the request cannot be granted. (Signed) Wm. Windom." President Garfield received Saturday morning a telegram from the commodore from Boston and New York, and the Secretary of the Treasury will have been extended. The national bank circulation is higher to-day than ever before and is steadily rising. It is nearly three hundred and sixty-three millions. Gold and note circulation remains about where it is, because the law limits the circulation of a bank to $50,000. Otherwise it would increase. It is understood that an attempt will be made next session to extend the circulation limit, so that a bank in California can issue the gold certificates as it does here, despite the fact that the national circulation and the demand for new notes still continues. New England is most clamorous. Investigation of the charges affecting the official integrity of Col. J. P. Barnside, discharged from the post office department, resulted in his complete exoneration. At a meeting this evening, largely attended by prominent citizens, and those actively interested in beneficent organizations, a constitution was adopted as the basis of an organization to be known as the "Red Cross Society." Judge Wm. Lawrence presided. Miss Clara Barton, prominently identified with sanitary and hospital work during the civil war and conspicuous during the Franco-Prussian war, was one of the red cross representatives, and read a paper showing the scope and efficiency of the Red Cross societies in countries where the order is recognized by government and accorded the powers and privileges which are asked for it in the United States. Several of the cabinet officers and many of the highest army officers are very warm supporters of the cause. Notably, secretaries Blaine, Windom and Lincoln; generals Sherman, Grant, Sheridan, Townsend, Ruckey and assistant surgeon general Crane.
