SOCIETY SEASONING.

The Shimmering Glimmerings Which Flit Through Summer Skies.

If any of the dear people who have taken the necessary degrees to entitle them to rank in the "first circles" of society, started out at the beginning of the week with the intention of cutting a figure in their particular set, it is safe to bet that he or she got badly left.

The circumstances have been such as to take the starch out of the most robust ardor. About the only thing on deck to any considerable extent has been the weather.

These, together with the advent of the fiend who plays the concertina, and appeals for the seldom nickel, by telling a bleeding picture of how he was made finer than canary-seed by the too preliminary blowing up of a powder magazine, have conspired to make life fairly tolerable.

While speaking of dampness, there was no intention to ignore the presence of the soda water season. This most exhilarating beverage again takes its place in the foremost rank of ameliorating the ills of civilization.

The annual regatta of the Minnesota boat club will take place on the Fourth of July.

Mr. George Decker, son of Adam Decker, will leave to-morrow for a visit to his relatives in St. Louis and New York.

Mr. George Bayless, editor of the Morning News, Ruby Hills, Nevada, is in the city visiting his relatives, John Q. A. Ward and Benj. F. Irvine.

Mrs. Kissner, of the Sherman house, Fargo, accompanied by Mrs. O'Neil, of that city, have been spending the past week among relatives in the city.

Yesterday Miss Rose Hart celebrated the anniversary of her birthday, by entertaining a few friends. She was the recipient of numerous congratulations for many returns of the day.

At the regular meeting of the Minnesota boat club, Friday night, the following applicants were admitted to membership: Tilden R. Selmes, Silas B. Walsh, John W. Cathcart, J. C. Mackubin, John J. O'Leary, Jr., J. P. Elmer, John N. Speck.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hamm was celebrated at their residence on Greenbriar avenue, last Saturday evening. A host of friends were present, and the happy occasion was signalized by a number of rich and beautiful testimonials.

The series of promenade concerts to be given at White Bear lake the ensuing season, under the auspices of the Great Union band, will be inaugurated on the grounds of the Leif house next Thursday evening. A splendid programme has been arranged and a rich treat is anticipated.

Sheriff Richter and wife and Mrs. W. Weis, mother of Mrs. Richter, leave on the 3:40 train this afternoon for Burlington, Iowa, on a visit to relatives in that city. The sheriff will return in a few days, but the ladies will make an extended visit with their many friends in the Hawkeye City.

Mrs. Stone and Jones are to occupy the apartments to be vacated by Dr. Hagan. They have removed the partition and thrown the two entire offices on the floor into a magnificent reception room, at either end of which are situated the private consulting rooms. The offices are the finest in the State.

The Knights of St. Paul received yesterday their new uniforms, direct from the manufacturers in New York city. Father Shanley will address the Knights at their meeting to-morrow evening, in the hall of the society, corner Seventh and Jackson streets. The uniforms are gotten up in good style, and are very handsome.

UNHAPPY IRELAND.

EVICIONS ENFORCED BY POLICE AND SOLDIERY.

Arrests, Disturbances and Riots—A Sad Scene—The Base Uses to Which the Coldstream Guards Have Come—Boyton to President Garfield Not to Ask a Favor for Him From the British Government—The London Times Denounces Archbishop Crooke and Mr. Parnell, and Calls for Enforcement of the Laws.

IRELAND. SAD SIGHTS AT EVICTIONS. LIMERICK, Ireland, June 4.—It is a sight to watch evictions carried on with assistance of her majesty's troops.

The Coldstream guards and police proceeded to the next tenement to be evicted, and as these magnificent soldiers, the flower of her majesty's troops, filed down to the little cabin, one could not resist calling to mind their exploits in England's greatest wars, and comparing them with their present service.

THE TIMES THUNDER. LONDON, June 4.—The Times editorially arraigns the leaders of the Land League and their abettors, including Archbishop Crooke and Parnell, as having conspired to defy the law.

WHAT THE "TIMES" SAYS. The Times, in its leading article, says: We have only to consider the condition of Ireland and the temper of the Irish peasantry on the one hand, and such speeches as those of Archbishop Crooke at Holy Cross and Parnell yesterday on the other, to satisfy ourselves of the complicity of the Land League leaders and abettors with what is now nothing more nor less than a conspiracy to defy the law.

AN ARREST AND RIOTS. O'Mahony, prominent member of the land league, has been arrested under the coercion act. In spite of a large force of armed constabulary the people twice succeeded in rescuing him.

THE FRENCH CANADIAN HOLIDAY IN ST. PAUL. All French societies which have as yet made no other appointment, and French citizens generally, of St. Paul, are hereby respectfully invited to participate with the society "St. Jean Baptiste" of St. Louis parish, in the forthcoming holiday on the 24th instant.

A varied and interesting programme for the day's amusement, as well as for the evening entertainment, has been prepared. After the usual religious inauguration of the fete, and a short march, terminating at the seven corners, there will be a general rendezvous at Schades' Gardens on Fort street, where the afternoon will be spent in divers amusements.

RIOT AT CORK. A serious riot occurred at Cork last evening, and the houses in two streets were completely wrecked.

THE CORNELL CREW. Popular feeling seems entirely in favor of admitting the Cornell crew to the Henley regatta, while the United States Minister to Berlin and other influential men are taking much interest in the matter.

BOYTON TO GARFIELD. LONDON, June 4.—The following message has been telegraphed President Garfield by Boyton from Kilmain prison: "I hope the American government will never submit me or the honor of the republic I fought to maintain to the degradation of an appeal to the benevolence of the coward British government, by extending to my countrymen common justice."

POOR HARVEST PROSPECTS. LONDON, June 4.—Crops in general are excessively backward. A large proportion of the grain crops are deficient in plants. The prospect is for a late and not very prolific harvest, while there will be an inferior hay crop and a moderate grazing season.

ENGLAND. LONDON, June 4.—Crops in general are excessively backward. A large proportion of the grain crops are deficient in plants. The prospect is for a late and not very prolific harvest, while there will be an inferior hay crop and a moderate grazing season.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRATS.

They Set a Good Example by Organizing a Permanent Political Club.

Last fall it was openly acknowledged that the First Ward Democratic club was one of the best and most thoroughly organized political clubs in the city. The Democrats of the First ward have always been progressive and alive to their duty.

On Friday evening some fifteen of the active Democrats of the ward met at the Merchants for the purpose of organizing a permanent club in their ward, having already previously had several preliminary meetings. A constitution, which had been prepared by one of their number, was read and adopted as read. They then proceeded to the election of officers, who are elected yearly, which resulted as follows:

President—Col. Wm. Crooks. Secretary—Edward J. Schurmeier. First Vice President—Col. A. A. Allen. Second Vice President—J. W. Liedman. Treasurer—J. H. Reaney.

The aforementioned officers also constitute the executive committee. They have also provided for a membership and canvassing committee, which has not yet been selected by the executive committee, which was instructed to make the appointments. The executive committee was also instructed to secure a hall for their future meetings, and as soon as the same has been secured the members and other Democrats of the ward will be notified of the same through the secretary.

It is to be hoped that the Democrats of the other wards will also begin to organize permanent ward clubs. The system and plans of the Democrats of the First Ward, as well as the city of St. Paul, are accepted and acted upon by the Democracy of St. Paul, the most efficient organization they have ever had.

GRUNHAGEN & FREY.

A New and Enterprising Business House in St. Paul.

Mr. Henry Grunhagen has for a number of years been engaged in the manufacture of cigars in St. Paul, and has won an enviable business reputation. Mr. Grunhagen is an active and enterprising young gentleman, has now become associated with him under the firm name of Grunhagen & Frey.

The new firm combines ability, integrity and capital, three qualifications which ensure success. This house will begin business to-morrow, and in addition to being extensive manufacturers of cigars will deal in tobacco generally. They are located at No. 175 East Seventh street, and are preparing to increase the large business already established. The famous "Minnesota Star Cigars" will continue to be a feature of their trade.

Those who deal with this house have the satisfaction of knowing they will be honorably treated. They propose, withal, to meet all requirements of the trade, and will give as close figures as the market will permit. The cigar and tobacco trade, as well as the city of St. Paul, are to be congratulated upon the advent of this firm.

How Men Will Come Down. [Volkzeitung, June 3.] "There are many ups and downs in this world," as the Americans say. The saying is a true one, withal. Every day can be seen men who have stood high before their fellow men in the world, suddenly "come down." This might fill us with sadness and despair, did we not know that those having "come down" often feel the more comfortable for their "come down." Take, for instance, our fellow-citizen, Sergeant Stiefel. He did not adhere to the old maxim—"Shoemaker, stick to your last," but he had to "come down" in the upper part of town, into very airy apartments, as a dispenser of Beer and Wines. Gen. Hancock made the sergeant's domicile his headquarters, while in command of this military department, and when he (Hancock) was ordered to other quarters, Stiefel "went down"—down town, to Robert street. There success attended him, and the shiekels dropped from his coffers to such a degree that it was more than he was able to stand, and he was forced to get lower down—to Jackson street. Here in a short time he found things too colored "too blue" for him. Society there was "too airy" for him. He did not feel at home there. He went further down; and now, at last, he is way down on the corner of Fourth and Wacouta streets, where now the passer-by can hear his voice emerge from the basement of Schutte's block, singing: "In the cool, cool cellar I'm sitting, etc., etc."

And here his numerous old friends should visit him—visit him often, and console him in his lamentations. Ironically speaking, that is the way a man "will come down."

Four trains daily to Minnetonka. Woman's Wisdom. "She insists that it is more importance, that her family shall be kept in full health, than that she should have all the fashionable dresses and styles of the times. She therefore sees it, that each member of her family is supplied with enough Hop Bitters, at the first appearance of any symptoms of ill health, to prevent a fit of sickness with its attendant expense, care and anxiety. All women should exercise their wisdom in this way."—New Haven Palladium.
