James Colter was arraigned at the police court yesterday charged with procuring goods from P. H. Kelly & Co. upon false representations. The hearing was continued until next Wednesday.

Joseph McDonald was before his honor yesterday for having drunk to the verge of the jim-jams. He was arrested by Officer O'Gorman of one of the new coppers, and went to the bastille for five days. During Friday night burglars entered the store of McCarthy & Ver Planck, on Jackson near Sixth street, and carried away about 1,500 cigars. They secured entrance by means of a rear window which was easily opened.

A drunken hoodlum was put under arrest by Officers Keady and Galvin last night for raising a disturbance at the Jackson street depot. He resisted arrest and was finally locked up with the aid of three men and a hack. Capt. John H. Reaney, agent of the St. Louis & St. Paul steamboat line, will run two boats between St. Paul and Red Rock every Monday to-day, a boat leaving every hour at 9 a. m. and continuing until after the night services. The Glencoe accommodation train on the Hastings & Dakota road, arriving here at 10:30 a. m., and leaving at 3 p. m., will enable the people of Glencoe and intermediate points to visit St. Paul, with over four hours in the city, and return home the same day.
