

CITY GLOBULES.

Frank Mantor, sentenced yesterday, will be taken to Stillwater to-day.

Gen. Flower was engaged yesterday in inspecting the boilers of the government steamer Emily.

Sheriff Richter will leave for St. Peter this afternoon, having in charge the insane girl, Matilda Bowers.

Associate Judge O'Brien celebrated his twenty-eighth birthday last night by entertaining a few friends.

The familiar face of Dr. H. W. Robinson was seen on our streets yesterday, the first time since his serious illness.

The case of the United States against Geo. Dempsey and John Peaters was resumed before Judge Cardozo yesterday. It is still on trial.

Adjutant General Van Cleave yesterday received notice of the allowance of invalid pension at $8 per month, amounting up to the present time to $1,572.80.

A warrant was issued yesterday afternoon for the arrest of Mrs. Schnell and Victoria Smith, charged with disorderly conduct, on complaint of Mrs. Eichhorn.

All old soldiers should bear in mind that an adjourned meeting will be held at the old court house Friday evening, to complete the organization of a post of the Grand Army of the Republic.

About 11 o'clock last night Officer Larson arrested the most prodigious drunk of the season. He weighed about 300 pounds, and it took a hack and a half dozen men to land him in the cooler.

Daniel Mahoney, the dog catcher, was bitten in the right hand yesterday afternoon while in the act of collaring a cur on Cedar street. A painful wound was inflicted, and the hand will be disabled for several days.

Capt. M. E. Gray, of West St. Paul, met with quite a loss yesterday in the destruction by fire at Pine City of the steamer May Queen. The boat was formerly on White River Lake, but for two seasons past has been running on Snake river.

At a meeting of the trustees of Oakland Cemetery association held yesterday the officers of the association were re-elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Gen. H. H. Sibley; secretary, Richard Martin; actuary, Morris Lanpher.

George Yoerg, whose wife died from the supposed effects of a brutal beating administered by his hands, or rather feet, was arraigned at the police court yesterday charged with murder in the second degree. The hearing was continued until Monday and he was committed without bail.

As the court remarked, H. H. Adams and A. Halverson might have found better business than prowling around on the hill after midnight. Officer McFadden ran across them, and the second time he halted them to the cooler, as they refused to give an account of themselves. They were fined $25 or thirty days and sentence was suspended.

A deed was filed in the register's office yesterday recording the sale of the east 30 acres of the southwest quarter of section 26, and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of the same section, sold by W. R. Marshall and wife to E. W. Winter for $15,000. The land is near the Catholic cemetery and southwest of the Como road.

The case against John Londerdale and two others, charged with unmercifully beating a man named Welch in the Sixth ward, on the 4th of July, was called for hearing yesterday morning. Another postponement was asked for and the hearing was continued until next Wednesday. It is reported that the parties are trying to "make" with Welch.

A short session of the district court was held yesterday morning, the object being to pass sentence on Frank Mantor, convicted of the larceny of valuable papers from the safe at Schack's grocery store, on Seventh street. Mr. S. L. Pierce, counsel for defendant, made a few remarks, after which the prisoner was sentenced to a year and three months in the State penitentiary.

Hattie McBride was arrested yesterday morning on complaint of Aid. J. C. McCarthy, charged with disposing of mortgaged property. The defendant gave a mortgage to secure a note for $300, and being under the impression that the note had been paid, she disposed of the property. The hearing was called in the police court yesterday afternoon, and after explanations and a satisfactory settlement of the case was dismissed.

Wm. Hicks is a gentle looking fellow, but he will have to turn down the brakes or his appetite for rum will get away with him. Last week he was found lying asleep on the edge of the bridge, and he was arrested again yesterday morning. He was drunk and had invited the officer to take a beer. Strunk and he may seem they took a walk to the tower. The case gave him a lecture yesterday and sentence was suspended.

The case of E. M. Johnson, the former errand boy at the Drum Major's resort, charged with the larceny of $60 from a drunken stranger, named D. M. Jones, came up in the police court yesterday afternoon. Mr. Egan stated that he had investigated the case and that there was no evidence to substantiate the charge. As to the new clothing purchased by Johnson he had information that in a streak of drunken liberality Jones had given the boy $30. The case was dismissed.

Miss Magdalene Presley, a very devout Catholic woman, of about 50 years, who recently died in Wyandotte, Kansas, and was buried at St. Louis by the Sisters of the Convent of St. Mary's, with whom she formerly lived, left about $3,000 in cash and some other small property, divided in bequests, mostly to religious societies and for religious purposes. Somewhat of a sensation was made in St. Louis over her being buried, as was alleged, without either the knowledge or attendance of her two sisters, residing in that city, and the two sisters and brother, residing in St. Paul, may contest the will.

Sweet Willie we have missed you, was the plaintive cry of a little woman with eddies of car around her large blue eyes, while the burden was echoed from a half dozen brown throated children, more or less. And all night long while the weary woman watched for the coming of her husband, the wretched man was pounding the hard floor of a cell at the city hall. His name is Peterson and he came into court yesterday morning with a sore head and a regretful look, bearing in his hand a dinner pail. On his way home Tuesday night he met the prudent and poor Peterson took a bowl to many which sent his brain reeling and his heels into the air. He is a hard working man and the judge let him go.

THE NEW WORKHOUSE.

The Commission Visit Com. and Make the Location--Plans of the Building. Messrs. Peter Berkey, Mark Costello, J. C. Richardson, Gen. Johnson and City Attorney Murray, of the board of directors of the work house, visited the Park grounds last evening to determine upon the exact location of the building. After a thorough examination of the entire southeast quarter of the park was decided to erect the buildings near the north-east corner of the said forty acre tract. It is designed to erect a building 50x150, enclosing 102 cells for the safe keeping of the convicts. The contract for the work will be let at once, and will be pushed forward with all possible dispatch. It is confidently expected to have the improvements sufficiently far advanced to accommodate all persons sentenced to labor therein by October 15, thus giving the inmates an opportunity to earn their bread by the sweat of their manly brows.

The buildings will have a view of Lake Como, and will be surrounded by a grove of young and thrifty timber. The present appropriation will not be more than sufficient to erect the buildings, but for some time the inmates can be used in cleaning up the grounds and the cultivation of vegetables for their own use. Additional appropriations will be required for the purchase of mason work. The main building, as before remarked, is to be three stories high. The cells will be constructed in three tiers, and will extend to the floor of the third story, where they will be finished off for a work-room. The offices will be in one end of the main building, and over the offices will be provided quarters for the officers of the establishment. This arrangement will be temporary, as it is the design to erect, in time, suitable accommodations for the officers and quarters outside of the main building.

There seems to be great interest taken in this matter by every member of the board, and no unnecessary delay will occur in pushing forward to completion this indispensable public necessity. In all the large cities the work-houses have proven to be self-sustaining in a short time, and we have every reason to believe that ours will prove to be not only self-sustaining, but a source of revenue to the city.

A Fishing Party at Lake Osakis.

Col. Cal Ulme and family returned Tuesday from a short visit to Lake Osakis, in Douglas county. The colonel pronounces the fishing there to be extraordinarily good, and tells a story of his own success in hauling in big fish, which is omitted out of regard to his reputation for veracity. At the lake Col. Ulme found a Chicago party composed of Theodore Lanning, Lee McFarland, Dr. J. M. Davis, S. A. Veider, A. Heald and Albert G. Burr. They call their nicely located and well appointed camp "Camp Illinois," and are having lots of fun and catching all the fish they want every day.
