THE WEEKLY GLOBE. The Weekly Globe is a mammoth sheet, neatly bound in the size of the daily.

ST. PAUL, SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1881. THE SUFFRAGE AT WASHINGTON. Yesterday brought no marked change in the President's condition.

It is now more than probable that Garfield will be completing his forty-five days' fast, and will recover from its effects.

None of Guitau's relatives have a good word to say about him. Some pronounce him crazy, others irredeemably vicious.

THE ASSASSIN. The county auditor has just completed the compilation of the returns from the deputy county assessors.

GRAIN, VEGETABLES AND HAY. Wheat, 3,212 37,081 6,506. Corn, 1,231 55,900 1,400.

ACREAGE PLANTED IN 1881. Wheat, 9,002. Oats, 2,559. Corn, 1,758.

Form of Tax Duplicates. Under an act of the legislature of 1878, State Auditor Whitcomb is preparing a form upon which to make out tax lists.

A Wicked and Maudlin Hoax. Shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon some senseless or mendacious person set afloat the statement that a dispatch had arrived in the city announcing the fact that the President was dying.

John Chinaman in Victoria. San Francisco, July 8.—Victoria dispatch. The Chinese merchants publish a card in which they announce their intention of appealing to the courts to restrain the government in the imposition of import taxes.

Prayers for the President. Right Rev. Bishop Grace has issued the following to the clergymen in this diocese: OFFICIAL.

Some sensational correspondents assert that Conkling is surrounded by a large corps of private detectives, and are ready all who approach him, and are shadow all his movements.

RAIL, RIVER AND LAKE.

General Washburn's New Minnetonka Steamer—Big Passenger Business City—The Commodore Davidson's Gem City—The Grantsburg Branch—Elmo Weighing Station—The Hudson Fire-Excursions—Chromos—Picturesque St. Croix—Runners About Northern Pacific Land Department—Personal and Local Notes—Duluth Port List, Etc.

The House of Hope yesterday school excursion to White Bear yesterday, included over three hundred persons.

Danz's band, of Minneapolis, is to give a concert and furnish dancing music at Leip's Pavilion, White Bear, this evening.

The Lumber line sent southwest from St. Paul, in the week ending with July 7, 1881, 2,728,700 feet.

Mr. A. E. Johnson, commissioner of emigration of the St. Paul & Manitoba company, returned yesterday from a visit to Chicago.

Mr. C. K. Barnes, general passenger and ticket agent of the Northern Pacific, returned to Chicago yesterday, intending to return Monday.

Breen & Young, contractors for the building of the Northern Pacific office building on Broadway, have begun to lay the footings for the walls.

Seventy-nine immigrants left St. Paul yesterday morning, by the St. Paul & Manitoba train, for Alexander, Willmar, Litchfield, and other points.

Arrangements are pending for bringing a large excursion party from Stillwater to attend the State turfist at Union park a week from to-morrow.

The Germania society of St. Paul is arranging for its annual concert and picnic festival at Lake Elmo, to take place probably two weeks from to-morrow.

Heavy rain in all the southwest country was reported to the C. St. P. & G. general offices Thursday night—enough to raise the streams and give the farmers more water than their crops need.

The weighing station of the Northwestern association, which was Hudson, has been removed to Elmo station, starting on Monday.

Minnesota Journalism. The Oskia Observer is a new paper, taking the place of the old "Oskia." It is an eight column folio, and has been brought out in fine style by Meyst & Pierce.

THE ASSASSIN. The county auditor has just completed the compilation of the returns from the deputy county assessors, giving the agricultural statement, showing the acreage cultivated, products grown, &c., for the year 1880, in the county of Ramsey, together with a certain amount of statistics on the same subjects for 1879.

THE HAPPY FAMILY.

How They Quarrel and Snaarl and Snap Over the Governorship. (Watons Journal.)

Gen. John T. Averill is mentioned as a good man for governor, and is a good man.

Reconcile 'Em. [Red Wing Argus.] If Gen. Hubbard will only promise to retain McGill and Pusey the Pioneer-Press will become reconciled.

In the Lead. [Chatfield Democrat.] Governor Pillsbury seems to be way ahead of all the little fellows who are clamoring for his place.

Calling for the Record. [St. Cloud Times.] It would be interesting to know how Charles Gilman has earned the governorship. Let us have a record of his eminent public services.

Followers of McGill. [Mankato Free Press.] A correspondent of the Pioneer Press, writing from Le Sueur, says the Minnesota valley swarms with followers of McGill for governor.

Not a Man for Governor. [Elk River Star.] Charles Gilman is a good enough fellow, so far as he goes; just as good as any of the politicians; but he is not the man for governor by any means.

An Editor Who Will Sell Himself for $12. [Sank Center Tribune.] The Tribune will support any man for governor who will promise to give us a fifth rate postoffice with special mail service, to be carried without expense to the government, the salary attached to the office not to exceed $12 per annum.

Not a Pathway of Roses. [Hastings Gazette.] Gen. L. F. Hibbard's candidacy for the nomination as governor is not proving altogether a pathway of roses by any means, but on the contrary serious defects are being pointed out by friends of other aspirants in rather a damaging manner.

Helping Him. [Winona Herald.] If the Pioneer Press will continue its abuse of General Hubbard until the meeting of the State convention, his chances for a nomination will be greatly improved, with a probability of being the successful candidate for governor before the Republican convention.

A Waiver. [Albert Lea Standard.] Gen. Hubbard is not an orator like Gov. Davis, nor a poet like Gen. Baker. We are not aware that he is distinguished in literature or science or the arts.

They Want Pillsbury. [Minnesota (Waseca) Leader.] According to the State fit for governor, and that is John Pillsbury. Notwithstanding Gen. Pillsbury has not been a candidate for re-election, yet the Pioneer-Press does not seem to believe him, but as such as though the governor was only making such declarations so that if he could not be elected to him, he would have a hole to crawl out.

The Pillsbury Game. [Red Wing Republican.] The movement for a fourth term for Governor Pillsbury is as certain but not as open as that of two years ago. In fact, he is not to be entered or acknowledged publicly as a candidate at all.

Honors are Easy. [St. Cloud Journalist.] Judging from the professions the preference would appear to lie between Gen. L. F. Hibbard, of Red Wing, and Col. A. P. McGill, the present State insurance commissioner.

Recapitulating Old Lies. [Hecker, (Renville Co.) Union.] The Pioneer Press is trying to represent that a settlement of differences between the State and the State prison contractors, made in 1878 by a board of arbitrators, was a success.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS. The Regular Meeting Yesterday—A Variety of Business Transacted. The board of public works met at their rooms yesterday afternoon, Mr. Terry in the chair.
