

W.M. WINDOM'S WORK.

THE SECRETARY DETERMINED THE WORLD SHALL APPRECIATE HIM. He prepares a schedule of the work he has done—A Missouri Congressman scandalized by his wife—He married a Washington boarding house keeper—Other gossip of the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—In view of the approaching end of Secretary Windom's administration of the treasury department, a statement was prepared by Chief Coons, of the loan division, to-day, showing in detail the amount of United States bonds redeemed and have ceased to bear interest since March 4, 1881, is as follows:

Act of March 2, 1861, rate 6 per cent; amount, $710,560. Act of July 17 and August 5, 1861, rate 6 per cent; amount, $1,742,700. Act of March 3, 1863, rate 6 per cent; amount, $6,758,115.

Act of July 14, 1870, and January 20, 1871, rate 5 per cent; amount, $67,817,350. United States bonds redeemed at 3 1/2 per cent; amount, $1,800,800. Total amount, $105,638,750; reduction in annual interest charge on 6 per cent bonds redeemed, $1,432,684; continued, $445,732; total, $1,878,416. On 5 per cent bonds redeemed, $3,393,857; continued, $6,023,549; total, $9,417,406. On 3 1/2 per cent bonds redeemed, $176,280; total, $105,739,750.

Of $150,639,750 of bonds which have been redeemed or ceased to bear interest, there are at this time still outstanding $3,457,150 of 5 per cent bonds embraced in the 104th call. Money for redemption of these bonds, however, is available, and the bonds will be paid upon presentation.

A SCANDAL. The fact that Hon. J. B. Clark, member of congress from the eleventh district of Missouri, had separated from his wife, became public to-night. About a year ago Clark married Mrs. O. J. Kelly, widow with three children. Reports say that the happiness of the family was not of long duration and for some time the wife has given way to bad company. Yesterday Mr. Clark left his home, leaving behind her a young girl, a fashionable boarding house on Fourteenth street. Gen. Clark boarded there and married her there. Several weeks ago it is said some of Clark's friends felt constrained to advise him to separate from his wife, and after satisfying himself that she had some bad associates he remonstrated with her. She did not mend her ways and he was forced to leave her. He will apply for a divorce.

COULD NOT GO. Owing to the continuance of the senate session longer than was expected, Senators Pendleton and Hoar have notified the projectors of the civil service meeting at Boston, that they will not be present at the meeting next Monday. It is probable that the meeting will be abandoned or prolonged, as Senator Hoar had been selected to preside. Important business, including cabinet nominations, is expected to come before the senate, and it is not willing to be absent, as it will know that none of the Democratic senators have consented to part with Mahone since he voted with the Republicans on the organization of the senate. They do not feel as belonging to any healthy political organization. A large number are now favoring the application of the same rule to David Davis.

A WOMAN'S BLUNDER. A number of coupon bonds were received at the treasury department for registry a few days ago. The numbers of the bonds were cut out. The treasury department did not want to make the mutilation of the bonds. They came from Chicago. A letter has been received by the department from the owner of the bonds in New York, who says he had written to his wife to Chicago to send the bonds to the treasury. She sent them to him and he sent them to New York. The devoted and obedient spouse carried out his instructions to the letter. She sent the bonds to the treasury, but first cut out the numbers and mailed them to her husband.

MINNEAPOLIS IRISHMEN.

They Hold an Enthusiastic Meeting—Ringling Resolutions Adopted—Speeches Denouncing the Pioneer Press and Tribune

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 18.—A large and intelligent audience of enthusiastic ladies and gentlemen filled the hall last night, and at 8 o'clock the joint meeting of the three Land Leagues of Minnesota was opened by Alexander Walsh, who expressed the sentiments of the Land Leagues of Minnesota upon the momentous question now before the Irish nation in their native Isle. He thought that the meeting was for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of the Land Leagues of Minnesota upon the momentous question now before the Irish nation in their native Isle. Resolved, That we earnestly urge our gallant countrymen to preserve the same bold, free and fearless spirit which has characterized them in the past, and to continue their agitation exactly on the same lines recommended by their leaders and representatives now in prison. We trust that they will never surrender to English brute force until the glorious system of land confiscation and the rights of the Irish people are secured. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Irish World, the Northwestern Chronicle and the Pioneer Press. We wish that introduced by Rev. Father James McLaughlin, who greeted with continued cheers and applause. When called upon to attend a meeting which should express indignation against England. He thought it would be labor for naught. He believed England had but acted in accordance with the established principles of the government. IRELAND'S AGITATION.

NO PERCEPTIBLE IMPROVEMENT IN THE SITUATION THERE.

Further Arrests Made and More Expected—The Land League Executive Issues a Manifesto—Riots in Dublin and Limerick—More Policemen Around Gladstone's Residence.

IRELAND. THE SITUATION AT LIMERICK. LIMERICK, Oct. 18.—The Twentieth regiment has arrived here to strengthen the garrison. The authorities keep the telegraph office open all night for the transmission of military and police telegrams. GOLDWIN SMITH. Goldwin Smith writes: Native Americans are holding aloof from dynamite Land League movements. Americans wish justice done Ireland, but they expect parliament to do it.

THE DRIED APPLE OF CASEY COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WILL PRODUCE MORE MONEY THAN THE CORN crop this season. Two large and valuable elm trees at New Haven, Conn., the "City of Elms," have been killed by escaping gas. A Pennsylvania has leased ten thousand acres of land near Woodbury, Canton county, Tenn., and will bore for oil.

ANOTHER ARREST. Denison O'Carthy, poor law guardian and Land Leaguer, has been arrested at Dublin. NO ROOM FOR DIFFERENCE. LONDON, Oct. 18.—Corlingford, Liberal, who as Chichester Fortescue, was twice chief secretary for Ireland, speaking at Ladstock last evening, said there was no ground left for argument between the government and people on one side and the Land League and its leaders on the other; that the League leaders had unhappily chosen to carry the issue into the quiet different field of force. He trusted he believed there would be no armed insurrection in Ireland and that no excitement would compel armed force to shed blood; but still the methods of the League were such as could only be met by force in some shape.

THE FIFTY-SECOND REGIMENT. The Fifty-second regiment embarked for Ireland to-day. Women and other non-effectives remain in England as if the regiment were ordered into active service. A PROCLAMATION. DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—The Irish privy council has decided to proclaim Dublin city loyal. Citizens are warned to remain. THE MANIFESTO'S SIGNATURES. DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—The League's manifesto is signed by Parnell, Kettle, Davitt, Brennan, Dillon, Coxson and Egan. COUNCIL OF WAR. DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—A council of war has been formed headed by General Steele to consider the military situation in Ireland. It is contemplated to increase the foot guards three battalions. The second dragoon guards will be retained at Londonderry.

THE LAND LEAGUE. The Land League to-day held the last public meeting for the present. Rev. Mr. Conwell presided. There was a crowded attendance, including T. D. Sullivan, J. G. Biggar and Edmund L. Corney, members of parliament. The secretary took occasion to announce that the week's receipts amounted to $2,373 of which $1,764 were from America. He read a long manifesto. The announcement that the League is now unable to present a list of names for the new land courts and that there is only one constitutional weapon which the League has previously fretted to use. The executive advised no more until their leaders are released. The chairman said the present was the time for acting not for speaking. Leaders might be arrested but the priesthood remained quiet like the people. He counselled passive resistance to the law.

A STRIKE AGAINST RENT. NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The following special cable is just received from the legal adviser of the Land League to Patrick Ford, Irish World, New York: "The executive of the Land League held a meeting at headquarters to-day. The rooms were packed. Intense enthusiasm prevailed. It was unanimously resolved to order a general strike against rent. This declaration was received with rapture after reading of the manifesto. The city is in a state of great excitement. The police are using every means to provoke outbreaks, but as yet they have failed. Forster, in reply to a note from the League, says that the manifesto, which states that the League has now instituted what he considered so long as he considered them necessary. Arrests are taking place hourly. It is the old story of the letters de cachet and habeas corpus. The police are strictly ordered to resist any resistance being offered to the Land League headquarters removed to Holyhead. It is in connection with the office here. It is expected that martial law will be proclaimed at once. Parnell has been arrested at Holyhead. He is a devoted physician it will probably recover."

THE QUESTION WHO SHALL ADMINISTER THE ESTATE OF THE late Mark Hopkins is before a San Francisco court. Mrs. Hopkins was lately removed as administrator. The public administrator asks for it. His application is opposed by the legal heirs. Moses Hopkins is presented for the position by Mrs. Hopkins, and he is opposed by Samuel F. Hopkins, an incompetent. The property is valued at $150,000. MINNESOTA NEWS. THE IRON ROOF OF THE boiler room of the insane hospital at Rochester is soon to be put in place. Three men in Le Sueur have manufactured this season 5,000 gallons of amber cane syrup. The average yield has been nearly 200 gallons to the acre, while occasional yield has been as high as 225 gallons to the acre. St. Cloud Journal-Press: For about a year a little daughter of Mr. Ed. Green, living on the east side of the river, had been suffering from what was supposed to be a cancer of the nose. An accidental remark led the child to say that it had thrust a burr, such as was growing in the yard, up the nostril. She was brought to this city, and Dr. Noble removed the obstruction, very much to the girl's relief. Austin Register, Oct. 13: On Friday last, October 7, we were presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, by Mr. John Matheson and colleagues, and for considerably longer than our brethren in America for our widows and orphans, for the homeless, starving and wounded victims of British bullets, bayonets and cold-blooded butchery. DUBLIN, Oct. 18.—A party of roughly Tuesday night paraded Sackville, Abbey, Earl and Henry streets, and smashed the windows of residences, a train of cars and the postoffice, pelted a statue of St. John Grey and broke through the Danes and Parnell streets. The police finally marched down Sackville street, and the mob dispersed. Damage estimated at $20,000. GLADSTONE. LONDON, Oct. 18.—The police force at Hawarden castle, Gladstone's residence, has been strengthened. It has been decided that if Gladstone's condition does not improve to summon medical aid. YORKTOWN.

Beginning of the Festivities Under Favorable Auspices—Laying the Corner Stone of the Monument—Speeches and Other Exercises.

YORKTOWN, Oct. 18.—There was a slight shower this morning, and the weather is cooler. Eight boats arrived between midnight and 8 o'clock this morning, bringing many troops and citizens. Among the former were detachments from Delaware, Michigan, Virginia and New Hampshire. At 10 o'clock salutes were fired from Gen. Hancock's camp. The steamer Excelsior, with the Yorktown congressional commission on board, arrived this morning and received salutes from Gen. Hancock's camp and the war vessels in the harbor. Shortly after the Dispatch and Tallapoosa have in sight and were saluted by the army and gunboats. Distinguished guests, including descendants of LaFayette and Steuben, the governors of states and congressmen began to arrive at LaFayette hall about 11 o'clock. General Hancock arrived at noon and paid his respects to the Governor of Virginia. The two passed some time in pleasant chat and then many persons were presented to the General and he warmly shook each by the hand. At about 12:30 o'clock President Arthur, accompanied by Secretaries Hunt, James and Lincoln, was driven to the entrance of LaFayette hall, and were received by the master of ceremonies. The President shook hands with distinguished persons present. A line was then formed and the party marched to the corner stone of the monument to lay the corner stone of the monument took place under the Masonic fraternity. The Masonic procession looked imposing with tylers with drawn swords, stewards, bearing white robes, master and wardens, and other officers. A brass band followed by visiting brethren and the grand commanders of Virginia, and other states. All these were but an escort to the president of the grand national convention, and were greeted with the salute of 21 guns. THE SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA, in a recent case, decides that hotels are responsible for losses sustained by guests from thieves, without regard to printed notifications. Mr. Shineberger, county school superintendent in Porter county, Ind., has been bounced. He shined up to the girls to frequent girls who were "a little off." Anna Dickinson has attached Fanny Davenport's wardrobe in a claim for royalty. Miss Davenport's course has "nothing to wear," but as she is handsome it does not make much difference. Conversation on a seaside hotel veranda between a young man and an elderly guest: Young Man—"I must have seen you somewhere, sir?" Elderly Gent—"Very likely; I am a pawnbroker."

THE MOST thoughtful man has been discovered in New Jersey. Just before he died he said to the undertaker: "When you put me on ice, do not waste any on my feet, they have already been frozen." Pedro Dominguez, who cut off his sweetheart's nose, at Los Angeles, in the exuberance of his affection, was sentenced to only one year at San Quentin. The papers consider it very light punishment. The people of Cleveland came out strong on the occasion of President Garfield's funeral, but the state at large manifests a thrifty disposition to let the outside world do the greater part of the providing for his family. Miss Annie Louise Cary is ill at the Tremont house in Boston, having caught a severe cold last week, and has been forbidden by her physician to sing a note at present. Consequently she has been compelled to cancel her concert engagements.

John Dunn, 40 years of age, of sandy complexion, wearing a mustache, and recently from Texas, was found dead one day last week in front of an opium den at Jefferson City, Mo. T. Immoderate indulgence in the pernicious drug was probably the cause of death. During the present season 47,414,000 pounds of salmon have been canned on the Pacific coast. The future of the business in that region depends largely upon the result of the season's foreign shipments, regarding which much interest and some natural anxiety are felt. The question now agitating Harvard is thus stated: "Shall the divinity school continue its reorganization on the principle of giving less relative prominence to the views of its instructors upon unimportant matters, and more to scholarship, ability, teaching power, and general manliness?"

Some time ago a valuable dog disappeared from Lower Hill, Placer county, Cal., and during forty-one days next ensuing the owner mourned his pet dead or stolen. At the conclusion of that long time the pup was found in an abandoned shaft, still alive, but starved almost to a shadow. With the constant care of a devoted physician it will probably recover. Belles of the Franklyn Expedition. LONDON, Oct. 18.—Capt. Adams of the whaler Arctic says he visited the scene of the loss of the Erebus and Terror of the Franklyn expedition. He found the house and store of provisions, near Franklyn monument, in a wretched condition. The Esquimaux gave some particulars which appear to throw some light on the lost survivors of the Franklyn expedition. After the loss of the ship, the men starved and died, hoping to reach Hudson's bay. Only three survived the journey to the house of the narrators. The father of one of these, supposed to be Lieut. Crozier, died first. The death of the others soon followed.

THE SCENE ON THE river front was an inspiring one. Men of war, steamers, tugs, yachts, sailing vessels, all decked with flags and streamers; salutes to coming dignitaries, gay uniforms, military, knight templars, etc., and the bands of the army and navy, all in troops landed and marched to their quarters, and crowds of people of all nationalities and conditions, who gathered on batteries and along the wharf, made the occasion, by far, the most memorable of the kind ever occurring in this state. A Gloomy Outlook for the Northwestern Farmers. MILWAUKEE, Oct. 18.—One of R. G. Dunn & Co.'s commercial agency reporters has just returned from an extended tour throughout the northwest, and has been very pessimistic relative to the general condition of farmers and country business men. He states that the unprecedented season of rains has done great damage. For over four weeks farmers have been unable to get their crops in, and the crops in stacks are much damaged. Potatoes and roots in fields are rotting in mud. Much corn in stacks has sprouted and is being eaten by insects. He believes that the failure of farmers to get products to market, etc., will prove disastrous to country merchants. Frazer, of Otter Tail county, Frank Bason, of Brown, and Horace W. Pratt, of Rice, were added to the committee. The committee resolved to inaugurate active measures for bringing out the Democratic vote. The executive committees were instructed to carry out certain details agreed upon.

THE CORNER'S INQUEST AND RE-ARREST OF JEFFERSON, HIS ASSAILANT. The inquest on the body of the late Louis Langtin, whose death occurred Monday morning from injuries received by a fall down the stairway leading to Chinn's gambling rooms, Robert street, on the night of Tuesday, the 11th, took place at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, at the residence of deceased, Bates avenue. The following gentlemen were sworn as jurors by Coroner Davenport: Alex. Johnston, John Davidson, J. W. Wood, S. Bochette, Jacob Ertle and T. G. Taylor. The latter gentleman was elected foreman. After viewing the body, which was neatly attired and placed in a neat coffin ready for burial, witnesses were sworn and examined as follows: Dr. Dorion testified to condition he found deceased in when called to see him Tuesday or Wednesday. His skull seemed to be fractured. Dr. Roy also testified to condition of deceased when he saw him a day or two later. Officer Casey testified to being told that police were needed at Chinn's, and on going there found Langtin lying unconscious at foot of stairs. Heard in the crowd that the porter was down the stairs. Did not know if he was hurt, but thought he was drunk and took him to the station. Jailer Jessraj testified that when the man was received Dr. Wheaton was called and said he was drunk. Thought the man was injured by a fall from the stairs. It came from him. He remained all night in a stupor and in the morning seemed the same as when brought in and in witness got a hack and sent him home. O'Connor came up just as Langtin was being taken up by the officers, and heard talk that he was pushed down the stairs. Langtin's friends said he was drunk. James D. Abbott saw Langtin on Third street, very drunk, fifteen or twenty minutes before he was hurt. A man named Twombly was with him and holding him up. Dr. Wheaton said he was called to the city hall on the night of the 11th, and found Langtin moaning and talking incoherently. His face was bloody, and he thought he had been injured by a fall. His pulse was 84, he smelled very strongly of liquor, and seemed to have all the appearance of a drunken man. Dr. Abbott attended deceased. His condition indicated fracture of skull. Post mortem examination found no injury broken. Albert Morris was present when Langtin and party tried to gain entrance to the gambling rooms. The porter took hold of him and called him by name; did not see him (porter) after he was down but Langtin fell immediately after. Officer Brown repeated the story of finding the man at the foot of the stairs. Edward Henry testified to being one of the crowd going to Chinn's for admission at the Red River Casino. He saw the man hold of Langtin and heard him fall; did not see who pushed him. Chas. Twombly went with Langtin, but finding there was objection to letting them in left to avoid trouble. They had been drinking. Two witnesses swore Twombly was with Langtin at the time he fell. Mrs. Langtin sworn, testified, through an interpreter, that her husband never spoke after being brought home, but that on Sunday he made motions, which she took to mean that he had been struck when hurt. This concluded the testimony, and after deliberation, the jury returned the following verdict: That the said Louis Langtin came to his death from a fracture of the skull caused by a fall down certain steps in a building on Robert street, said fall being caused by an altercation between said deceased and one Thomas Jefferson. SEFFERSON CHARGED WITH MURDER. After the inquest Coroner Davenport swore out a warrant against Thomas Jefferson, charging that he, said Jefferson, did wrongfully, unlawfully and feloniously kill one Louis Langtin, then and there being in the heat of passion, but in a cruel and unusual manner, and not under such circumstances as to constitute excusable and justifiable homicide by striking, beating and kicking him, said Langtin down a flight of stairs with great force and violence, etc. Jefferson, who was in custody at the station house, was, upon the presentation of this warrant, transferred to a cell, and will this morning be arraigned in the municipal court.

RAIL AND RIVER.

Good Report from the Farmers of the Northwest—End of the Manitoba Strike—Sale of 13,120 Acres of Railroad Land to One Purchaser—The St. Paul Rate Sheet—The River and Boats—Personal and Local Gossip.

About twenty colonists and land hunters left here on the Manitoba train last evening for points above Crookston. Mr. Thomas Bullion, clerk in the general freight office of the St. Paul & Manitoba road, has resigned his place there and accepted a position as book keeper for Forepaugh & Tarbox. The official report as to the strike at the Manitoba shops, yesterday, was that the strike was all over. The blacksmiths have resumed work, and the striking boiler makers been discharged. Underwood, of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, promised to furnish the core of an item yesterday if the reporter would wrap it up, and he did. He came down town horse-back and instantly the streets had it that the Milwaukee Light Horse Guard was coming, the drum major ahead, but without his baton or uniform. T. W. Teasdale, Esq., general passenger agent of the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha railway, was missed from his office yesterday, and on inquiry the reporter learned that he had lost yesterday morning, by death, his child, a boy of 2 or 4 years. The sympathy of their new friends in St. Paul will attend Mr. and Mrs. Teasdale in their previous misfortune. Talking about high-colored railroad writing, we haven't forgotten Geo. Hazzard's harvest moon excursion bills, but must wait the proper season for quoting for them. Nor have we forgotten that before Hannaford reached Minneapolis, at Fergus Falls he was rather poetical (sweetly sweet, the girls said) in writing up the Northern Pacific ride across Dakota. Mr. Wakeman, superintendent of transportation for the St. Paul & Manitoba company, who came from Fergus Falls, Monday, observed that the farmers were busy plowing all along the road, and saw no mud until he reached Minneapolis. He was informed that north and northwest of that place fall plowing had been but little delayed by rains. Mr. J. B. Power, land commissioner of the St. Paul & Manitoba company, has closed a contract, selling to C. J. Furlong, Esq., of Cork, Ireland, twenty and a half sections, or 13,120 acres of the company's lands, situated west of Angus and southwest of Warren, in the Red River country of Minnesota. The total consideration is about $85,000. Mr. Furlong buys for cultivation, intending to begin breaking next spring and get all his land into crops as early as possible. He may maintain a large wheat farm, under his own superintendency for some years, but his plan of operations has chiefly in view the settling of Irish tenant farmers on the lands, under leases which will give them the privilege of purchase on terms easy to them, but still profitable to him. Mr. Furlong is so well satisfied with his venture that he returned to the Red River country yesterday to select more lands to buy. The meeting of general passenger agents announced a few days ago was held yesterday forenoon at the Union depot. The roads represented were the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Minneapolis & St. Louis, the St. Paul & Manitoba, the Northern Pacific and the St. Paul & Duluth. Communications were received from the general passenger agents of connecting roads, accounting for their absence and expressing their regrets. A basis of rates was agreed upon and it was decided to issue monthly joint rate sheets, to be known as the St. Paul sheet. It was also agreed to meet hereafter on the 20th of each month, and some miscellaneous business was transacted. Although no formal organization was had the meeting is likely to be designated as that of the St. Paul Association.

Picked Up On the Levee. The river yesterday stood at thirteen feet by the government gauge, and has probably reached about its highest stage of the season. The favorite Diamond Jo steamer, Mary Morton, is to leave here for St. Louis at 6 p. m. Friday. The St. Louis & St. Paul line will have two boats in to-day, the side-wheel War Eagle, to leave at 4 p. m., and the Arkansas, over due, which will probably arrive at night and go out as soon as she is unloaded. The barge Marine, from Marine Mills, loaded with lumber for P. H. Kelly & Co.'s buildings, is being unloaded at the levee, a short distance below the C., St. P. & O. company's transfer house.

THE LANGTIN MURDER.

The Coroner's Inquest and Re-Arrest of Jefferson, His Assailant.

He remained all night in a stupor and in the morning seemed the same as when brought in and in witness got a hack and sent him home. O'Connor came up just as Langtin was being taken up by the officers, and heard talk that he was pushed down the stairs. Langtin's friends said he was drunk. James D. Abbott saw Langtin on Third street, very drunk, fifteen or twenty minutes before he was hurt. A man named Twombly was with him and holding him up. Dr. Wheaton said he was called to the city hall on the night of the 11th, and found Langtin moaning and talking incoherently. His face was bloody, and he thought he had been injured by a fall. His pulse was 84, he smelled very strongly of liquor, and seemed to have all the appearance of a drunken man. Dr. Abbott attended deceased. His condition indicated fracture of skull. Post mortem examination found no injury broken. Albert Morris was present when Langtin and party tried to gain entrance to the gambling rooms. The porter took hold of him and called him by name; did not see him (porter) after he was down but Langtin fell immediately after. Officer Brown repeated the story of finding the man at the foot of the stairs. Edward Henry testified to being one of the crowd going to Chinn's for admission at the Red River Casino. He saw the man hold of Langtin and heard him fall; did not see who pushed him. Chas. Twombly went with Langtin, but finding there was objection to letting them in left to avoid trouble. They had been drinking. Two witnesses swore Twombly was with Langtin at the time he fell. Mrs. Langtin sworn, testified, through an interpreter, that her husband never spoke after being brought home, but that on Sunday he made motions, which she took to mean that he had been struck when hurt. This concluded the testimony, and after deliberation, the jury returned the following verdict: That the said Louis Langtin came to his death from a fracture of the skull caused by a fall down certain steps in a building on Robert street, said fall being caused by an altercation between said deceased and one Thomas Jefferson. SEFFERSON CHARGED WITH MURDER. After the inquest Coroner Davenport swore out a warrant against Thomas Jefferson, charging that he, said Jefferson, did wrongfully, unlawfully and feloniously kill one Louis Langtin, then and there being in the heat of passion, but in a cruel and unusual manner, and not under such circumstances as to constitute excusable and justifiable homicide by striking, beating and kicking him, said Langtin down a flight of stairs with great force and violence, etc. Jefferson, who was in custody at the station house, was, upon the presentation of this warrant, transferred to a cell, and will this morning be arraigned in the municipal court.
