

THE PRESIDENT'S CABINET.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR BRINGS HIS FIRST DOWN ON THE TABLE.

He is Dissatisfied With MacVeagh's Course in the Cases of Guitau and the Star Route Gang—An Animated Cabinet Session—Confederate Paper in Uncle Sam's Hands—Other Items From the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The Star publishes the following: A very important meeting of the cabinet was held in President Arthur's parlor directly after his return from Yorktown. It was of unusual length, and the secretary maintained by members and omniscient looks which followed all questions relating to the subjects discussed, occasioned a good deal of comment at the time, particularly among correspondents of newspapers.

CONFEDERATE BONDS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—There has been considerable speculation and guessing as to the amount of Confederate bonds held by the United States government. These bonds notes are among the captured and abandoned property of the rebellion in the treasury, and were never counted until the last few days.

(Laughter.) The question is, will this court abandon the practice of 160 years or will it say to all persons wishing to indict others for offenses of this gravity, you must go before the grand jury. That is the question. I state that the law is, that this court has no jurisdiction of this offense until an indictment has been presented. I state that in the event the court has jurisdiction there must be "probable cause."

Jeff. Chandler, of counsel for Brady, addressed the court. He said, if section 5,447 were to be construed alone, it was too uncertain to be enforced as a criminal statute. The conspiracy alleged in the case did not contain elements out of which conspiracy could be constructed. The act contained could have been done as well by Brady alone, as with others, and if done by Brady alone would not have been indictable.

SCOVILLE AT WORK.

When a reporter dropped into Mr. Scoville's room this morning, he was going through an immense package of papers. He was, he said, sending out subpoenas, and had been up ever since 3 o'clock this morning. He had not seen Guitau for four days, but had received a note from him on Saturday night.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3, 1881.—George Scoville, Esq., Dear Sir: Your note of the 31st ult. has been received.

A special committee of the St. Paul Rifle club, consisting of Messrs. Koenig, Hartman and Werner, have made proper preparations for a rifle tournament to be held to-day. The shooting at the park on Dayton's bluff will commence this morning at 10 o'clock and last till 5 o'clock in the evening.

Another "Schuetzenfest."

COMMERCIAL TROUBLE IN JAPAN.

Advices from Japan report that a very serious controversy exists between native and foreign silk merchants on the method of handling raw silk, which is one of the leading staple productions of the empire. The Japanese silk merchants have formed a guild called the Silk Warehouse company, which has established rules and regulations for the sale of silk.

THE SOCIAL BUDGET.

The social world has been devoted mainly to the art terpsichorean during the past week. Each night there have been from one to half-a-dozen balls and parties, all of which were well attended.

The weather has been propitious for such exercises, and the young people of the city have taken advantage of the weather to test their capacity for exercise.

There have been numerous balls during the week. Those that have not been recorded in the GLOBE previously have been the Bricklayers' and the Terpsichorean club, the latter of which took place at Music hall, on Friday evening last.

THE BOND MATTER.

Gen. Sibley tersely explains why they were originally issued. St. Paul, Nov. 4.—Now that the old railroad bonds of the state have been provided for, and the long-mooted questions connected therewith, laus Deo!

The Ate-mo-pheric club held a party at Pfeifer's hall last evening. The programme embraced twenty-four dances, not including the supper, which was served in excellent style shortly before midnight.

The XX club of Woodland Park were entertained, on Friday evening, by Miss Ethel Parsons, of Portland avenue. There was music, dancing, refreshments, and other entertainment, and the evening passed most happily.

The Evening Stars is the name of the club organized among the young Irish-Americans. They have elected W. R. O'Keefe, president; Emmet Roche, secretary; Thomas Connors, treasurer.

WESTLING MATCH.

The Ross and Whistler Contest To-morrow Night. To-morrow evening, at the Athenaeum, a wrestling contest will take place between Messrs. Ross and Whistler, for $250 a side and the championship.

CATCH-AS-CATCH-CAN RULES.

1. Pulling the hair, biting, gouging, butting with the head, digging nails in the flesh, or clutching by the throat, are all foul, and whoever does either of these to lose one fall. 2. Either opponent may press his arm against his antagonist's throat.

SQUARE HOLD OR COLLAR-AND-ELBOW RULES.

1. The men shall wear knit shirt and short coat or jacket, not extending below the hips with strong collar and elbow for grasp of the opponent, and thin rubber sandals on the feet. 2. Each man shall take hold of the collar of his opponent with his right hand, while with the left he must take hold of his elbow.

ARKANSAS RAILROAD AID BONDS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 5.—The attorney general of the state in answer to a question propounded him by the governor, has given an official opinion that the railroads to whom state aid bonds were issued a few years ago, are legally liable for payment of the bonds.
