THE POSTMASTER GENERALSHIP.

There has been considerable talk the past few days of ex-Gov. Davis, of Texas, for postmaster general, and some of his friends quite confidently asserted that he would get the position, but so far as can be learned from the best informed sources there is no basis for any such confidence. Efforts were made to obtain for Davis the endorsement of all the representative Republicans of the South, and the government to appoint him, but the unanimous choice of the party in the South, but these efforts were not successful.

On the contrary, they partook more of a failure. Southern Republicans were divided in their preferences. Many adhered to Longstreet, some were for Steele, a few for Hunt, some for Davis, and not a few prominent ones openly declared their preference for Filley, of St. Louis. The result has been that the movement has probably benefited Filley, if indeed, he needs any further assistance. Prominent Southern Republicans went to the president and assured him the appointment of Filley would give more general satisfaction to the party in the South than the selection of any other name.

HOWE HANDICAPPED.

The revival of rumors as to the probable appointment of Howe in the cabinet is apparently nothing but speculation. At first Howe was quite favorably considered for attorney general, but the connection of his son-in-law with the defense in the star route cases handicapped him. The president is somewhat sensitive about these cases, owing, probably, to insinuations that have been made.

The president has from the first earnestly desired a vigorous prosecution of the cases to the end that if conviction failed the administration could in no wise be held responsible. It was deemed best to appoint Howe, and the latter and his friends were among the first to recognize the possible embarrassments that might follow his appointment. When Howe was passed by for attorney general then all his cabinet prospects ended, and since then he has not, according to reports, been in the line of consideration for any other position.

ON CHANGE IN CHICAGO.

A BAK All along the Line Yesterday, Owing to Discouraging Advice. CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 17.—There was a well-defined break all along the line on 'change to-day, everything drooping smartly from yesterday's sales. Discouraging advices from other points was the chief factor in the decline. Wheat opened at 1/2c off and ruled weak, declined 1/2c, and closed at 1 1/2c below yesterday. Operators were back and about buying, and Milwaukee was at a price quoted at 3 1/2c lower than yesterday. Receipts were small; shipments were merely nominal. Wheat, sales 1,945,000; January and 1,263,000; February, 1,263,000; sales of April were about 1 1/2c over February, but there was not much doing.

Corn was only moderately active. Despite reduced sales the final closing was 3/4c below yesterday; sales, 60,000; January, 60,000; 6 1/2c February and 6 1/2c 3/4c May. Oats were dull but heavy at 3/4c lower. The continued heavy receipts necessarily weakened the market; sales, May 4 1/2c; closing at nearly identical prices.

Pork was in liberal supply. The sales were large, and the reduction of prices very decided, being 30 to 35c; sales 16,400; 16 1/2c January, 16 1/2c to 16 3/4c; 16 1/2c to 16 3/4c, and closed steady at the reduction; sales, 10,900; 11.00 January and 11.05; 11.15 February.

CALDWELL COWBOYS.

Attempt to Take Possession of the Town—Marshall Meighan and One Cowboy Killed—Flight of the Cowboys with Citizens in Hot Pursuit. WELLINGTON, Kas., Dec. 17.—The town of Caldwell is in the hands of a cow boy mob. The officers are powerless to do anything. Mike Meighan, former mayor of the city, but lately marshal, is killed. The sheriff with a posse from Wellington is just starting to the scene of the trouble.

The Jim Talbot, who shot Meighan in the fight with one boy was one of the cowboys. The element that wanted to hang Danford without giving him an opportunity to settle, and was one of the leaders of the party who took Danford from the sheriff at this point. Dave Speer, who belonged to the Speer family, of Caldwell, who are engaged in the liquor and dance-house business. Dave was arrested during last year, charged with shooting and killing Frank Hunt, marshal of Caldwell, through the window of a dance-house, and was held in jail for lack of evidence, and was hardly 20 years old.

The latest accounts are that the cowboys here were surrounded in the timber some twelve miles south of Caldwell. Rumors of the agents of the army, who are engaged in the hunt, and the cowboys were killed were rife, but nothing definite can be learned.

CALDWELL, Kas., Dec. 17.—One of those timber border shooting affairs occurred in this city on the 16th inst. The mob, consisting of the death of Mike Meighan, former mayor of this city, and Geo. Speer, a gambler. The particulars cannot be obtained in the general excitement that prevails over the event at this late hour, but it is known that the mob, consisting of a party of cow boys, named Sheehan (alias Talbot), Jim Morton, Bob Munsing and Bob Big Tree, with Geo. Sheer, and a fellow named Lowe, were drinking and carousing. About 3 o'clock this morning they began to show a disposition to raise a row, and as a preliminary move, Sheer shot off his revolver into the sidewalk, on Main street. Through efforts of the police the disturbance was suppressed, and, as a precaution, Mike Meighan was put among the hands of the sheriff. The mob named turned loose and began to shoot indiscriminately. Talbot shot Meighan from the rear of the bank building, killing him instantly. The citizens turned out in great numbers, and they would get hold of, an attempted to take in the party, who, in the meantime, had proceeded to a lively stable in the north part of the town, compelled the man in attendance to give them horses, mounted and started off. About three miles east struck south for the territory. A party of citizens started after them, and at last accounts were in the hot of four fleeing cow boys. It is likely if they are taken they will not be brought back alive.

The excitement here is intense, and the present disposition is to make the alders and abettors of the mob, and the cowboys, hang from the necks of the gallows.
