

STRANGLER TO DEATH.

Strange and Novel Suicide at Roger's Hotel—Henry E. Lyons Gags His Mouth and Swings into Eternity From the Top of a Trunk—Particulars of the Tragedy.

Room No. 17 at Roger's hotel, on Robert street, was the scene yesterday of the most novel suicide by strangulation that has ever taken place in this city. The latest victim to the mania of self-destruction, so prevalent in St. Paul at late, arrived in this city about a week ago, from Sioux City, Iowa, and as usual he left nothing that would indicate the motive for his unceremonious taking off. His name was Henry E. Lyons, he was about thirty-five years of age, unmarried, and of a quiet, unassuming, and unobtrusive disposition. He was formerly a resident in Bloomington, Illinois, where he has living two brothers and other relatives.

The absence of definite information concerning his life it is impossible to assign a reason for the premeditated and deliberately planned act, which must have been the result of the trouble and anxiety of mind, account in a twinkling.

A CHASTLY SPECTACLE.

Shortly before 6 o'clock last evening Mr. James J. White, roommate of the deceased and for a long time his fellow workman and companion, visited the room to call Lyons, whom it was supposed had lain down for a nap and overleap himself.

Lyons, however, was not in bed, but was found locked and repeated knocks brought no answer. His suspicions being aroused he called Mr. Joseph Rogers, a son of the proprietor of the hotel, and together they broke in the door. Once within the room their gaze encountered a ghastly spectacle. Hanging from a clothing hook, by the neck, was the body of Henry E. Lyons, so dead that nothing short of the last trump could ever reanimate it with the breath of life.

The appearance of the body indicated that life must have been extinct for several hours. The method of his taking off was most novel and peculiar. A piece of bed cord, of best quality, was fastened to the head of the bed and adjusted at his neck; he then mounted a trunk, the top of which was about a foot or two above the floor, and from there he cast iron hook, attached to a lateral rail about six feet from the floor and used as a clothes rack, he fastened the cord to the hook, and with his right foot, first drawing his leg into a kneeling or bending position.

THE FATAL INCIDENT.

Before commencing the act which was to lead to his untimely death, the dark waters of the river St. Joe, he folded a red bandana handkerchief and tied it over his mouth. The motive of this is a matter of conjecture. He may have intended to prevent any possible outcry from being heard and more probably to prevent the spectators of the spectacle of a depending tongue, a feature that unusually spoils the looks in cases of death from strangulation.

This most careful preparation, and having completed a neat toilet before arranging the details, he swung off the trunk with his left foot, and the rope strained and broke, and the weight of his body, death from strangulation must have been instantaneous.

Upon the discovery of the tragedy Coroner Duggan was summoned, and he took the body to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

Into the hands of the coroner, and the body was taken to the morgue in company with a GLOBE reporter.

The form was cut down and placed on a bed and upon being examined, nothing was found in his clothing in the way of farwell or explanation. The remains were taken in charge by McCarthy & Donnelly, and the inquest will be held at their undertaking rooms at 10 o'clock this morning.

His former life.

As before stated, the deceased came to St. Paul about a week ago from Sioux City in company with James J. White, his fellow workman.

In the room was found a copy of the New York Ledger, neatly folded in a wrapper, and addressed, "Mrs. Maggie Liddle, Shushang, York State." On being opened, the words, "I am well," were written on the margin. It is supposed that the paper was intended for his sister.

The last seen of the deceased alive was about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, when he passed through the office of the hotel.

At that time he seemed to be in usual health and spirits. It is supposed that the deed must have been committed about noon. The deceased had two brothers and a brother-in-law, employed in the city of Chicago and St. Paul, and a sister, who is now in St. Paul. The latter's name is Jones.

In conversation with a GLOBE reporter last night, Mr. White stated that the deceased had never intimated suicide. In Sioux City he was once or twice remarked that in case anything should ever happen to him, he would consider it a favor if Mr. White would inform his brother-in-law, Jones.

At the time nothing was thought of the commonplace remark, but it may have been prophetic of what was to happen on yesterday. Mr. White carried out the request and the friends of the man will be heard from to-day, and the circumstances were not so distressing as he had plenty of work and also received a small pension bounty.

He secured employment with the St. Paul & Omaha railroad company and worked two or three days last week. He recently complained of feeling unwell and at times his head suffered from a wound received in the war of the rebellion. He was a hard working man, not a heavy drinker and his habits are said to have been good. He was a quiet, unassuming man, and always went neatly attired.

CITY GLOBULES.

Mr. A. N. Barney, formerly of the Plaindealer, Cleveland, and at present with J. H. Haverly, is at the Merchants' Hotel, Minneapolis, very much intoxicated last night and placed him in the city hall.

The Emmett Hotel artillery, Capt. C. M. McCarthy, will fire a salute of seventeen guns to-day, during the inauguration ceremonies.

Louis Haas, of the chief of police staff, Chicago, was in the city yesterday. In the afternoon he and Deputy Sheriff Harrison paid a visit to Kittsland, riding behind the latter's fast little lilies.

The thirtieth anniversary and grand banquet of the Father Mathew Total Abstinence society will take place at Pfeiffer's hall to-morrow. The exercises will consist of songs, music and addresses, and a fine entertainment is promised.

Twenty-five more boiler makers arrived yesterday for the Manitoba company and will go to work to-day. The railroad company has work for all the men that may come. All that is required is that they shall be industrious and competent. If they fill the bill in this particular there can be no cause for difficulty.

About 12 o'clock last night Officer Gorman, assisted by Special Policemen Gibbon, arrested and locked up the notorious Cornelius Cushman, for smashing in the windows of James Dillon's house on Commercial street. Cushman was just enough intoxicated to be very ugly and gave the officers a good deal of trouble to get him to the city hall.

The appearance of the great emotional and tragic actress, Miss Ada Gray, at the Opera house on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week affords an opportunity for the enjoyment of what promises to be one of the best entertainments of the amusement season. She is supported by Watkins' Fifth Avenue company, and their impersonation of East Lynne has captured eastern audiences.

Mr. Geo. H. Robinson, press agent of Haverly's Original Minstrel company, arrived in the city yesterday. The great burlesque show will appear at the Opera house on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week, and this is undoubtedly the finest and most complete minstrel talent that has ever appeared in this or any other country, they will perform to packed audiences.

PERSONAL.

J. G. Remis, of Faribault; L. R. Rathrop, of Pergus Falls, are at the Merchants.

Winthrop was represented yesterday at the Merchants by James Whitehead, W. C. Van Horne, M. K. O'Connell and Ed. B. Black.

Mr. Ed. L. Cloom, business agent of Watkins' Fifth Avenue company and Ana Gray, is looking after the interests of his combination in this city.

George D. Row, of Chicago; O. C. Rath, of Cincinnati; W. C. O'Brien, of St. Paul; S. S. Hamilton, of St. S. Ryckman, Hamilton, Ont., are at the Merchants.

M. A. Madril has gone east where he is to meet Commodore Kilduff for the purpose of visiting architects and inspecting as far as possible private and public buildings with a view of obtaining additional ideas in regard to building the commodore's residence.

Members of Pius Ninth Benevolent society are requested to meet at their hall this evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, Patrick Buckley.

By ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

Two lieutenants of the Fifth American Infantry, Manuel Valasco and Victor Cano, yesterday fought a duel with pistols at Chatham anazo. Valasco shot Cano through the lungs killing him instantly.

DEATH.

THOMPSON—At the residence of her son, J. B. Thompson, No. 50 Exchange street, Mrs. L. C. Thompson, in the 54th year of her age, of consumption.

The remains will be interred at Lundtundin, Mich. Funeral at residence, Tuesday.

BUCKLEY—On the 8th inst., Patrick Buckley, funeral from the late residence, corner of Rice and Iglehart streets, at 9:30 a. m., to-morrow (Tuesday).

AMUSEMENTS.

Admission 75 cents. Season subscribers can reserve seats Friday and Saturday; general public, Monday, at Ford's Music Store, 243 Third street. No extra charge. 6-83

OPERA HOUSE.

Wednesday & Thursday Jan. 11 & 12.

Haverly's FAMOUS 40 ORIGINAL MASTODON MINSTRELS.

Coming in all their vast entirety with a flood of fresh features. Mighty Wonders! Artistical! The greatest Minstrel organization in existence.

Anticipating late attractions:

The only LEON, late Kelly & Leon's Minstrels HENRY PARKER's wonderful Dog Circus. The celebrated ZANFRETTA FAMILY, French Fantomists.

Recollect, everything entirely new and original this visit. Secure seats. Avoid the certain rush.

Reserved seats at box office Monday, Jan. 9th, at 9 a. m. Admission—50c, 75c and $1.00.

OPERA HOUSE.

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 13 and 14.

SATURDAY MATINEE.

Engagement Extraordinary of the Distinguished Emotional and Tragic Actress, MISS ADA GRAY.

Supported by

Chas. A. Walker's 5th Ave. Combination.

Arriving of all-around Laughter and Tears, a Vein of Comedy and Pathos, a lasting memory to Wives, Mothers and Daughters; an entirely New Version adapted from Mrs. Wood's famous play, "The Girl of the Year," and performed by her over 3,000 times in the principal cities of the United States, entitled, "THE GIRL OF THE YEAR."

LADY ISABEL, OR THE MADAM VINE; MISS ADA GRAY.

In which character she has no living Peer.

POPULAR PRICES OF ADMISSION—50c, 75c and $1.00. Reserved seats can be secured without extra charge at box office, Wednesday, Jan. 11, at 9 a. m.

Grand Banquet.

THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FATHER MATHEW T. A. SOCIETY.

At Pfeiffer's Hall, Tuesday Evening, JANUARY 10, 1882.

Tickets for sale at D. O'Halloran and at McCarthy & Donnelly's.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

OVER & HOWARD.

CHANGING PIANOS.

Lowest Eastern Prices Duplicated!

Call and examine our stock or send for Catalogue.

St. Paul and Minneapolis.

MONFORT & CO., FANCY GROCERS.

5 E. Third Street.

We now have in stock and offer for the Holiday Trade, the Finest line of Fancy Groceries ever brought to the West.

All goods warranted fresh.

PRINCESS ALMONDS, and all kinds of NUTS, RAISINS, IMPERIAL FIGS, DRIED FRUITS, PRESERVES, JAMS, JELLIES, ENGLISH PLUM, MINGE-MEAT, MALAGA GRAPES, ORANGES AND PEARS, all kinds of CANNED FRUITS, and VEGETABLES, CABBAGES, OLIVES, SWEET PICKLES, ETC. FRESH IMPORTED CHICKENS, CHAMPAGNES AND STILL WINES of all kinds.

BUILDING PROPOSALS.

Sealed Proposals will be received at the office of GEO. WIRTH, until 4 o'clock p. m., JANUARY 10, 1882, for Building Foundations FOR THE NEW TURNER HALL.

Plans and specifications are at the office of Geo. Wirth, Architect, 104 East Third St. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

B. W. BORNHORN, F. A. RENZ, City Treasurer.

CITY NOTICE.

City Treasurer's Sale.

OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER, ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 5, 1882.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a judgment entered on the eighth day of October, A. D. 1881, in the District Court, second judicial district, Ramsey county, State of Minnesota, against the heretofore described real estate, situate, lying and being in said city and county, on an assessment warrant for

Sever on Wabashaw Street from the Centre of Seventh street to College Avenue,

Barillo & Guerin's Addition.

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Judgment.

Henry A. Boardman, s'y 12 5 $126 51

90 ft. x 120 ft. 12 5 188 21

H B Sweeney, s'y 12 5 188 21

90 ft. x 120 ft. 12 5 188 21

All in the City of St. Paul, county of Ramsey and State of Minnesota.

F. A. RENZ, City Treasurer.

CITY NOTICE.

City Treasurer's Sale.

OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER, ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 5, 1882.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a judgment entered on the twenty-second day of December, A. D. 1881, in the District Court, second judicial district, Ramsey county, State of Minnesota, against the heretofore described real estate, situate, lying and being in said city and county, on an assessment warrant for Grading of DeBow Street, from Olmsted street to Williams street.

In said city of St. Paul, the undersigned will on Thursday, the 19th day of January, 1882, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the front door of the City Treasurer's office in the city of St. Paul, county of Ramsey, offer for sale at public auction as provided by law, to the best bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Schurmer's Addition.

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Judgment.

Alice A K Merrill 1 2 $78 44

Same 2 2 64 04

Same 3 2 64 04

Same 4 2 64 04

Same 5 2 64 04

Same 6 2 64 04

Same 7 2 64 04

Same 8 2 64 04

Same 9 2 64 04

Same 10 2 64 04

Same 11 2 64 04

Same 12 2 64 04

Same 13 2 64 04

Same 14 2 64 04

Same 15 2 64 04

Same 16 2 64 04

Same 17 2 64 04

Same 18 2 64 04

Same 19 2 64 04

Same 20 2 64 04

Same 21 2 64 04

Same 22 2 64 04

Same 23 2 64 04

Same 24 2 64 04

Same 25 2 64 04

Same 26 2 64 04

Same 27 2 64 04

Same 28 2 64 04

Same 29 2 64 04

Same 30 2 64 04

Same 31 2 64 04

Same 32 2 64 04

Same 33 2 64 04

Same 34 2 64 04

Same 35 2 64 04

Same 36 2 64 04

Same 37 2 64 04

Same 38 2 64 04

Same 39 2 64 04

Same 40 2 64 04

Same 41 2 64 04

Same 42 2 64 04

Same 43 2 64 04

Same 44 2 64 04

Same 45 2 64 04

Same 46 2 64 04

Same 47 2 64 04

Same 48 2 64 04

Same 49 2 64 04

Same 50 2 64 04

Same 51 2 64 04

Same 52 2 64 04

Same 53 2 64 04

Same 54 2 64 04

Same 55 2 64 04

Same 56 2 64 04

Same 57 2 64 04

Same 58 2 64 04

Same 59 2 64 04

Same 60 2 64 04

Same 61 2 64 04

Same 62 2 64 04

Same 63 2 64 04

Same 64 2 64 04

Same 65 2 64 04

Same 66 2 64 04

Same 67 2 64 04

Same 68 2 64 04

Same 69 2 64 04

Same 70 2 64 04

Same 71 2 64 04

Same 72 2 64 04

Same 73 2 64 04

Same 74 2 64 04

Same 75 2 64 04

Same 76 2 64 04

Same 77 2 64 04

Same 78 2 64 04

Same 79 2 64 04

Same 80 2 64 04

Same 81 2 64 04

Same 82 2 64 04

Same 83 2 64 04

Same 84 2 64 04

Same 85 2 64 04

Same 86 2 64 04

Same 87 2 64 04

Same 88 2 64 04

Same 89 2 64 04

Same 90 2 64 04

Same 91 2 64 04

Same 92 2 64 04

Same 93 2 64 04

Same 94 2 64 04

Same 95 2 64 04

Same 96 2 64 04

Same 97 2 64 04

Same 98 2 64 04

Same 99 2 64 04

Same 100 2 64 04

Same 101 2 64 04

Same 102 2 64 04

Same 103 2 64 04

Same 104 2 64 04

Same 105 2 64 04

Same 106 2 64 04

Same 107 2 64 04

Same 108 2 64 04

Same 109 2 64 04

Same 110 2 64 04

Same 111 2 64 04

Same 112 2 64 04

Same 113 2 64 04

Same 114 2 64 04

Same 115 2 64 04

Same 116 2 64 04

Same 117 2 64 04

Same 118 2 64 04

Same 119 2 64 04

Same 120 2 64 04

Same 121 2 64 04

Same 122 2 64 04

Same 123 2 64 04

Same 124 2 64 04

Same 125 2 64 04

Same 126 2 64 04

Same 127 2 64 04

Same 128 2 64 04

Same 129 2 64 04

Same 130 2 64 04

Same 131 2 64 04

Same 132 2 64 04

Same 133 2 64 04

Same 134 2 64 04

Same 135 2 64 04

Same 136 2 64 04

Same 137 2 64 04

Same 138 2 64 04

Same 139 2 64 04

Same 140 2 64 04

Same 141 2 64 04

Same 142 2 64 04

Same 143 2 64 04

Same 144 2 64 04

Same 145 2 64 04

Same 146 2 64 04

Same 147 2 64 04

Same 148 2 64 04

Same 149 2 64 04

Same 150 2 64 04

Same 151 2 64 04

Same 152 2 64 04

Same 153 2 64 04

Same 154 2 64 04

Same 155 2 64 04

Same 156 2 64 04

Same 157 2 64 04

Same 158 2 64 04

Same 159 2 64 04

Same 160 2 64 04

Same 161 2 64 04

Same 162 2 64 04

Same 163 2 64 04

Same 164 2 64 04

Same 165 2 64 04

Same 166 2 64 04

Same 167 2 64 04

Same 168 2 64 04

Same 169 2 64 04

Same 170 2 64 04

Same 171 2 64 04

Same 172 2 64 04

Same 173 2 64 04

Same 174 2 64 04

Same 175 2 64 04

Same 176 2 64 04

Same 177 2 64 04

Same 178 2 64 04

Same 179 2 64 04

Same 180 2 64 04

Same 181 2 64 04

Same 182 2 64 04

Same 183 2 64 04

Same 184 2 64 04

Same 185 2 64 04

Same 186 2 64 04

Same 187 2 64 04

Same 188 2 64 04

Same 189 2 64 04</