A CONFIDENCE OPERATOR.

He Takes In Some Mercantile Greenhorns and Swindles Some Shrewd Persons Besides. There was some terrible squealing, to employ a street phrase, among several accommodating St. Paul gentlemen yesterday, consequent upon their having been bodily left by a high-toned confidence swindler whose operations in this city were quite as daring as they were bold and extensive. A few days ago there arrived in this city from Winnipeg a well dressed, plausible looking and accomplished young Englishman named Alfred Hespeler, said to have high connections in Manitoba, and the East. He carried first class credentials from prominent men in the provinces and possessed of easy and graceful manners, he found no difficulty in getting into the good graces of several well known gentlemen of this city. He commenced his crooked work by obtaining an introduction to the firm of Ransom & Horton, of whom he purchased a $200 seal skin cloak and a seal cap for $21, giving in payment a check for $21 on the Merchants National bank, of Emerson. He then sought out Mr. H. L. May and prevailed upon that gentleman to endorse a worthless draft for $55. Looking for pastures green he got into the good graces of Mr. John Smith, of the St. Louis saloon, on Jackson street, and that gentleman contributed $25 borrowed money and in view of later developments he let Mr. Smith down light. Ehle Allen was next seen to the tune of $27.50, in the way of a slight loan you know, and several other gentlemen were taxed for smaller amounts. Ehle, however, secured the checks for his baggage and is so much ahead. The cat got out of the bag last Tuesday when the check for $221 was returned to Messrs. Ransom & Horton, as worthless. Then every-body smelt a mouse and inquiry was set on foot for some trace of the bad young man. It was learned that he had been west and passed through St. Paul on Tuesday, taking the noon train for the East. The wires were set working and sure enough he was found to be on the train. Capt. Clark telegraphed the authorities at Winona to put him under arrest, and when the train arrived he was taken into custody. Detective O'Connor left yesterday morning and is expected back with his man to-day. It was also ascertained that he had sent the seal skin to Chicago and getting wind of his whereabouts Mr. Horton has gone to that city to secure the property. A telegram was received from Winona yesterday afternoon, stating that Hespeler had retained counsel and that he could not be taken away without a warrant. Chief Weber and Mr. May swore out a state warrant on his arrest and it was forwarded last night. Meeting of the Central Land League. There was a very well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Central Land League held last evening in Armory hall. Wm. L. Kelly presided and Patrick Joseph Hooban acted as secretary. The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $233.17. On motion the treasurer was instructed to send a draft of $40 to Patrick Egan, treasurer of the Land League, now in Paris. Capt. Clark telegraphed from Winona was introduced to the meeting. He gave a sketch of some of the semi-barbarous laws of England and then of the Land League, showing the amount of good it has done since it was organized. Mr. Walsh had facts and figures to prove his assertions, and as a believer in the league he gave an order for $50. Other addresses were also delivered and a few recitations given. Receipts of the evening $75. On motion, adjourned to assemble on Wednesday of next week. See our new Embroideries. Esterly & Heinemann. Big bargains in remnants at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's, this week. W. B. Rowell & Co. have secured a store on Third street, and will occupy it on or about March 1, 1882. Great bargains in everything we keep for the next sixty days. Lowest prices will be found at our old stand, until the entire stock is cleared out. Ladies! don't fail to attend the great reduction sale of Hosiery and Underwear at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's, this week. At Esterly & Heinemann's—new Hamburgs. Rowell & Co. are selling their entire stock very cheap, to close out before March 1st. For a nice dish of oysters, go to head quarters, Montgomery's Oyster Bay. Large discount on all Cloaks and Dolmans. Esterly & Heinemann. Notice. Remember, it is remnant week at Lindeke Ladd & Co's, this week. A Card. The Father Matthew T. A. Society desires to return thanks to Messrs. Dyer & Howard for the Chickering Grand piano so kindly furnished for their use at the anniversary banquet Tuesday evening. Marked down this week, Hosiery and Underwear, at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's, this week. Black Cashmeres. Colored Cashmeres. No. 500, No. 700, No. 800, No. 900. The best and the cheapest Cashmere in the world. Prices reduced. Esterly & Heinemann, Corner Seventh and Jackson. Big bargains in Hosiery and Underwear this week, at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's. The Rev. Father O'Connor, parish priest of Ballybunon, Ireland, will deliver a lecture in Feiler's hall on Saturday evening, 14th inst., on the present crisis in Ireland. Father O'Connor was president of the Land League in his district, before its suppression, and has been prominently connected with the various movements that have taken place for the amelioration of the condition of the Irish people. New! Choice! Novel! New Hamburg Edgings, new Hamburg Insertions, just opened, see them. Esterly & Heinemann, Corner Seventh and Jackson. Don't forget to buy your remnants at Lindeke, Ladd & Co's, this week. BIRD ATTRACTORS. It is not often that a merchant can offer attractions to customers as the result of his personal skill and prowess, but Professor Zachony is an exception. He is agent for the justly famous Decker piano and also a famous sportsman. He has several taxidermists busy at all months, and is a famous hunter on the bears which he shot upon his last hunting expedition in the northern part of the state, and beginning with next week he proposes to present a stuffed bear (one of his own shooting) to each customer buying a Decker. It is a novel idea to bull the piano market with bears. For Sale. One thousand cords of dry slabs, retail price $4 per cord, delivered. JOHN DOWLAN, Corner Fifth and Wabashaw streets.
