E.F. Cragin, C. G. Hammond, Herrick Johnson, Arthur Little, committee.

In pursuance of the telegram, a meeting of well known citizens was held at the chamber of commerce at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Among those present were Gen. C. C. Andrews, D. W. Ingersoll, A. J. Goodrich, B. F. Wright and C. Gotzian.

It was decided to request Gov. Hubbard to preside as chairman of the meeting.

The meeting then adjourned, it being decided that a meeting of the committee should be held at 12 m.

morning that the officers of the law had made a levy on the safe of the board of educa-tion to satisfy a small judgment of $13.99 re-covered by Patrick O'Brien. The officer makcovered by Patrick O'Brien. The officer making the levy did not carry the safe away, as it was too hefty for his biceps. Yesterday Mr. Donnelly, the secretary of the board, expounded the law to those who attempted to get possession of the strong box, and in doing so took down the act establishing and regulating the school system of St. Paul, and read from section 20 the title over the file real or pressonal property. that "no part of the real or personal property, held for school purposes, shall be subject to execution or sale, for any debt or liability against the said school board, but the same against the said school board, but the same exemption from execution and sale, as is now provided by the charter of the city of St. Paul, shallapply to all the school property, real, personal or mixed." From this it appears that Lawyer Donnelly has the best of the argument, and that the board of education is likely to retain the safe.
