The adjourned meeting of the board of tra de which is to meet this morning will consider the pavement question.

The exceedingly high stoge of water in the river is proving a serious obstacle in working upon the stone arch short line bridge. Two men are in the city lock-up, who are being held upon suspicion of being concerned in certain mail robberies in Wisconsin. Owing to the sickness of Attorney Erwin who was to defend the cause, ths court has directed Houston to employ another attorney Chas. N. Hewitt, M. D., of Red Wing, secretary of the state board of health, will de-

John Brouse, who is now confined at the College hospital, met with the sad misfortune of having both feet badly frozen. The mem bers will probably be amputated to-day. Dr. A. A. Ames will probably be the nomi nee of the Democrats for the office of mayor at the coming convention. It would, indeed, be difficult to place in nomination either a better or a stronger candidate. At the University this morning, Prof

Cleveland, the Chicago landscape gardner, will lecture on "The Culture and Management of Native Forests, for their development as tim-ber ornamental wood." In the afternoon there will be essays and discussions on "For-

Yesterday afternoon an employe at the stone quarry at Nicollet island was struck a violent blow upon the head by a flying rock, inflicting a serious gash just in the rear of the right eye, slightly shattering the bone. Dr. Collins dressed the wound and the man was taken home to the Excelsior house.

Late yes terday afternoon a floater was dis covered in the river some three or four hundred yards below the lower bridge by a bevy of young girls who were frightened out of their wits by the sickening sight. They ran home precipitately and related the adventure with bated breath and startled eyes. After supper their mother sent them to notify Chiet Munger, which they did at about eight o'clock too late for an investigation last night. The girls claim to have seen very plainly the naked limbs of a man above the water. His body was di obtless held from floating down the stream on the swift current by a snag. All sorts of speculations are indulged in relative to the corpse. Many are of the opinion that it is the body of John Lief.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

About $35,000 Worth of Property Destroyed-T. Jeffrey & Co, the Principal Losers-Insurance Very Light.

At a few minutes past 5 o'clock yesterday norning the attention of Sargeant West of the police force was called to a which had broken out Thomas Jeffery & Co.'s carpet store, at No. 225 Nic ollet avenue. When discovered the fire was still in its incipiency, and in the opinion of Sergeant West could easily have been extinguished had a hose been at his disposal. As it was he ran speedily to the city hall and turned in the alarm from box No. 12, and then returned to the scene of the conflagration. By this time the flames had run up the windows likeling, up the curreins and fixtures. dows licking up the curtains and fixtures, thus creating sufficient heat to crack the large plate glass front, which came erashing out upon the sidewalk. As if controlled by a majicians wand the devouring element upon the very instant the air was admitted by the breaking of the windows, flashed across and around the store with such rapidity that in half the time it requires for the reader to in half the time it requires for the reader to peruse this sentence it was absolutely impossible for any one to enter the store.

The department was quickly upon the ground, and water was playing upon the flames, which had, by this time, utterly destroyed the large stock of goods in the store, and which had communicated with the two stories above, also occupied by the carpet house. The efforts of the department were then turned in the direction of saving that and adjoining buildings. The building is of stone, and the partiings. The building is of stone, and the parti-tion walls were solid and fire proof, and con-sequently nothing but the inside of the building 225 was burned.

LOSSES. The loss upon the building, which is owned by L. Woodward, a resident of California, will probably not exceed $1,000. upon which, strange to say, considering that it has long been leased by an insurance firm, that of Gale & Co., there was not a cent of in-

Mr. Jeffery estimates his loss at $35,000, but it is thought that the actual loss, when carefully computed, will fall somewhat short of that figure. However, there had just been added to the stock of the store three car loads of new and expensive goods, which were only opened up the previous day. The stock had an insurance of $7,500 upon it, representing the Traders' and North British, Ætna, and Mercantile com-

ORIGIN.

The origin of the fire is a profound mystery. Mr. Jeffreys states that no fire was left in the store, nor any light left burning in the store on the previous night when closed.

Sergeant West's theory is, as to the rapidity with which the flames spread upon the break-ing of the window, that the room was full of ing of the whatev, that the foods was full of gas; which ignited. He says that the smell of gas was almost insufferable.

The photograph gallery of Jas. A. Brush, next door, was slightly damaged from falling plastering, which was knocked from the ceiling by the evolutions of the firemen in working about

Dr. Griswold was united in marriage some three or four years ago to Miss Elizabeth Colbrath, an accomplished and estimable young lady, and sister of W. C. Colbrath, druggist. The rascal is well known here, and his wedding was celebrated by a large circle of acquaintances as one of the social events of the season.

The following is the dispatch: In 1879 Mr. William E. Griswold, a young dentist from Minneapolis, Minn., newly mar-ried to an estimable young lady, located in this city and soon enjoyed a lucrative business. Through professional services he became acquainted with the daughter of a wealthy citizen, young and innocent. Fiendish Father-in-Law Brutally saults a Nineteen Year Old Wirl-He It is seldom the reporter is called upon to chrenicle c case of such devilish brutality as in the case which was brought before Judge

cooley yesterday. Frank Worth is an expressman at 215 Twelfth street. On Monday afternoon while his 19 year old stendaughter, named Emma Lull, was passing through a room which contained a bed, after having sent his wife down town upon a pretext that he was going to purchase a house and wanted her to see it, worth seized her and attempted to throw her on the bed. The girl fought desperately and on the bed. The girl lought desperately and succeeded in eluding the brutal assault and escaping. But in the encounter Worth pounded the girl most unmercifully, tore her earrings from her ears, and treated her most horribly. The girl's face is shockingly disfigured. Her clothes were saturated with blood, but blood stains were afterwards discovered in various parts.

blood stains were afterwards discovered in various parts of the room, as well as upon the snow outside, where the poor girl fell from sheer exhaustion. The girl was unable to appear in court, on account of her serious injuries, but owing to the fact as per her statement Worth made no threats, a charge of assault and battery only was preferred. He was fined $75 and costs by the court, but in default was sent up for ninety days.

The burglars J. D. Snell and Edward Bennett, were yesterday arraigned in the police court, charged with the burglary of the hardware store of Lucas Bros.

Bennett waived an examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Snell pleaded not guilty, and Mr. Merrick appeared as his counsel. Mr. Hoy testified upon the part of the state that Bennett had made a full confession of his guilt; that he and Snell gained entrance to the store through the back door, and abstracted for avalyars and seven knives. He also despite the store through the back door, and abstracted for avalyars and seven knives. five revolvers and seven knives. He also des hive revolvers and seven knives. The Consolidation of Grocery Houses.

There was a good deal of comment on the street yesterday relative to the reported con-golidation of a leading Minneapolis and a St. Fort Wayne....134% solidation of a leading Minneapolis and a St. Paul grocery house, as mentioned in the Globe of yesterday, and considerable apprehension expressed as to whether it would be a case of the dog wagging the tail or the tail wagging the dog. In fact the fear was prevalent that Minneapolis might, substantially, lose a prominent business house. The GLOBE is able, however, to allay all apprehension on this score. If the consolidation is perfected it will havely increase the proportions of the it will largely increase the proportions of the Minneapolis house. The result at St. Paul may not be so agreeable to that city, but there is no occasion for any alarm at this end of the line. We are all serene.
