As soon as the summons for the appearance of Josephine Bendke, at the police court to answer a charge of using abusive language to a woman yesterday, was served upon her, she suddenly declared herself seriously ill, and the case was continued.

Geo. E. Todd owns a restaurant. Alf. Grogan, a lad, came into the restaurant and did something which unduly excited Todd's wrath, so that he threw a pop bottle at the boy, striking him on the head and inflicting a large gash. Todd was arrested and taken before Judge Cooley yesterday for trial, but had the case continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Hans G. Peterson's grocery delivery horse ran away twice yesterday. The list occurred at 7 o'clock evening. Starting at Tenth avenue North he threw the driver out upon the street car track beneath the wheels of the wagon and injured his right arm and side seriously. He narrowly escaped being run over by the horse. The horse was caught below the Milwaukee depot.

Grace Clark was arrested yesterday charged with maintaining a house of ill fame. A young girl instigated the arrest, probably as a piece of spite, however true the charge may be. The girl it seems had occupied rooms at the house, and when she wished to take her departure Grace seized upon her. This raised a breeze, which led to the arrest. The case will be given a hearing in the municipal court on the afternoon of the 20th inst.

Mules on a Rampage
J. R. Armes, of No. 910 Chicago avenue, is the happy owner of a frisky mule team. This team is the apple of his eye. However trite it is, that there is a rose without its thorn. These mules are born in the possession of that mule team which came near being the cause of making Mrs. Armes a widow yesterday. Mr. Armes had loaded up a lot of lumber from the Merchants hotel building and was conveniently driven up Hennepin avenue. Suddenly a freak took possession of those mules. With a thundering fury sufficient to frighten half the ladies of Minneapolis into hysterics, they counter-marched to the right and dashed down the avenue double quick. Mr. Armes was thrown from the load. His foot caught in the lumber and he was dragged down the muddy street upon his back. At Fifth street the wagon collided with some object and released

Mr. Armes from his perilous predicament. Although badly bruised his injuries do not prove serious. The mules were caught by bystanders.

BANK ROBBERY FOILED
A Bold Attempt to Rob the City Bank Nipped at the Bud—One of the Robbers Captured.

Two well dressed men entered the City bank, at the corner of Washington and Hennepin avenues yesterday at about noon. One who seemed to be the spokesman, asked for Mr. Wilson, and that gentleman forthwith politely invited him to step around to his desk. Taking a seat next to Mr. Wilson, the stranger entered into a general conversation. Mr. Wilson's position was such as to prevent his noticing the maneuver of the other man, who had been left standing in the lobby.

Fortunately, however, Mr. Wilson had occasion to turn around and was then that he discovered the person of the other stranger crouched behind a table, near the vault. With presence of mind, Mr. Wilson instantly comprehended the situation, and springing over the table, collared the would-be robber.

The other stranger and accomplice coolly got up and started out, saying he would summon a policeman, but of course he would not call a policeman nor come back to assist in the arrest of his pal. As there was nothing which could be particularly charged against him, his capture does not matter.

Mr. Wilson, meantime, held pluckily to the struggling culprit and detained him until assistance came, and the chap was turned over to the police.

Nothing has been discovered which would disclose the identity of the prisoner. He had in his possession a Nicollet house overcoat.

Arrested on Suspicion of Murder
Yesterday morning a young man who gave his name as Walter Parr was arrested at the instance of Samuel Kirkham, on suspicion of being connected with the perpetration of a murder at Black River Falls, Wis., some four months since. The suspicion was founded on the fact that Parr was employed upon the stone arch bridge, where he had engaged to work one year, but one of the men happened to ask him if he had ever been in Black River Falls. Parr at once quickly drew out of his chest a letter which he held until the matter is thoroughly investigated.

LATER
The reporter ascertained that a spiritualistic seance was held at the house of George Braut, a miller, living on Sixteenth avenue South, a friend of the murdered man. Some medium called for a slate and pencil and wrote a description of Parr, stating he was in collusion with the murderer. Mr. Kirkham and Braut lived in the same house, and Kirkham being employer of Parr, on the stone arch bridge, was given details, which resulted in Parr's arrest.

The district court for Washington county will convene to-day, Judge Crosby presiding. The greater part of the term will probably be devoted to hearing what is termed the condemned land cases, that is, the land condemned by the commissioners for railroad purposes.

A telegraphic dispatch was received this morning by Mr. Shepard announcing the death of Myron Willim. The young gentleman went south a short time ago for the benefit of his health accompanied by his father. The deceased was of her part life, as if it had been one of sorrow and struggle against adversity.

SAD SUICIDE
Tired of the Struggle of Life and Hoping for the Future an End is Sought by Drowning.

CLEVELAND, O., March 13.—Mrs. F. A. Reynolds, a widow 35 years of age, employed in the Cleveland hospital for the insane, drowned herself early this morning in a small creek running through the asylum grounds.

About two years ago she removed from Vermont to Oberlin, where she attended college. Morbid sensitiveness appears to have been the cause. Mrs. Reynolds left a package addressed "to be expressed to Miss Emma A. Hyde, Grand Isle, Vt.," and the following note dated Saturday morning, to be mailed: "My dear Emma, I have here and a little money. I know that to you I must often seem dreary and death better. To me it has become insupportable. I know that suicide is murder, but God has abandoned me and it matters little now what I do. I have tried to pray since I have been here but could not. Do not mourn for me, dear, but stand in your own light and be strong. Have all the charity you can for me. Affectionately, (Signed) F. A. Reynolds."

The water in the body was found was only three feet deep. She attended church yesterday and taught a class in the Sunday school. During the three months she has been at the asylum she often appeared melancholy and spoke gloomily of her past life, as if it had been one of sorrow and struggle against adversity.

Shot His Wife.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 13.—On Saturday, Isaac Kenebeck, shot his wife twice and killed her at her home, two miles east of Grand, north-west of this city. He remained with the dead woman all night. He was arrested yesterday morning and it matters little now what reputation and is said to have been jealous of his wife.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

An advance is noted in the lake port markets, and wheat is firmer there. Corn has advanced in sympathy with wheat. In St. Paul there is nothing doing in wheat, as holders are stiff on prices and purchasers are holding off. The other articles on the list require no special mention. The following are the quotations from the board of trade:

Financial and Stock Markets.
MORNING REPORT.
New York, March 13, 11 a. m.—The stock market opened 3/4 @ 1 cent. lower than Saturday's closing, the latter for New Jersey Central, while Manhattan Elevated was 1/4 cent. higher. In the early dealings a decline of 1/4 @ 1 cent. took place in the general list and New Jersey Central fell off 5/8 per cent. This was followed by an advance of 1/4 @ 1 cent. in which New Jersey Central, Missouri Pacific, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Western Union Telegraph, Lake Shore and Louisville & Nashville were prominent. New Jersey Central subsequently fell off 1 per cent. and advanced 1/4 per cent., and Louisville & Nashville declined 3/8 per cent. and sold up 1/4 per cent. There are indications that the bears who have been talking down the credit of individuals and firms will find themselves in hot water this week. Some of the rumors lately circulated have been traced to responsible sources. At least in one case apocryphal have been refuted and steps toward legal proceedings have been taken. It is stated a prominent bar operator will be called upon to prove the statements which he is alleged to have made concerning a prominent firm. A private dispatch from Washington says: Secretary Folger will issue a call for bonds this afternoon. It is reported on good authority that an agreement for pooling the earnings of the cable companies has been ratified in London, with the exception of some details which can be perfected any time this week. The earnings of the Union Pacific railroad have increased $250,000 thus far in March. At the Stock Exchange this morning prices opened generally lower with a bearish feeling predominating.

AFTERNOON REPORT.
Money 6 @ 8 cent. Prime mercantile paper 5/6 @ 7 cent. Bar silver at $1.14. Sterling exchange weak and nominal, rates down 3/4 @ 1 cent; actual business at $4.85 1/2 long, $4.84 1/2 sight.
Governments—Unchanged.
State Securities—Dull but a fraction higher.
Bonds—Railroad bonds irregular; Boston, Hartford & Erie first 2 per cent. lower.
Stocks—After 11 o'clock the market was moderately active, but prices fell off 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., the latter for Philadelphia & Reading. New Jersey Central sold up 1/4 per cent. and declined 3/8 per cent. At noon there was a general advance of 1/4 @ 3 per cent., Missouri Pacific and Philadelphia & Reading being most prominent, while Richmond & Danville fell off 5 per cent. New Jersey Central declined 1/4 per cent., sold up 2/8 per cent. and reacted 1/4 per cent. Sixes extended, 100s; fives, 103 1/2; four and a half, 113 1/2; four, 111 1/2; Pacific sixes of '95, 125.
