

Daily Globe Official Paper of the City & County Printed and Published Every Day in the Year ST. PAUL PRINTING COMPANY, NO. 11 WABASH STREET, ST. PAUL.

gressmen Murch and Ladd cannot hope to be re-elected except on a fusion ticket with the Democrats, the indications are that the "Plumed Knight" will have an opportunity to retire to private life under Democratic auspices.

LAW OF IMPEACHMENT.

Eloquent and Able Exposition by Counselor Brislin. Upon the opening of the impeachment court a few minutes past 9 o'clock yesterday morning, J. B. Brislin, of counsel for respondent, commenced the closing argument in his behalf.

ENLARGING THE POSTOFFICE.

Dr. Day Returns From Washington and What He Accomplished. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Day returned from a trip to Washington. His special and only business to the capital of the nation was to make some provision for more room in the custom house, and better facilities for the transaction of the business of the postoffice in St. Paul, and to obtain some change in the present mode of sending off money to the postoffices throughout the country so that St. Paul can get such a portion of the money as rightfully belongs to her.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

St. Paul, March 16, 1882. Wheat was unchanged yesterday, but though quiet it was firm. Corn was faintly active and a little firmer. Oats were a little firmer and active. Barley was stronger. The market showed more activity than it has for several days, and transactions were more numerous.

M. DORAN'S REPORT.

The following quotations giving the range to 7 1/2 markets during the week received by M. Doran, commission merchant: LIVERPOOL, March 15, 10 A. M.—Spot wheat firm. Floating cargoes 6d. higher. Cargoes off coast a shade dearer. London firm. French markets easier.

THE WEEKLY GLOBE.

The Weekly Globe is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the farmer, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc. It is furnished to single subscribers at $1, with 15 cents added for pre-payment of postage. Subscribers should remit $1.15.

ST. PAUL THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 1882.

At a conference of Methodist clergy in Chicago on Tuesday last, a very decided opposition was developed to the itinerant plan of church work, and a very decided preference expressed for a permanent pastorate. Should the General Conference in 1884 discontinue the itinerant plan, it is just possible that Parson Newman and Gen. Grant may return to the fold.

The changes contemplated in the internal revenue laws will be found in the Washington dispatches in the GLOBE this morning. The reduction of the tax on whisky from ninety to fifty cents; on beer from 9 1/2 to 60 cents per barrel; on tobacco and snuff from 16 to 10 cents per pound; and on cigars from $6 to $4 per thousand, and reducing the special tax on dealers in the above articles fifty per cent.—will be approved by some and condemned by others.

The New York Sun in an elaborate and able review of the trial of Sergeant Mason by a military court declares that he has been "tried, convicted and sentenced without the authority of law," as the crime for which he was tried—assault with intent to kill—was committed in time of peace, and under the 56th and 59th articles of war brings the case within the jurisdiction of the civil authorities of the District of Columbia. The Sun concludes its review of the case as follows:

RAILROAD NOTES.

Mr. Teasdale is expected back to-day. The trains were all in on time yesterday. A considerable number of Mississippi river and St. Croix steamboat men are at the Merchants. The pay car of the St. Paul & Duluth road will go up the line to-day to scatter the greenbacks among the employes of the road.

McHugh, superintendent of the Northern division of the Northern Pacific road came down from Brainerd yesterday and returned. Mr. Bronson, secretary of the Union D-pot company, has been quite ill for several days, but still has kept at his post. Yesterday he took a trip to the country.

THE ELECTIONS OF 1882-4.

Owing to the present anomalous condition of national politics, the outcome of the State elections this year will indicate very accurately the character and result of the presidential campaign of 1884. There will be elements that will enter into State politics this year, and influences brought to bear on the policy of existing political organizations, that will make the present one of the most exciting and eventful years in the political history of the country.

A good many people complain somewhat about the arrangement at the Union depot, whereby men are stationed at the rear doors for the purpose of seeing that people who go out have tickets with instructions not to allow anyone to go out except those who have tickets. It is asserted that the arrangement is a gross violation of the rights of the number of people who make mistakes and get on board the wrong trains. The arrangements seem, however, to be necessary.

PERSONAL.

C. P. Thompson, of Fargo, is in town, with headquarters at the Merchants. R. Campbell, of Austin and C. S. Fox, of Lake City, are at the St. James. G. F. Long, of Mankato, and O. E. Thomas, of Grand Forks, are at the Exchange.

OUR MILITIA.

A meeting was held last evening in the armory of the Allen light guards for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of the erection of an armory to be used by the militia companies of this city. An armory organization was effected, which decided to accept Gen. Sanborn's lot corner, Sixth and Exchange streets, at a yearly rental of $100, upon which will be erected an armory at a cost not exceeding $50,000. Six hundred copies of the petition are being issued. A committee was appointed to consult with General Sanborn, to obtain the refusal of the property, until the organization was fully perfected. The meeting adjourned to meet Wednesday evening next.

FINANCIAL AND STOCK MARKETS.

MORNING REPORT. NEW YORK, March 15, 11 a. m.—The stock market opened in the main firm and 4 per cent. higher for Richmond & Danville, and 3/4 @ 1 per cent. higher for Hannibal & St. Joe preferred, while New Jersey Central opened 1/2 per cent. lower. In the early dealings a decline of 1/4 @ 3/4 per cent. took place, in which Louisville & Nashville, Denver & Rio Grande, New Jersey Central and Richmond & Danville were the most prominent stocks. Subsequently the market sold up 1/4 @ 1/2 per cent., Denver & Rio Grande and Louisville & Nashville leading in the advance. The plan of the bull leaders is understood to sustain in stocks an advance of 3 or 4 per cent. Western Union Telegraph, Missouri Pacific, New York Central, Lake Shore, Wash. St. Louis & Pacific and Manhattan Elevated first preferred are supported at present by an order practically unlimited. The unlimited order in Western Union Telegraph yesterday was at 70, in Lake Shore 119 1/2, Worke, Strong & Co. bought Western Union Telegraph and Freeman & Co. sustained Lake Shore. The Rothschilds, of London, have lately been large buyers of Illinois Central; 28,000 shares are understood to be registered in their names. The recent break is said to have been manipulated for the purpose of buying long stock. Dealers in exchange do not look for higher prices this week. The foreign demand for American securities is an encouraging feature in the market.

AFTERNOON REPORT.

Money 6 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 5 1/2 per cent. Bar silver at $1.14. Sterling exchange weak and nominal; rates down 1/2 per cent.; actual business at $4.85 1/2 long, $4.80 1/2 sight. Governments—Unchanged except extended fives, which are 1/4 per cent. higher. State Securities—Dull; Tennessee mixed 1/4 per cent. lower. Bonds—Railroad bonds irregular. Stocks—After 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and after a general decline of 1/4 @ 1 per cent., the latter for Louisville & Nashville, an advance of 3/4 @ 1 per cent. took place, in which New Jersey Central, Denver & Rio Grande, Louisville & Nashville and St. Paul & Omaha preferred were conspicuous. Richmond & Danville sold down 1/4 per cent. Sixes extended, 100 1/2; fives, 102 1/2; four and a half, 113 1/2; fours, 118; Pacific sixes of '95, 125.

THE DOCTOR'S CASE.

The doctor became satisfied soon after reaching Washington and conversing with the authorities, that the supervising architect of the treasury department would not listen to any proposition for the enlargement of the custom house, in which the postoffice is located. The argument used by the St. Paul custom house was, larger than the one at Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, Richmond, Va., and many other cities with a larger population than St. Paul. Besides this there are many large cities that have no such buildings. The doctor says he never saw how the building could be enlarged without destroying the symmetry, and tearing away a good portion of the old building. There is no hope that any enlargement will be made.

WHAT HE ACCOMPLISHED.

The doctor became satisfied soon after reaching Washington and conversing with the authorities, that the supervising architect of the treasury department would not listen to any proposition for the enlargement of the custom house, in which the postoffice is located. The argument used by the St. Paul custom house was, larger than the one at Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, Richmond, Va., and many other cities with a larger population than St. Paul. Besides this there are many large cities that have no such buildings. The doctor says he never saw how the building could be enlarged without destroying the symmetry, and tearing away a good portion of the old building. There is no hope that any enlargement will be made.

THE MONEY MATTERS.

The matter of the money was one of the two subjects the doctor had in mind when he went down to Washington, and this he also paid particular attention to. His object was to get an increased allowance for letter carriers, and for clerk hire. For the last five years western postoffices have been discriminated against, and not allowed the percentage that eastern offices have. During the last year the allowance was allowed only 25 per cent. of the earnings, while the eastern offices have been allowed from 50 to 65. To remedy this evil Dr. Day last winter opened a correspondence with the postmasters at the various western offices having a view to the fact that the western postmasters were not receiving the same percentage as the eastern offices. The result of this correspondence was that the postmasters thus corresponded with determined to make a joint effort to see this wrong made right, and to obtain the same percentage that eastern postmasters have, so that the people these respective towns, with the postmasters of which the doctor corresponded, can have as good a postal service as the people of the East have. When the doctor went down to Washington he took the views of the western postmasters and himself and used them to good advantage, both with members individually and with congress and the departments. Last year's appropriations were exhausted, so that he could get no aid from the department. A short time ago he secured a bill for the appropriation of $75,000 for clerk hire. This went to the senate, where it was amended by adding $75,000 to it. The house disagreed to the senate amendment, when the bill was referred to the committee on the post office and mail, after considering the matter, agreed upon the sum of $100,000, and the bill passed both houses and finally became a law. Out of this amount the western offices have been relieved.

THE DOCTOR'S CASE.

The doctor became satisfied soon after reaching Washington and conversing with the authorities, that the supervising architect of the treasury department would not listen to any proposition for the enlargement of the custom house, in which the postoffice is located.
