

The Great Event Of the Season Will be the ABSOLUTE AUCTION SALE OF 50 VALUABLE LOTS On 7th Street,

And on the Adjacent Cross Streets, only 4 Blocks from the Seventh Street Bridge, on Dayton's Bluff, the Highest Point on the Bluff, to be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, without Reserve,

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 17, 1882, at 2 O'clock, on the Ground.

Terms Very Liberal and Title Perfect, Suitable for Residence and Business Purposes. Be sure and examine this Fine Property, as it will bear inspection.

Remember that Seventh street is the leading retail street and the principal thoroughfare in the City. It is the only street that affords an extensive drive of nearly eight miles; the present bridge has always been a drawback to this, the Garden Spot of St Paul, it has recently been condemned, and urgent steps have been taken to fill in the ravine underneath and make a solid road-bed, work to be commenced this Summer; when completed, it will make Seventh street the most prominent business street, and this portion beyond the bridge the Euclid avenue of St. Paul.

Buy some of these Choice Lots at Your Own Prices, it will prove to be the best investment that you ever made in your life. For full particulars read the advertisement in the Auction Column of this paper. A. K. BARNUM, Agent. A. H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer.

Tennessee Reputation. NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 13.—Barrett's bill to settle the state debt at fifty, was rejected, 17 to 6. The committee's bill to settle the debt at 60, 3, 4, 5, 6, was discussed in both houses, but no action was taken. It is said that two Democrats absented themselves to prevent a vote in the senate. It is believed the bill will pass.
