

The Great Event Of the Season

Will be the

ABSOLUTE AUCTION SALE OF 50 VALUABLE LOTS On 7th Street,

And on the Adjacent Cross Streets, only 4 Blocks from the Seventh Street Bridge, on Dayton's Bluff, the Highest Point on the Bluff, to be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, without Reserve,

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, MAY 17, 1882, at 2 O'clock, on the Ground.

Terms Very Liberal and Title Perfect, Suitable for Residence and Business Purposes. Be sure and examine this Fine Property, as it will bear inspection.

Remember that Seventh street is the leading retail street and the principal thoroughfare in the City. It is the only street that affords an extensive drive of nearly eight miles; the present bridge has always been a drawback to this, the Garden Spot of St. Paul, it has recently been condemned, and urgent steps have been taken to fill in the ravine underneath and make a solid road-bed, work to be commenced this Summer; when completed, it will make Seventh street the most prominent business street, and this portion beyond the bridge the Euclid avenue of St. Paul.

Buy some of these Choice Lots at Your Own Prices, it will prove to be the best investment that you ever made in your life. For full particulars read the advertisement in the Auction Column of this paper.

A. K. BARNUM, Agent.

A. H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer.

Tennessee Repudiation.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 13.—Barrett's bill to settle the state debt at fifty, was rejected, 17 to 6. The committee's bill to settle the debt at 60, 3, 4, 5, 6, was discussed in both houses, but no action was taken. It is said that two Democrats absented themselves to prevent a vote in the senate. It is believed the bill will pass.

Minnesota Fire.
BELLE PLAINE, Minn., May 13.—Fire in this place destroyed several frame stores and houses on Main street. The individual losses are small and the aggregate will be less than $10,000.

CLOTHIERS.
B. O. P. C. H.

We invite the attention of our patrons to the following lots of Spring Suits that will be open for your inspection on MONDAY MORNING, MAY 15th:

Lot 6,592—Mens' all-wool Sack and Frock Suits, made from a handsome pattern of genuine Scotch Cheviot, fine, dark blue stripe, with invisible cardinal mixture on black ground, $12.00
Lot 3,330—Is a genuine English homespun, (imported goods), in a light mixture, S. B. Sack Suit. The cloth alone from which these suits are made is worth more than the price of the suit, $10.00 Lot 3,384—Boys' Harvard Suits, (ages 8 to 13 years), made from a fine, dark brown stripe Scotch Cheviot, strong and durable, $4.50.
Lot 3,991—We have left about twenty-five of these suits, (out of 150 put on sale last week,) they are made from a good quality of dark gray Cassimere, (90 per cent. wool,) mens' sizes, $5.00.

We are confident after inspecting these goods, at the above prices, you will admit they are the best value we have yet offered this season.

Only one of these suits sold to each customer.
