KAVANAGH'S AUCTIONS.

50 FORT STREET LOTS IN THE VICINITY OF THE OMAHA SHOPS AT AUCTION—I will sell at auction on the grounds, on Saturday, May 27, beginning sharp at 2 o'clock p. m. 50 lots fronting on Fort street and streets adjoining, (the same being a portion of the Barton estate) and within six blocks of the workshops of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad company, which furnishes permanent employment to a very large number of mechanics and laborers. This property is only a few blocks from the proposed site of the new school building, and on the line of the proposed extension of the street railway. The land lies high and is covered with beautiful shade trees, whilst pure spring water is to be found near by. The fact that Fort street has been ordered macadamized, with a large appropriation from the late legislature to carry on the work to the city limits, while an extra appropriation has been made to extend the same to Fort Snelling bridge, is ample evidence that the street has become a great commercial thoroughfare, and purchasers will find these lots steadily increase in value as the work progresses. Plots of the property can be seen at my office, No. 49 East Third street, from 10 to 12 o'clock. Conveyances will be in readiness to carry bidders to the grounds, and will start from the Merchants hotel and my office at 1 o'clock sharp, on day of sale. P. T. KAVANAGH, 135-47 Auctioneer.

In fine order, and of goods of that character will do well to attend this sale. Goods can be seen on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. P. T. KAVANAGH, 141-46 Auctioneer.

Also, a lot adjoining, 50x120 feet, suitable for immediate improvement, known as lots No. 1 and 2, block 66, Dayton & Irvine's addition, only two blocks north of Fort street and street cars. In a good location, and rapidly growing neighborhood. Walnut street is only two blocks from Seven Corners and the business part of the city. This fine property will be sold at auction Wednesday morning, June 7, 1882, at 11 o'clock a. m., on the premises. Terms made known on day of sale. All in want of a pleasant home should examine this property. Sale positive. A. K. BARNUM, Agent. A. H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer. 145
