THEATER GOING.

The Coming Week—Three Gait Performances July Fourth.

There will be three grand performances of this pleasant little theater on Tuesday, in celebration of the Day of Independence and an unusually fine programme has been prepared for the occasion.

The only departure from the company this week is Miss Irene Sommers, who has proved herself a very versatile vocalist.

First among the new arrivals comes Miss Lizzie Peasey, a song and dance lady, who will make her first appearance here this evening.

Miss Clara Alfred returns and will be warmly welcomed by her many friends. Messrs. McGloze & McAvoy will enter upon their second week and present an original comedy.

Miss Minnie Robinson, a wonderful change song and dance artist, is expected to appear.

The famous Cattle will introduce a new sketch entitled "Oddities." Miss Oella Ford will fill her second week with some new music, as will Miss Bernetha.

This will be the closing week of the Sherrans, who will produce one of their comical sketches.

Miss Nellie Crawford and the rest of the company will assist in making the entertainment enjoyable, and manager Wheeler will keep his hand on the bell rope and see that everything moves smoothly.

Remember every evening at 8. Tuesday, July 4, at 10:30 and 8:30, and Thursday matinee at 2:30. The entire programme will be produced at each performance.

The N. T. B. A.

The third annual reunion of the Northwestern Traveling Men's association commences at Minneapolis beach this morning.

Every preparation has been completed for the entertainment and accommodation of 1,000 members, nearly all of whom have now arrived.

The programme that has been so repeatedly published will be carried out, commencing with divine service and sermon at 10 a. m. at the Hotel Lafayette, at 2:30 this morning and a lecture at 2:30 this afternoon.

The B-thoven and the club of St. Paul, will furnish the music at the services and also give a sacred concert in the evening.

The public are invited to attend the services to-day, and may reach the hotel by car, or by the street cars, and the motor line at the fare for the round trip has been reduced to seventy-five cents. Arrangements have been made with Hon. E. M. Wilson of Minneapolis, to read the Declaration of Independence at the Fourth of July celebration.

A Wild Goose Chase.

Early yesterday morning a squad of police was put into a hack and sent out to Twenty-first avenue south and Seventh street, to capture an army of tramps reported to be in festering that locality.

So quick was the start that Officer Giverson had his hand caught in the door of the hack and the end of the second finger taken completely off.

Arriving on the field of action the vast army was found to consist of a man and his son who had crawled into a vacant barn to sleep.

The barn officers returned without making any arrests.

Our Gallant Firemen.

The annual reunion and banquet of the fire laddies occurred yesterday afternoon and as they marched through the streets with their neat blue uniforms and brightly polished apparatus they formed a spectacle that many a city of twice the size of Minneapolis might well be proud of.
