

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBELETS.

"Check" drew a good house afternoon and evening of yesterday. "Streets of New York" still draw small audiences at the Opera house. H. W. Woodbury paid his fine of $50 yesterday and was discharged from custody. The city is full of people who have come from all parts of the Northwest to attend the fair.

The receipts for fines in the municipal court for the month of August aggregated $1,833.50. "Don Carlos" will be produced at Harmonia hall this evening, with Miss Serenji as "Elizabeth." The employees of the Minneapolis & St. Louis road and their families went to Lake Minnetonka last evening on an excursion. M. Nowack's horse got frightened at the motor yesterday and ran away, playing havoc with the vehicle to which he was attached.

The electric light lamps were put into the business blocks through the city yesterday, and the city will be a blaze of glory tomorrow evening. The tea lottery case was continued at the municipal court yesterday until Wednesday. In the meantime the proprietors have agreed to close their store.

The fair management yesterday received a telegram to the effect that the mustang ponies to be used in the Indian pony race were en route and would be ready for children's day sports. Frank Rose won the solid gold ring offered by the proprietor of Paul's Place billiard hall, for the biggest run of billiards, three-half French croquet game, during the month of August. He made a run of 142 billiards.

Yesterday J. Berlinger, a passenger train brakeman on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway had his foot crushed while coupling an engine to an express car. He was taken to the Ames hospital for treatment. What sheer nonsense is it for the Tribune to urge the matter of paving Nicollet and Hennepin avenues with cedar blocks this year. At the present rate of conducting the work Forest & Co. apparently have all they can do in finishing their present contract. It was pointed out that Washington avenue would be completed before fair week, but the week dawned, and the northern portion of the avenue is not paved, although the same has been excavated and in a condition for paving traffic for over a week. Why a crew of pavers has not been at work on that part of the streets, seems to be a problem no one can answer.

FAIR WEEK ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Theatre Comique Will Present an Attractive Program This Week—The Best Variety Show in the Northwest—225 First Avenue South. Recently the fact was mentioned in these columns that W. W. Brown, the proprietor of the Theatre Comique was making unusual efforts to secure an attractive programme for fair week, and he has succeeded, as all will agree.

Strangers visiting the fair, and desiring to pass a pleasant evening in innocent amusement should not fail to visit the Comique. A number of specialty artists have been engaged directly from the East, especially for the week, and, as usual, as a result, it will be the greatest novelty entertainment ever given in this city. The following is the programme for every evening during the week, beginning tomorrow, and including matinees on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 10:30 o'clock.

PROGRAMME.

The first appearance of Miss Gerlie Harrington, the beautiful and accomplished sero-comic vocalist in her specialties. First appearance of Miss Lulu Stanford, sero-comic vocalist, who will introduce some of the latest gems of the day. Also the first appearance of Miss Maud Hamilton, the favorite vocalist and actress. The initial appearance of Miss Ada Elliot, sero-comic vocalist. The second week of the biggest hit of the season, the original German musical sketch entitled "Gretchen and I", written and composed by Charles H. Stanley, Esq., will be presented by the imitables, Harry Leavitt and Jennie Allen. The following specialty artists have been reengaged: Walter Wentworth, the great contortionist; Miss Emma Wilson, in songs and dances; John B. Hunt, in songs and dances; hoop dancing; Miss Blanche Frenham, sero-comic vocalist; Tom McGill, clog and reel dancer; Joe Crawford, Ethiopian comedian. The big four: Miss Frankie Melnotte, Miss Mamie V. Yager, Mrs. Nellie Crawford and Miss Mollie Wilbur, in their songs, dances and sketches.

NELSON WILLIAMS, Superintendent.

Fire Near the Western Avenue Bridge.

A fire broke out yesterday morning about 5 o'clock in the frame building on Western avenue, between the bridge and Twelfth street. The house is a two-story building, owned by Anthony Kelly, and occupied by Mr. Robert C. Anderson and Robert Richter, the former of whom is proprietor of a restaurant, while the latter keeps a jewelry store. The fire, which originated in the grocery store, was first discovered by George Crowell, the night clerk at the restaurant, who immediately proceeded to give the alarm. Sixteen persons who roomed in the upper-story of the building were awakened and with difficulty escaped with their lives, none of them being able to save any of their clothes or any of the furniture. The fire had made such headway before the arrival of the fire department that it was only enabled to save the walls, everything else being totally destroyed. The following is the estimated loss: Anthony Kelly, building, $2,000; insured for $2,000; Robert Richter, stock in store, $1,400; insured for $1,300; Mrs. R. C. Anderson, furniture, etc., $2,500; insured for $1,500. Total loss, 6,900; total insurance, $4,700.

Decision of the Court in the Gas Injunction Case.

Judge Lochren yesterday delivered the opinion of the court in solving the temporary injunction granted the Minneapolis Gas Light company in its suit against the city to restrain it from passing an ordinance permitting Judge Smith to lay the pipes for a new gas light company. The opinion expressed in that the franchise of the present company is perfectly valid, but that if Judge Smith chooses he may take his ordinance, should the council see fit to pass one in his favor, and then if necessary Mr. R. and can in a contest it with him in the courts. Judges Young and Shaw concurred with Judge Lochren in this view of the case.

Minnesota Spiritualists.

During the past two days the members of the religious denomination known as Spiritualists visiting in Minnesota, have been holding a convention in this city, the object being to foster feelings of mutual regard and respect, and for social and intellectual enjoyment. Spiritualism is the belief in the intelligent existence of our bodies after death, and in the power possessed by the departed spirit to hold communication with spirits in the flesh. It is claimed that spiritualism is gaining ground, although the roll of the Minnesota society shows only ninety-seven members. Many who would join the society, it is claimed, are prevented by their social and family relations. The president of the society, Miss Johnson, expresses the opinion that materialization, although an undoubted fact, is still but a theory, and must wait for time to fully develop it.

The Archibald Business College.

Occupying the second and third floors of the large block, corner First avenue south and Third street, Minneapolis, Minn., offers unequalled facilities for a girls' and boys' preparatory course, ladies' and gentlemen's commercial courses, shorthand and telegraphic courses, and an art penman's course. The only complete college of the kind in the Northwest. Day and evening sessions. The commercial courses now in session are conducted by Prof. Leonard Asire, whose reputation as a penman and bookkeeper is national, assisted by a graduate of one of the best commercial colleges in the East, Prof. J. R. Harper. All departments of the college open September 4. Pupils admitted any time. Send for circular or call at college office.

The Popular Carriage.

One exhibit which will be made during the present week at the fair grounds, deserves especial attention, and the Globe takes pleasure in giving it mention. It is the exhibit of the celebrated Dexter spring carriages, which are manufactured in Yorkville, Illinois, by W. R. Church, a genial gentleman who has already arrived on the grounds and is busily engaged in setting up his vehicles and getting them ready to be inspected by the throngs of people next week. They will be found in the building used by C. W. Shatto, the agricultural dealer, and who is the northwestern agent for these fine carriages.

Municipal Court.

(Before Judge Cooley.) James Kane, John Jackson, Jerry Ahern, drunkenness; paid $7 each. Alphonse Oldberg, drunkenness; discharged. John Olson and Julius Luther, noise and improper diversion; paid $7 each. Thomas Phillips, lottery; continued until Wednesday at 9 a. m. Edward Wright, noise and improper diversion; discharged. S. Wing, assault and battery upon E. G. Revenborg; pleaded guilty and paid $5 and costs.

THE GLOBE HOROSCOPE.

As It Casts Its Light on the Chicago Markets.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Don't I deserve a brass collar for the way in which I have been helping you make money. I know I do but haven't as yet received it, so send it along. The weather was bad early and everything started on an up turn, but so soon as the clouds broke the bottom tumbled out of everything and the market closed dull and lower. I have no reason to look for much of a reaction. The curb for October wheat is 96 1/2 c.

Corn can't advance any to speak of unless we have a frost, and while I more than half expect a reaction Monday it won't be permanent. Curb for October is 69 1/2 c. Oats also soft. Provisions declined but closed fairly steady.

[Western Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Receipts for the week: Flour, 45,000 barrels; wheat, 1,877,000 bushels; corn, 1,505,000 bushels; oats, 1,654,000 bushels; rye, 80,000 bushels; barley, 93,000 bushels. Compared with last year these receipts were about half for flour, a quarter of a million more for wheat, less than half for corn, and four times greater for oats. The shipments fall below the receipts on every article, so that stocks here increased about a million and a quarter. On the 21st of August there was here 146,000 barrels of pork, 101,000 hogs of lard, being about the same as this time last year, but about 25 per cent. less than a month ago.

Wheat to day was only moderately active. Regularly fluctuated inside of a range of 10 1/2 c. to 11 1/2 c. for September; 10 1/2 c. for October; 10 1/2 c. for November; 10 1/2 c. for December. The weather turned out fine and warmer, receipts large. Sales 93 1/2 c. for September, 95 1/2 c. for October, 96 1/2 c. for November, 97 1/2 c. for December. Winter wheat receipts were less and price a pretty firm, but easing off a little. Spring, fair business in cash, little in futures. Prices gradually weakening.

Corn was very active and unsettled, with a wide range, and prices ranged 1 1/2 c. to 1 3/4 c. for deferred options being the weakest, closing 2c lower for September, 1 1/2 c. for October and 2 1/2 c. for year. Sales 7 1/2 c. for September, 6 1/2 c. for October, 6 1/2 c. for November, 6 1/2 c. for December, 6 1/2 c. for year and 56 1/2 c. for May.

Oats weak and lower. Shippers and shorts are holding off. Arrivals are lighter but plenty. Cash 1 1/2 c. lower. Options irregularly lower, closing nearly at the inside prices. Sales 34 1/2 c. for September, 35 1/2 c. for October, 35 1/2 c. for year, 36 1/2 c. for May.

Cattle, October active, $10 1/2 to 15c higher, early, then declined 25 3/4 c. closing weak at inside prices. Sales, $31.05 to $21.90 for September; $21.80 to $21.10 for October, $21.07 to $21.25 for November, and $19.20 to $20.10 for January. Lard offerings free, demand active, weak 1 1/2 c. to 1 1/2 c. lower, closing easy. Sales, $12.07 to $12.25 for September, $12.15 to $12.35 for October, $12.10 to $12.55 for November, and $11.97 to $12.17 1/2 for January.
