

CITY GLOBULES.

The funeral of Nicholas Mathies took place yesterday and was attended by a large concourse of people, including the Druids.

Yesterday, as Mr. Nick Gross was driving down Fort street his horse fell into a hole that had been left by some one that had been engaged in ripping up the street, the result being that the horse was very severely, perhaps fatally injured.

On Saturday Mr. Fred Strouse, the son of Mr. H. J. Strouse, the Third street mercantile, left for Philadelphia, where he goes to attend the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, where he will remain for three years for the purpose of completing his medical education.

Young Strouse is an exceedingly promising young man, and goes into the profession of medicine with an enthusiasm and love for the science that indicates success.

The officers brought in quite a number of delinquents to the city hall yesterday. Michael Moran who runs away from the hospital Saturday night and got into a fight with James McGuire, a young fellow interferred with officer Steiger while the latter was making an arrest, was locked up.

BASE BALL.

The Great National Game Drawing to a Close—Very Close Work Between the Chicago and Providence Clubs.

This season has been a very remarkable one for base ball. When the season commenced it was evident that the Providence club had been organized for the purpose of taking the pennant from the Chicago club, and all through the season it has looked as though it would accomplish the feat.

Table with columns: Won, Lost, To play. Rows for Providence, Worcester, Buffalo, Cleveland, Troy, Worcester.

This shows the Providence four games in the lead of Chicago. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, these two clubs met at Chicago and the Providence club was beaten three straight games, leaving Providence 47 games won, while Chicago has 46.

THE SITUATION.

The Chicago Tribune of Friday makes the following remarks: It has been said of the three games just played by Chicago and Providence that they would virtually decide the championship question, and this is true.

Stolen, September 10, from W. L. Nichols' library, a light bay horse, white legs, white face, and an end spring piano box buggy, the name of which was the name of Chicago, and five feet eight inches high, dressed in grey clothes. It was slightly black marked in face, and claimed to be from Princeton, Minn.

Wanted. Two first-class plumbers at 165 West Third street. Steady employment to good men.

Wanted. A light bay horse, white legs, white face, and an end spring piano box buggy, the name of which was the name of Chicago, and five feet eight inches high, dressed in grey clothes.

Wanted. Two first-class plumbers at 165 West Third street. Steady employment to good men.

Wanted. A light bay horse, white legs, white face, and an end spring piano box buggy, the name of which was the name of Chicago, and five feet eight inches high, dressed in grey clothes.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH.

Annual Harvest Home Festival. Last evening, according to custom, a very pleasing and instructive service was held in Plymouth church, designed to impress the lessons of the recent harvest on the people.

The pulpit was tastefully decorated with a combination of the various grains of the harvest. The pulpit was faced with a sheaf of wheat and ivy and other greens entwined appropriately about the golden colored products of the harvest fields of the state, while across the organ in letters of wheat were the words, set on a dark background, "Harvest Home."

The service was somewhat out of the usual order, and was arranged and carried out with taste. The opening anthem, by the choir, was Barnaby's—How manifold are thy works, O Lord. This was followed by the responsive reading of the 103 psalm, concluded by the Gloria Patri.

The scripture lesson by the pastor was composed of appropriate selections. The congregational hymn, and the second lesson from the Psalter with responses by the choir were impressive. The offertory by the latter, by Hiles, "The people shall dwell in the land."

The address of Dr. Dana embraced some of the lessons of the harvest, and was suggested by the words in I Samuel xii 24: "For consider how great things He has done for you."

It is no formal service this, in which we meet to recount our God-given mercies. Around no other altar could such crowds be assembled as that whereon the first fruits of the harvest are laid, and about which the offering of praise is offered. How impressive is the thought, that through these last months.

NATURE HAS BEEN DOING HER WORK punctually and bountifully. She has brought to maturity the growing grain and covered the earth with the tokens of her fruitfulness. In her domain what an exhibit of order we find. There is no selfish plan, no selfish miserly sun, there have been no conspiring stars, no winds disobedient to the divine mandate, no stinging clouds reluctant to drop the fertilizing showers, no soil refusing to receive the seed.

THE LESSON OF DEPENDENCE must be of great importance, for it is read to us anew each recurring year. When the children of Israel journeyed through the wilderness, they gathered every morning the life-sustaining manna, and thus were they taught their dependence on Jehovah.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

MISS BOAK TO THE FRONT

Her Plan for Temperance Reform—Every Body to be Compelled to Get Drunk—A Gay Picture.

To the Editor of the Globe: Will you allow me to write a few lines in behalf of the temperance cause? My conscience tells me to speak.

The temperance question has been discussed for years and perhaps centuries with no effect. You can preach temperance to the end of your existence and it will avail nothing; therefore stop preaching temperance and study human nature, causes, effects, etc., and then you may possibly learn how to avoid this great evil.

Men are all obstinate as mules, and the more you lecture them the more obstinate they become. It is always better to allow them their own way. It is an unkind and stupid world that will not allow a man his own way. God never created two persons exactly alike.

Give any one too much of one kind of food, and they will turn away disgusted. Now we will show you the drunkard, and later will present to you the temperance man. Turn them all loose, and see which, the temperance man or the whiskey man, will come out the victor, give them both a fair start in the chase.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

Nothing is more natural than a drunkard and his crew, and the inner soul, you see the natural man as he is. Then, and then only, he becomes as little children. It is quite interesting to see a drunkard treading his zig-zag way so gracefully. He reminds one of a little child just learning to walk.

[For the St. Paul Globe.] MINNEHAHA.

'Tis hazy fall time now, in gorgeous colors The hills, the meadows, forests those enchant In whose breasts Aurora rules supreme, Who sends his speeding arrows, heart blood tipped.

So archly smiling at those longing humans, who blindly venture into his domain. Where walls and turrets fiercely frown, With flash and clank of arms beneath. Near where the "Laughing Water" falls And rushes swiftly on o'er rock and pebbles To meet "Father of Waters" and with him Flow on to Crescent City's orange groves.

He, warrior, armed from head to foot And glorious in brass buttons and his courage; She, lovely maiden, meek and quiet encased In sixteen buttoned gloves and Dolly Varden dress. "Nearer, my love, to thee" he spoke and slid For pen of mortal felly to describe.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

And up again, the azure heavens rending, Arise the yells and screams in quick succession, And stifling grows the atmosphere with smoke, A mighty swell the creek bed rushes up, And overspreads the mossy banks.

FIVE CENTS A LINE.

SITUATIONS OFFERED. Laborers.

30 RAILROAD LABORERS WANTED—for the Manitoba Co. on gravel train at Barnesville and Morris; steady work; sure pay. Call early at St. Paul Employment Office, 289 Sibley street, opposite Union Depot. 261

WANTED—A farm hand. W. M. Stees, corner Third and Minnesota street. 253

WANTED—Fifty men on sewer work, corner of Rice and Bondo, at $1.75 per day. Jas. Waters, Contractor. 246

WANTED—500 railroad laborers to-day. Free fare. Work all season. Moore, 137 East Third street. 106

BOOK PRINTERS WANTED—36¢ per 1,000—Ten or twelve competent book printers can find permanent employment at West Publishing Co., St. Paul. 248

WANTED—A compositor to go to Fargo Falls to work on the Daily Telegram. Pay thirty cents per 1,000 ems and most of the matter led over. 248

WANTED—Carpenters, on Laurel avenue, between Western avenue and Arundel street. G. W. Merrill. 260-261

WANTED—Carpenters, 274 Iglehart street. Work all winter to good men. 260-261

TINNERS wanted at 506 St. Peter street. 258-64

WANTED—At St. Paul Brass Works, 1 good brass finisher, also a young man to do laboring work. Apply to Chas. W. Nittermeyer, foreman. 259-65

WANTED—Two first-class plumbers at 105 West Third street. Steady employment to good men. Kenny & Hinder. 256-261

WANTED—A boy 16 or 17 years old to learn the upholstering trade. Stees Bros. 198

FIVE CENTS A LINE.

KAVANAGH'S AUCTIONS.

ELEGANT RESIDENCE PROPERTY OF H. H. Timme, on Rice street, at Auction—I will sell at auction, on the premises, No. 165 (old number) Rice street, on Tuesday, September 25, commencing at 2 o'clock p. m., the fine residence grounds owned by H. H. Timme, Esq. The grounds are 180x254 feet, elegantly laid out and covered with healthy shade trees and shrubbery.

UNIVERSITY AVENUE LOTS AT AUCTION—These desirable lots are beautifully located on University avenue, including the corner of University and Farrington avenues, between Farrington avenue and Elfeld street, in Elfeld, Bernheimer & Arnold's addition to St. Paul. These fine lots are increasing in value daily.

NEW AND COSTLY HOUSE-FURNISHING Goods at auction, Tuesday, September 19th, 1882, commencing at ten o'clock, at the new store, No. 108 East Third street, the contents of the entire building, being the extensive stock of about $10,000 of Mr. E. F. Hamilton, retiring from business, consisting in part of fine Brass Goods, Andirons, Cook Hoods, Fenders, Urnlike Stoves, beautiful Spring Kettles, Vienna Coffee Machines, Hanging Lamps, Lanterns, (bull-eye and common) Blower Stands, &c., manufactured by the celebrated Manhattan Brass Company.

WANTED—A boy about fourteen years old to drive delivery wagon, must be acquainted with city and come well recommended. Apply to 94 East Third street. 260-261

WANTED—A young man who is willing to do any honorable work wants steady employment. Address G. E. Land, 10 Exchange street. 256-262

WANTED—Immediately, two experienced clothing salesmen, at Egan's, the big clothing, 67 East Third street. 257-263

WANTED—Competent girl for a small family. Call on Mrs. J. W. Jagger, 113 Farrington avenue. 258-64

WANTED—Girl to cook, wash and iron. Good wages to competent girl. Corner Jackson street and Aurora avenue, No. 275. 256-262

WANTED—Good cook, washer and ironer, also girl to do light second work and help with sewing, good cutter and fitter preferred. Liberal wages to competent help. Inquire at Globe office. 256-262

REAL ESTATE. FOR SALE—Several lots near Ohio street (Sixth ward), on the bluff. Inquire of J. A. McConey, at Globe Office, or at residence, 231

HOUSES and lots in various parts of the city sold on monthly payments by C. M. Dittmann, Gilliland block. 225-317

RARE BARGAINS—Nine acres (also lot 12, block 7, Summit park addition) on Summit avenue, and lots in Como Park village. James H. Davidson, Davidson block. 185

AUCTION SALE

OF VALUABLE Real Estate

The Regents of the University of Minnesota will offer for sale, at public auction, on Thursday, the 21st day of September, inst., at the University, about 250 LOTS in "Regents Addition to Minneapolis," plots of which can be seen at the office of McKim & Hastings, 103 Central avenue; at Prof. Pike's, 329 Hennepin avenue, and at the University. These lots are located near the University and are very desirable for residence purposes.

Terms, 1/3 cash, balance in one and two years at seven per cent. interest. Sale to commence at 1 o'clock p. m. Minneapolis, Minn., September 12, 1882. Per order of the Board of Regents, H. H. SIBLEY, President.

City Treasurer's Office. St. Paul, September 16, 1882. To the owners and all parties interested in the property condemned for the Opening of Grant Street, from Sherburne street to Bluff street.

APPLY FOR THEM. 1883 PRICE LISTS OF 1883 STANDARD DIARIES. St. Paul Book & Stationery Co. 127 EAST THIRD STREET, ST. PAUL.

CITY NOTICE. Notice for Judgment. OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER. I will make application to the District Court in and for the county of Ramsey and state of Minnesota, at the special term, held Saturday, Sept. 30, 1882, at the Court House, in St. Paul, Minnesota, for judgment against the different lots and real estate embraced in a warrant in my hands for the collection of unpaid assessments, with interests and costs thereon for the herein-after named special assessments.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Ass't. Amount.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Ass't. Amount.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Ass't. Amount.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Ass't. Amount.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Ass't. Amount.

DR. JOSEPH LICK, Eye Infirmary! Treats successfully all kinds of sore eyes, particularly granulation of the eye lids. Office at No. 59 West Tenth street, St. Paul, Minn. 216-sun-toed-tri-811

2 SECOND HAND ORGANS! Ranging in price from $25.00 to $75.00. MUST BE SOLD. Dyer & Howard, 148 and 150 East Third Street.

ST. L. & ST. P. PACKET COMPANY. ELECTRIC LIGHT LINE. The Fleet and Popular Steamer.

GRAND PACIFIC. T. BOLAND, Master. N. G. RHODES, Clerk. Will leave for St. Louis and way landings, Monday, September 18, at 10 a. m.

DIAMOND JO LINE OF STEAMERS. ONLY Line of Steamers Leaving St. Paul for St. Louis Without Change. The Popular Passenger Packet.

LIBBIE CONGER. DAVIS, Master. Departs for St. Louis and way landings Monday, September 18, at 12 o'clock, noon. For Passage apply to I. D. BUSCH, Agent. JOSEPH REYNOLDS, Gen'l Manager. 260-61

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. The undersigned intends to apply to the common council of the city of St. Paul, for permission to maintain a slaughter house on his premises, West St. Paul, being block 146 in West St. Paul proper. LUDWIG KAROEN, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 13, 1882. 257-264

Commander, Barstow and New Harris FURNACES! Every one warranted satisfactory. WOLTERSTORFF & MORITZ, ST. PAUL. ANY ONE WANTING Hard Wood Lumber, In any size will do well to apply to or address M. Laford, Little Falls, Minn. Lumber can be delivered on Northern Pacific cars. 149

Does Your Corn Pain You? Merell, Sahlgard, & Thwing, Wholesale Druggists, General Wholesale Agents, St. Paul.

McGrath Fire Tailoring, 146 EAST THIRD STREET. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. A House With Ten Rooms. Lot 17x50; barn, well and cistern. Location 250 feet of the street cars. Possession given immediately. Price $5,500. Terms of payment moderate. Apply to R. W. JOHNSON, Real Estate Agent, Room 11, Second Floor, Manheimer Block.

OLD MADE NEW WITH DOBBINS' ELECTRIC POLISH. Scouring and Polishing. ASK YOUR GROCER. MANUFACTURED BY DOBBINS' ELECTRIC POLISH. Sole in the World.

CORLIES. CHAPMAN AND DRAKE. INCORPORATED 1851. Model Factory, Eagle street and Seven Corners. Office, Eighth and Jackson streets.

PROF. R. S. STUEBINGER. Gives instruction on the Piano, Violin and Guitar. LESSONS GIVEN IN VOCAL MUSIC. Office in Music Hall. Postoffice box 877, Stillwater, Minn. 252

STILLWATER ADVERTISEMENTS. PROF. R. S. STUEBINGER. Gives instruction on the Piano, Violin and Guitar. LESSONS GIVEN IN VOCAL MUSIC. Office in Music Hall. Postoffice box 877, Stillwater, Minn. 252

STILLWATER ADVERTISEMENTS. PROF. R. S. STUEBINGER. Gives instruction on the Piano, Violin and Guitar. LESSONS GIVEN IN VOCAL MUSIC. Office in Music Hall. Postoffice box 877, Stillwater, Minn. 252