CITY GLOBULES.

The Chicago St. Paul & Milwaukee train was a little late yesterday noon. Mr. A. B. Carry, of the St. Paul & Duluth road, has resigned his position in the general freight office. Clara May Bishop, a little girl, strayed away last night from Norris street and was returned by policeman Merriam. F. A. Newell, Esq., the well known banker of Waseca, was in the city yesterday and paid his respects to the state officials at the capitol. Elmer Good and Daniel Sullivan have brought suits against the city of St. Paul to recever $500 each for injuries to their lots on Otsego street.

The Minneapolis & St. Louis railway expect to open their line for freight to Faribault via Waterville, then over Stickney's Canon valley road, to-day.

Charles A. Groff has commenced a suit in the district court against A. W. Edwards, of the Fargo Argus, to recover $20,000 for an alleged libelous article in the Argus.

A writ of mandamus was issued from the supreme court yesterday, directing Judge Macdonald to make return of all facts in the case of the State ex. rel. Grant Schmidt, relator.

A suit was commenced yesterday in the district court by Mrs. Jennie R. Lamprey against Mary Ann Chamberlain to quiet the title to lots 15, 16 and 17 of block 41 Summit Park addition.

Five Polanders living on Western avenue refused, or rather neglected, to move their shanty out of the street and were brought before Judge Burr yesterday morning, and fined $50 each, sentence being suspended until the 30th inta.

The wager of $50 upon the time made by O. G. Miller's horse upon the Midway track on Tuesday, has been referred to Wifkes' Spirit of the Times for settlement, the point at issue is whether he went within a mile in three minutes. The charges against Policeman Thomas, setting forth that on certain occasions he was intoxicated, and also that he intentionally allowed a prisoner to get away.

and which was to have been heard by the mayor, have been withdrawn and the case The Jackson street M. E. church have taken possession of their newly purchased lot on the corner of Eleventh and Robert, and are having the large brick house put in first class shape for a parsonage. It will be one of the most desirable residences in the city.

Mary Kehoe has brought a suit against the city of St. Paul to recover $500 for damages occasioned her by partly filling in on her lot on Otsego street; and Henrietta Somerville has brought a similar suit against the city to recover $1,000 damages to her lot on Mount Airy street.

Yesterday afternoon a hard looking customer, who gave his name as Andrew Nolan was arrested by Officer Dietter for stealing an overcoat from William Byrnes, on the corner of Sixth and Robert streets He was given thirty days in jail, just what he wanted. Hurry up the workhouse. The four laddies who raised the ruction on the corner of Franklin and Exchange street, Tuesday night, were each fined $10 the convention will be to memorialize confor their fun, by Judge Burr, yesterday morning. Hill, Flowers and Lyons paid their fine, but Flatterly concluded to board his fine out at the expense of the county just above the bridge. When found he was senseless, but on reviving he said he was a fireman on engine No. 117, of the Manitoba road. He said he fell in company with two men who robbed him of $50 and pushed him over the bluff. He was taken to his home on the corner of Buffalo and Granite streets.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday morns ing officer Deiter found a man who gave his name as Hill, on the railroad track, properly locked after.

Theo. F. Smith has commenced a suit in the district court against John and Mary Burke, for maintaining a nuisance consisting of a water closet, next to plaintiff's property, and asks the court to award him $1,000 as damages. James W. Mabon has also brought a suit against Burke on the same ground, and asks for $2,000 dam

A man died about 5:30 last night in front of the saloon kept by Peterson Oleson on the corner of Fifth and Rosabel street. He was sitting in front of the saloon, when he quite suddenly fell from his chair and died instantly. He was not known in St. Paul. He had one wooden leg and has been around the streets some. The body was placed in charge of Mc-Carthy and Donelly.

Last Monday three young men, engaged in a hunting expedition, passed through St. Paul on their way up the Minnesota valley for the purpose of hunting. Yesterday a dispatch was received by a gentleman in St. Paul, stating that one of the three men, P. P. Turnbull, had been drowned in Heron lake, and requesting that the gentleman would have an undertaker at the train at 7:25. The services of Mr. Stees were secured and the remains properly cared for.

A very pleasant time was had at Pfeifer's hall last evening, the occasion being the second annual ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Division No. 1. Nearly one hundred couple were present. The Great and happy hearts danced the hours away until the rosy morn reminded the gay revellers that another day had dawned.

An interesting cermony took place at the church of St. Johns, the Evangelist yesterday afternoon, which united Walter S. Morton and Miss Susie L. Thompson, the youngest daughter of the late J. E. Thompson, in the bond of matrimony. The Rev. E. S. Thomas, of St. Paul church officated, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Kittson. Only ,a few of the immediate relatives of the happy pair were present. The Globe extends arty congratulations to the newly married couple and hopes that all the joys of earth may attend them through life. Mr. Joseph McKey of the Boston one price clothing store, yesterday was surprised by the receipt of a postal card accompanied by a letter from F. A. Fletcher & Co., of Chicago. On the 9th of August last Messrs. McKey & Co. placed the postal card mentioned above in the mail here in St. Paul directed to Dr. B. Wasserzurg, No. 229 Jackson street, St. Paul. Through some mistake the card went to Europe, and yesterday got back to St. Paul. It bears the stamp of a great many post-offices, such as Berlin, Bremen, Liverpool and other large cities in Europe. It has evidently traveled constantly from the time it left St. Paul till it returned. It finally, after returning from Europe, went to F. A. Fletcher & Co., at Chicago and by them was sent to McKey & Co., St. Paul. KILLED ON THE RAIL

Two Men at Atwater and One at College

Place Killed by the Cars. At 4:30 yesterday afternoon an accident occurred at Atwater by which two men lost their lives. Two trains were going west. One was standing on the track at Atwater when the other came thundering along into tho station, and ran into the one that was standing there, The train was not seriously injured but a brakeman named H A. Snyder and a fireman named Andrew Reath were killed. The bodies of both were brought to St. Paul and taken to the undertaking rooms of L. Leigh & Co. to be prepared for burial. The body Synder will be sent his brother in Iowa where resided. The remains of Reath will be interred in St. Paul. He came from Canada. Mr. Byers, the engineer of the train that was standing still, was slightly injured.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT. About 6:30 last night, the telegraph operator at College Place, named Winchester, attempted to deliver a letter to the conductor of the Northern Pacific train as it was passing the station. In doing this he accidentally dropped the letter and while stooping down to pick it up he was struck by the St. Paul & St. Louis train and fatally injured. He was brought to St. Paul and started in a conveyance for St. Luke's hospital, but before he could reach the place he died, and was according taken to Leigh's undertaking rooms.

> > Gardner in Karl.

A large and well pleased audience greeted Mr. Charles A. Gardner and his excellent company at the Opera house last evening. Mr. Gardner has the well deserved reputation of being the best German dialect comedian on the American stage, and he is well supported by Miss Patti Rosa and the balance of his company. The play presented was the original comedy-drama of "Karl," written expressly for him. While there is not anything particularly original in the plot of the play, there is sufficient in it to keep the audience interested and good humored from beginning to end. The average theater-goer wants to be amused, and Mr. Gardner fills the bill in his presentation of the character of "Karl." There is a mixture of comicality and sentiment sufficient to please all classes. and if any reader of the GLOBE has an idle hour or two at their disposal they will enjoy it by visiting the Opera house to-

The Ramsey County Republicans. The Republican county committee (regnlar so called) met at the office of Gen. Mark D. Flower in the custom house yesterday afternoon, every member of the committee being present as follows: Mark D. Flower chairman J. P. Allen A. N. Nel. son, R. N. McLaren, Ernest Albrecht, Geo. Watson and Peter Bohland. The committee talked over the situation generally, and decided upon the apportionment of delegates. Chairman Flower was authorized to call the convention when he thought best, and he was also authorized to consult "Ex-chairman" Foote with the view to harmonize the present contentions between the "oldsters" and the "youngsters" in relation to the primaries and the call of the convention.

A Judicial Bolt. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.-In the convention to nominate a judge of the court of common pleas number forty-one, Amos Briggs was re-nominated.
