MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULETS.

Real estate sales were heavy yesterday. Minneapolis registration is 13,345, all told. Romeo and Juliet at the matinee this afternoon. Yesterday's wheat shipments were 3,500 bushels. Gen. Bragg dined at the Nicollet house last evening. The police force was paid for October yesterday. Chas. Shatto has been arrested for assault and battery. Bob Ingersoll will lecture in the Academy on the 16th. Charles Dexter was fined $15 for knocking a man down. Oysters "as you like them" at the Boston restaurant. Open all night. The industrial school at the woman's boarding home will open to-day. The millers received 1,677,000 bushels of wheat during the month of October. Go to the Comique restaurant and see what you can get for dinner to-day. The Pillsbury A flouring mill manufactured 26,624 barrels of flour last week. Shaughran has enjoyed a good run at the Opera house this week. The stage of water in the river continues quite high considering the season. The following board of directors have been elected for the proposed new Women's Brotherhood of Gethsemane are to hold an important meeting Monday evening. The Reform club expect to have a rousing meeting at Harrison hall to-morrow afternoon. Business of a criminal nature could not be considered rushing in the police court yesterday. The Republicans will gather in Peterson's hall and rehearse their funeral dirge this evening. The funeral of Mrs. Dr. Spaulding occurred yesterday afternoon from the family residence. The receipts of wheat in Minneapolis yesterday reached the magnificent figure of 186,000 bushels. Several more crews of lumbermen, with teams and full equipments, started for the pines yesterday. Miss Margaret Mather will close her season in Minneapolis with "As You Like It" at the Academy this evening. The nuptials of Miss Grace Hyde, the daughter of L. Mel Hyde, and Mr. Joseph Radcliffe, will be celebrated to-day. The campaign song "Are you fixed, William D.?" published in yesterday's GLOBE, is being sung throughout the city. H. W. Mowry and wife returned yesterday from a two month's visit to Mr. Mowry's former home, Providence, R. I. Edward Cordia, the miscreant who robbed a lady of her pocket book, had his case continued yesterday until this afternoon. The Republicans are vainly endeavoring to undo the work accomplished by the Thursday night Peterson hall meeting. During the month of October there were eleven fires in Minneapolis, entailing a loss of $7,100, upon which there was $14,000 insurance. The Shaughran will be presented as the matinee piece at the Opera house this afternoon. It will be put on for the last time this evening. Can Geo. K. Shaw or A. B. Nettleton answer the questions propounded in the communication in this issue headed "Nuts to Crack?" Real estate transactions, considering the fact that it is the eve of an important and hotly contested election, have been quite active the past week. W. H. Campbell's attention is called to the communication in this department headed "Nuts to Crack." It is written by a man who can substantiate every word. The eleven-year-old son of B. Benson was injured on Thursday night by being knocked down by one street car as he jumped from another which was going in an opposite direction. All that Mayor Ames asks of the Washburn organs is to keep up their present policy of vilification and defamation, and the people will rise up on Tuesday and vindicate him. Miss Mather attracted another large and fashionable audience at the Academy last evening. The bill was Shakespeare's "As You Like It," and seldom has the play been so well presented in this city. Helen S. Shufelt brought action against the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway company for non-delivery of her trunk, and yesterday received judgment to the amount of $400. Swate Swanson, who was indicted by the grand jury for the crime of selling liquor in less quantities than five gallons without a license therefor, pleaded guilty in court yesterday morning and paid a fine of $50. The following from the Celtic World shows in what esteem Doc. Collins is held by the Irish: "They say Doctor Collins has been subsidized to catch the Irish vote. Don't be hard on the doctor, boys, his persuasive eloquence won't hurt anybody." [Ralph Reese was before the police court yesterday charged with obstructing the street in front of his store on Hennepin avenue with rubbish and filth. The case was continued until this afternoon for trial. Charles Baker, the sneak thief who stole

POLITICAL NOTES.

The general statute of Minnesota reads: "Whoever votes more than once at the same general election is guilty of felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than six months or more than one year." The Tribune is unconsciously doing injury to Washburn by preaching high protective tariff and saying he will advocate it, when Windom distinctly and emphatically condemned high tariff and said he was in favor of a modification of it because it was too high on the necessities and too low on the luxuries of life. Windom is a higher and better authority than Nettleton, and yet the insignificant creature disagrees with and argues against the senator. The high water of the Mississippi in the spring of the year, caused by the construction of dams and huge reservoirs for which Bill Washburn got an appropriation, will throw the men "on the drive" out of work and float the logs idly to the mills of Minneapolis for the benefit of the pine land ring and the avaricious millioners. Ye lumbermen, don't fail to vote against the man that has successfully sought to throw you out of employment. "Thirty years ago, in the days of President Pierce," said a venerable Republican citizen in the hearing of the GLOBE reporter, "beef was sold by the quarter at the rate of a cent and a half a pound, and a workman's suit was bought for fifty cents. The wages then were about fifty cents a day and there was abundance of everything, and no tramp in the land." This was in the days of free trade and under Democratic sway. In his proposition to George K. Shaw to print one column at advertising rates in the Journal, exposing Washburn's sale of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad, Ed. A. Stevens offered to have the article submitted to a dozen of the leading citizens of Minneapolis who best knew the facts connected with the sale, and if they said there was one word which was not literally true in the article, it should be condemned. Shaw refused, and in last night's Journal said the whole article was a vile slander upon Washburn. The Solons of the tariff commission "caught a Tartar" in Minneapolis, in the person of Prof. W. W. Folwell, who fills the chair of political economy at the state university. When asked his views on protective tariff versus "tariff for revenue only," though he is an honest Republican who naturally would be inclined to support the policy of the present administration, he unequivocally and strongly favored the Democratic doctrine and gave sound reasons for so doing. General Nettleton would follow his example and declare against the doctrine he now preaches, but for the fact that he has an axe to grind. Gen. Nettleton, of the Tribune, ought to attend for a term at the state university and take lessons in political economy from President W. W. Folwell, who, when asked before the tariff commission at the Nicollet house, to give his opinion regarding the tariff, condemned in no measured tone the present exorbitant tax on imported goods, and strongly expressed himself in favor of and endorsed the Democratic doctrine of "tariff for revenue only." Every professor of eminence in economic science throughout the land agrees with Prof. Folwell, and they have made a life-long study of the subject, while the nimny of the Tribune has been speculating in real estate. A prominent and influential Anoka county Republican said to a GLOBE reporter on the street yesterday: "Anoka county will repudiate Washburn this time. We are tired of having a mere figurehead in congress. He is a man wholly without influence in a large and intelligent assembly. Besides his endeavor to gobble up our bank, and then lying about it afterwards, has disgusted the business men of Anoka. I shall vote and work for the election of Dr. Ames, as will hundreds of other Republicans. I heard his address in Anoka the other evening, and am fully impressed that he is not only a more capable man than Washburn, but that he is honest and will work in the interests of his constituency." Gen. Nettleton is the Goliath of Minneapolis. If there is a place of burning brimstone he will know it on that day of common reckoning. Not only is he an arrant liar, but he is the champion slanderer of all Minnesota. His daily recreation is in vilifying Dr. Ames and the Democratic candidates. Yesterday morning he said Dr. Ames had attacked the Catholic churches, when Dr. Ames had not mentioned the Catholic churches. The Catholics know this and will vote accordingly. Another lie pinned: The time the prisoners escaped from the county jail the Tribune said it was owing to the disobedience of Turnkey Riley, and that Sheriff Eustis was not to blame. Now the Tribune arraigns Mr. Eustis in a most contemptible manner, and alleges that it was through his incompetency that the prisoners escaped. Just such vile campaign lies told by this contemptible hypocrite and liar who throws about himself the mantle of the church, will do more towards the election of Mayor Ames and the re-election of Mae Eustis than would the most glowing eulogues from his corrupt pen. A circular will be issued by Treasurer Gillilan to-morrow announcing that mutilated gold certificates will be redeemed on presentation. Bright's Disease, Diabetes. Beware of the stuff that pretends to cure these diseases or other serious kidney, urinary or liver diseases, as they only relieve for a time and makes you ten times worse afterwards, but rely solely on Hop Bitters, the only remedy that will surely and permanently cure you. It destroys and removes the cause of disease so effectually that it never returns. THE ST. PAUL DAILY GLOBE HAS BEEN PROVED THE BEST CURE FOR KIDNEY DISEASES. Does a lame back or disordered urine indicate that you are a victim of KIDNEY DO NO! HERRING'S, use Kidney-Wort at once, (druggists recommend it) and it will speedily overcome all kidney diseases and restore healthy action. Ladies. For complaints peculiar to your sex, such as pain in the back, disordered urine, etc., Kidney-Wort is especially adapted. It will act promptly and safely. Either sex. Incontinence, retention of urine, blood in the urine, etc., are cured. It is sold by all druggists. Price 25c. KIDNEY-WORT

POLITICAL NOTES.

Work for the solid Democratic ticket. It can be elected. "Dinner pail brigade," "spot" the Washburn repeaters on Tuesday. Vote for Democracy and honesty against aristocracy and robbery. The Democratic party represents labor; the Republican party, wealth. Vote for the party that has always protected American citizens abroad. "Spot" Washburn imported repeaters and ballot box stuffers on Tuesday. No, I'll not yield. Let the laboring man learn his place or starve.—Bill Washburn. The German lovers of personal liberty understand that H. R. Hicks is pledged for Prohibition. Democrats of the Fifth ward, see to it that no A. B. Nettleton only casts one vote on Tuesday. Windom versus Nettleton on the tariff question is interesting reading matter for the working man. Let Mayor Ames have a good majority in Minneapolis, and the balance of the district will swell it. The Republican leaders give up the office of sheriff. They will give up the whole legislative ticket on Tuesday. The laboring man who votes for the kid-gloved aristocrat hurts his own interests, unless he receives the swag. The workingman who votes for Washburn positively cuts his jugular vein and helps to strike a nail in his own coffin. The laboring man who votes for Ames, votes for a man who will be his friend in Washington, as he has been in Minneapolis. Did the "brave" saw log general Washburn shoulder a musket to fight for his country? No; it was Dr. Ames who did that. The man who votes for Dr. Ames helps "to redeem, regenerate and desanctify" labor from the heavy yoke of the monopolists. Who says Mayor Ames attacked the Catholic churches? The contemptible falsifier of the Tribune who signs himself Gen. Nettleton. Who fought for his country in the hour of peril? "Gen." Washburn? No; it was the brave, noble Dr. Ames. Grand Army of the Republic, remember this. The Hon. J. S. Root, who has so ably refuted the fallacious arguments of Senator Windom will soon become a resident of this city, and engage in the practice of law. Over 13,000 names registered. Where did all these people come from? The woods of Wisconsin. Who paid them for coming here? Bill Washburn. "Spot" them. All the Republican candidates on the legislative ticket are pledged for prohibition save Fletcher. That is an example of the extremities to which the party is driven. Why did not Bill Washburn occupy the platform when Windom spoke in this city? Because the "general" knew that the senator would damn him with just praise, and so he did. George K. Shaw, editor of the Journal, in a conversation with Ed. A. Stevens, said "the less said about the sale of the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway the better for Washburn." Many men here are now breaking the divine command, "Thou shalt have no other God but me." They are offering incense to Bill Washburn, the "golden calf" of Minneapolis. Ed. McDermot, who is the champion of the laboring men, first, last and all the time, has a bill before the house which will be of interest to the working classes.—Tribune, Feb. 22, 1878. Ed. McDermot has stood the untiring friend of the working classes, and when he has occasion to speak it has been with freedom, clearness and intelligence.—Tribune, Feb. 22, 1878. Bill Washburn is in favor of a high tariff, simply because it is in the interests of the bloated aristocrats and millionaire manufacturers, and a crushing load upon the shoulders of the laboring man. William Windom says the tariff is a burden to the laboring men, and wants to go to congress to reduce it. Dr. Ames also says the tariff is a cruel burden on the laboring men, and will go to congress to reduce it. The aim and policy of the Democratic party is the greatest good to the greatest number, and equal and even-handed justice to all. The aim and policy of the Republican party is the greatest good to the privileged few, at the expense of the people at large. Multitudes of men from different districts of the state and even from Wisconsin, are brought to this city to vote for Dives. If paid repeaters and fraudulent voters can carry the day, Bill Washburn will be triumphantly elected. The Republican organs of Minnesota are loud-mouthed in their advocacy of William Windom who stands upon a platform for the reduction of the tariff. While they are just as blatant in their advocacy of Bill Washburn who is in favor of a high tariff. Consistency is a jewel. Marcy defended and secured the freedom of Martin Kotska, though he had only declared his intention to become an American citizen; Lowell makes no effort to defend or secure the release of Sweeney, a full-fledged American citizen, who fought for the Union. Marcy was a Democrat, and Lowell is a Republican. There will be several thousand illegal Washburn voters cast. "Spot" them. The law is stringent. Put it in full operation.

The prosperous condition of existing settlements along the line of the Northern Pacific railroad in Minnesota and Eastern Dakota is the best guarantee of the permanency of the agricultural interests of the entire region.
