

was challenged to do so. And above all, my friends, the ground on which I ask you to do your duty towards this man is the goodness of his heart and the abounding generosity of his nature.

If to-morrow you were to go to Minneapolis, and there in one of those railroad yards you were to meet with some accident and a crowd would gather around you and you would discern some one before long making his way through the crowd, come up to the fatal spot and say: "Here, boys; get a cab or something and take this man to Ames' hospital." What does that mean? This doctor out of his own pocket has for years maintained what you may call a charitable hospital at Minneapolis, a place where

THE POOR AND THE AFFLICTED can be taken and receive treatment. If they have money to pay for what they get, all right; if they have not, they are welcome. You cannot go anywhere in this state but that you will meet with men who can testify to his abounding charity. Men will say to him: "Do you remember when you did me that kindness?" Up in one town a man came up to him and says, "Doctor, don't you remember me?" "No," said the doctor, "I do not." "Do not you remember that hand?" and he held it up to him. "Look at that hand," I looked at it but I didn't see that anything was the matter with it, except that it was a little dirty. He says "Doctor, don't you remember how in the thrashing machine I cut that hand and had no money, and you doctored it and kept me for a week?" Oh, the doctor remembered it then. And you will meet with instances upon instances of this kind. A Philadelphia physician was once called to attend upon a poor man who had been seriously injured in a mine, and who had a wife and family, and after a while he sent him in a bill for his services amounting to $126. The poor man paid all of it but a few dollars. He got out of work; he was discouraged, his wife was discouraged; and his wife in her despair took poison or some deadly drug; and he sent for the doctor, to whom he had paid this large sum of money. (This is a fact.) He sent for the doctor and he came and he drew up a prescription for her and then turned round to the man and asked him if he had two dollars. The poor man said: "Doctor, we have got a little money in the house, but there is my wife unconscious and she has got the keys. You see the condition she is in." "Oh," says the doctor, "that won't do you with me," and he tore up the prescription and threw it on the floor.

And before they could get another physician the woman died. I simply mention this fact to show that all these doctors are not this way.

I HEARD THE OTHER DAY a story about the doctor, (Ames) some years ago. It was not when he was running for office. It was not some piece of charity done in the last despairing agonies of a political campaign to help some church. He was sent for by a poor old feeble man who had been out of work for some time. The doctor went in, looked at the man and saw he needed nourishment; he saw he was not eating and he was kind to build him up and he handed him a prescription, and the man looked at it. There were tears in his eyes as he said: "Doctor, I cannot get this. I haven't any money," said he. "I do not like to acknowledge it, but my wife and I have lived on water and crackers for five days." The doctor said to him: "Come with me to my house and I will fix up the medicine for you," and he went to the house and prepared the medicine, and took out of his pocket a roll of bills and handed the man thirty-five dollars with the medicine, and said to him, "take one of these pills as soon as you get home." [Applause.]

Now, my friends, let me ask you, what has Mr. Washburn done to merit the confidence or the love of any of us? What single spark of generosity has illuminated his career? He has made some millions of dollars. He has made enough to stay him, and with the blessing of God upon him, we will leave him at home. Let us see if a man of six millions of dollars can get striding about with the trumpet of corruption by his side and buy up his voters like so many sheep, while a poor man, though much more worthy, has to sit by and see himself defeated. Go up to the polls on election day. Do not let any sectional issues influence you. You can have none in this case; they are both Minneapolis men, both are candidates from Minneapolis. Go up to the polls, draw the contrast between them, and VOTE CONSCIENTIOUSLY. This man's name is a synonym for charity. His opponent is a man whose whole career has been a continued series of mingled corruption and avarice; a man who voted to repeal your pre-emption and suspend your homestead law. You will observe I have not abused the Republican party. I am not here to do it. I was an old Republican myself in the past. And I feel a good deal for the man who feels who has a drunken father. He sees his father going round the streets with his hat on one side and his clothes covered with mud, and he feels the old fellow deserves the cowhide, but his tender paternal regard will not allow him to apply the lash. I feel that way about the Republican party. They have gone astray; they have acted unwisely.

I have occupied more time than I expected to, and in conclusion, let me ask you, in the names of the protection of your own interests and your rights. The next roll call will be here in St. Paul a majority of two or three thousand for Dr. Ames. [Loud and continued cheering.]

Don't Die in the House "Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, coppers, etc.

The Young Men's Christian Association. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a very large number present at the Gospel mass meeting and long service, held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., yesterday afternoon in Sherman hall. After the singing of a hymn by the audience and the reading of the scriptural lesson by Rev. M. D. Edwards, Rev. Dr. Dana opened the meeting with prayer. Mr. Nathan Ford, president of the association, then introduced Mr. Wm. E. Dodge, Jr., of New York, one of the greatest Y. M. C. A. workers in America, who gave a stirring address on association work. After speaking of the grand work carried on by the Y. M. C. A. all over the world, of the great success that has crowned their efforts everywhere, he urged young men to be courageous to dare to take their stand on the side of right, and live lives that would tell to the future of this great northwest. Mr. Dodge is a fluent speaker, and shows by his intense earnestness that his heart is in the work.

Mr. Geo. H. Richter, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Hudson, New York, then made a short address at the close of which a hymn was sung by the audience, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. R. F. McLaren.

Advertising account for sale cheap, $2,700, and account against Dr. A. P. Miller, (now business manager of the Minneapolis Tribune) personally contracted while he was business manager of the New York Tribune, and on the assumption of his responsibility on account of holding that position. It was for advertising a third party by whom he was paid. Address H. P. Hubbard, proprietor International Newspaper Agency, New Haven, Conn.

The second in the series of fortnightly receptions to be given by Rev. J. H. Tuttle by his congregation, will be held in the parlors of the church of the Redeemer this evening.

The votes of the Twenty-ninth Legislative district are determined to elect the popular and able young man, Charles M. Foote, to the legislature. He is the labor-

MINNEAPOLIS

OFFICE—No. 6 Washington avenue, opposite Nicollet Hotel. Office hours from 6 a. m. to 10 o'clock p. m.

GULAR DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS.
ALBERT A. AMES
Twenty-Eighth Senatorial District.
For Senator—J. M. TRIDLEY.
For Representative—SOLON ARMSTRONG, DAVID B. JOHNSON, JOHN T. LEE, W. A. SMITH.
Twenty-Ninth Senatorial District.
For Senator—CHAS. A. PILLBURN.
For Representative—CHAS. M. FOOTE, HANS O. PETERSON, JOHN B. MUELLER, EZRA PAINE, OLE J. JOHNSON.

Thirtieth Senatorial District.
For Senator—R. B. LANGDON.
For Representative—DANIEL WATTS, THOMAS GARRITY, W. H. GRIMSHAW, J. HERMAN REIN.

County Officers.
For Auditor—ISAAC MONASCH.
For Register of Deeds—JAMES BRYANT.
For Sheriff—JOSEPH MONASCH.
For Attorney—HENRY F. HERRING.
For Surveyor—BENJ. F. CHRISTENSEN.
For Coroner—JOHN PRAES.
Commissioners—EZRA HANSON, SAMUEL LYDIAH.

Democratic Mass Meeting.
Dr. A. A. Ames and Hon. Ignatius Donnelly will address the people of the Fourth congressional district as follows:
Minneapolis, Monday evening, Nov. 6.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBELETES.

Police matters were unusually quiet yesterday.

Remember the Boston restaurant, down on the corner.

There will be no meeting of the city council this week.

A big bill is promised for this week at the Theater Comique.

Lay on the shelf the man who proved a Judas Iscariot to Minneapolis.

Eight plain "drunks" were behind the iron bars at the quay last night.

Another crazy man was taken into custody by the police last evening.

Repeaters and ballot-box stuffers come high, but Washburn must have them.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade will be held this forenoon.

For want of a quorum no meeting of the Minneapolis Press club was held yesterday.

A Bohemian girl, a stranger who had no home, was given hospitality of the police station.

The Light Infantry corps will drill in the old Westminster church building this evening.

The prohibitionists will fire off their last guns in a mass meeting in Market hall this evening.

The Crasaders will drill as usual in the Zouave hall at 214 Nicollet avenue, this evening.

A large number of valuable books has recently been added to the state university library.

The Mendelssohn club will meet at Dyer & Howard's music store this evening for rehearsal.

Prof. Leib, the instructor of vocal music at the state university, will resume his duties this week.

Rev. T. G. Wagner, pastor of the Centenary church took "The Christian Hope" for his topic yesterday morning.

The Father Sheehy Land league held its semi-monthly meeting in the Robert Emmet hall over the City bank.

It takes a mint of money to hire an army of repeaters, but Bill Washburn has the stuff, and everything goes.

The temperance oracle, Scrap Iron Bill, is working night and day for Bill Washburn. "Birds of a feather" etc.

Extensive arrangements are being perfected for the farmers' lecture course at the state university the coming season.

The Republicans of the Twenty-ninth Legislative district now frankly concede the defeat of H. G. Hicks by a big majority.

The last grand rally of the campaign in Turner hall this evening. Remember Dr. Ames and Hon. I. Donnelly are the speakers.

Take your supper party to the Comique restaurant, where you will find special accommodations and the best that the market affords.

The election returns will be announced from the Academy of Music stage between acts on Tuesday night, and also at the Opera house.

The regular monthly meeting of the city clergymen will be held at the rectory of the Holy Trinity church at 10 o'clock this morning.

Who took a quarter of a million of dollars from the treasury of Minneapolis upon a promise only made to be broken? Bill Washburn.

The Hermon society of the State university has prepared an attractive literary and musical programme for its entertainment this evening.

The state university will not take its customary recess until Thanksgiving day, when two weeks will be added to the regular holiday vacation.

The lumbermen are hurrying off their men to the woods by the hundreds, depriving them of an opportunity of casting their vote for Mayor Ames.

Officer Fox took into custody a boozey individual who was suspected of having stolen an overcoat from a house on Third street south last night.

The weekly meeting of the Father Mathew T. A. society, was held in Catholic association hall at 5 o'clock last evening, with a large attendance.

The monthly meeting of the Minneapolis Typographical union was held, in the hall over Heaton's shoe store, yesterday afternoon, with a large attendance.

Arrangements for a series of concert during the winter by Danz's orchestra are under contemplation by a number of the leading lovers of music in Minneapolis.

On Friday evening Miss McAllister will produce Pique, for the benefit of the Cottage hospital. The sale of tickets will be opened to-morrow and will doubtless be large.

Gen. Runkle will deliver a lecture on "Reminiscences of the war of the Rebellion," at the meeting of the Brotherhood of Gethsemane, in Gethsemane chapel, this evening.

Prof. Danz and his superb orchestra gave the first of a series of sacred concerts in Turner hall yesterday afternoon, and despite the continual rain, the attendance was large.

The second in the series of fortnightly receptions to be given by Rev. J. H. Tuttle by his congregation, will be held in the parlors of the church of the Redeemer this evening.

The votes of the Twenty-ninth Legislative district are determined to elect the popular and able young man, Charles M. Foote, to the legislature. He is the laboring man's friend, as every one in the district knows.

A temperance meeting was held in the First M. E. church last evening. Addresses were made by Horace Winchell, George W. Logan, E. R. Thurber, and the orator Scrap Iron Bill.

The Workmen's union, although not a political organization, realizes the fact that Dr. Ames is the laboring man's true friend, and will give him his hearty support at the polls to-morrow.

Last evening it was reported that the body of an unknown man had been found in the river quite a distance below the city. The body was secured and made fast to a tree by means of a rope, and the matter will be investigated by the coroner.

As somewhat inebriated character claimed to have been robbed of a sum of money by a gang of sharpers in a saloon on Saturday night, but considering his befuddled condition his hearers concluded that he might be laboring under a hallucination.

Mayor Ames will recommend at the next meeting of the city council an appropriation for the purpose of rope to be stretched around burning buildings, so that the crowd of idlers, who are always in the way of the fireman may be kept back.

Workmen, keep your eyes open to-morrow. Hundreds of illegal voters have been registered in every precinct. See to it that these men are dealt with according to the provisions of the state statute, which is one year's imprisonment at hard labor.

This evening "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be put on the boards at the Opera house. The Minneapolis Jubilee singers will assist. The play is threadbare, but it will be so handsomely set with new scenery and excellent paraphernalia, will prove an attraction which will fill the house.

The plans for the proposed new farm buildings for the state university have been drawn under the supervision of Prof. Fetter. The building will be modern, in its design, and will include a large barn, carriage house, foreman's cottage, etc.

Hon. A. A. Ames and Hon. Ignatius Donnelly will address the citizens of Minneapolis this evening in Turner hall. In all probability the hall, which is a large one, will prove many times too small to accommodate the people who wish to be in attendance.

Of all the legislative nominees in Hennepin county there is none more competent nor deserving of election than Chas. M. Foote of the Twenty-ninth district. He is an intelligent, educated and accomplished gentleman who would reflect credit upon old Hennepin county in any deliberative body.

Isadore Monasch, the Democratic candidate for register of deeds, is almost certain of election to-morrow. Mr. Monasch is a talented and educated German, who is sure of drawing nearly the solid vote of his people. He is a staunch Democrat and will develop the full strength of the ticket.

The biggest "fool-killer" in Minneapolis is the youth who says the Democrats by endorsing Loring Fletcher and voting for him, are doing their utmost to defeat him. The only man running against Fletcher is the prohibition candidate. The youth in question is running a Sunday school advertising sheet. He's "gittin'" to be a big boy now.

The W. C. T. A., at its meeting adopted the following resolution:
Resolved, That as a union we request the press to state to the public that we have in no way countenanced, or in any way are responsible for Mrs. Mary Kate Bowers Kent Mason's appearance in this city, neither do we in any way endorse her work or approve her conduct.

The roller skating rink folks claim Market hall this evening, while the prohibitionists claim they secured it from Harlow Gale several weeks ago for a mass meeting. It is reported that Bill Washburn runs the roller skating business, and that he will do his utmost to keep the prohibitionists from getting the hall. There will be possible to a squabble.

H. G. Hicks, in the vain hope of securing the vote of the laboring men in this city, now comes out and cheekily endeavors to steal the credit of Ed. McDermott's good work in the legislature. We refer to the passage of what is commonly known as the mechanics' lien act, giving to the mechanic the right to make a lien upon a building to recover wages earned by him in the construction of the building.

At the meeting of the Father Sheehy Land league last evening the question: "Resolved, that the influence of the ladies connected with the land league movement have accomplished more effective work than have men," was discussed by Messrs. McDermott, Vail, Brown, Morgan and McNally. The attendance, considering the rain, was good and a lively interest was taken in the meeting.

Spurred up by the GLOBE, those postage stamp agencies, ordered by the department at Washington, have at last been established. Their locations, respectively, are as follows: George A. Morse, No. 206 Central avenue, East division; E. A. Bigelow, 2,601 Stevens avenue; J. H. Parry, corner Twelfth avenue south and Franklin; F. W. Latz, corner Fourteenth avenue south and Washington. Four additional stations will be established as soon as the best location is decided upon.

The W. C. T. U. held a temperance meeting at the Disciples' church on the corner of Twelfth street and Sixth avenue south last evening. Addresses were made by Miss U. L. Sanford and Mrs. Benton from the university and Rev. Mr. Hay the pastor of the church. The latter related what he heard at the National Women's Christian Temperance union convention, which was held October 25th to 29th in Louisville, Kentucky.

George Huhn, who is backed by Bill Washburn, boasts of an easy victory to-morrow. He vauntingly claims that he carries the German vote in his pocket. That is where he makes a big mistake. Isadore Monasch, a much more capable man and more popular among his countrymen will get the German vote of Hennepin county, which, together with the vote of those opposed to Huhn, will positively elect him.

The Third ward is certain of doing the handsome thing by Alderman Daniel Witt to-morrow. In the city council he has demonstrated the fact that he is a faithful exponent of the interests of the people. He has proven a capable legislator for the city, and now it is incumbent upon the people to send him to the legislature where such sagas as he are needed this winter. Minneapolis has many interests to be looked after there and in all Minneapolis no better man can be found in those hands to entrust them.

The Globe reporter is informed that the method of registration this fall has been very crooked. Washburn's hirelings have been sent out on the pretext of getting the names of those who failed to appear for registration. Long lists of fictitious names of voters were sent in to the clerks and by them enrolled. At the polling place at the corner of Minnehaha avenue and Lake street the little game was blocked by Capt. P. P. Swenson and E. P. Russell, who threw out the lists brought in by the Washburn strikers, and notified them that they would consult the interests of their own personal liberty by going a little slow.

The Ames campaign looked never so well as yesterday.

Spot Washburn's paid repeaters and ballot box stuffers on Tuesday.

Boys, take all the money you get and then vote for your old friend Ames.

Can a poor man, the undoubted choice of the masses, be elected to congress?

Repeaters and ballot box stuffers come high, but Bill Washburn will have them.

Can Washburn buy his way into congress? That is now the great question of this campaign.

A vote for Ames is a vote for a gallant soldier at the front. A vote for Washburn is a vote for a sneaking coward in the woods.

Washburn's barrel is now on free exhibition at the Republican headquarters. Go up boys, "Put money in thy purse," but don't forget to vote for Dr. Ames.

Workingmen: Don't fail to listen to the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly at Turner hall, North Washington avenue, this evening. It will be the greatest meeting of the campaign.

Lumbermen, be sure and vote against the man who wants to get rid of your labor by constructing dams on Rum river to float the logs to his mill. He is his own friend, not yours.

The Ames Dinner Pail Brigade will give so large a majority against Washburn that he will never again have the cheek to say that he has been the champion of the laboring man, and "don't you forget it."

The paid Washburn organs are loaded with campaign lies. It must be rather expensive business for Bill Washburn, for men do not usually blacken their souls as have the paid strikers of these subsidized papers.

The Republicans of Minneapolis who have known Mayor Ames from his boyhood are making a noble stand, and openly declare themselves for him. They know him to be a man of ability and integrity notwithstanding the vile and slanderous assaults of Washburn's paid organs.

Another prominent and influential Republican stated to a GLOBE reporter yesterday that he would vote and work for the election of Mayor Ames on Tuesday. He said the personal defamation of old Nettleton, G. K. Shaw and Bill King would result in many hundreds of old time Republicans voting for Ames.

The "robber baron," Bill Washburn, has endorsed the record of the Republican party and stands upon that record. The great and honest men of the party got tired and sick of it long ago. Greasley, Chase, Sumner, Trumbull, Doolittle, Carl Schurz and many others seceded and started the Liberal Republican party as against Grantism, but Bill Washburn remained with the thieves and forgers and swindlers, and to-day endorses all their acts. Away with him, and crucify him on Tuesday at the polls.

Many Democratic voters are under obligations to the Republican "engineer" working in the interest of the "General," for their extreme kindness in mailing them postal cards reminding them that Oct. 31 would be the last opportunity to register their names for the ensuing election. Many staunch Demo rates would have probably forgotten to register were it not for these cards, and the preponderance of Democratic names over Republicans registered on Tuesday is mainly owing to the information kindly given by the minions of the kid-gloved candidate.

To one "behind the scenes" it is easy enough to conceive how true is the assertion made by a prominent Republican that Washburn will have expended over $200,000 before the present campaign is ended. Three newspapers have been purchased, and then there comes Charles Johnson and all the small fry, such as Doc Collins, Sammy Hill, George Huhn, Jake Barge, Jonas F. Brown, Ed. Martin, Bobby Jamison, and so on ad lib., and that is only a circumstance. Only think of the expense of bringing to Minneapolis and paying them for the terrible risk they run, of the professional repeaters and ballot box stuffers. Every man, young or old, who is suspected of being able to control a single vote is also bought up. But, happily, the Globe knows a large number of the latter class who will, on election day, march to the polls and vote all right.

The Globe reporter heard a story the other day of Dr. Ames which is too good to be lost, as it is truly characteristic of him, and goes to prove the truth of the old adage, "the boy is father to the man." Going home from school in this city when a little fellow, he saw two brothers, fellow pupils of his, attacked by a party of young lads whose parents were in better circumstances. The future eminent physician and next member of congress, took the part of the poor boys of Democratic parentage, threw off his coat and administered to the little aristocrats a sound thrashing. He has ever since been the friend and associate of the poor man, and in every cause in which they are engaged for their rights, he has been their advocate. Let the workingmen then aid him next Tuesday in his battle against the "robber baron" and his henchmen, and give him a glorious victory.

Notwithstanding the wind and rain of yesterday, the regular Sunday afternoon meeting of the Reform club in Harrison hall was well attended. Dr. W. W. Satterlee opened the meeting with a brief and excellent address. Rev. P. G. Cook, for many years city missionary of Buffalo, N. Y., was next introduced and delivered a fine lecture in which he reviewed the situation of the temperance party in his city in very hopeful terms. Dr. Emery followed Dr. Cook, and said, "The gentleman has informed us that the temperance organization of Buffalo began as a large one and had a fine record, and I am proud to tell him that our club commenced as a small organization and has grown to be a powerful one, and that every man of us will vote as he prays. The time for talking temperance and voting whisky is passed.

Mrs. Hyde, of St. Paul, contributed a recitation entitled "An Ode," for social gatherings, with slight alterations by a testator.

Several members of the club made shrewd remarks, among whom were Mr. Gressley, the first signer of the Reform club pledge, and Dr. Denton, who spoke

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Ames campaign looked never so well as yesterday.

Spot Washburn's paid repeaters and ballot box stuffers on Tuesday.

Boys, take all the money you get and then vote for your old friend Ames.

Can a poor man, the undoubted choice of the masses, be elected to congress?

Repeaters and ballot box stuffers come high, but Bill Washburn will have them.

Can Washburn buy his way into congress? That is now the great question of this campaign.

A vote for Ames is a vote for a gallant soldier at the front. A vote for Washburn is a vote for a sneaking coward in the woods.

Washburn's barrel is now on free exhibition at the Republican headquarters. Go up boys, "Put money in thy purse," but don't forget to vote for Dr. Ames.

Workingmen: Don't fail to listen to the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly at Turner hall, North Washington avenue, this evening. It will be the greatest meeting of the campaign.

Lumbermen, be sure and vote against the man who wants to get rid of your labor by constructing dams on Rum river to float the logs to his mill. He is his own friend, not yours.

The Ames Dinner Pail Brigade will give so large a majority against Washburn that he will never again have the cheek to say that he has been the champion of the laboring man, and "don't you forget it."

The paid Washburn organs are loaded with campaign lies. It must be rather expensive business for Bill Washburn, for men do not usually blacken their souls as have the paid strikers of these subsidized papers.

The Republicans of Minneapolis who have known Mayor Ames from his boyhood are making a noble stand, and openly declare themselves for him. They know him to be a man of ability and integrity notwithstanding the vile and slanderous assaults of Washburn's paid organs.

Another prominent and influential Republican stated to a GLOBE reporter yesterday that he would vote and work for the election of Mayor Ames on Tuesday. He said the personal defamation of old Nettleton, G. K. Shaw and Bill King would result in many hundreds of old time Republicans voting for Ames.

The "robber baron," Bill Washburn, has endorsed the record of the Republican party and stands upon that record. The great and honest men of the party got tired and sick of it long ago. Greasley, Chase, Sumner, Trumbull, Doolittle, Carl Schurz and many others seceded and started the Liberal Republican party as against Grantism, but Bill Washburn remained with the thieves and forgers and swindlers, and to-day endorses all their acts. Away with him, and crucify him on Tuesday at the polls.

Many Democratic voters are under obligations to the Republican "engineer" working in the interest of the "General," for their extreme kindness in mailing them postal cards reminding them that Oct. 31 would be the last opportunity to register their names for the ensuing election. Many staunch Demo rates would have probably forgotten to register were it not for these cards, and the preponderance of Democratic names over Republicans registered on Tuesday is mainly owing to the information kindly given by the minions of the kid-gloved candidate.

To one "behind the scenes" it is easy enough to conceive how true is the assertion made by a prominent Republican that Washburn will have expended over $200,000 before the present campaign is ended. Three newspapers have been purchased, and then there comes Charles Johnson and all the small fry, such as Doc Collins, Sammy Hill, George Huhn, Jake Barge, Jonas F. Brown, Ed. Martin, Bobby Jamison, and so on ad lib., and that is only a circumstance. Only think of the expense of bringing to Minneapolis and paying them for the terrible risk they run, of the professional repeaters and ballot box stuffers. Every man, young or old, who is suspected of being able to control a single vote is also bought up. But, happily, the Globe knows a large number of the latter class who will, on election day, march to the polls and vote all right.

The Globe reporter heard a story the other day of Dr. Ames which is too good to be lost, as it is truly characteristic of him, and goes to prove the truth of the old adage, "the boy is father to the man." Going home from school in this city when a little fellow, he saw two brothers, fellow pupils of his, attacked by a party of young lads whose parents were in better circumstances. The future eminent physician and next member of congress, took the part of the poor boys of Democratic parentage, threw off his coat and administered to the little aristocrats a sound thrashing. He has ever since been the friend and associate of the poor man, and in every cause in which they are engaged for their rights, he has been their advocate. Let the workingmen then aid him next Tuesday in his battle against the "robber baron" and his henchmen, and give him a glorious victory.

Notwithstanding the wind and rain of yesterday, the regular Sunday afternoon meeting of the Reform club in Harrison hall was well attended. Dr. W. W. Satterlee opened the meeting with a brief and excellent address. Rev. P. G. Cook, for many years city missionary of Buffalo, N. Y., was next introduced and delivered a fine lecture in which he reviewed the situation of the temperance party in his city in very hopeful terms. Dr. Emery followed Dr. Cook, and said, "The gentleman has informed us that the temperance organization of Buffalo began as a large one and had a fine record, and I am proud to tell him that our club commenced as a small organization and has grown to be a powerful one, and that every man of us will vote as he prays. The time for talking temperance and voting whisky is passed.

Mrs. Hyde, of St. Paul, contributed a recitation entitled "An Ode," for social gatherings, with slight alterations by a testator.

Several members of the club made shrewd remarks, among whom were Mr. Gressley, the first signer of the Reform club pledge, and Dr. Denton, who spoke for a few minutes in a warm and enthusiastic vein. The meeting was closed by taking up a collection for charitable purposes.

THIEF IN LIMBO.

A Freight Car Broken Open and a Large Amount of Goods Stolen—Miram Loejoy, one of the Thieves, in Custody, and a Portion of the Goods Recovered.

About a week since a box car, freighted with general merchandise and billed to Minneapolis merchants, was broken open and rifled of its contents. The value of the goods stolen is not exactly known, but aggregates a large sum. The goods were the main stock of shoes, clothing and furnishing goods. The car was entered in the night-time by means of breaking off the staple containing the padlock.

The police force was at once notified of the robbery, and the detectives put to work in tracing the matter out. Yesterday a slight clue was gained which was followed up. This clue led the police to the house of an old-timed thief, on the East side, Hiram Lovejoy, who has many times been in custody for like offenses. A short distance from the house was discovered after careful search, a neatly made pit in the ground, which, upon being examined, revealed a goodly portion of the stolen articles in question. A stock of boots and shoes, shirts and furnishing goods, being enough to supply an army of tramps, were found and recovered. Lovejoy was at once arrested and landed in the city lockup, from whence he will be summoned before Judge Cooley this morning.

In the meantime Lovejoy's accomplices are being looked up, as well as the remainder of the stolen articles. If the detectives are on the "scent" they keep mighty still about it, and probably no one will know it until they have placed their men in limbo.