Lake Shore, Canada Southern and Western Union Features of the Day.

CHICAGO.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—A strong advance in the corn market to-day had a marked influence on all the cereals, causing a firmer feeling to prevail and better prices. Provisions alone favor the bear element, both pork and lard going another notch downward. Corn, the occasion for this change, had a steady course upward. On the board it was firmer and higher. The continued unsettled weather throughout the West, and probable influence upon the receipts as well as upon the character of the inspection of the current arrivals, resulted in developing a strong feeling in both cash and speculative circles; the tendency of the movement rather favored sellers, and as a consequence higher prices prevailed. Based on yesterday's closing figures cash No. 2 and high mixed corn closed at an advance of 2c, November 1 1/4c, year 3/4c, January 1/2c and May 1/2c. Business in all departments of the market was active throughout the session. November corn was actively sought, and the buyers largely outnumbered the sellers. Competition in an unsettled market must have a considerable effect. With the amount on hand generally small there is a constant fear of a corner in this option, and scalps are invited whenever a bull movement is started. The big operators are successfully milking this market, which must continue to be in a most favorable condition for the success of this operation. In the forenoon, although the inquiry was well maintained, a slight reaction from board prices occurred, the figures receding 1/4c.

In the wheat pit, in sympathy with the advance in corn, the feeling was stronger, and the range of prices at which to-day's business was transacted was 3/4c to 1/2c higher than that on change yesterday. The outside figures realized, however, were not sustained, though at the close the ruling prices indicated an average advance of 1/4c to 3/4c. The trading was considerably better than on the former days of the week, and at times the market exhibited quite a fair degree of activity. During the morning hours, particularly, the demand was both active and general. December and January were the favorite futures with traders. The fluctuation was within a narrow range, the whole difference during the session having been 1/4c on seller the month, 3/4c on December, 1/2c on January, and 1/2c on May. At the close the feeling was rather firm and 1/4c higher than yesterday on seller the month, 1/2c higher on December, and 3/4c higher on January. During the afternoon a somewhat easier feeling prevailed; board prices being shaded a trifle, and both spring and winter were in good demand and firm.

For flour the inquiry was limited, and the market ruled quiet. Prices are notably unchanged. Buyers are merely supplying actual wants, evidently expecting to purchase at concessions, and trade is slow. Now and then a lot of some particular grade or brand is called for, and this comprises about the whole trade. The home trade have liberal stocks, and were not free to purchase, unless reductions would be allowed, while exporters were packing up all lots that could be had within their limits. Rye flour slow. Buckwheat flour dull. Bran and all mill stuffs in liberal supply, and selling lower.

Oats were active and stronger, showing an advance all around, other markets aiding a tendency started by a slight decrease in the receipts. During the afternoon the demand increased and prices offered were still higher. Barley opened stronger, notwithstanding larger receipts, but became dull later, and lost its advantage. Rye was in moderate demand, but without official change.

A good business was reported in the market for hog product to-day, but the feeling was somewhat unsettled, and prices ruled irregular. Early in the day the market was stronger and prices were slightly advanced, but the offerings for future delivery were largely increased and prices receded rapidly during the middle of the session. Toward the close the feeling was steadier and a portion of the decline was recovered. Foreign hives were without important change, and the eastern markets were comparatively steady. The receipts of product were small and the shipments moderate. The demand for mess pork was moderately active, and later in the day the market weakened and prices receded 20@30c, toward the close rallied 10c, and ruled steady. The offerings of lard were fair and the demand active. Prices were firmer and averaged 2 1/2@5c higher per 100 pounds, but outside figures were not maintained. Cash was active and in good demand, engrossing most attention and being considerably stronger than the futures. In the afternoon both pork and lard were offered freely and sold lower, lard easing off 2 1/2@5c, and closing, except for cash delivery, at prices a shade lower than yesterday. About 30,000 hogs were received to-day. Although the market opened very strong it soon weakened. The quality of to-day's arrivals will not grade as high as those of the past few days, which had some influence on the market. The decline for the day was 10c.

The committee appointed by President Dunham, of the board of trade, to determine the value of No. 2 September wheat, met at 3 o'clock. The members of the committee are H. C. Roney, H. J. Slater, A. E. Neely, N. H. Warren and G. Montague, and were appointed at the request of J. B. Reem & Co., and J. Smith, McCormick & Co. The chairman read the following letter of J. B. Reem & Co.:

H. C. RONEY, Chairman Special Committee, DEAR SIR:—The undersigned respectfully state that they had a contract to deliver to John Duppe, Jr., & Co., afterward transferred to McGeech, Everingham & Co., 15,000 bushels of No. 2 wheat regular at seller's option during September, 1882; that owing to our inability to procure the wheat for delivery, we were obliged to default on such delivery. We are ready and willing to adjust any true measure of damages if any, that are due McGeech, Everingham & Co., but they insist that $1.07 per bushel was the value of said wheat on the 30th of September, and insist that we shall settle on the basis of said value. This we deem an extortionate demand, and we have called your committee under the rules of the board of trade to determine the just and true value of said wheat to the end that we may equitably settle the said contract. We are prepared to submit the evidence to sustain our claim that the value claimed for the wheat in question is extortionate, and such as we ought not to be bound by. Very respectfully, [Signed] J. B. REEM & Co.

Mr. Keene, in behalf of the defaulters, said that they proposed to prove that the September wheat deal was manipulated, first by the testimony of the members of the board, who were closely watching the manipulation; secondly by the testimony of expert millers that the true value was at least 14 cents below the price claimed; by the sworn evidence of experts that wheat which sells on the 1st of October at 94 cents could not through any natural cause or agency have been worth $1.07 or $1.08 the day previous, and by the sworn affidavits of credible grain and commission merchants as to the price of wheat and its true value in various cities on the last day of September.

Mr. Crittenden, on behalf of the complainants, said that, in absence of fraud and the proof of it, the contracts should be held by the committee as inviolable, and the penalty for their fulfillment should be promptly enforced. They were made on the Chicago board of trade, and they should be settled by the market price of wheat on the Chicago board of trade on the last day of September, the day when the time for delivery expired. It was the specific duty of these defaulters to deliver the wheat specified in their contract, and having failed in that, they should pay the market price current on the day, their right to deliver the property terminated. This is the custom among all fair-minded merchants the world over, and this rule must be enforced upon this board as the trade organization of which we are members will become an exchange where good faith in the discharge of commercial obligations will be at a discount, and where default and repudiation will command a premium. The Chicago board of trade should not and will not be turned into an asylum for improvident speculators, nor will its rules be tortured into a refuge or escape from contract liability. I ask you, gentlemen, only that the rule for fair dealing be in the matter now in controversy strictly enforced. Neither side being ready to proceed, an adjournment was taken.

NEW YORK. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—There was a determined and successful move to advance stocks this morning, Lake Shore & Canada Southern being conspicuous. The former was marked up to 116, and was on demand by the shorts, who found it scarce and were obliged to pay a premium for its use. Western Union was as usual very active, but it seemed hard work to keep it above 80. Louisville & Nashville in early dealings became strong, selling at 49 1/2, but was raised later and declined to 48c. It has become such a foot ball that some of the banks decline to advance on it in loans. By 2 o'clock the shorts seemed to have pretty well covered, and Lake Shore dropped to $114 1/2, the balance of the list giving way also. The situation is anything but clear. A want of harmony between Gould and others who sometimes act with him seems to exist, and until peace is declared we must naturally expect a feverish and unsettled market. There was a slight rally at the close with a steadier feeling. Money 5 per cent. The Vanderbilt stocks, while suffered to go with the general market, were taken at the decline and have passed into strong hands. This while many of the sales of these stocks were for short account. Whether there is anything in the report that Mr. Vanderbilt has sold $10,000,000 of his four per cent. bonds to a syndicate at 2 per cent. below the market price so as to increase his cash ability to buy his own stock, we do not know. There are also mysterious rumors about something to come out of favorable concern to Michigan Central and Canada Southern, but these have been unable to fathom.

The lack of support in Lackawanna and Missouri Pacific and the pulling of the peg in Lake Shore caused an alarm which brought out a great deal of long stock. George Osgood's illness and Keene's drive at Jersey Central were bear baits to drive Lackawanna. The market began to look panicky, but at 1 o'clock the bulls went to bat and then the game assumed a different aspect. Prices began to soar, and the bears kept them soaring all the rest of the day. The marked improvement in the situation was due to heavy purchases of stock by the Gould and Vanderbilt brokers, the covering of short contracts, and the order of Secretary Folger to Assistant Treasurer Acton anticipating the payment of bonds under the 118th call without rebate of interest at the rate of 85,000,000 per week. The effect of Folger's order was satisfactory.

A prominent broker representing very large interests advised customers to buy, as the situation had changed since morning. A prominent capitalist bought morning stocks, and said that the prices which would be seen before January would frighten conservative brokers. Vanderbilt brokers said that Lake Shore was earning more money than ever before in its history, and that people who knew what the road was doing and would do this year were ready to buy the stock at current prices. A prominent Broad street house advised customers that Western Union was the best purchase of the list. A Broadway house is said, on fair authority, to be short nearly 5,000 shares. It is said that Mr. Gould has bought a large proportion of the stock sold below 83. Russell Sage says that the market has reached bedrock.

Failure. HALIFAX, Nov. 10.—Robert Campbell, carrying on an extensive tanning business in Picton, has failed. Liabilities said to amount to $150,000, chiefly in Picton, Halifax, Montreal and Boston.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A largely attended and secret meeting of the line officers of the navy was held at Wormley's hotel last evening to consider what could be done to influence congress with respect to promotions. The Robeson reorganization features of the naval appropriation bill are very offensive to all naval officers, particularly the younger ones, who are compelled by its provisions to look forward to long and tedious delay in advancement in rank on account. Robeson's defeat is hailed by the navy with delight, and now that his term of power is drawing to an end, an effort will be made to have the government revise its policy and frame more favorable laws of promotion. Secretary Folger to-day issued the 119th bond call, which is for the redemption of $15,000,000 of 5 per cent. funded loan of 1881 continued at 3 1/2 per cent. from Aug. 12, 1881. The call gives notice that the principal and accrued interest of the bonds designated will be paid on Feb. 10, 1883, and that interest on the bonds embraced in the call will cease on that day.

In the Jeannette court this morning Melville continued his narrative detailing the account of the trip after the parties left the vessel. The account covers the first three days of the trip, during which time he was in charge of a labor party, while Danenhower had charge of the sick. No new developments.

Acting Secretary Joslyn rendered a decree to-day in which he holds that land entries made for grazing purposes do not constitute residence. The case of Bill Jones, for assault on the case of Chas. J. Guiteau, will be tried in the criminal court after the parties left the court adjourned to-day out of respect for Clerk Middleton, deceased.

The scene in the room in which the Jeannette board sits was rather dramatic this afternoon. A number of lady relatives of Lieut. Chipp were in attendance. During Melville's account of the sufferings of the party he narrated an incident in which Chipp, losing strength and courage, and finding himself unable to proceed farther, threw himself down on the sled and besought the party to go on without him, saying it was no use for him to struggle on further. Melville was somewhat affected as he recalled the incident, while the lady relatives of Chipp burst into tears and finding themselves unable to listen calmly to a further account of his sufferings, left the room.

Messrs. Coryell and Steers, recently appointed civilian members of the naval advisory board, arrive here Monday next to attend a meeting of the full board. The commission appointed to examine the navy yards for the purpose of deciding whether it is advisable to sell or close any of them, have already examined the yards in the East, and expect to start soon for Mare Island, Cal. On their return the commission will visit Pensacola, League Island and New York yards. It is thought they will favor closing one or two yards temporarily.

Acting Secretary Joslyn decided a case to-day where a husband and wife voluntarily divorced in order that the wife might make an entry of land under the homestead law. The woman subsequently lived with her divorced husband. The decision holds that in consequence thereof the woman cannot be considered the head of a family within the meaning of the law and the land entry is fraudulent.

Secretary Folger says the appointments of inspectors of foreign steamers will probably not be made for several days; that he finds it extremely difficult to find efficient officers for the low salaries provided by law. The secretary, in speaking about his health, said the reports about his being ill are entirely unfounded; that at present he is feeling better than for several months past.

Detective Miller's attention having been called to the charges preferred against him by Attorney General Brewster, accusing him of betraying the interest of the government in the star route cases, says that he is entitled to trial before a board designated by the district commissioners. He added that he would be prepared for such trial, whenever it should assume shape, but he declined in the meantime to discuss the situation or reports regarding him. In case of a trial, Mr. Miller said he would be defended by Mr. Ingersoll.

Work has begun upon the new pension office, and the excavation for the foundation is now in a forward condition. The new building is located in the northern part of the site of the old district jail. It will occupy the same ground as the old Grand Fourth and Fifth streets, south front, 400 feet long, will be on the building line of F street running east and west. The depth of the building will be 200 feet; the height of the main cornice will be seventy-five feet; the material prescribed by law is brick and metal, consequently fire proof roof and wall. There will be a large central hall surrounded by three stories of lofty rooms. Gen. McMeigs, supervising architect, estimates the time for the completing of the building at two years.

Since the treasury department resumed the exchange of bonds bearing interest at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent. per annum into 3 per cent., there have been $16,500,000 received for that purpose, leaving only about $97,000,000 of 3 1/2 per cent. still outstanding. If the calls continue at the rate of $15,000,000 per month, which it is understood to be Secretary Folger's intention, and if 3 1/2 per cent. outstanding are not presented for exchange, they will all be called for redemption in less than seven months.

District Attorney Corkill says he does not believe the report that Captain Hovgate is concealed in New Orleans, nor does he believe he will surrender himself when his case is called for trial.

The auction sale of fine jewelry at Egan's is attracting universal attention. The bargains obtained are the wonder of the city. The sale will last a few days longer, but choice goods are going off fast.

ALL AROUND THE GLOBE. In New York Michael E. McGloin was sentenced to-day to be hanged December 15th. Osgood, the well known New York banker and broker, is seriously ill and can hardly recover. The Canadian Lumber company mill at L'Assomption burned. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $20,000. A young man named Fallon, at Montreal, who fasted twenty-three days under the delusion that he was commanded by God to do so, died yesterday.

STILLWATER GLOBULES. Louis Rathman has finally been adjudged insane. He was taken to St. Peter yesterday.

A meeting of the trustees of the M. E. church is called for this (Saturday) evening in the class room of the church.

The sheriff of Kandiyohi county delivered Robert Peterson to the custody of Warden Reed to-day. The prisoner is under sentence of three years for larceny.

The report that Frank Fowler's little daughter was at the point of death is incorrect, as the child is recovering as rapidly as the nature of the disease will permit.

Owing to some misunderstanding the festival at the Methodist church last evening did not prove a financial success. The ladies of the society do not propose to give it up so, but will soon announce another evening for a repetition of the entertainment.

A committee representing the seceding, or anti-Siegist faction of the German Lutheran church, have purchased the building belonging to the Swedish Lutheran congregation, of which there is little doubt. The terms of the sale are $150 cash, $500 in ninety days, the remainder, $8,000, in four months.

Although the edifice recently erected by the Methodist people of this city does not present a very imposing appearance on the outside, the inside is as neat and easy a place of worship as the most fastidious could require. There is much yet to do before a state of completeness can be said to exist, but regular services will be held in the building next Sunday.

An accident occurred Thursday evening on the new track which has lately been built by the Omaha company between the junction and St. Paul. The hand car on which the track layers were returning from work was run against a flat car that had been left standing on the track. Two men were injured by the collision, one of whom had his shoulder dislocated, the other being badly cut and bruised about the head.

Chief of Police Shortall left yesterday afternoon for St. Paul, where he will obtain a requisition on the governor of Wisconsin for the custody of a man who is under arrest at Hudson charged with the seduction of a young girl in Baytown. The supposition is that the man referred to is the one of whom mention was made in the GLOBE about six weeks ago as having eloped with a young lady from the place above named, and as having been arrested at Eau Claire, the girl returning home, but it is only supposition.
