THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The seven days closing last night have constituted a gala week in St. Paul society circles, both from the number and brilliancy of its society doings. The week has been particularly notable from the large number of pleasant weddings, receptions and parties. The quiver of the little blind divinity cupid, indeed, has been quite exhausted of its arrows, that is if the list of weddings is reliable, for seldom has the god of love achieved a greater number of victories in the same length of time.

The most notable event of the week was the marriage on Thanksgiving eve of Mr. Theodore L. Schurmeier, the junior partner in the house of Lindeke, Warner & Schurmeier, and Miss Caroline, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Gotzian. This affair was unusually brilliant, the appointments being on a scale of great grandeur and magnificence. The floral display and the toilettes were lavish and beautiful beyond description, and the affair was sumptuous throughout.

There were many other pleasant weddings, and in this respect the sons and daughters of St. Paul are jealously keeping the law, as enjoined by the apostle. In short, it has been a week of mirth, jollity, thanksgiving and festivities, and pleasure has ruled to the bent of inclination. Below will be found the list of doings:

Mr. G. H. Martin and wife, Chicago, are at the Windsor.

Mrs. Lake, of Winona, is visiting Mrs. Col. Allen, of the Merchants.

Mrs. May, J. M. Bell, is among the lady guest at the Merchant's hotel.

J. P. Nelson and wife, of Warren, Minn., are visiting friends in St. Paul.

Mr. C. W. Hackett and wife have taken apartments at the Metropolitan hotel.

Judge A. Edgerton and wife are expected home from their eastern trip next Tuesday.

Judge Comstock and wife, of Utica, N. Y., tarried in the city several days last week.

Mrs. L. Stuffs, of Eighth street, is in Chicago, visiting her brother, Mr. J. G. Riley.

Mrs. Maj. Kirk, of Bismarck, is visiting in St. Paul. She has apartments at the Merchants.

J. N. Tynes, ex-postmaster general, and wife, of Washington, were guests at the Metropolitan last week.

E. B. Feller, one of the solid farmers of Martin county, is visiting his sister, Mrs. E. F. Barrett, of West St. Paul.

Miss Henrietta Haas, of Fort street, is visiting her aunt in Chicago, and she will remain there during the holidays.

Mr. R. M. Campbell, of the Omaha general office, returned from Wisconsin last Friday, accompanied by his bride.

Mr. Hewson C. Semple, late of the Bank of Minnesota, has accepted a position with the Merchants' bank, of Crookston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pratt, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, of Fargo, are sojourning at the Merchants.

Mrs. S. W. Fairbank, of Emerson, who has been visiting the family of Mr. E. R. Otis, left for home last Wednesday evening.

Miss L. Goodkind and Miss Fannie Goodkind, are absent with friends in Chicago. Before returning they will visit St. Louis.

Among the pleasant affairs of the past week was the hop given in connection with the dedication of Turner Hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. Chas. De Lacy, the talented bass singer, formerly of this city and now a resident of Fargo, is visiting his friends in St. Paul.

Mrs. Peter Gorter, of Grand Rapids, joined her husband in this city last Thursday, and they will make St. Paul their future home.

W. W. Hartley of Brainerd, formerly of the Tribune, lately of the postoffice, has his residence at the Merchants during a business trip.

Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Hamilton left for Fort Custer last week, having enjoyed a pleasant visit of several weeks with their St. Paul friends.

The St. Andrew's society honored the anniversary of Scotia's patron saint with a good old fashioned banquet and ball, on Thanksgiving evening.

The evening stars scintillated to the dreamy measures of the lancers and valse at College hall on Friday evening. The party was highly enjoyable.

Mrs. T. F. Wright and daughter left on Tuesday for Cincinnati, where they will visit friends. They will visit in Chicago and Madison en route home.

Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mrs. Z. Hill and her son Harry, of Fairbank, were visiting friends in St. Paul last week. They occupied apartments at the Metropolitan.

A newly organized party of young people will dance the gorman at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Power, of Western avenue, to-morrow evening.

The Germania Singing society gave their first party of the season at Turner hall last night. It proved a highly successful and enjoyable affair in all particulars.

Mr. Frank Hatch and wife and Miss Clara Halsted, of La Crosse, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Meyers, at the Windsor on Thanksgiving day.

E. J. Stilwell, traveling salesman for Averill, Russell & Carpenter, who has just returned from a business trip up country, reports business in general as lively.

The union Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist church, last Thursday, was very interesting, the music being especially well rendered and enjoyable.

Mrs. C. T. Higgins arrived in the city from New York last Wednesday. She joined her husband at the Windsor. Mr. Higgins will go into business in this city.

The question that agitates the swell young man just now is whether he will blow in his surplus wages for a patent leather shoe or buy a trip ticket for Chicago.

Miss Marie Geist will leave to-night for Milwaukee to fill an engagement and play at a concert to be given by the Musical society of that city.

The choir of St. Paul's church has recently been reorganized by Mr. R. W. Gordon, the efficient leader, and St. Paul's may now boast of having one of the most talented vocal organizations in the Northwest.

The "Once a Week" club gave one of their delightful parties at Sherman hall on Wednesday evening. The attendance was large, and it proved one of the most enjoyable parties of the season.

Robertson Howard, formerly a practicing lawyer in Maryland and District of Columbia, but for the past year a member of the St. Paul bar, has been made editor of the Northwestern Law Reporter.

The C. Y. K. club entertained a large number of friends at Seibert's hall, on Seventh street, last Wednesday evening. Dancing was the order of the hour and all present enjoyed a very delightful time.

Mayor Rice and wife celebrated in a quiet way last Wednesday, the thirty-fourth anniversary of their wedding day. May he and his amiable wife live to reach the golden mile post of the happy connubial career.

The order of Bnai-Brith will give their annual banquet at Magee's this evening. The affair is given by Minnesota lodge No. 157, and is in honor of the grand lodge of the district, who are now in attendance in this city.

The marriage of Mr. John Cumfitt, pound master, and Miss B. Cuff was celebrated on Thanksgiving day. A reception followed the ceremony and the happy couple were the recipients of numerous congratulations.

Col. James H. Davidson with his family will leave Friday next, to visit his daughter Bertie in Boston, after which they will make a trip to New York. They will be absent from St. Paul, probably till the first week in January.

The Crusaders' society will present on the evening of Dec. 11, 1882, a comedy in two acts, entitled "The Jacobite." The cast is a remarkably strong one, and judging from the rehearsals, the play will be the best of the season.

A joyful Thanksgiving event was the marriage on that day of Mr. Andrew De Witt and Miss Katie Michaels. The nuptials were solemnized at St. Joseph's church, and the happy couple received the best smiles of a host of warm friends.

The social assembly by the Emmet Light Artillery at Market hall on Thanksgiving night was one of the most delightful and successful of the many social gatherings last week. The assemblage was large and brilliant, and all present enjoyed a huge time.

The ladies of the First Baptist church have arranged for an apron sale and oyster supper to be given next Thursday afternoon and evening in the chapel on Wacouta street. A feature of the entertainment will be a collection of antique curiosities.

The first hop of the season by the Bachelor's club was given at the Metropolitan hotel last Wednesday evening. The bald heads and the heads which are not ripe enough to pick were all on deck, and there was a large turnout of the friends of this popular club.

On Thanksgiving night Mr. and Mrs. V. Snyder entertained a company of friends at their residence, No. 408 Wabasha street. An elegant dinner was served, after which the guests indulged in the festivities of the dance. It was a handsome affair throughout.

A party of ladies from Hudson and New Richmond, Wis., passed Thanksgiving day in St. Paul, and they had a very delightful time of it. The party consisted of Miss Foster, Miss Barnett, Miss Newman and Miss Ross, of Hudson, and Miss Staples and Miss Hourton, of New Richmond.

Among the joyful events which the sweet bells honored on Thanksgiving day was the nuptials of Mr. August Hammer and Miss Katie Reckstroff. The happy pair were tendered a reception at the residence of the bride's parents on West Third street, and they received a large number of beautiful presents.

Germain Weaver, an old and well known resident of St. Paul, who has recently engaged in stock farming near Prescott, Wis., concluded at last to begin life aright, and on Monday, Nov. 20, last, was united in the holy bonds of Miss Hannah Lauderdale, at the residence of her brother, Capt. Lauderdale, West St. Paul.

The Ladies of Unity church have made elaborate arrangements for a fair to be held in Market hall on Friday and Saturday, the 8th and 9th insts. Great care will be taken to make the fair as attractive as possible, and dinner will be served on both days. It is anticipated that the enterprise will meet with the encouragement it so justly merits.

The cards of invitation read, bring your wives, daughters, sisters and sweethearts, and the hearty manner in which the response was made accounts for the presence of so many lovely ladies at the soiree and supper given by lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., at Odd Fellows' hall last Wednesday evening. There was a supper, dance and large time generally.

The harvester working school house was the scene, on Thanksgiving eve, of one of the happiest gatherings and best entertainments of the year. The occasion was a dramatic and musical entertainment given by the Nonpareil club and a programme of rare excellence was enjoyed by the large audience. The entertainment wound up with a hop.

Prominent among the happy events of Thanksgiving day was the marriage of Mr. Fred Schroeder and Miss Mathilda Drexler, which took place at the Church of the Assumption, at 9 o'clock a. m. A reception followed, and the gifts were handsome and numerous. They left in the evening for a bridal tour East, and will make their future home in Cincinnati.

Arrangements have been made for a concert and supper to be given at the Grace M. E. church next Thursday evening, for the benefit of the parsonage committee. Supper will be served from 6:30 to 8 and from 9 to 10 o'clock p. m. A concert will be given from 8 to 9 o'clock, in which such artists as Prof. Titcomb, Mrs. C. E. Fanning, Miss H. Hunter, Mr. Williams, Mrs. Eddy, Miss N. Kneigher and others will participate.

Mr. A. V. Travers, formerly of the celebrated jewelry house of T. B. Storr, of New York, and directly from the establishment of Tiffany & Co., has identified himself with Mr. E. A. Brown, the well known jeweler of this city.

The art exhibition, in connection with the slight opening at Bristol, Smith & Freeman's, has been one of the notable events of the past week. The elegant establishment has been thronged with the fashion and beauty of St. Paul, and the fine art display has been one of rare beauty.

Among the pleasant matrimonial events of Thanksgiving day, was the marriage of Mr. M. V. Steiger, a prominent and wealthy merchant of St. Louis, and Miss Stella Hill, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Larperent.

The happy couple were tendered a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, after which they left for St. Louis, their future home.

Prof. Snow will give the next popular assembly of the series at College hall on Tuesday evening, the 5th inst. These parties are becoming deservedly popular, and they are conducted in a faultless and elegant manner, all the appointments being superb. As usual a number of lively new dances will be introduced by Prof. Snow's special class.

About two weeks ago the Globe local columns recorded an accident on the Drake building, in course of erection on lower Third street, by which a mechanic named Andrew Oleson was seriously injured. Last week the fellow workmen on the building took up a collection for the sufferer, the sum of $130 being subscribed. This amount was sent to the family of Oleson as a Thanksgiving token.

The nuptials of Miss Edna M., the talented daughter of Hon. and Mrs. S. H. Nichols, and Mr. Geo. K. Kent, the Wabasha street grocer, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 533 Yale street, last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. N. Gilbert, and the happy couple were tendered a magnificent reception. They left for Winnipeg Monday night, where they will pass the honeymoon.

Arrangements have been almost completed for the forthcoming reception and ball of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers, which promises to eclipse in elegance and magnificence any similar affair of the season. The affair will take place at Sherman hall on Friday evening the 15th inst. Delegates are invited from all the cities of the Northwest, and lavish and elaborate arrangements are being made to make it one of the grandest events of the kind ever given in St. Paul.

The sumptuous residence of Mr. James B. Power, land commissioner of the St. Paul & Manitoba Railroad company, was the scene of a delightful Thanksgiving party last Thursday, there being in attendance, in addition to many friends, no less than twenty-three relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Power. Notable among those present were Mr. F. W. Hough and bride, who were married at Jersey Heights, Nov. 21, and who wisely concluded to pass their honeymoon in the samty city of St. Paul and the land of promise.

Miss Mina Wright, the versatile elocutionist and dramatic reader, whose talented performances last season were noticed in the Globe, has become one of the permanent attractions of the Slayton Dramatic bureau, and the ensuing season she will form one of its famous concert quartet.

As a mimic and reader, Mrs. Wright possesses a genius of a peculiar and high order, and in the roles essayed she has few if any equals. The engagement this season comprises a range extending from Philadelphia to Yankton, D. T., and it is to be hoped they will favor St. Paul with an entertainment.

A very charming wedding took place at the cathedral last Wednesday afternoon, being the nuptials of John McGuire, a well-known mail carrier, and Annie Wallace, attended by Miss Katie Markley, bridesmaid, and F. H. McGuire, acting as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Shanley. In the evening a large reception was given at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Burke of Fort street, at which there was a delightful repast and many elegant and costly presents displayed. Mr. and Mrs. McGuire have taken up their residence at 438 Selby avenue, accompanied by the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

The Evening Stars gave another one of their delightful hops last Friday evening. It was well attended by both ladies and gentlemen who enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content. Among the number present were noticed the officers of the Evening Stars, and by prominent people of the state, to take place in St. Paul. It is probable this courtesy will be accepted before the "Party" start on their northern trip.

Notice. Hats, Bonnets, Plumes, Trimmings and Fancy Feathers, and all kinds of Trimmings for Millinery. You can save money by going to Schultz's closing sale, 88 East Third street.

The World Still Moves. Notwithstanding Mother Shipton's dire prediction the world still exists. The people will live longer if they use Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure, which subdues and conquers coughs, colds, consumption, whooping cough, and all diseases of the lungs. For proof call at P. J. Dreis' drug store and get a bottle free, corner Ninth and St. Peter streets.

RAILROAD NEWS.

The weather along the railroads in the northwest is clear and cold.

The St. Cloud & Hackley branch will be put in operation to-morrow.

Judge Chandler was arranging yesterday to go to Chicago to-morrow.

J. T. Odell, superintendent of the Dakota division of the Northern Pacific is in St. Paul.

The emigration office of the St. Paul & Manitoba road have on exhibition a map of Crookston, Minn.

Manager Marvel and Chief Engineer Smith of the St. Paul & Manitoba road, left yesterday evening for the north on a tour of inspection.

E. P. Donovan, general agent of the American Steamship line at Guttenberg, Sweden, is on his way to visit the Northwest, and especially the Red River valley.

The Royal Route seems to flourish on the cut rates. During the third week of November, including three days of the $1 cut rates, the road showed an increase of $48,267.08, which seems to indicate that the cut pays.

Inquiries were made yesterday of all the railroad officials in St. Paul, to learn what action had been taken by the arbitration meeting held in Chicago yesterday afternoon, but none of the officials knew anything more than any one else about what had been or what had not been done.

The business of ticket selling is beyond doubt on the decline. The rush is over, and ticket sellers, agents, ropers in and scarpers are experiencing a decided rest. The great halls of the union depot are less densely filled than they have been for the last two weeks, and the trains go out less crowded than they did. Possibly the matter of travel may be revived this week to some extent, but there is no probability that it will be as large as it was.

The Money to be Raised. BOSTON, Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the security holders of the Toledo, Delphos & Burlington railroad to-day it was voted without opposition to raise the balance of the $800,000 previously called for, subscriptions to be paid in at the rate of 15 per cent. per month.

PROBABLE MURDER.

The Body of an Unknown Man Found Near the City—Seated Near a Straw Stack and Frozen Stiff—Marks of Violence on His Person—No Means of Identification Found—A Mystery that Should be Solved.

Yesterday afternoon word was received by Messrs. McCarthy & Donnelly that the body of a man had been found a short distance west of the Catholic cemetery, and Mr. McCarthy with Officer Escher started out there immediately and brought the remains into the undertaking rooms of the firm on Wabasha street.

WHAT IS KNOWN OF THE CRIME. There is really little known as to the manner of the man's death. All the summer and fall the people who live near the place where the body was found have been greatly annoyed by the tramps who have gathered in that vicinity. They have been in the habit of gathering there in considerable numbers, and during the summer months they have taken possession of the straw piles near the houses, and have used them for sleeping apartments. Mr. Sebastian Zeik, who owns or occupied the ground near where the man was found, has been very much annoyed by them, but at the same time he did not know what to do to get rid of them. One of his neighbors some time ago was troubled in the same way, and finally notified them to leave. The result was that they did not leave at all, but on the contrary his straw stacks were burned to the ground. The tramps still held possession of the situation and continued to annoy all the people in that vicinity.

On Wednesday Mr. Keiz visited the straw stack and everything was all right, and there were no signs of anything being wrong. Yesterday when he went out to the straw pile he found the body of the man sitting up against the pile of straw, partly concealed by a little straw that had been thrown over him. He immediately sent in word as above stated. When Mr. McCarthy and Officer Escher reached the spot, they found a young man twenty-seven or twenty-eight years of age, sitting up against the straw pile. The body was frozen stiff, and the blood that flowed from what are supposed to be wounds on his face had been frozen all the way down, so that his coat was frozen to his underclothes. After the body had been brought into the undertaking rooms of Messrs. McCarthy & Donnelly, the coroner attempted to make an examination to see how much he was injured, but it was found impossible to tell anything about it till the body is thawed out. It looks as though the man was shot in the face; still this is by no means certain. An examination of a more thorough character will be made as soon as it is possible. The man looks like a laboring man, and was comfortably clad in what appeared to be foreign made clothes. A man named John Gebhart thought that he had seen the man at work on the Keller farm, east of the city. No one else knew the man at all. Nothing was found on his person calculated to show who he was.
