Yesterday being the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, was celebrated at the cathedral by high mass.

City Treasurer Reis paid out some $10,000 yesterday to the street and sewer force and others having claims against the city.

Col. Taylor, state librarian, is in receipt of seven volumes of Iowa state reports, comprising house and senate journals and state documents.

To-day the street force will be paid $2,900, the sewer force $300, the inspection of customs $500, and miscellaneous bills to the amount of $6,300, making in all $10,900.

Messrs. Cesare Valisi and Giuseppe Bistoffi will give one of their charming "Mandolin" concerts at Charles Hohn's Milwaukee headquarters, corner Jackson and Fifth streets, from 8 to 11 o'clock to-night. There is music in it.

A gang of men are at work at Nichols & Deane's old store, which was burned out Wednesday, clearing out the ice and rubbish, and throwing out the ice collected on the iron in the store, preparatory to moving it to the new store.

While out driving yesterday on lower Seventh street, a buggy containing Mr. T. J. Levitt and wife, got caught in the street car track and was upset. Mrs. Levitt was thrown out and sustained painful but fortunately not serious injuries.

G. V. Bacon's real estate office reports two large real estate sales made by him this week.

E. G. Rogers to Solomon Bergman, lot 11 block 11, Whitney & Smith's addition, $13,000; Norman W. Kittson to Chas. M. Dittman, lots 1, 3, 4 and 5, block 37, Kittson's addition, $10,500.

Mrs. Bridget Kelley residing with her son F. J. Kelley, Esq., at No. 381 East Sixth street, met with what might have been a serious accident yesterday morning.

In stepping from the front porch of the dwelling she slipped and fell and for a short time it was thought that she had sustained serious injuries, owing to her age, but last evening she was apparently in her usual health.

A dead from Alexander Ramsey to D. C. Shepard was placed on record yesterday conveying lots and seven of block sixty-six, Kittson's addition for $20,500. These two lots are located on the corner of Third and John street, and the piece of land thus conveyed is 100 feet square. Gov. Ramsey bought these two lots a short time ago, just before he went out among the Mormons, and paid $11,000 for it.

A Greek, with a very unpronounceable and unspelling name, who has a room at 63 East Third street, left a note on his desk yesterday saying that he was going to drown himself. The note was found by a clerk and taken to the city hall. The police went to work to find out if he had drowned himself and after looking around the river bank and hunting through every place where it was thought he might be found that gentleman was discovered in his room alive and well. He explained the note on the ground of its being a joke. Better not repeat the joke.

A few weeks ago a young man named H. D. Chapman arrived in St. Paul and represented himself as the traveling agent of a prominent business house of Cleveland, Ohio.

He put on considerable style, and during his brief stay in St. Paul managed to victimize a number of his chance acquaintances in this city by obtaining money from them and giving them drafts upon the firm, all of which were returned dishonored. Among the victims are Joseph Stanchfield and Elsie Allen. Upon finding that they had been taken in to the tune of several hundred dollars, the boys got mad and Mr. Chapman was arrested at the Nicollet house at Minneapolis on Thursday night by Detective O'Connor.

and yesterday morning he was brought before Judge Burr, and in default of $750 bail was committed until Dec. 18, to which time the case was continued.

The Great Goeth....

The great Goeth has said that all bleeding of heart with heart brings but pain to us from the start. But the blending of the roots, barks, seeds and other ingredients for Allen's Iron Tonic Bitters is so admirably scientific that the "human system" of all tonics has been reached and it stands confessed to-day without a rival in its special field. For sale by J. P. Allen, druggist and manufacturing pharmacist, St. Paul, Minn.

Caught in the Ice.

Detroit, Dec. 8.—The tug Kate Williams has now been sent, but it is doubtful if the schooner can be reached. The schooner Harvey Bissell, coal laden, leaking badly, eighteen inches of water in hold, cut loose from the docks at Amherstburg last night, has drifted out into the lake. Three unknown schooners are fast in the ice off Colchester reef.

Detroit, Dec. 8.—The tugs Bolize and Kate Williams have succeeded in getting out of the ice, and returned to the river safely. The Unadilla is still stuck off Bar point. She is what laden, bound for Buffalo. A gang of men have been sent from here to work the pumps on the Bissell and keep her afloat.

Sellon Hutchins retires from connection with the Manchester, (N. H.) Union to-day, transferring his interest to his associate, Jos. C. Moore.
