

Windom's Estimate of the Legislature. Pioneer Press—Windom Organ—Jan. 18.] If Mr. Windom's friends have the firmness and tenacity of purpose to hold together to the number of fifty, or even forty-five votes, there is still a good fighting chance that they may win. * * * There are probably some one or two dozen of these infamously dirty creatures in the legislature who have been waiting to be bought.

CITY GLOBULES. The assault case of J. Cunningham was dismissed yesterday by Judge Barr. The committee on streets of the council will meet at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Search warrants were sworn out by the counsel of Jordan yesterday evening against the houses of Martin and Bibben. Nothing had been heard up to last night concerning the friends of Herman Dallmann, who committed suicide at the St. Paul house Tuesday night. Prof. Evans will give a class reception and soiree at Sherman hall this evening, and the prospects favor one of the most select and enjoyable parties of the season.

It was Ben Monti, not Fred Monti, who was arrested Wednesday afternoon at the union depot building, for being noisy. There is quite a difference between the two. John Gorman, the cobbler, is like a bad penny, always showing up at intervals. Yesterday he was up for vagrancy, and he asked permission to leave town. The court ordered him to skip. Judge Nelson, of Marshall county, passed through St. Paul yesterday on his way to Florida, where he will enjoy himself for several weeks among the orange groves and the festive crocodile.

Jennie Farrell, the young woman who attempted suicide a few weeks ago, was arrested yesterday, at the instance of her friends. She was committed to the Woman's reformatory for ninety days. The remains of A. Larson, the young man who was found dead in a chair at a Rosabel street boarding house on Tuesday, were forwarded yesterday to friends at Onaska, by McCarthy & Donnelly. Fred Wendorf was given a square meal at the Windsor on Wednesday, and to manifest his gratitude he cabaged an overcoat belonging to one of the guests. He was run in, and being a bad egg, the court said he would have to send him over for ninety days.

Homer Michaels, who pilfered from the Northern Pacific express and who was arrested in Florida and brought back to St. Paul, when he was sentenced to Stillwater for two years and nine months, was sent over to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon, and is now wearing the stripes. A young athlete, named Benn Moti, was up yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. Tuesday afternoon he attempted to fight his way through the gate at the union depot and he was walked before the court. It seemed that he was just in a hurry and impulsive and a fine of $25 was remitted during good behavior.

David Hoar has been on the turf during many a long cold day and night and at one period he was quite a flyer. Wednesday night he got bugged and was run in on the old charge, and his name was called yesterday morning he was fast asleep in his chair. His slumbers were gently broken and he will tackle the elegant wind pudding for ten days.

About 11 o'clock last night, while the street cars were standing on the track in front of the Opera house, waiting for the play to end, a fellow whose name could not be ascertained jumped on one of the cars, let the brake loose and started the mules down street. The driver of the car seeing the operation started for the fellow, stopped the car and commenced to pound the individual who had so freely helped himself to a car. The latter commenced to make a great outcry. A crowd gathered, and finally the fellow broke away and ran like a deer and was soon lost sight of. A policeman sent a couple of shots after him, but the only effect of these was to cause the fellow to pick up and set down his feet in a more lively manner, and he succeeded in getting away. George Morton was unfortunate enough last evening to lose his horse and cutter. He had been out riding, and stopped on Third street, near Seven corners, where he hitched his horse and went into a store. When he came out he found his horse and cutter had been taken away by some one. On finding it had disappeared he went to police headquarters and gave the information, after which he started out and scoured the town. He was not successful in finding the missing team, and was pretty much disgusted. This is not the first time that his horse has disappeared under similar circumstances. In each previous case the horse was found in a lively stable. The owner is getting pretty tired of this business, and threatens to do some shooting if he can find the man that helps himself in this manner.

PERSONAL. Capt. A. H. Reed, Gloucester, at the Metropolitan. Hon. H. D. Morse, Winona, was among the arrivals at the Metropolitan yesterday. At the Metropolitan: D. E. Myers, St. Cloud; R. R. Briggs, Moorhead; C. H. Lord, Shakopee; H. E. Newton, Minneapolis. John Thilo, on the corner of Seventh and John streets, was presented yesterday by his wife with a good, husky fourteen pound boy. It was Mr. H. B. Montgomery who was walking more proudly yesterday, and with his head a good deal higher in the air. It was a little girl.

Notice. A meeting of the Ramsey Court Bar Association will be held at the new court house, Saturday, January 27th, at 10 o'clock p. m. A full attendance of the bar is desired. B. B. GALUSHA, Sec'y.

AMUSEMENTS.

Ada Gray in "East Lynne" Last Night. The extremely cold weather last night no doubt operated as the principal drawback to a large audience at the initial performance of "East Lynne," by the Ada Gray company at the Opera house, but in spite of this the performance was witnessed by a fair sized and appreciative audience. Had the Opera house been better heated it would have added considerably to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

The plot of "East Lynne" is so familiar to theatergoers that it is unnecessary to attempt even an outline. As presented by the Ada Gray company the drama is full of emotion and interest. The opportunities for the display of the former sentiment are particularly numerous, and the appeals to the heart rarely failed to strike a responsive chord in the feelings of the audience. Miss Gray impersonated the dual role of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine. The requisites for a proper delineation of these characters are of a high order and very exciting, and it is justice to say that Miss Gray approaches the ideal, if the fine strokes of the picture are not always up to the strictest demands of art. As Lady Isabel she is by turns, the loving, petulant, fond, imperious and suspicious wife.

As Madame Vine she is the repentant, heart broken devoted mother, with but one consuming passion for her children, in whom the stronger affections of her life are centered. The several scenes were admirably portrayed and at the close of the third act, where she discovers the base treachery of Sir Francis to which she has been the victim, she was recalled, as a testimonial to the powerful manner in which this scene was portrayed. The string scenes were inglorious and affecting and drew tears into many eyes. Mr. Frank Roche admirably delineated the treachery of the villain as "Sir Francis," and the characters assumed by Mr. Melton, Mr. Arnold, Miss Wesley, Miss Gilbert, and Messrs. Benson and Murray were enjoyable and satisfactory. Owing to a severe cold the selection by Miss Gilbert was not sung with her customary voice or expression. The same play will be repeated to-night.

Wonders from Land and Sea. The Chicago Museum, at No. 12 East Third street, is daily the attraction of large numbers of admiring citizens, who throng to inspect the fine collection of curiosities. In all their pristine glory may be seen the Cinthian saw fish, the hammer-head shark, porpoises, flying fish, reptiles and other wonders of the deep. The transparent human head continues to draw immense crowds, and it still baffles scientific research and inquiry. Then there are the Zulu warriors, and a large variety of things interesting and amusing.

The Great Giganteans. Mr. B. Leavitt's Gigantean minstrels have been playing in New England last fall where their entertainment won golden opinions from the press and the people. Of their performance at Bridgeport Conn., the Standard wrote as follows: The entertainment given by Leavitt's minstrels at the Opera house last night was by far the best given in this city for years. Every one of the performers was first-class in his particular position, and the excellent programme outline was followed out to the very letter. We hope to see the troupe here once more before spring.

THE RAILWAYS.

The Flint & Pere Marquette. Boston, Jan. 25.—A meeting of the holders of the common stock of the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad was held this afternoon. Twenty thousand shares represented meeting declared in favor of submitting two plans to the directors for removing the present disability on common stock. One plan is that a new capital stock of about $8,000,000 be issued, the preferred to be exchanged share for share, and the common two shares for one of the new. The other plan is for the common stockholders to surrender one-third their present holding in consideration that there be issued to them 65 per cent new common stock which shall participate in the management of the company, and receive the surplus net earnings annually, after a 7 per cent dividend has been paid on the preferred stock. Under the first plan the capital stock is reduced $1,600,000. It is stated that the earnings of the year will be sufficient to pay 8 per cent on the entire reduced capital of $9,000,000; and it was argued that it would be to the advantage of the preferred stockholders to consent to this reorganization, for under the present arrangement they cannot for five years receive more than 7 per cent. The second plan proposes to maintain the preference of preferred stock, but to remove the disabilities of common stock, which are that it can neither participate in the arrangement of the company nor share in the earnings, until the preferred stock has received five consecutive dividends of 7 per cent.

A $6,000,000 Mortgage. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 25.—The Memphis, Salem & Brunswick railroad filed with the county register to-day, a first mortgage for $6,000,000 upon all their property and franchises, to guarantee the Trust and Safety Deposit company, of Philadelphia, for the purpose of raising funds to build and equip the road from Memphis to Holly Springs, thence on to the western line of Alabama, a distance of 170 miles, only 75 miles of which is graded. This road constitutes a portion of the system controlled by the Erlanger syndicate.

Through Trains on the Southern Pacific. Tucson, Arizona, Jan. 25.—A. N. Towne, general manager of the Southern Pacific Railroad company, says that a through train to New Orleans from San Francisco will leave on the 28th, and the first train from New Orleans to San Francisco on the 30th, after which time regular trains will run.

Columbus & Xenia. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 25.—The stockholders of the Columbus & Xenia Railroad company, under lease by the Panhandle, have elected the old board of directors and G. H. Swan president, and R. S. Smith secretary.

Southern Pullman Palace Car Company. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 25.—A meeting of the directors of the Southern Pullman Palace Car company was held to-day. The vacancies in the board were filled by the election of O. A. Lochrane, C. H. Davies, and Thos. H. Hayes. The latter was also elected second vice president. George W. Brown will assume the duties of general superintendent, with James Martin, assistant, and headquarters at Louisville.

The Mexican Central. BOSTON, Jan. 25.—The Mexican Central Railway company has issued a subscription for $6,022,500. The company considers the sum enough to finish the main line by the first quarter of the year 1884.

THE OLD WORLD.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—A St. Petersburg dispatch denies the report of a fire at Nicolaiev.

The Moscow Telegraph received a second warning for violation of the press laws.

CANDIA, Jan. 25.—The relations between the government and Greek consul here are suspended. The vice consul who insulted the governor has been recalled to Athens.

MARSEILLES, Jan. 25.—The republican clubs telegraph the representatives in the chamber of deputies to support Floquet's proposition.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—Mr. Billot, while in a great measure favoring the Orleans princess admitted that the conduct of some of them was not such as he could altogether approve. Mr. Billot confessed that the Duc de Clèves left his regiment without leave, to visit the Duc de Amies' camp. Mr. Billot blamed any officer army for addressing princesses as messeigneurs when on duty, and admitted the inconvenience of having princesses in the army, "for where," he said, "there were planets, there will be satellites." Mr. Billot acquiesced in the statement of the Versailles committee, which condemned that the commission of the Orleans princess was in main Orleansist in its composition.

General Billot, minister of war, pointed out that if the appointment of Duc d'Aumale as general of division was cancelled, all the official work done by him would fall to the ground, notably the sentence passed on Marshall Bazaine which Duc d'Aumale signed as president of the court martial.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Paris dispatch to the Telegraph: President Grey yesterday refused to sign a decree of expulsion on the ground that the special law on the subject must be first voted. Since Monday Prince Jerome has been unable to take his usual exercise in the conciergerie, owing to affection of the heart.

Standard dispatch: At the Elysee last night the word dissolution was heard, but the result of a general parliamentary election at the present crisis is feared.

PARIS, Jan. 25.—The cabinet council, which has been held to-day, has decided on questions at issue, has been postponed until to-morrow.

WIESBADEN, Jan. 25.—Flotow, the composer, is dead.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Forster, speaking at the Leeds liberal club, referring to the question as to whether Ireland should have the same franchise as England and Scotland, said he believed there was only one direction in which they could have to settle the Irish question, and that was by making Ireland a country with England and Scotland. This was received with applause. He further said the only way to meet home rule and dissolution of the union was by treating the Irish people as we would treat ourselves. [Renewed applause.] The extension of household suffrage to the highland, however, must depend upon the state of that country at the time the new reform bill was introduced.

The police are guarding the house of the informer Farrell, owing to threats against his mother and sister.

The hurricane at Limerick occasioned serious damage. Houses were blown down and vessels in the harbor suffered. Trains from Galway to Dublin ran off the track, and an engine with six carriages was wrecked.

DUBLIN, Jan. 25.—It is stated that important evidence has been obtained in regard to the perpetrators of the outrage during the last few years in the west of Ireland. The police expect to capture all the members of the organization which promoted the crimes; also the persons concerned in the murder of Lord Mountmorris. It is probable they will be indicted shortly. A man who is believed to have participated in the murder of Blake and servant, Flynn, near Loughrea, is now in America. He is being sought after and if found, it is surmised he will turn queen's evidence and disclose the names and whereabouts of his associates.

VIENNA, June 25.—The emperor gave a banquet, this evening, to De Giers, Russian ambassador, and staff. The Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, president of the Austrian council, and other notabilities, were present.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Edwin Booth's second performance of King Lear was again rapturously applauded.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—Over 3,000 congratulatory letters and telegrams were received by the crown prince and princess, also 100 packages not yet opened. The emperor presented a massive teat service; the queen of England sent a marble statue of herself; ten chief towns of Prussia have given a suite of dining room furniture valued at 76,000 marks; the city of Berlin donated 118,000 marks for the foundation of a sanitary school; 800,000 marks, collected through Germany, were received for benevolent purposes, and the British consul sent 30,000 marks for building an English church.

THE MEADE MURDERERS.

How They Were Captured and Some of the Evidence Against Them.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—One of three men under arrest at Waupaca, Wis., for the murder of H. C. Meade, a wealthy banker of that place, which occurred on the evening of the 7th of last October, has made a confession: In this confession Thos. Welsh fixes the crime on Vandear and Freeman, his fellow prisoners, and affirms his own innocence. In detailing the case and describing the arrest of the trio, Superintendent Whipple, of the Mooney & Boland Detective agency, of this city, said: "Of course the murder created a great sensation, and the citizens determined to have the murderers brought to justice if such a thing was possible. An agency in Chicago was engaged to work up the case, and made an open investigation lasting only a few days, and meeting with no success, gave up the job. However the unfortunate citizens of Waupaca were not inclined to give it up, and a month or so after the other people got through they engaged our firm to work up the case, and immediately detailed men to make an investigation. Our men were beginning to lose heart, when one of them discovered a woman named Nellie Fraser, a character of bad repute, who said she knew something of the matter but was afraid to tell what she knew lest she should be maltreated by the murderers. On being assured that proper protection would be afforded her, she mentioned the names of the men who are now under arrest, Albert Vandear, Tom, alias "Stubb" Welsh, and Charles Freeman. This woman, Fraser, was in the company, as she alleged, of Vandear and Welsh the night preceding the murder, and heard a conversation between them in which one of them said that they were going down to the bank to "fix" old man Meade, and "if he kicked against their plans they might have to kill him." The woman asserted strenuously that Welsh did not go with the party, having passed the night with her. She made a detailed statement to the state's attorney, who issued a warrant for the arrest of Vandear, and placed the same in the hands of the sheriff to execute. The sheriff, in company with our operative, journeyed to Red Wing, Minn., where Vandear was living with his father. He was found on the street driving a team of horses, and being unarmed surrendered very quietly. Vandear was removed to the Waupaca jail. Threats were made by the citizens of a lynching, but they were dissuaded, and were informed that the evidence against the prisoner was purely circumstantial. The next move was to arrest the remainder of the gang. Search was made all over the pine country of Wisconsin as far up as Ashland, and at last Mr. Stubb Welsh was discovered driving a team in a logging camp. He too was arrested without any trouble and brought to Waupaca. Chas. Freeman has been a freight conductor, and occasionally visited Waupaca. I don't know the exact spot where he was run to earth, but it was somewhere near the neighborhood of Welsh's hiding place. We have got a pretty clear case against them, though, and if there is any justice in the law the murderers of poor Meade will all, in all probability, receive their punishment.

It is Coming to Buy the "Dirty Creatures."

[Pioneer Press—Windom Organ—Jan. 18.] If Mr. Windom's friends have the firmness and tenacity of purpose to hold together to the number of fifty, or even forty-five votes, there is still a good fighting chance that they may win. * * * There are probably some one or two dozen of these infamously dirty creatures in the legislature who have been waiting to be bought.

Linseed Oil Production.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The consolidated linseed oil company has been in private session here two days. The company was formed four years ago, comprising fifty-five miles, or nearly all west of Buffalo. Since then other mills have sprung up and what was especially a monopoly became subjected to sharp competition. It is stated that the result was a practical break up of the company, enough mills withdrawing from the combination with their portion of capital stock to reduce the stock from $10,000 to $5,000, the mills so withdrawing intending to enter the competition independently.

Articles intended for "C" company booths at the Armory Fair may be left at the residence of Mrs. Geo. A. Hamilton, No. 431 East Eighth street, in lower town, and at the residence of Mrs. Morris Lamprey, No. 137 College avenue, for upper town.
