

THE DAY'S DISASTER.

Huge Crevasse in the Levees Near Helena, Ark.—People fleeing to the High Lands for Safety.—A Record of the Fires and Other Calamities.

LEWIS, THE GLOBE.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

LA CROSSE, March 5.—Rev. Geo. Win-kowitch, the Polish minister who some days ago blew out the gas in his room in the International hotel, died from the effects of the asphyxiation last evening. Deceased was for twenty-five years a resident of Bismarck, Ia., where he was well known as a local minister, and for the last ten months preached at Maple Works in this state. He leaves a family of four grown up sons and daughters. His remains will be taken to Bismarck, Ia., for interment.

THE WATER'S BOILING.

NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—A Helena, Arkansas special says: Fitchburg levee, five miles south of this city, gave way last night. The crevasse this morning was 100 yards wide, and increasing rapidly. The rush of water through the opening is terrific. The whole country around Oldtown is believed to be inundated. The other levees are being strengthened, and it is now believed that they can stand another foot of water. A further rise of fifteen inches is anticipated, in which case nothing can prevent the inundation of the country contiguous to Helena. The gauge stands forty-six feet and six inches above low water, and eight inches below the highest point reached last spring. The St. Francis river, at Madison, is several inches higher than last year.

THE RIVER AT HELENA.

HELENA, Ark., March 5.—Yesterday was the day set for the greatest rise here. From 9 a. m. Saturday to the same time on Sunday, the river rose nine inches. Sunday morning to Monday at the same time, it rose thirteen inches, and is now rising nine inches in twenty-four hours, and at 4 p. m. lacked nine inches of high water. The levee broke last night at Fitchburg's place, five miles below town. It will overflow a large portion of the Oldtown country. The levee from Helena to below Long lake is all secure, and being worked upon and watched by some 100 hands, with thirty scrapers. On Long lake levee there is still an immense amount of water to come out.

Those dependent upon Long lake levee have become alarmed, moving stock and goods to places of safety. Indeed, the entire bottom population is fleeing to high land, carrying all their valuables with them. The negroes are panic stricken, hurrying higher and thither, seeking places of security against the relentless waters. The Iron Mountain track and Langenille bridge are submerged. Transfers by boat enable the trains to continue running. Desperate efforts are being made to maintain the levees still intact. The general opinion now is that the maximum of last year will be thrown into the shade by the water now in sight but sure to come. Citizens of Helena consider the situation critical.

THE RISE OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

ST. LOUIS, March 5.—The latest news from the lower Mississippi river is that the water at Helena is rising at the rate of about half an inch an hour; and it is now thought the highest mark of last year will be reached. The levees still hold, and it is believed they can and will be able to resist an additional rise. A good deal of uneasiness is felt, however, and preparations are being made for the worst. Boats and other floating apparatus are being rapidly constructed, and planters as well as people in the city are furnishing themselves with modes of escape should the levees break. The trestle on the Helena branch of the Iron Mountain railroad, at Langenille river, thirty miles north of Helena, which a week ago was forty feet above the water, is expected to be submerged to-day, and trains have stopped until arrangements can be made to transfer. The men washed off the Memphis & Little Rock railroad bridge at Blackfoot bayou last night were rescued. At Arkansas City the water is still rising at the rate of three inches per day. Otherwise the situation remains about the same as previously reported.

Accounts from the section between Friar's Point and Vicksburg on the Mississippi side of the river, a distance of about 300 miles, are that the reports of damage have been grossly exaggerated. The levees there are still unbroken. No danger is apprehended and planters are busy plowing and beginning to put in crops.

MEMPHIS, March 5.—The river here marks 35 feet 7 inches on the gauge, a rise of one inch since yesterday.

The body shows no signs of a blow that would cause death. All parties in the skiff were drunk.

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 5.—A serious break is reported in Pastoria levee, Chicot county, Arkansas, which will inundate all the plantations outside of Lake Chicot, except such as are protected by private levees, and threatens seriously.

Besides the charity bequests already published, a large number of relatives and their children are left amounts ranging from $30,000 to $50,000 each. LATE MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

Last evening a pugilist and hard character generally named Murphy, was arrested by Capt. Chase for nearly murdering a man named Collins at 2119 Marshall street, East side. The instrument used was a casting from a stove. The victim of the affray was taken to the city hospital, where he was in a critical condition to a surgeon, who sewed up the wounds, requiring about two hours to do the work. Murphy is the same man who cut up Hogan last year.

Last Sunday night a horse belonging to Mr. Wood, of 73 South Seventh street, was stolen from in front of the Manitoba depot. As published in the Globe last night, W. Williams was arrested for the offense, and the horse and buggy recovered. The officers got on to the thief through a complaint made at police headquarters by J. L. Comstock, who said Williams, who was a former employee of Laraway, King & Perrine's plow works, came to him and offered to get him work at the shops. He borrowed him money and gave Williams the trunk for security. When he redeemed it he found that Williams had opened it and had abstracted $35 worth of clothing. He also said that he had seen Williams riding the horse stolen from Wood. The animal was found in a woodhouse on Seventh avenue south and Fourth street. After the arrest, D. Gunnison, the proprietor of a boarding house, complained that Williams had stolen two watches from his house.

Adjudgment of the Indiana Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 5.—Both branches of the legislature adjourned sine die this afternoon at 2:30. The senate passed the metropolitan police bill over the governor's veto by a vote of 26 to 21, all the Democratic senators voting in the affirmative but Senator Benz. Before adjournment the house passed the appropriation bill by a vote of 52 to 32. The appropriation bill had passed both houses last week, but a vote in the lower branch to reconsider their action was passed and the bill laid on the table until Monday. This latter action was reconsidered to-day, which is deemed to mean that the law is valid. The constitution provides that all bills must be in the hands of the governor for his approval three days before final adjournment.
