

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15, 1883.—9:56 P. M. Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations.

Table with columns: Bar, Ther., Wind, Weather. Rows for St. Paul, Bismarck, Duluth, etc.

AMOUNT of melted snow, 0.9; Maximum thermometer, 32.0; minimum thermometer, 14.0; direction, E. S. E.; force, 15.0.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. In the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, warmer, fair weather, followed by local rains, light variable winds shifting to southerly, and lower pressure.

John Matheis was serenaded Wednesday evening on the occasion of his forty-sixth birthday.

The remittances for the March settlements from the counties are rapidly coming in to the state treasurer.

Dr. Sweeney received a dispatch yesterday saying a car load of carp, which left Noyah, Mich. yesterday would be in St. Paul to-day.

The cases of C. P. Hawley and G. Bailey, the fighting hackmen arrested Wednesday night by Officer Distler, were continued in the municipal court until to-day.

The municipal court grist yesterday morning only furnished two workhouse candidates, Louis Larson for thirty days, and Dan O'Connor for sixty days.

The sale by City Treasurer Reis yesterday morning of delinquent assessments for the Sixth ward levee, covered about 1,000 descriptions, the sale aggregating something over $8,000.

M. Sanders, the colored soldier from Fort Snelling arrested for assaulting Special Police Officer Varley, of Wood's theater, was discharged by Judge Burr yesterday morning upon promising to make immediate tracks for the fort.

George Warnack, the man arrested Wednesday charged with using offensive language to little school girls, appeared in the municipal court yesterday morning with Messrs. Walsh & Goforth as his lawyers. The city not being ready to proceed the case was continued until the 19th.

A poor fellow named William Falk who was locked up in the city hall last night suffered severely from delirium tremens. His condition became so serious about midnight that the officers on duty had to send for a physician who gave him such treatment as his condition required.

Sheriff Metz, of Brainerd, Crow Wing county, with W. W. Harly and B. Gilbert, as deputies, passed through the city yesterday with three prisoners for the penitentiary, as follows: August Hebbinger, burglar, two years; Frank McCarthy, burglary, two years; and Larry Roach, burglary, one year.

Advices received at the state immigration department thus far the present spring are indicative that there will be no falling off in immigration to Minnesota the coming summer and fall. From advices so far received it would seem that the inflow of population will be more largely from the Eastern states than from foreign countries.

Two young fellows went into the saloon of George W. Eccles on Jackson street yesterday afternoon, and while he had stepped to the rear of the saloon they had snatched a box of cigars from the bar. They were detected and pursued, and one of them arrested by Officer Galvin, but as Mr. Eccles did not care to prosecute him he was released.

W. A. Rogers of Aitkin, met by a Globe reporter yesterday, said that the small-pox epidemic which the lumber camps to the north of that place have been afflicted, had been suppressed, no new cases having broken out for the past two weeks. There are five convalescents quarantined in Aitkin, and there are still three patients in the pest house, all of whom are doing well.

The St. Paul ideals are receiving urgent requests to give entertainments at different places in this and adjoining states. The last was received yesterday from a banker of River Falls, Wis., saying they had not had a musical performance for three years, and promising the ideals an ovation if they would pay them a visit. Invitations have also been received from Red Wing and Fargo.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock the festive locomotive succeeded in killing a cow and heifer for Aaron Olson, out near the Harvester works, besides badly crippling a calf, which may perhaps yet have to be killed in order to save it—to use an Irish bull. Olson when last heard of was rushing round town in search of an "injunction" or some other kind of legal writ whereby to obtain redress for his loss from the railroad company.

Last evening a dispatch was received from Mendota saying that S. W. Rogers had lost a span of horses, one a bay mare and the other a gray horse, that had been taken away by a hired man named Weber. The dispatch requested the police here to look out for them. The policemen were notified, and about 10 o'clock Officer Beer found Weber at the Washington house and arrested him. The horses were subsequently found at a stable on lower Seventh street, and taken into custody also. So it is likely the same old question will be raised as to whether this was a theft or a mere conversion—a kind of borrowing of some one's property without any intention to steal it, and with no intention of returning it.

ON THE DOWN GRADE. A leaf from the Municipal Court History of St. Paul.

The record of the municipal court this morning shows the following: "Deveny Cardozo; drunk. House of the Good Shepherd sixty days." The woman in question was first before the municipal court in June, 1881. She was then a guest at the Windsor, wore her silks and jewelry, and asked the lady until one morning about 2 o'clock she was found by a police officer under the influence of liquor trying to force her way into a saloon. When arraigned, she told the judge a pitiful story to the effect that she was a married woman, living and carrying on a millinery business at a small town in Wisconsin, which she named, giving her husband's name; that she had been drunk and outraged by a prominent railroad man of this city, but that if she were allowed to go without any punishment she would return to her home and mend her course. A visit to her room at the hotel seemed to confirm her story as to the millinery business, a number of samples of such goods being found, and she was discharged. But it was only some six weeks when she was back again, showing by her shabby dress that she had not kept her word to reform, but on the contrary that she was going fast the downward road. Since she has been before the court some half dozen times, always giving a different name and always appearing more degraded than when she was last there, the Devey Cardozo of yesterday being a mere wreck of the Lottie Smith, as she called herself when first arrested in June, 1881.

H. B. Ruger, Fort Totten, is at the Merchants. A. B. Walker and Chas. Wilson, Fargo, are at the Merchants.

Mlle Rhea and maid have apartments at the Metropolitan. Charles Cressley and wife, Sisseton, Indian agency, are at the Merchants.

Col. Belote was resting very easily yesterday and was quite comfortable. D. Stimson, a deputy sheriff from Mower county, is visiting St. Paul on special business.

Col. Allen, of the Merchants, left yesterday for the Hot Springs, going via Chicago. The colonel will be absent several weeks.

Gen. J. B. Anstall, wife, daughter and servant, Atlanta, Ga., are sojourning at the Metropolitan.

At the Merchants: D. E. Lytle, Duluth; A. S. Hoti, Chippewa Falls; P. J. Murphy, Fargo, F. S. Parlin, Casselton, D. T.; R. W. Dillon, Bismarck.

Hon. Isaac H. Wing, register of the United States land office at Bayfield, Wis., is at the Metropolitan on his return from a visit to the Badger law makers at Madison.

Marvin Hughitt, H. S. Fitch, E. H. Johnson and M. A. Herron form a party of Chicago & Northwestern railroad officials at the Metropolitan.

James H. Brewster and Henry D. Brewster, New York, and Wm. J. Brewster, New Haven, Ct., capitalists looking for investments in the Northwest, are at the Metropolitan.

Private letters received from Clarence H. Johnston, who sailed for Europe on the 14th of February last, announce his safe arrival at Havre, France, after a very pleasant trip across the ocean. Mr. Johnston was to spend last week in Paris and this week in Rome.

Hon. J. B. Wakefield, Winnebago City, M. C. from the second congressional district, arrived in St. Paul yesterday on his return from Washington, where he had been to get the run of things. He reports meeting Senator Sabin in Washington, who appeared in fine health and spirits. He was accompanied on his return trip home as far as Chicago, by Nathan Myrick and wife, who will probably reach St. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Myrick are in their usual health, but Mr. Myrick is, of course, feeling considerably disappointed at the death of the bill for the liquidation of his long standing claim against the government, which had passed the senate, but favorably reported by the house committee, and would have passed that body had it not been for the quarrel got into on the last night over an election contest. Mr. W. H. Shelly, Mr. Wakefield reports, left Washington for St. Paul Tuesday, but will visit relatives in Michigan en route.

The St. Paul Foundry. The articles of incorporation of the St. Paul foundry appear, "officially" in the columns of the Globe this morning. The organization is a strong one both financially and practically. Mr. Topping's long connection with the foundry business in St. Paul gives him the experience for the managing position which he will undoubtedly hold in the new organization.
