WASHINGTON, April 3, 1 a. m.—For the upper Mississippi and Missouri, slightly warmer and fair during the day.

CITY GOBLES.

The public schools will reopen this morning.

The supreme court opens its session today at 12 o'clock.

The board of education will hold a regular meeting to-night.

The fines in the municipal court yesterday morning aggregated $90.

A party of men left for Portland, Oregon, yesterday, by way of San Francisco.

The Liederkranz gave a splendid concert and ball at the Athenaeum last evening at which there was an immense attendance.

The workhouse commission held a meeting yesterday morning, but transacted no business of special importance, more than routine.

Geo. W. Lamson is among the names mentioned as the prospective Republican candidate for mayor at the election next month.

Chief Dugan and Assistant "Liak" Hildebrand, were on duty yesterday at fire department headquarters, looking as natural as parties.

All parties who desire to have a supply of fish to place in ponds should send their address to Dr. Sweeney, of this city, with the address plainly written.

The choral union held a good rehearsal last evening. The concert will be given on the evening of the 17th instant at Market hall instead of the Opera house.

John Lick and W. Rooney, two drunks and disorderlies, were given thirty days each in the workhouse, by Judge Burr, yesterday morning.

Yesterday was pay day for the police force, fire laddies and other city employes, and City Treasurer Reis made all happy by dispensing some $10,000 among them.

The case of Christ. Olsen, accused by Neils Olsen, proprietor of the St. Thomas hotel, of robbing him of $200 while in bed asleep Saturday morning, was continued to April 3.

Adjutant General Hawley issued an order yesterday for the mustering in of company K of the Second regiment of Minnesota National Guards, of Stillwater, on Thursday next.

H. P. Nelson and Mrs. Frankie, two insane persons, were sent up to St. Peter yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Frankie has become quite violent since Sunday and it became necessary to confine her hands with a strap.

The old volunteer fire department association still sticks to its colors and maintains its organization and pursues its benevolent work. The association will meet for business this evening at No. 1 engine house.

The French people belonging to Le Cercle de l'Harmonie had a very pleasant ball last evening at Sherman hall, and with good music, good dancing and a good supper, they managed to make quite an agreeable night of it.

Clerk Spencer of the United States district court took another turn yesterday at hearing testimony in the case of the United States against Joel Bassett, of Minneapolis, for obstructing the Mississippi river above the falls.

That the postage bill of the St. Paul & Manitoba Railway company is no small item may be judged from the fact that the April purchase made yesterday amounted to $600, which is said to be about the average monthly purchase.

The call for pamphlets and information concerning the state at the immigration department last week not only greatly exceeded that of the last week in March 1882, but was greater than for any week of spring in the past four years.

The deed of D. M. Robbins and wife to Edward Langevin was filed for record yesterday afternoon, of lots 5 and 6, in block 19, St. Paul proper, being the two lots on the southeast corner of Fifth and Cedar streets. The consideration was $14,000.

The old Simpson house on the north side of Fourth street, between Jackson and Sibley streets, one of the old landmarks of St. Paul, was being pulled down yesterday to make room for the big five-story block that is about to be constructed by Mr. E. F. Drake.

Janitor Haman's room at the state house, in which is located the postoffice of the institution, has been neatly fitted up. An electric bell annunciator connects it with all departments of the institution, and besides it has telephonic communication with the same.

Tim Sullivan, who lives out on Fort street, got full yesterday morning, and during his frenzy turned his wife and children out of doors. The matter being reported to Officer Bomer, he took Sullivan in charge and landed him in the calaboose, and this morning he will face Judge Burr.

N. Johnson, G. Swenden, C. Johnson, P. Johnson and J. Anderson, five Swedes, turned Third street into a concert saloon on Sunday evening, for which Officers Zirklebach and Wann took them into camp, and yesterday morning they contributed $25 to the city, through the instructions of Judge Burr.

Plumbers at work yesterday afternoon in the barn of John Mathis, 307 Walnut street, thawing out a water pipe, raised so much smoke with their furnace that parties passing thought the building was on fire and tried "fire," which caused an alarm to be turned in from box 7, to which Nos. 1 and 3 engines responded.

The adjutant general has just succeeded in securing a pension for John Maxwell, of Excelsior, Minn., who served in the Fourth Minnesota regiment. Mr. Maxwell received $1,717 as back pension and an allowance of $288 per year for the rest of his life. He is a sufferer from heart disease incurred through his exposures in the service.

A Chicago "bum" was landed in the calaboose last night by Officer Pettier. He filled up with booze, and then undertook to clean out that portion of the city residing in the immediate vicinity of the Seventh street bridge, an undertaking that Officer Pettier summarily stopped. Jailer Jessrang, of the workhouse, will undoubtedly make his acquaintance in the morning.

The funeral ceremonies over the remains of Mrs. B. F. Wright occurred yesterday afternoon at her late residence on Marshall avenue. The attendance was very large, including all the teachers in the public schools, Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Minneapolis, who, nearly a quarter of a century ago was located near the house of Mrs. Wright, in her girlhood, and who knew her family very well, assisted Rev. Mr. MacLaren in the solemn services. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers shaped into crowns, crosses, stars, etc.

A teachers institute opened at Austin yesterday with T. J. Gray, of St. Cloud, as conductor, and S. J. Farr, of St. Paul, as assistant. The lecture will be delivered by Prof. Kiehlo this evening. An institute was also opened at Kasson yesterday, with J. T. McCarley, of Mankato, as conductor, and T. H. Kirk, assistant. The lecture will be given on Tuesday evening by G. C. W. Smith. An institute also convened at Owatonna yesterday with C. M. Boutelle, of Winona, as conductor and M. Z. Varney, assistant. Prof. Moses Marston is the lecturer.

In September, 1882, the trustees of the Central Presbyterian church brought an action in the district court of Ramsey county against W. F. Davidson to quit the title to lots 8 and 9, block 12, Robert & Randall's addition, and asking in the meantime that the defendant might be preliminarily restrained from entering into the possession of said land and from quarrying stone, or blasting thereon. Yesterday Judge Simons filed his decision in which he says the plaintiff has no right, title or interest in any portion of the land, and is not entitled to any relief; that the defendant is the owner of the land and entitled to the possession of the whole of it; that the defendant is entitled to judgment and must have possession immediately and for cost.

Kavanagh will sell a large stock of spring clothing, beginning to-morrow, at No. 145 East Third street.

Would Burn His Shirt. Metellus of Mazon was evidently a sly old fellow, and used to say "the would burn his shirt if it knew his true intentions." Were he living to-day, he would no doubt burn his shirt to get a bottle of Allen's Iron Tonic Bitters, if he could not "catch on" in any other way, for it is well known, the old fellow was a confirmed dyspeptic and longed for a remedy for the chronic derangement of the liver and system.

For sale by J. P. Allen, druggist and manufacturing pharmacist, St. Paul, Minn.

For great bargains in spring clothing, boots and shoes, etc., attend the auction sale at No. 145 East Third street, beginning to-morrow morning.

DIED. WILLIAMS—Sunday night, Raymond Everett, infant son of E. B. and J. W. Williams, of this city.

The remains will be taken to the family burying ground at Lake City, on the noon train, Tuesday.

NICOLAY'S AUCTIONS.

A. H. NICOLAY, real estate auctioneer—Thirty years' experience in New York city, and known to possess greater ability and knowledge of the real estate auction business than any other auctioneer in the country, having been honored with (and made) the most important and successful real estate auction sales in many of the leading cities in the United States. Real estate sold at auction in the city, suburbs and elsewhere. Mr. Nicolay also gives his personal attention to auction sales of first-class household furniture at private residences and stores of owners. Works of art, jewelry, choice farm stock and general merchandise on favorable terms.

Only first-class merchandise sales receive attention. Removed from 24 to the spacious premises No. 70 East Third street, second door above the Pioneer Press office.

LARGE real estate auction sale of valuable business and residence property in lower and upper town, embracing the best portions of the city. This important auction will take place shortly. As soon as maps and hand-bills are ready for distribution, I will give due notice of the time of sale. I take this occasion to return my most grateful acknowledgments to the many substantial friends in this city, that have known me personally for nearly thirty years, and a generous public for the very liberal patronage extended to me, and trust that by close application on their part attention to my business to continue to merit their encomiums, good will and approbation, pledging my long business experience in real estate auction sales, to which I have been educated from a boy seventeen years of age, as a guarantee to give entire satisfaction, never forgetting in the management of my business the essential qualities that constitute a true gentleman. All orders always receive my prompt and personal attention.

I have the honor of remaining the public's most obedient servant, A. H. NICOLAY, Real Estate Auctioneer and Agent. Removed from 24 to 70 East Third street, ground floor. 91-97

KAVANAGH'S AUCTIONS.

ASSIGNEE'S STOCK—$23,500 worth of dry goods, men and boys' fine clothing, gents' furnishing goods, hats, boots, shoes, etc., etc., at auction. I will sell at auction, commencing Wednesday, April 4th, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the store, No. 144 East Third street, the stock of L. W. Schmitz, proprietor of the C. O. D. Clothing House of Fergus Falls. As this stock is composed of the finest grades of boots and shoes, men's and boys' clothing, etc., etc., and the time of sale is limited to the 20th day of April, it will be necessary for rapid work to close the same in that time, as the rapid sale of assignments preclude the possibility of holding a trade sale. The goods must be sold, surely, by that time. Come early and secure bargains. P. T. KAVANAGH, Auctioneer.

THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY YET OFFERED. The only available large tract of land, for 30 days only. The well-known Denver estates, containing 100 acres of fine available property on the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Minneapolis Short Line, immediately adjoining the city limits of Minneapolis, and within three-quarters of a mile of the C. M., St. P. & M. shops, in Minneapolis. This property will show a more rapid advance in value than any property in this section. The attention of capitalists is called to the fact that this tract is offered for the next 30 days at a great bargain. For particulars inquire of P. T. KAVANAGH, Auctioneer. 49 East Third Street. 92-92

ATTENTION, CAPITALISTS—A valuable piece of property in Lower Town at a bargain. The property of the Catholic Orphan Asylum to be sold within the next 30 days. The above valuable piece of ground is in the immediate rear of the residence of Bruno Brune, Esq., and has a frontage of 255 feet on Olive street, 265 feet on Grove street, and 115 feet frontage on John street. This fine piece of property will be offered as a whole for the next 30 days. Apply to P. T. KAVANAGH, Auctioneer. 49 East Third Street. 92-92
