

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15, 1883. - 9 56 p.m. Observations taken at the same moment of time at all stations.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD. Bar. Ther. Wind. Weather. St. Paul, 29.87 41 W Clear.

DAILY LOCAL MEANS. Bar. Ther. Dew Point. Wind. Weather. 29.88 41.2 80.7 W Cloudy.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, April 16, 1 a. m. - Indications - For the Upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, slightly warmer and fair weather, with westerly to southerly winds, and falling barometer.

CITY GLOBULES. The real estate department of Biegler & Schutte's office in Bridge square will hereafter be open from 7 to 9 p. m.

The funeral of the late Hon. Leonard B. Hodges, will take place at the Dayton avenue Presbyterian church to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A man whose name we are unable to ascertain had his skull injured by a falling brick wall in this city a short time since, and died last week from his injuries.

An unsuccessful attempt was made at the railroad yards early yesterday morning to rob a man, but the bandit became frightened and fled before completing the job.

The afternoon service at the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday was largely attended. An earnest practical address was given by Mr. David Perry, of New York, on "Reconciliation."

The alarm from box No. 24, at 8:12 o'clock yesterday morning, was caused by an incipient conflagration in the St. Paul Coffee house, No. 142 Third street.

The flames obtained no headway. Damage insignificant, cause of fire a defective flue.

Two young men, too drunk to give their names, were arrested by Officer Mitchell last evening and furnished with a spring bed, sheltered by a Chinese canopy, at the station. One had $60 and the other twenty cents, and this is certain, that both will not be sent to the rock pile.

The rapidity with which the changes of weather have followed each other in this section for the past ten days has been remarkable. Spring, summer, fall and winter atmospheres and concomitant rains, electrical disturbances, heat, cold, snows and winds have followed each other with kaleidoscopic swiftness, and the end is evidently not yet.

The sacred concert at the synagogue of the Sons of Jacob under the auspices of the Rev. Dr. Rosenthal, the newly elected minister, proved to be a treat to the thronged house. The doctor is an accomplished musician of rare taste and refinement, a thorough Hebrew scholar, and a gentleman of very good address.

We hope the reverend gentleman may be induced to soon afford his appreciative audience another such pleasant evening not soon to be forgotten.

PERSONAL. T. B. Whinnery, of Omaha, is at the Merchants.

T. R. Daniel, of Oshkosh, is at the Metropolitan.

Hon. A. M. Crosby was at the Merchants yesterday.

D. D. Chandler, of Chicago, is at the Merchants.

T. S. Tompkins, of New York, is stopping at the Metropolitan.

W. B. McConnell, of Fargo, registered at the Merchants yesterday.

D. D. Calkins arrived from St. Louis last evening and registered at the Merchants.

E. B. Usher, editor and proprietor of the La Crosse Chronicle, was in the city yesterday, a guest of the Metropolitan.

Hon. Miles Keough of the internal revenue departments in Chicago, spent Sunday in St. Paul, and left for home on the evening train.

Capt. John R. Sloan, of St. Cloud, one of the old pilots on the Red river, and also on the Upper Mississippi, is paying a brief visit to the city.

A Serious Bit of Fun: About 1 o'clock this morning an enterprising young man, who is known to fame as Ed. Kellogg, emerged from a place on Fifth street, yelped "Swede Annie's" in time to encounter another young man known to fortune as John Murray. The collision was attended by a demand from Kellogg that Murray furnish four bits to enable the former to continue his night's run.

Instead of contributing the amount demanded or any other amount, Murray invited Kellogg to a local selection which had the effect of procuring Officer Zirkelbach's attention and presence, and which concluded in both of the young men being taken to the calaboose, where Kellogg was charged with larceny and Murray was held as a witness. Kellogg said he was only in fun, and the fun will be resumed this morning in the municipal court.

The Black Crook To-Night. The spectacular drama will open to-night at the Opera house in the "Black Crook." The company led by Mme. Bonfanti, is said to include the most artistic performers in this special line of the business and the scenic accompaniments, to be of unsurpassed magnificence. The idea has somehow got abroad that the principal attraction of the play consists in a lavish display of the personal charms of the artists. This is wholly untrue, and those who attend are promised a spectacular entertainment in which nothing will appear to offend the most fastidiously hyper-critical taste.

White Bear. The White Bear Sporting club engaged with the St. Paul club on Thursday in a glass ball shooting match at White Bear village, for the champion badge of the state. The White Bear club won the match, and were decorated with the badge and all the honors. They will use all their skill to retain it. What club will challenge the White Bear boys for the championship?

Mr. A. H. Nicolay, Real Estate Auctioneer has removed to his new and elegant office, No. 70 East Third street, second door above Pioneer Press, ground floor. Read his announcements under auction column.

Distinguished Physician Dead. LOUISVILLE, April 14. - Dr. David Cummings, one of the most eminent physicians and surgeons of this city, died this morning at 7:15 o'clock, aged fifty-eight years. He had been ill two weeks of congestion of the brain.

Saved by a Dog. About 7 o'clock Saturday evening, a lady residing on Wabashaw street opposite the capitol was proceeding west on Exchange street accompanied by a couple of lady friends, for the purpose of calling upon an acquaintance near the corner of Exchange and Fifth streets. When nearly opposite the Catholic church, their attention was attracted to the actions of a man on the opposite side of the street, who was pursuing a little girl. Overtaking her he spoke something that was inaudible to the girl, who burst out crying and sought safety in flight. He thereupon crossed over and intercepting the ladies offered them the insult of his presence, supplemented by the most outrageous remarks. They quickened their steps along the unlighted street to avoid the cowardly blackguard, when he started after them to their further annoyance. At this juncture a large house dog, which belonged to one of the ladies, turned fiercely upon the intruder, who vainly essayed to quiet the brute, and failing, disappeared down an alley pursued by the dog. Through the faithful endeavors of the animal the ladies escaped from the vagabond, and reached their friend's house in a considerably demoralized condition, whence they were subsequently escorted home by a gentleman residing there. During these nights when a pernicious economy prevents the lighting of the streets, ladies should remain at home. If they are obliged to go abroad, however, they should provide themselves with defenses against the insults of prowlers, the use of which would be effectual and salutary.

The Late Mrs. B. F. Wright. The following resolutions on the death of Mrs. B. F. Wright, were adopted by the principals of the public schools of St. Paul.

WHEREAS, it has seemed best to an All-wise Providence to remove very suddenly from this life, Mrs. A. Elizabeth Wright, wife of Supt. Wright, therefore be it

Resolved, That the principals and teachers of the public schools of St. Paul, feel, that in the death of Mrs. Wright, they have lost a kind and sympathizing friend, and the cause of true education a warm supporter.

Resolved, That in her death, society at large, public and private charities in which she so largely and actively interested herself, and whatever cause needed assistance, have lost a most valued member and helper.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family, our warmest sympathy in this hour of their extreme trial.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased, and also to the city papers for publication.

S. S. TAYLOR, J. D. BOND, I. ACHILLES, MISS LAURA HAND, MISS LUCIA M. MILLER, Committee.

An Instantaneous Light. Such a word is the unique apparatus on exhibition at the rooms of the Portable Electric Light Co., 22 Water street, Boston. It occupies the space of only five square inches and weighs but five pounds, and can be carried with ease. The light, or more properly lighter, requires no extra power, wires or connections, and is so constructed that any part can be replaced at small cost. The chemicals are placed in a glass retort; a current and zinc apparatus, with a spiral platinum attachment, is then adjusted so as to form a battery, and the light is ready. The pressure on a little knob produces an electric current by which the spiral of platinum is heated to incandescence. The Portable Electric Light company was recently incorporated, with a capital of $100,000, under the laws of Massachusetts. The usefulness of the apparatus and the low price ($5) will no doubt result in its general adoption. Some of the prominent business men of the state are identified with this enterprise. In addition to its use as a lighter, the apparatus can also be used in connection with a burglar-alarm and galvanic battery. - Boston Transcript, December 30.

Jesuit Anniversaries. New York, April 15. - The two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Society of Jesus and fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of a Jesuit province in Maryland, which embraces Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia, were celebrated to-day with great pomp in the new and beautiful church of St. Francis Xavier. Many dignitaries of the Catholic church were within the sanctuary rails, and the congregation was very large.

At Baltimore Archbishop Gibbons was celebrant at the anniversary mass in the Jesuit church.

In Philadelphia, in St. Joseph church, in addition to the above anniversaries, there were also commemorated the two hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the Jesuit mission in America, and the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the building of St. Joseph's church, and the fiftieth anniversary of its restoration to the Sons of Loyola.
