Is Fun Better Than Physic?

Fun is excellent; a hearty laugh is known the whole world over to be a health promoter; but fun does not fill the bill when a man needs physic, on the other hand people take too much physic. They would be more healthy, live longer and enjoy life thoroughly if they used Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic, which cures all blood disorders, indigestion, kidney and liver troubles, removes pimples and is a perfect tonic, can be taken by the most delicate. Only 50 cents per bottle of P. J. Dris.

Bettis Johnson, eighteen years of age, has commenced proceedings for divorce from Nels Johnson, twenty-five years of age, to whom she was married in this country the 25th of November. For her grounds of complaint plaintiff alleges that her marriage was secured through fear of bodily harm at the hands of Nels Johnson, who threatened to kill her and himself, and that since the marriage thus secured he has ever treated her harshly, beating her and threatening her life, and that she has reason to fear that he will kill her if she should ever again come under his power.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from this city went out to enjoy the occasion, which was one of the pleasantest affairs of the year.

The main auditorium of Unity church was thrown open to the congregation last Sunday. To say it is a gem is faintly praising the appearance of the room after all the labor which has been employed in its decoration. The members of this church are well repaid, however, for their patient waiting, for the room presents one of the most charming interiors ever seen in St. Paul.

The nearly club of Unity church closed last evening with one of its charming socials. Among the attractions which made the event so particularly enjoyable was the excellent supper served by the ladies and in a manner which they alone are so famous for. A delightful time was had and many were the pleasant adieus exchanged until another winter calls the members together again.

During her absence in New York Mrs. Van Etten took lessons from the famous Madame Cappiani, with a view to imparting her incomparable style of teaching to pupils or classes in St. Paul, which will be good news to those particularly interested.

Great interest is being manifested in the architectural landscape work of Mr. A. M. Birt, a gentleman of great repute in this special line, recently come amongst us. He at present is engaged in the ornamentation of the grounds of Com. Kittson, Mr. Maurice Auerbach and other residents of Summit avenue and its vicinity. The designs are of the most artistic workmanship and when placed on the grounds will enhance the beauty of these magnificent residences a thousand fold.

The spring opening of Sattler Bros., the popular one price clothing, on Tuesday last, was one of the prominent events of the past week. It was a decided success in every particular and hundreds of callers were received and entertained in the happy manner always shown in this establishment. The lady callers were presented with a handsome bouquet of natural flowers and a card souvenir of elegant design, and a person in passing along any of our streets on Tuesday failed to meet a lady who did not carry any of these charming reminders of Sattler Bros.' popularity.

The Marriage Record.

Licenses to wed were issued by Clerk Bell, of the district court the past week, as follows: John Hammes to Maggie Kramer; Frederick Anderson to Alice C. Peterson; Carl Kath to Amelia Knuth; Julius Peterson to Lena Johnson; William Anderson to Sarah J. Morris; Joseph Aenspel to Lena Mutz; John Flessner to Celia Forner; Joseph Lany to Elizabeth Landway; Ole Jurgenson to Catherine Hakensen.

Generous Gift.

Mr. Edward Langevin, the heavy real estate dealer of this city, has lately ordered a fine organ from Messrs. Hook & Hastings, of Boston, through Mr. Nathan Ford, the Knabe piano dealer of Third street, at a cost of $2,000. It is understood that it is the intention of Mr. Langevin to donate the organ to St. Louis congregation, whose church is at the corner of Washaw and Exchange streets. It is a most liberal act on the part of the donor and the members of St. Louis church are to be congratulated on their good fortune. Mr. Langevin has in this matter as on many other similar occasions shows his usual public spirit, and the gift is a very unexpected but happy surprise to the congregation. It is expected that the organ will be set up in the church by the fore part of July.

Silver Jubilee.

On the 13th of this month William Louis Kelly, one of St. Paul's prominent lawyers, celebrated at his residence on Sherburne avenue his silver wedding. The affair was wholly private in accordance with the precautions taken by Mr. Kelly and his wife to render it strictly so. It was twenty-five years ago on the 13th inst. that Mr. Kelly and Miss Rosa Warren were united in marriage at the cathedral in Louisville, Ky. A quarter of a century of married life has passed and the two concluded to have a quiet, private "silver jubilee," as they termed it. It was a family reunion exclusively, as Mr. Kelly does not believe in what he terms genteel black-mail, where a person sends out invitations for a silver wedding and expects those invited to come with their pockets loaded down with silver. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly therefore took the precaution to hold back their cards till after the 13th, so that no one received a card till after the celebration had transpired. The card was a very unique one, in silver letters, and read as follows:

SILVER JUBILEE.

Louisville, Ky., St. Paul, Minn.,
April 13, 1858. April 13, 1883.

William Louis Kelly,
Rosa Warren.

Married at the Cathedral, Louisville, Ky., by Rev. Bishop Spaulding,
April 13, 1858.

In the morning the family repaired to the cathedral where they had a mass, and then spent the day in celebrating the pleasant occasion in their quiet home.
