The following is an abstract of the report of the flour interests of the city supplied by the Miller:

The flour mills of Minneapolis continue to run about the same; as fast as one shuts down another starts up, keeping the production close to the same point. For the past two days of the week, twelve mills were running, while another started Wednesday and still another was announced to start Thursday or Friday. The daily production will average about 11,000 barrels against 11,500 last week. Our estimate of 11,000 barrels, however, may be considered low rather than too high. But next week the production will no doubt average lighter, as the mill which has been turning out the most by 1,200 barrels per day of any in the city, is expected to be shut down Saturday, and then all the mills will probably be shut down Saturday, the 16th inst., for the millers' excursion, making the week one day short. There has been some improvement in the flour market, and more confidence is manifested in the future. On Monday the millers' association advanced the price of wheat 2c all around while on Tuesday there was a decline of 1 1/2c.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.
Proceedings of the State Convention Yesterday.
Pursuant to adjournment the State Sunday School convention met yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Dr. Carroll of Stillwater the reports of county secretaries were called for and the several secretaries present gave encouraging and gratifying reports of the work being accomplished in their respective counties. Letters were read from the Nebraska and Iowa State Sunday School associations extending greetings to the Minnesota one now in session and suitable replies were made to the communications. The Rev. J. A. McGowan ("Quiz Quiz") of Owatonna, who is state secretary, then submitted his report from which it appears he had traveled last year in the most of the association through the various counties of the state, the distance of 1,456 miles. The number of Sunday schools in Minnesota is 1,444 with an attendance of 76,080 pupils. There are three counties without any schools, viz: Hubbard, Houston and Cook. Hennepin is the banner county, having ninety-three schools and 11,049 pupils. Only twenty-five out of the eighty counties of Minnesota have county organizations. Lake county last year had a school for the first time, with one teacher and twenty scholars. Owing to the rapid increase of population, that of last year being 92 per cent, he felt sanguine that the next report of the secretary will show an increase of 50 per cent more than the report he had just given them. The prospect was bright for the organization. The report was accepted and adopted.

The president announced the following committees for the ensuing year:
On credentials—Rev. J. A. McGowan, E. W. Day, J. C. Hamlin.
On nominations—D. W. Ingersoll, J. H. Randall, H. A. Smith, Geo. Bradbury, M. D. Merrill.
On resolutions—Rev. W. Flint, Rev. J. H. Edward, M. B. Lewis, I. D. Blake.
On finance—L. A. Gilbert, C. W. Hackett, S. S. Taylor.
On delegate to attend triennial convention to be held in Louisville, June, 1884—D. W. Ingersoll, Geo. C. Smith and L. W. Campbell.
On next place of meeting—Geo. Bradbury, M. B. Lewis, Brewer Matlocks and M. D. Berry.
C. H. Haskell, the treasurer, requested more time in which to make his report and the same was granted.

The delegates from the frontier counties consumed half an hour in giving their reports of the growth and progress of the good in the several counties where they live. Olmsted, Clay, Nobles, Meeker, Goodhue and Freeborn were represented and the reports on the work in the several counties was most cheering. M. B. Lewis delivered a brief and pointed address on the subject of "frontier work" and said the thousands of emigrants from the old world who had settled on the border were deriving much benefit from their labors and the foreigners seemed to appreciate it and were entering heartily into the spirit of the work and co-operating with them in the Sunday school work.

Mr. Ward, of Dakota, also spoke and told what work was being done in his locality. There are twenty-five counties in Dakota with Sunday school conventions organized, and the annual convention occurs next month.

Mr. Comstock was elected delegate to represent this body in that convention. Mr. Plant then presented a report of the International association which convened at Toronto in which each of the provinces of the Dominion and each of ours is entitled to one delegate.

The committee appointed by the association decided to hold the triennial convention at Louisville, Ky.

The committee then adjourned and re-assembled at 2 o'clock, when Dr. G. H. Hawes, of Hastings, read a paper on "Scholars' Home Study, how best secured."

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock, and devotional exercises lasting half an hour were conducted by Rev. C. A. Van Anda, Dr. G. H. Hawes, of Hastings, then read a paper on "Scholars' Home Study—How best secured," and was followed by C. E. Dyer, of a paper on "Teachers' Home Study—its needs and benefits; "Normal classes, and teachers' meetings; "The Bible and personal characters" and free discussion of the contents of these papers completed the afternoon's exercises.

MINNEAPOLIS PERSONALS.
Health Officer Cockburn is spending a few days in the country for his health.
Henry Hauschild has taken a trip to Owatonna, but is expected home again this week.
Col. Hans Mattson telegraphs his arrival at Venice on his way home from Calcutta.
Dr. Moore, of this city, was united in marriage with Miss Cora Collins, of Pittsburg, on Tuesday.
Edgar Nash is spending a few days with his family, after an absence of several months in Austin, Texas.
J. R. Shibley will start to-day for Mrs. Shibley, who has been spending a few months in Nebraska for her health.

The Flour Product.
The following is an abstract of the report of the flour interests of the city supplied by the Miller:

C. H. Haskell, the treasurer, requested more time in which to make his report and the same was granted.

The delegates from the frontier counties consumed half an hour in giving their reports of the growth and progress of the good in the several counties where they live. Olmsted, Clay, Nobles, Meeker, Goodhue and Freeborn were represented and the reports on the work in the several counties was most cheering. M. B. Lewis delivered a brief and pointed address on the subject of "frontier work" and said the thousands of emigrants from the old world who had settled on the border were deriving much benefit from their labors and the foreigners seemed to appreciate it and were entering heartily into the spirit of the work and co-operating with them in the Sunday school work.

Mr. Ward, of Dakota, also spoke and told what work was being done in his locality. There are twenty-five counties in Dakota with Sunday school conventions organized, and the annual convention occurs next month.

Mr. Comstock was elected delegate to represent this body in that convention. Mr. Plant then presented a report of the International association which convened at Toronto in which each of the provinces of the Dominion and each of ours is entitled to one delegate.

The committee appointed by the association decided to hold the triennial convention at Louisville, Ky.

The committee then adjourned and re-assembled at 2 o'clock, when Dr. G. H. Hawes, of Hastings, read a paper on "Scholars' Home Study, how best secured."

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock, and devotional exercises lasting half an hour were conducted by Rev. C. A. Van Anda, Dr. G. H. Hawes, of Hastings, then read a paper on "Scholars' Home Study—How best secured," and was followed by C. E. Dyer, of a paper on "Teachers' Home Study—its needs and benefits; "Normal classes, and teachers' meetings; "The Bible and personal characters" and free discussion of the contents of these papers completed the afternoon's exercises.

MINNEAPOLIS PERSONALS.
Health Officer Cockburn is spending a few days in the country for his health.
Henry Hauschild has taken a trip to Owatonna, but is expected home again this week.
Col. Hans Mattson telegraphs his arrival at Venice on his way home from Calcutta.
Dr. Moore, of this city, was united in marriage with Miss Cora Collins, of Pittsburg, on Tuesday.
Edgar Nash is spending a few days with his family, after an absence of several months in Austin, Texas.
J. R. Shibley will start to-day for Mrs. Shibley, who has been spending a few months in Nebraska for her health.

The Flour Product.
The following is an abstract of the report of the flour interests of the city supplied by the Miller:

The flour mills of Minneapolis continue to run about the same; as fast as one shuts down another starts up, keeping the production close to the same point. For the past two days of the week, twelve mills were running, while another started Wednesday and still another was announced to start Thursday or Friday. The daily production will average about 11,000 barrels against 11,500 last week. Our estimate of 11,000 barrels, however, may be considered low rather than too high. But next week the production will no doubt average lighter, as the mill which has been turning out the most by 1,200 barrels per day of any in the city, is expected to be shut down Saturday, and then all the mills will probably be shut down Saturday, the 16th
