

LATE MINNEAPOLIS NEWS

C. A. Lounsbury, Bismarck, is a guest at the Nicollet. Next Friday, Rev. G. H. Bridgeman, president elect of the Hamline university, will arrive in the city, and on Sunday he will preach in the First M. E. church. Officer Howard arrested a disorderly Frenchman early this morning, who was kicking up a jamboree in North Minneapolis. The patrol wagon went up to Bridget Kelley's assignation house early this morning and pulled in two men and two women in various stages of intoxication and disorderly conduct. Last night a German arrived from Chaska and complained at police headquarters that he had been robbed of $800 in cash and $700 in good notes. He stated that he had been in the employ of a farmer there when he sold his farm for $1,500. The man for whom he was working asked him whose the money was, and he replied he had it at his home. Sunday morning it was stolen and the employer is supposed to be thief.

THE PARADE.

The first annual parade and review of the Minneapolis Police Department yesterday. As announced in the GLOBE, the first annual parade of the Minneapolis police department occurred last evening. The force in under excellent discipline and made a splendid appearance. The mayor in uniform was in command and was mounted on a beautiful blood bay charger. Chief Berry was mounted upon a gray, and the mounted patrol, eight in number, was in charge of Sergt. Bates, who was splendidly mounted upon a beautiful white horse. The battalion was divided into two full companies, one under command of Capt. Chase, and the other under Capt. West and Lieut. Daley. Officer Hill, the drill master of the department, acted as adjutant.

ORDER OF MARCH.

Mounted Patrol, Sergt. Bates in Command. Brooks Brigade Band. Mayor Ames. Chief Berry. Company A. Company B. Patrol Wagon, J. Lally, Driver.

THE FOLLOWING WAS THE LINE OF MARCH:

From the Nicollet house; down Washington avenue to Nicollet; up Nicollet to Sixth street; down Sixth street to Third avenue south; up Third avenue south to Seventh street; down Seventh street to Sixth avenue; down Sixth avenue to Washington and up Washington to the Nicollet house, where was in waiting the members of the city council and a vast concourse of citizens. After a dress parade the mayor addressed the council as follows:

MAYOR AMES' ADDRESS.

Mr. President and members of the city council, I take pleasure at this time in presenting to you the entire police department of the city of Minneapolis. I have seen the department grow from a single man, Marshal Coleman, to the present battalion of two full companies, consisting of over eighty men. I take a double pride in thus presenting them to you, because the city charter makes me the head of that department, together with my worthy Chief Berry, and I have taken the greatest interest in their being thoroughly disciplined and drilled up to their present efficiency and I here make the claim that it is among the very best police departments for efficiency in the United States. It is largely composed, as you will see, of men who not only possess physical strength, but they have the further qualification of having good heads up on their shoulders. I believe that under all circumstances you will find them to be thorough gentlemen in the discharge of their duties. I thank you, Mr. President, and gentlemen, for the readiness with which you have always responded to the needs of the city police service and still, although I do not believe that there are men enough to give efficient service in every locality, I believe with what I have I can thoroughly maintain order in our city.

PRESIDENT PILLSBURY'S RESPONSE.

Mr. Pillsbury on behalf of the city council thanked the mayor and the department for their fine and disciplinary display. He agreed with the mayor respecting the favorable comparison of our department with the leading forces of the country. He recognized the fact that both the fire and the police departments were two vital important organizations. He closed his address with a fine compliment to the department for the discipline exhibited in the review.

FROM THE NICOLLET HOUSE THE LINE OF MARCH WAS CONTINUED TO POLICE HEADQUARTERS, WHERE, AFTER A FINE MILITARY MOVEMENT UNDER COMMAND OF THE MAYOR, THE DEPARTMENT BROKE RANKS AND EACH MEMBER WENT TO HIS RESPECTIVE DUTY.

A Footpad Arrested.

A bold footpad was arrested by Mayor Ames about midnight. Christina Neilson, a servant girl at Mrs. Crosby's, on Ninth street near the corner of Nicollet avenue, was returning home and was just entering the yard to go to the house when a young man whom she had noticed following her down town, suddenly stepped up and threw her down. He seized her hand bag and rifled it of its contents, amounting to about $3, and then threw the girl set up a lassy cry for help. S. Hanson, night watchman at Colton's, next door, gave chase, and being joined by Walter Jordan, the colored watchman at the city sewer in that vicinity, ran the scoundrel down, capturing him at the corner of Nicollet and Tenth streets. Being a heavy fusk he gave them a lively tussle, and Luther Simpson and John Cokeyhan, who happened to be hard by, joined in that affair and the footpad was taken down

ANOTHER SPECIMEN OF COMMISSIONER EVANS' FAVORITISM. A Man Appointed to Office Who Was Rejected by Rumor for Cause—The Hill Investigation—Register-Dunnington Rejected from the Redwood Falls Land Office.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Horton case having been settled, it has next become an interesting question to know what Commissioner Evans will do in the case of Jas. A. Ray, who was selected at the same time with Horton to take the place of some one of the men displaced. Mr. Evans was very particular to have it understood that Mr. Ray was from Kansas. As a matter of fact, however, he is recently from Kentucky, where he was, until a few months ago, a deputy collector of internal revenue in the Owensboro district. He was dismissed by Gen. Raum for cause. This action was taken after an investigation and report by a special agent. Mr. Ray's case, like that of Horton, was one concerning which Mr. Evans was informed. In view of the forced result in the Horton case, there is considerable interest to know whether with his late experience he will insist upon retaining in his personal service an agent only recently dismissed for cause. It is another instance in which prompt action is necessary in order to relieve what the commissioners call the administration from serious embarrassment.

THIRSTING FOR BLOOD.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 17.—An ugly and excited crowd of several hundred people remained about the jail until a late hour last night, discussing the murder of Philip Oberhauser, and talking of lynching the murderers, Thomas Luck and Jack Rourke. The sheriff's posse kept close watch on every movement. A report was circulated that the widow of Oberhauser had given premature birth to a child and was dying. About 11 o'clock last night two officers brought Rourke and Luck out of their cells, slipped them out the rear way through an alley to Elm street, where a wagon was in waiting. In this the prisoners were rapidly driven to Jeffersonville and placed in the Clark county jail. About an hour after they left the sheriff announced to the crowd that the prisoners had been removed, but they would not believe him until a committee had examined the jail. The crowd then slowly dispersed. This afternoon at 2 o'clock the prisoners were brought down from Jeffersonville and arraigned before Justice Colling and held for murder. The men are now in jail here, but may be moved to Jeffersonville to-night if the mob renew their efforts to get possession of them. The remains of the murdered man were interred in the city cemetery this morning, the German Catholic church refusing him burial on the pretext that he had not attended confession.

A SWIFT VERDICT TO HANG.

MASTERSVILLE, Ky., July 17.—This afternoon as soon as the jury in the Cooper case retired the Emmet guards escorted Samuel Bulger from the jail to the court house amid a great crowd of people on the street, where he was to be arraigned for rape. In the court room the indictment was read to him, and his attorneys told him not to criminate himself unless his mind was perfectly clear. He replied that his mind was perfectly clear; that he was guilty and wanted to be hung legally and not by a mob, and wanted to cause as little trouble as possible in the trial. The jury was impaneled and he repeated his plea before them. In ten minutes they returned a verdict of guilty with a sentence of death. Bulger received the verdict unmoved and was returned to the jail in one hour from the time he was taken out.

PRISONERS RESCUED.

VERNON, La., July 17.—The two Barnard brothers, charged with murder and arson, were released from jail last night by a crew of armed men. They captured the guard, forbidding the sheriff coming near them, and broke the lock of the jail. None of the crowd was identified. The whereabouts of the prisoners is unknown.

LOUIS, July 17.—Frank Jackson, a negro laborer on the farm of Joseph Schaefer, a German living a short distance from St. Louis, in St. Charles county, this state, was arrested yesterday on a charge of debauching two little girls belonging to Schaefer, aged respectively twelve and thirteen years. WON'T GRANT A PARDON.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., July 17.—Governor Hamilton has declined to pardon Charles W. Angell, convicted of the embezzlement of a large sum of money from the Pullman Palace Car company some time ago. Angell surrendered himself to the United States authorities while in Portugal, and turned over to the Pullman Car company $80,000 of the stolen property. A petition for his release was numerous signed, and among others by the prosecuting attorney and judge before whom he was convicted. He has six years longer to serve.

BUGLARY.

CLEVELAND, July 17.—Burglars broke into C. B. Marvin's store, in Bradford last night, blew open the safe and secured $300. No clue.

A VIRGINIA DUEL.

RICHMOND, Va., July 17.—An altercation occurred at Clarksville last Saturday between G. W. Averett and Russell, which resulted in a resort to pistols. Averett was mortally wounded and Russell shot in the shoulder, and his condition is critical. Averett is said to have said something derogatory to the good name of Russell, who went after the former for satisfaction.

The golden wedding of Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, senior, will be held at his home at Irvington, on the Hudson river, to-day.

WASHINGTON.

TO appear in contempt of your committee and have nothing to avoid in this matter except a useless and expensive journey. I trust under the circumstances, your committee will kindly relieve me from the attendance demanded. [Signed.] W. H. BLISS. Coleman read, in reply, an editorial article published in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of July 14, stating that the trustworthy and guileless reporter who interviewed Bliss is willing to make affidavits to its accuracy. The editor also remarks upon Bliss' failure to point out any defects in the report during his stay in St. Louis, and charges him with attempting to mislead the reporter. Coleman added that this article was entitled to credence equally with Bliss' letter. The attempt was made by the prosecution to take up the charges of corruption in connection with the construction of slate roofs for public buildings, but no progress was made and the committee adjourned.

He says the charges have been disposed of by evidence presented by Crambough. The witnesses who made the charges have been discredited, and Axton's story proved false.

New Hampshire Senatorship.

CONCORD, N. H., July 17.—Ballot for U. S. senator to-day: Whole number of votes cast, 320; necessary to a choice, 161. Wm. Ladd, 4; Wm. Brown, 1; Henry E. Brannham, 1; Chas. H. Burns, 1; Jeremiah Eastman, 2; E. C. Crambough, 1; G. G. Gordon, 1; Chas. H. Bell, 2; Dave Barnard, 4; Jacob H. Gallagher, 4; Aaron F. Stevens, 1; G. O. Moore, 12; Gilman Marshall, 22; Mason W. Tappan, 31; James F. Briggs, 48; Wm. E. Chaudler, 65; Harry Bingham, 112.

Briggs, of Manchester, rose to a personal explanation to-day. He said the article which appeared in the National Republican of Washington Saturday contained an order issued directed to Maj. Gen. Sumner dated December 7, 1862, dismissing Briggs, then assistant quartermaster of the 110th New Hampshire volunteers from the service for resigning in the face of the enemy and he demanded an explanation. After the battle of Fredericksburg he applied to Gen. Sumner in person for leave of absence at home, but the request was denied. General Sumner said he would accept his resignation, whereupon it was presented. He came home, looked after his business, returned to the front and assumed his former position which had been held open for him. He continued with his regiment until obliged to resign on account of sickness, and an order (which he read) was issued August 1, 1863, which granted him an honorable discharge from the service. It was the first personal explanation he ever had been called upon to make during a long term of public service, which included six years in congress. At the conclusion of his remarks, a resolution accepting the explanation given as perfectly satisfactory and exonerating Briggs from any suspicion of cowardice was unanimously adopted.

CONCORD, N. H., July 17.—It is stated on the best authority to-night that Briggs will withdraw from the senatorial contest before a vote be taken to-morrow. His supporters will go largely to Chandler, Tappan and Marston, Chandler's friends, claim his vote will reach in the neighborhood of eighty on the next ballot. The Stevens men have confidence to-morrow of a decided vote for him through to-morrow at least. Ray is still prominently spoken of as the dark horse, although he may not appear on the list to-morrow. Briggs' withdrawal is freely discussed to-night.

Good Crop Prospects.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 17.—Manager Merrill, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, to-day received very encouraging reports from leading merchants and road agents in Dakota regarding the growing grain, showing the crops everywhere to be in excellent condition and well watered. Chandler, Brown & Co., have covered Minnesota and the Manitoba railway region with similar results.
