If our health inspectors don't open their smellers, we will have an epidemic in the midst of the most populous part of the city. Cedar street north of Twelfth street, is being used for a dumping ground of offal and filth, till the stench is complained of. But the authorities are indisposed to notice it.

Lt. Clyde, of Co. K., Second regiment M. N. G., so severely injured in the sham battle at New Ulm by being burned in the face by a cartridge shot to an extent of endangering his eye-sight, has so far recovered as to leave for his home in Little Falls yesterday, his eyesight not being materially injured, and his face not much

The prizes awarded by the Wabashaw street shooting gallery were awarded yesterday. W. Connell won the $10 gold piece, and W. Reese the box of cigars on No. 3 target. J. E. Heaney and W. Thompson were a tie on No. 1; W. W. Stennett Dining Cars of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. won a box of cigars on No. 4, and W. Reese a box of cigars for hitting seventyfour consecutive birds. Attractive prizes | lis and St. Paul. will be offered for this week.

The most urgent thing demanding atteution in St. Paul is a sidewalk reform. The shabby, rickety walks of the city are a | the best imported cigars. disgrace. We are far behind other communities in introducing stone walks, and for that reason the city has a cheap look, and is getting noted for the careless condition of walks along prominent streets.
Such a street as Third street ought to have a stone sidewalk from end to end.

Hale, M. D., E. M. S., and Prof. W. J. Kersteller, P. L. D., gave a free entertainment in which those gentlemen shadowed forth what their course of lectures will be for the ensuing week. Judging from the for the ensuing week. Judging from the splendid scientific apparatus, startling illustrations and succienct delineations the lectures will not only be absorbingly interesting but of a most instructive character. Some of the lectures will be in fact such as no one who values health and is desirous of knowing himself should

M. Cody, the right fielder of the Red Caps base ball club, was injured in the game at Minneapolis yesterday. He was catching behind the bat, and standing on the home base, to put out a runner of the Brown Stockings. He was standing with both legs braced, and the runner made a spring, and landed with his full weight on Cody's right leg, bending it backwards at the joint, straining the chords and muscles so that he was unable to walk. On arrival of the train he was taken home in a carriage.

Articles of incorporation of the Tracy Town Hall association were filed with the secretary of state yesterday. The object of the association is to erect a town hall, with stores underneath. The capital stock is $10,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $10 each. The highest amount of indebtedness is placed at $6,000 and the corporation dates from July 16, 1883. The name of the incorporators are Richard Howland, Ernst O. Brauns, David H. Evans, Bert Armstrong, Ira E. Segar, Robt. E. Hayes, Henry C. Buckingham, Neil Finch and Frank E. Mallory, who also constitute its first board of directors.
