John Adams, a simple drunk, was taken to the lock-up yesterday evening by Officer

The state treasurer has invested $130,000 of the state school funds in railroad adjustment bonds.

A man from Litchfield, was in St. Paul yesterday looking after his wife. The wife 18 years of age and the husband i5. Officer Brosseau brought over from West St. Paul yesterday a man named E. Medowait, who was too drunk and disorderly to run at large. Three boys were sent to the reform school yesterday by Judge Burr. A sad commentary on the morals of the youth of

Wm. Snell, truckman in engine house No. 1, accidentally cut his foot with an ax yesterday, which will lay him up for repairs for a week at least.

The sisters of the St. Joseph Orphan asylum went out to Union park yesterday with two loads of "little ones" from that excellent institution, and enjoyed a delightful day, picnicing. Officer Dowlan, of the municipal court, met with a misfortune Sunday by falling down stairs and wrenching his left shoulder and arm so that he has to carry the latter in a "sling." The "dog man" was around yesterday picking up unlicensed curs. Eleven were caged, the owners of which paid to him $1 each rather than have their lives sacrificed on the altar of the city's good.

Two men, named Casey and Comerford, engaged in a square fist fight on Fourth street yesterday afternoon, and were arrested by Officer Bahe. The affray had its origin in some family dispute.

Three cows were stolen Sunday night last from St. Anthony hill. One of these was the property of E. J. Hodgson, who lives on Dayton avenue. The mere value of the animal is but a small item in the loss.

Messrs. R. L. Polk & Co., the enterprising directory publishers, have on file for reference in their office, 22 Drake block, directories of all the principal cities in the United States free to their friends and the James Bissett commenced suit yesterday in the district court against the Northern Pacific Railway company for $5,000, for damages alleged to have been sustained in the employment of the company, and by the company's negligence.

Suit was commenced in the district court yesterday by William Theobold against Nickolaus E. Cady to recover $143 due on a sale of goods. Also, by Caroline Schura sale of goods. Also, by Caroline Schurmeier against Peter A. Bergoma, et al, to recover $690 on a promissory note alleged recover $690 on a promissory note alleged to be overdue. The Minneapolis Bicycle club came down last evening to visit the St. Paul club and were entertained at the armory where they gave exhibitions in the art of moving without motion. They had a very pleasant time and the visitors returned about 10 o'clock. The B. O. P. C. H. nine played a game of base ball with the Dayton's bluff club on Sunday, the game ending at 6:30 p. m. Eight innings were played, the score standing eighteen to twenty-two in favor of the clothing house boys, which fact they wish to have placed on record.

J. W. Snyder, an attendant at the shoot ing gallery on Seventh, between Sibley and Wacouta streets, while waiting on a boy yesterday afternoon, who wished to practice at one of the targets, was accidently shot by the boy, the ball hitting him on the head near his forehead, and fracturing the skull.

Thomas Quinn of the Sixth ward who was arrested for stealing clothes belonging to Thos. Kennedy, puts in a disclaimer. The occurrence was at his own house and he alleges an entire mistake. He was going out of town and in getting what he supposed to be his own clothes took the other man's by mistake.

Mr. Chas. De Lacy will be heard in "Shield's" ever popular ballad, "The Wolf," at Hotel Leip, White Bear lake, next Friday evening. Miss Geist will give her artistic rendition of Goltermann's Capriccio. The Apollo quartet, who are gaining an enviable reputation, will open the programme with the Artillerist's Oath.

"What be them 'ar?" said a chap from the country as he stood before a tempting bunch of bananas on Jackson street yesterday. Having been informed he invest ed five cents in a plump yellow-skin, and without stopping to peel it bit of the end, and proceeded to finish the fruit in the same original style, when he took breath and exclaimed: "The rind ain't wuth a darn, but the peth is purty fair!"

There will be a meeting of Minnesota teacher's institute conductors at the state university on Saturday at 1:30 p. m. which will be presided over by Prof. D. L. Kiehle, and at which Prof. Paine of Ann Arbor, Mich., will be present. The attendance of all teachers and instructors and those interested in the cause of education is desired, as some very important educational subjects will be discussed. The little lying Dispatch last evening published an item to the effect that Peter Pottgeiser had been arrested for stealing half a dozen fruit dishes. There is but one Peter Pottgeiser in the city, the business manager of the Wand enes, and he is not in the habit of stealing fruit dishes or anything else, nor are any of his children that kind of persons.

The Dispatch might be a little more careful in its statements without doing

The two thieves, Bull and Walsh, who were committed to the county jail on suspicion of having burglarized some store, were turned over to Marshal DeKay, of Red Wing, yesterday afternoon. The store of F. J. Luine, of that place, was broken anto Saturday night, and the articles stolen were identified by the marshal, who saw the account of their arrest in the GLOBE and came up for them. Officers Ahern and Kennealy were instrumental in effecting their capture.

The new city directory is being rapidly printed, and will be ready for delivery in a few days. An entirely new map is being rew days. An entirely new map is being prepared for the forthcoming edition, at a large expense, and it is safe to say we are soon to have the most perfect edition ever published in St. Paul. It is but due to the publishers, Messrs. R. L. Polk & Co., to say that they spare no pains or expense in perfecting the work and the result is a perfecting the work, and the result is a city directory that will bear comparison with any similar publication in the United

A series of scientific and health lectures are in progress at the Opera house by Dr. Hale, of New York, editor of the "Health and Home," and Prof. Kerstetter, of Cleve-land, Ohio, which are highly instructive and entertaining. These lectures treat of vegetable anatomy, showing finely pre-pared specimens of vegetable hairs; entomology, diseases of the throat and lungs, diet, drink and digestion, rheumatism and skin diseases. The illustrations are enlarged by the aid of a powerful micro-scope. They are worthy of large audiences and should be encouraged.

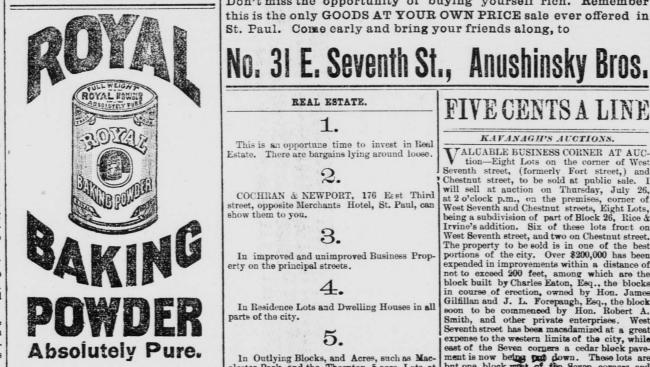

"If not Randall, who?" asks the Philadelphia Telegraph. "Sam Cox, to be sure, and in fact Sam any how," says the N. Y. Graphic.
