THE CITY HALL CLOCK is in working order again. New potatoes are in the market, and are of about the right size to load a Gatling gun.

To-night the West Side brass band will give a dance in West St. Paul, and a large attendance is already secured.

A soldier's discharge paper signed James McCord, was found on the street yesterday and awaits an owner at city hall.

He had them to sell, and for that reason he procured a piece of charcoal and wrote on the plank sidewalk in front of his store, "Native Red Rosberries."

The iron railing was placed on the new span of the bridge yesterday. The iron is here for the other span, and work will be commenced as soon as possible.

T. J. Cuddy, formerly of St. Paul, who left here about four years ago, has just been elected chief of police of Los Angeles, California. He is only twenty-six years of age.

The young son of J. K. Erskine, of Walnut street, was attacked by a vicious dog yesterday morning and bitten in the face. Chief Clark sent Officer Scheffer out to exterminate the brute.

An aged man named H. I. Stanfor, formerly an inmate of the city hospital, was before Judge McGrorty yesterday on the charge of insanity. He was adjudged insane and committed to the hospital at St. Peter.

A certificate was filed with the secretary of state yesterday by the Litchfield creamery association that the capital stock of the same had been increased from $3,000 to $5,000 and had all been paid in on assessments ordered by the directors.

In accordance with the new regulation issued by the president, Collector Bickel on yesterday visited Albert Lea and took charge of the first district, the internal revenue business of the state now being consolidated into one office, in charge of Collector Wm. Bickel, with headquarters in St. Paul.

Parties who wish to see the regatta at Lake Minnetonka going by the Manitoba line can make the round trip, see the race and be absent from St. Paul but two hours and a half. From Minneapolis to make the round trip, and see the race, only two hours are required. All aboard for the great lake race.

Judge Brill rendered a decision yesterday in the case of Nicholas McFee against Chas. E. Dickerson in which it is held that defendant is entitled to a conveyance of the real estate in question, subject to mortgage conditions, and upon payment of $5,350 less the mortgage debt.

A decision was rendered by Judge Brill yesterday in the case of the Grand Lodge of the order of the Sons of Hermann against Frederick Riebler. The action was to recover $425 deposited in a bank by defendant as secretary of the lodge, and as a conclusion the court holds that plaintiff is entitled to that amount, less $45, with interest.

There are forty-three carpenters engaged in doing their level best on the state fair grounds at Owatonna, while the outside buildings already erected on the grounds present the appearance of a small village. The 400 new stalls being erected for horses have been nearly all applied for. It is calculated that not less than 40,000 people will be in attendance at the coming state fair.

Yesterday afternoon John Lyons, who has the appearance of a born loafer, went into Martin's place, on Fifth street, and being a resort for colored sports, and engaged in a game of craps. He shot away 75 cents of his wealth and then complained to the police that he had been robbed. Martin, Lyons and another colored gentleman named Scott were arrested and they were fined $10 each.

Yesterday afternoon a tidy looking girl called at police headquarters and asked for a warrant for the arrest of a traveling man stopping at the Windsor. She explained that she was at work in the hotel, and that the person in question had charged her with stealing a ring and that he had also called upon the city and reported his loss to Chief Clark. The animal was a bay mare, seven years old, 290 pounds in weight, with white spots in its back and shoes on the forward feet.

Mrs. Nagel is a hard working woman, who keeps the wolf from her door by running a produce stand at the market. Yesterday morning while she was engaged in waiting on a customer some dirty thief crept behind her stand and stole her pocket book containing $82 from her basket.

About the time of the robbery two employees of a commission firm were present and suspicion rested upon them. They were arrested, but as no proof was found of their guilt, they were discharged.

Two or three weeks ago a party of gentlemen, consisting of Bishop Whipple,

Bishop Beckwith, Georgia; Rev. Mr. Gilbert, Judge Wilder, Reuben Warner, Wm. Dawson, Mr. Fairchild, New York; C. Schiller and Dr. D. Lambie, went up to Nipigon, on the north shore of Lake Superior on a trout fishing excursion. It was a splendid lot and was greatly admired.

Hon. E. P. Barnum, of Sauk Rapids, is indignant at the report of a traveling correspondent of the Pioneer Press, published Wednesday morning, of the condition of the grain in the northern portion of Stearns county. Instead of the wheat generally being stunted and poor, and promising not more than half a crop, much being even too poor to pay for harvesting, Mr. Barnum says it is fully up to the average of several years past, promising an average yield of from 15 to 18 bushels per acre.

Among the sufferers by the fire at Fargo yesterday morning—an account of which appeared in the Globe—was Billy Doyle, for many years a conductor on the Northern Pacific, with headquarters in this city, where he has a large circle of acquaintances and warm personal friends. Mr. Doyle had one of the largest and most complete livery stables in the northwest, among the buildings destroyed. It is presumed, however, that most of the stock was saved unharmed, and that the building was insured; but even then, his loss through interruption of business, etc., must be considerable.

The New Hotel Located, and work to begin next week, has started a good many capitalists to buying property that will be enhanced in value thereby. Allen, druggist, St. Paul, Minn.

REAL ESTATE. The New Hotel

Sito has, at last, been chosen, and the blockade in the real estate market has been raised! The great enterprise is a "big" and the owners of property in the infected district between Wabasha street and Merriam Park who have been too wary to sell, and the speculators who have tried to buy, here and there, can now trade, intelligently.

St. Paul is to have a hotel as big and good as the best, as soon as it can be built. With this important matter finally settled, and a good crop in sight, an active real estate market is assured. The impetus given to the movement in business property will, no doubt, stimulate activity in residence and outlying property.

Real estate in St. Paul is cheap, at current prices, and the present is a most favorable time to invest. We have a large list of property on our books, to which your attention is invited. It costs you nothing to look at it.
