

THE OLD WORLD.

ALFONSO.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—It is stated that Ferry yesterday resigned as prime minister. Grevy, however, refused to accept his resignation. There is the greatest confusion among the ministers and the supporters of the government. It is rumored that the German government has addressed an energetic note to France concerning the treatment in Paris of Alfonso.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The National declares that if Grevy is maintained as president of the republic it is also necessary to keep his son-in-law, Wilson, in the Palace Elysee. It would without chagrin see Henri Brisson, president of the chamber of deputies, become president of France.

Le Voltaire expresses the belief that the cabinet will not conform to the selection by the department of war of Gen. Mill for chief of the general staff.

King Alfonso instructed Don De Fernandez, Spanish ambassador to France, to contribute 10,000 francs for the relief of the poor of Paris.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Paris correspondent of the Times states that the Marquis de la Volava, Spanish minister of foreign affairs, referring to the scenes in Paris during the visit of Alfonso, said the wrong committed was so indefensible that he felt sure that ample reparation would be tendered by the French government and he had advised the king not to hurry his departure. The marquis also said we were determined to prevent any internal difficulties occurring in France or general conflagration on our account. A representative in Paris of one of the great powers called upon me especially to state the king's prudence and dignity under the trying circumstances had rendered services to the whole of Europe.

The Marquis further said: "We are perfectly satisfied of the good faith of Ferry."

Times editorial: A government which cannot secure a courteous reception for a national guest in its own capital can hardly be acquitted of weakness and incapacity even if it escape suspicion on the score of sincerity and good will. During the brief tenure of office of M. Challemel Lacour, French minister of foreign affairs he has irritated Germany, ruffled the good will of England and quarreled with China. The complete failure to which he has reduced France has had a natural result in the outbreak against King Alfonso.

FRANCE AND ALFONSO.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A Paris correspondent of the Times stated that Marquis De la Volava, the Spanish minister of foreign affairs, referring to the scenes in Paris during the visit of Alfonso said the wrong committed was so indefensible that he felt sure that ample reparation would be tendered by the French government and he had advised the king not to hurry his departure. The Marquis also said: "We were determined to prevent any internal difficulties occurring in France or a general conflagration on our account. The representative in Paris of one of the great powers called upon me especially to state that the king's prudence and dignity under the trying circumstances had rendered a service to the whole of Europe."

FRANCE AND CHINA.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—The Figaro asserts that Tricon, the French representative in China, has telegraphed the government that no serious preparations for war are being made in China. He says the idea of war with France is badly received in the southern provinces, and it is repudiated by the council of the empire. He says China could muster only 20,000 troops with European arms for service in the Far East. It is believed that Prime Minister Ferry is willing to neutralize the northern provinces of Tonquin, but will not cede them to China, and has so instructed Tricon. It says also that Ferry will inform Marquis Tzeng, Chinese ambassador, in an interview to-day, of the final limits of concessions which France will make in the Tonquin matter.

Ministerial newspapers declare that General Thibaudin will not resign the ministry of war. Siecle says President Grevy still has the same confidence in the cabinet as when he accepted office. The same journal says: "The health of Challemel Lacour, minister of foreign affairs, demands great care, and he will rest from public duties before opening the chambers, but will be at his post when the chambers meet."

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—O'Donnell, the slayer of Caray, has directed the disbursement of $1,500 received from the committee appointed in New York to raise funds for his defense.

DUBLIN, Oct. 3.—At a meeting in Longraha, county Galway, yesterday, the bishop of Clonfert delivered a speech in which he dwelt at great length upon the fact that millions of Catholics have been lost to the Catholic faith in America, and denounced in severe terms the system of state aided emigration.

BREAST, Oct. 3.—Sir Stafford Northcote opened a conservative club here to-day. In reply to an address of welcome he denounced the disastrous policy of the so-called national party, and asked the conservatives of Ireland to unite against the would-be destroyers of their religion, and their liberties.

NEW CASTLE, Oct. 3.—Steenburg, Sevan & Co. and Slater & Proctor, corn merchants, have failed. Liabilities of the former, $50,000 and of the latter $40,000.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Prof. Nordenskjold referring to the statement of Haas Hendrik, the Esquimaux, that Lieutenant Greely, commander of the American Arctic expedition, had been murdered by his mutinous crew, telegraphs that Hendrik was told a brave commander had been murdered, which, Prof. Nordenskjold says, is evidently an Esquimaux exaggeration, resembling the slander circulated as to the case of Captain Hall's death in 1871.

STRATFORD UPON AVOX, Oct. 3.—In August last Dr. Ingeby, one of the life trustees of the birthplace of Shakespeare and author, proposed that the remains of Shakespeare should be exhumed in order to compare the poet's skull with the monumental bone in the church as well as set at rest the question of the correctness of the many conflicting portraits of the poet in existence. The proposition received the endorsement of Rev. G. Arbuthnot, of this place. Upon reference to the terms of sepulture, however, it was ascertained the remains could not be exhumed or disturbed without consent of the mayor and officers of the city corporation. The matter has now been finally settled by the city council which passed a resolution condemning any disturbance of Shakespeare's grave.

JOHN BROWN.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] LONDON, Oct. 3.—A life size statue of John Brown is to be placed on a pedestal erected in the grounds at Balmoral. The site selected by the queen is the south of the castle, and the statue will be visible from its windows. A monument to the memory of Brown is to be put up in the prince consort's mausoleum at Frogmore, and he will also be commemorated by a tablet in the nave at St. George's chapel.

A TRIFTY PRINCE.

[Special Cablegram to the Globe.] LONDON, Oct. 3.—It is fully expected in Germany that Prince Alexander, of Battemberg, will not return to Bulgaria, where his position has been most unpleasant. The prince is believed to have made the most of his opportunities for feathering his nest, and it is common talk at Berlin that he has not only paid his own debts, but those of his relations. It is almost certain that Prince Vladimir, of Denmark, will be his successor.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BELOGRADE, Oct. 3.—A coalition cabinet, to take the place of the one which resigned yesterday, has been formed, with Minkola Christies, conservative, as prime minister.

MEZ, Oct. 3.—Antonio, who was arrested yesterday charged with high treason to Germany, has asked for his release on bail.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Advices from Madagascar state that Makobo, commander of Hayes' forces, has offered rewards for the slayer of the captain of a French man-of-war which was wrecked and burned at the head of the table and opened the toast in a brief address in his native tongue, after which he spoke in English. Amid the most enthusiastic cheers he introduced Mayor Ames as the guest of the evening. The mayor spoke briefly in an especially happy vein and was vociferously cheered at frequent intervals. He drew in a picture which was received with enthusiasm, placing the French patriot Lafayette by the side of Washington as the father of our country. He said he remembered well when a boy thirty-two years ago of coming to Minneapolis, then a wild prairie. The first white men he met were Frenchmen and it was his experience that they had proven brave, loyal and worthy citizens of our country.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Rome says that the Pope is seriously indisposed. PESTH, Oct. 3.—In the diet the Hungarian prime minister moved as a measure for settlement of the esecution questions that the present Croatian inscriptions be retained and the Hungarian and Bielineal inscriptions discontinued.

STILLWATER GLOBULES.

The merchants and other business people were yesterday notified to be on their guard to-day and were requested to keep their back doors shut and locked.

The friends of Mr. George Swain will be pleased to learn that amputation has been deemed unnecessary, the physicians being of the opinion that the fractured limb can be saved intact.

A well dressed crank, who has been detected in a number of illegal transactions, was locked up on Tuesday night for safe-keeping. Yesterday morning the rogue was locked out of town by Officer McCarthy who gave the scamp a hint not to be caught here within six months at least.

The council at the meeting on Tuesday evening voted to issue city bonds for the sum of $15,000. The bonds to bear six per cent. interest and are made payable in three equal installments of $5,000 each, commencing in the year 1884. At the same session the following named gentlemen were appointed judges of elections: First ward, Daniel Elliott, David Prescott, John Burke, Myron Shepard, Pat Williams; Second ward, Robert Simpson, J. C. Kerr, Robert Anderson, J. D. McComb; Third ward, Zvory P. McKisick, A. C. Hosper, Andrew Oleson.

Attempted Suicide.

Charles Kulb, formerly a saloon keeper in this city, made a deliberate but unsuccessful attempt to take his life yesterday forenoon. At twenty minutes to 12 o'clock the report of a pistol issued from the basement of a tenement house on Olive street, brought Charles Opsell on the scene. On entering the door Kulb was found sitting on a chair smoking his pipe as composedly as though nothing unusual had occurred. In the meanwhile the blood was flowing in copious streams from both sides of his face. The would-be suicide had evidently made two attempts at self-destruction, which is proven by the revolver, which was found under a chair, a thirty-gauge caliber weapon, from which two shots had been fired. With the first the aim had been inaccurate, the bullet passing through the rim of the hat worn by Kulb at the time. At the second shot the muzzle had been placed near the cheek bone, the ball passing through in an almost direct line. Its further passage was checked by striking against a great extent. Speaking of the bones of the face where it was found and removed by Dr. Merrill. For some time past K-u-b had been greatly depressed in spirits, caused in part by a long illness, from which he has not yet fully recovered. Another reason assigned for the rash act is his recent disappointment in regard to getting a room in which he intended to commence business. The fact that he was sinking money daily seemed to weigh on his mind to a great extent. Speaking of his wife that he would rather shoot himself than have her go out to work for his support. The actions of the unfortunate man tend to show that he was yesterday suffering from a fit of temporary insanity. To the question why he had shot himself, he replied that he wanted to have some fun, or words of a similar purport. After the bullet had been extracted, Kulb was removed to the city hospital and is almost comatose with grief. The wound, though extremely dangerous, is not necessarily fatal. If hemorrhage does not commence again the patient may recover.

MORE SUICIDES.

A Crew on a Raft Through a Stormy Night.—Two Old Men Tired of Life and Trouble try the Revolver Remedy.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 3.—Capt. W. A. Debow, proprietor of a restaurant, committed suicide by morphine in Gilchrist's hotel at nine o'clock this morning. He had been troubled with neuralgia from a wound received during the war, but it is thought by many he committed suicide because he was financially embarrassed.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 3.—Wm. Sheffield, aged sixty-five, senior partner of the banking house of Sheffield & Norton, of Napoleon, O., and a member of the Henry county bar, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting. It is thought to be a case of temporary insanity.

SUICIDE OR FOUL PLAY.

PRITTSBURG, Oct. 3.—L. B. Hitchcock, formerly of Hitchcock, McCreary & Co., grain merchants, and one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of the East died, disappeared mysteriously from his home last Monday, since which time nothing has been heard of him. His health has long been good of late, and it is feared, while laboring under aberration of mind, he committed suicide or met with foul play.

Capt. Barker on the charge of throwing his vessel, the Mary D. Lynch, upon a reef, losing her, the master, Crosswell A. Smith, testified that when the vessel left Old Providence the reef could not be seen from the harbor, but in going out the broken water was seen. Capt. Barker gave Smith orders to tack the ship, at the same time adding, "I want this to be the last tack the ship shall ever make." Smith made reply, "Where are you going to put her?" to which the captain replied, "On the reef." Conviction entails the death penalty.

LATE MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

The first anniversary of the French dramatic society was celebrated last night in a grand ball at Market hall, and a banquet at Burleigh's restaurant. The banquet proved a happy feature. Mayor Ames was an honored guest. S. DeMenies sat at the head of the table and opened the toasts in a brief address in his native tongue, after which he spoke in English. Amid the most enthusiastic cheers he introduced Mayor Ames as the guest of the evening. The mayor spoke briefly in an especially happy vein and was vociferously cheered at frequent intervals. He drew in a picture which was received with enthusiasm, placing the French patriot Lafayette by the side of Washington as the father of our country. He said he remembered well when a boy thirty-two years ago of coming to Minneapolis, then a wild prairie. The first white men he met were Frenchmen and it was his experience that they had proven brave, loyal and worthy citizens of our country.

The Baptists.

The second day of the Baptist convention opened yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the Rev. Cheney presiding. After devotional exercises, which lasted half an hour, and the reading of a letter from Prof. G. C. Foster, of Ottawa, Mrs. Libbie Griffin, of New York, read a paper on "Woman's Work in Uniting Liberal Baptists," in which she said that woman's work consisted in doing all she can that is right in her own way. For the home, for society, for the church and the world she has work to perform but especially in the church woman must work. In the churches there were nearly twice as many women as men and "who is better fitted by nature," she interrogated, "than woman to teach the religion of kindness?"

A long and interesting letter was next read by Rev. Newcomer, of Decatur, Ill., entitled "Should a liberal Baptist congregation or conference be organized for regular meeting and regular work?" It recommended the organization of a permanent society or committee for regular work, the committee to consist of one representative appointed from each society, and the committee also to draft constitution, by laws, and to arrange meetings.

The "Union of Liberal Baptists in supporting the Missionary Helper" was the title of the next paper, read by Mrs. Brewster, editor of the Missionary Helper, published in Providence, R. I. She said it was the duty of Baptists to sustain that paper as it had the best interests of the missionary work at heart.

Mrs. L. R. Burlingame, of Providence, R. I., next spoke and said she represented the Woman's Free Baptist society that commenced in a small way but had gone forward attending not only to heathen lands but to this country in both north and south. Prof. Latham, of Pennsylvania, followed in a paper on the Union of Liberal Baptists in prayer for the descent of the "Holy Spirit" and Rev. Smith read a paper on the "Union of Liberal Baptists in educational work." To which he said: "I consider this gathering prophetic of future good. There are to my mind no obstacles or hindrance to the work of education. Young men and women have to look to another source for a theological education than the state. The welfare of the church demands this education. All other things being equal, the denomination which provides the best educational facilities will be the most successful. There is nothing to prevent a union in the line of doctrinal disagreement. This union is an important subject, for by it we could support colleges when, as it is now, young men and women by the scores are being educated in colleges where different doctrines are taught. Turn now to some of the important advantages to be derived by union of effort under consideration; there would be increased financial resources; it would in time bring about a bible union; it would lend assistance to all other departments of our work. Our churches, without exception, are in need of increased ministerial work. There are a large number of churches without pastors. Where is the supply to come from? We cannot educate them at present; we must form the union.

AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session was opened by devotional exercises, after which Prof. Ira M. Price, of Morgan Park, Illinois, who is connected with the American Institute for the Deaf, gave a very interesting sketch of the work of the Hebrew college, which was listened to with marked interest.

Rev. J. L. Seidl, pastor of the First Congregational church of Memphis, presented a communication, extending a cordial greeting to the convention.

Upon motion of Dr. Ball, it was voted that the convention make a fitting response.

Routine business was then taken up, consuming the balance of the session.
