AMUSEMENTS.

Last night closed an especially brilliant season at this beautiful house. Margaret Mather, supported by a good company, conspicuously Mr. Milnes Levick, has appeared in a grand round of plays including each night of the week and a Saturday matinee, as duly recorded in these columns.

Four houses have been uniformly large. Monday night when Shakespeare's great tragedy, "Romeo and Juliet," was produced, being the largest. The house was filled to standing room. At each entertainment Miss Mather was repeatedly called before the curtain, and it is only proper to say that at any subsequent appearance of this charming actress, big houses are assured. She has improved with age, and is a painstaking artist, which promises for her an unusually brilliant career, which may result in placing her side by side with the greatest artists of the world.

The week will open to-morrow night in the appearance of the celebrated French actress, Mlle Rhea, who will appear three nights, and at a Wednesday matinee. The repertoire is: Monday night, Sheridan's comedy, "School for Scandal"; Tuesday evening, "Fon, Fon"; Wednesday matinee, Camille, closing in the evening with the grand historical drama, "Richelieu's Wager." The support is highly spoken of as worthy the eminent actress and a brilliant season is promised our friends. The sale of reserved seats opened at the box office yesterday, and a large number were checked during the day.

Pence Opera House.

"For a Life," with the popular actor V. J. Thompson, in the leading role, has done a good business the past week.

This week Col. Wood will make a great specialty of the olio, introducing many new features in acrobatic songs and dances, ventriloquism, etc., introducing the Crawford, Joe, Eddie and Charlie; Billy Mack and Edith Valentine in comedy sketches; and William Wells, the ventriloquist.

The Vaudeville Temple.

Prof. Hansen's 25th Anniversary.

On Monday evening, the 31 inst., was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the musical career of Prof. Hansen. About 200 guests assembled at his residence and the evening was passed very pleasantly in social enjoyment. The professor's spacious residence was thrown open to his friends. The special features of the evening's entertainment consisted of musical selections sung by the Frothing Singing society and a solo by George Geier. At the supper, which was a superb affair, speeches were made by Capt. Pinner, Geo. Hahn, G. Bishop and D. B. Johnson.

Everything passed off pleasantly and was a deserved compliment to the professor and his family, showing the great esteem in which they are held by his class, friends and neighbors.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

HON. MATTHEW WALSH NOMINATED FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

A stirring speech by Judge J. S. Foot—A lively contest over the nomination of Commissioner from the First Commission District—Judge Ueland endorsed—David B. Johnson carries his point in securing John P. Joseph's nomination for County Commissioner.

The Democratic county convention assembled at Turner hall yesterday at noon, pursuant to call, with a good attendance. Col. M. W. Glenn, chairman of the county convention, called the assemblage to order and opened business by reading the official call.

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION.

Upon motion of D. B. Johnson, Col. Glenn was elected temporary chairman, Hon. E. McDermott, from the Fourth ward, was chosen temporary secretary. The chair appointed Capt. D. C. Merriman, John T. Lee, Geo. P. Jacoby and P. P. Swenson as a committee on credentials.

UPON MOTION OF D. B. JOHNSON, THE FOLLOWING COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED ON PERMANENT ORGANIZATION: D. B. JOHNSON, A. A. AMES, JUDGE COCHRANE.

JUDGE J. S. FOOT WAS INTRODUCED TO THE CONVENTION, AND MADE A SITTING ADDRESS PENDING THE REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES.

This year it is not a preliminary skirmish. We have captured the pivotal states. In Iowa and Minnesota we have a fighting chance. Indications are pointing in that direction. The Republican party, wherever they are able, are trampling upon the people, and their best members are flocking to the Democratic party, thoroughly disgusted with the oppression of the Republican leaders. The Republican party, as a whole, are not in favor of sumptuous legislation, but where they have declared themselves in favor of it. In Kansas they have incorporated the sumptuary law in their platform and it is the aim to make it tyrannical like unto the old laws of Connecticut. By the means they would in their godless might trample upon the constitutional rights of innocent citizens, and that is their aim.

The speaker spoke upon the tariff question. He said that it is claimed that the tariff raises the price of wages, but as a matter of fact it is the merest nonsense. Every winter we see the wealthy monopolist flocking into the legislative halls at Washington there to lobby for a high tariff. Respecting the great cause of regulating the wages between this country and Europe the speaker explained that it was with all commensurate control solely by the supply and demand. In this country the population averages four or five to the square mile, while in Europe the average is three or four hundred. He referred to the attitude of the Pioneer, upon the question, asserting that that sheet upheld Democratic principles while it cried vociferously "Good Devil" to the Republican office holders.

Last year we had a political wave, which swept over the land. It relegated many a corrupt Republican congressman to private life. That tide has not yet spent, and will this fall spread over the state of Minnesota and elect A. Bierman to the chair of the governor.

SOLOH ARMISTONG followed in a brief address. The Democracy is now waking up, and if they are willing to come up and stand upon the doctrines of the party they will come to the front. It is time, and now is the opportunity. We believe in rotation of office, and now is a fit time to rotate some of those Republican officeholders, who have grown fat in office, and rotate good honest Democrats into office. [Cheers.]

THE DELEGATES.

The committee on credentials submitted the following report of delegates entitled to seats:

Minnetonka—T. Connelly.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of making the temporary organization the permanent and the report was adopted unanimously. A recess was taken to give the delegations an opportunity to file vacancies.

COUNTY TREASURER.

After the intermission nominations were taken up. Capt. Merriman moved that an informal ballot for county treasurer be taken. Carried.

John B. Everard moved that the chair appoint two tellers, and Mr. Everard and Henry Hunschild were so appointed.

A. T. Anking thought it meet that the convention know who were candidates so that no time be lost. He took occasion to nominate to the office of county treasurer, Hon. Matthew Walsh, a representative of the workingman, a man who could control more voluntary votes from among his fellow men than almost any other man in the city. The nomination was happily seconded by C. C. Haskard in a short speech.

Judge Cochran moved that Matthew Walsh's nomination be made unanimous by acclamation and enthusiastic applause, and the motion was carried.

Capt. Merriman led the candidate to the platform, when he addressed the convention. He said he could find words to commend his nomination, but he would rather express his gratitude to his fellow Democrats for extending the honor, which was placed upon him in nomination to the office of county treasurer. It was the more deserving of unequalled gratitude from the fact that it had been extended to him unsolicited, and almost unexpectedly. He pledged himself to do his utmost in caring for the finances of the county in the event of his election, and as he closed he was cheered to the echo.

JUDGE OF PROBATE.

Capt. P. P. Swenson took the floor to nominate a candidate to the office of judge of probate. He nominated the present incumbent, A. Ueland.

Chas. M. Foote seconded the nomination. He thought Judge Ueland had proven a competent and satisfactory officer, and he thought the office should be kept out of politics. The nomination was so made.

Roger Vail nominated C. W. Smith, the present incumbent, to the office of superintendent of schools.

J. B. Botineau opposed such precedent as the convention was evidently endeavoring to establish. It is not Democratic. Have not the Democratic party men to fill the offices of our county? Then why resort to the Republican ranks? The speaker did not care to oppose the nomination of Judge Ueland, but he could not consign himself to endorsing the Republican ticket. He closed by calling out Capt. Merriman.

Capt. Merriman had not given the matter any thought. It is an office with which the city has nothing whatever to do. He did not know who wanted the office from the Democratic party. The Democrats have in times gone by entered a most solemn protest against the Republican and the speaker believed in standing staunch to the principles of the party.

A county delegate explained that Mr. Smith had filled the office acceptably.

E. McDermott did not wish to see politics taken into politics. Mr. Smith is an invalid and not suited to battle with life as a citizen, and upon that ground he should not oppose Mr. Smith's nomination.

Mr. Botineau again entered an earnest protest as a Democrat to such action. John Everard did not favor endorsing a Republican. He thought it better to leave the office vacant.

Mayor Ames moved that Mr. Smith be nominated by acclamation.

C. C. Haskard opposed the motion, but the motion was carried.

COURT COMMISSIONER.

Ed McDermott nominated D. B. Johnson as court commissioner, but Mr. Johnson declined.

C. C. Haskard arose to nominate a gentleman whom he believed could carry the election. He wished to name Judge J. E. Flannigan, and the nomination was made. Mr. Flannigan explained that the office was about to be abolished, and he therefore declined to accept.

Mayor Ames, in consideration of the probable abolition of the office, moved that no nomination be made.

Capt. Merriman spoke at length respecting the nomination of county commissioner. The law had been changed so that the entire county ballots for the commissioner, instead of by the district majorities. Therefore he believed it right that the entire convention select the candidate rather than the delegates from the First district as has been the system in the past.

D. B. Johnson felt impelled to oppose Capt. Merriman's proposition at length. He said under the idea promulgated by Capt. Merriman, the convention has a right to select a man from the First ward of the city, or from any of the other commissioner districts. It is the prerogative established and followed by the Democratic party since the organization of the party in Hennepin, that the delegates of the district select the candidate, and it is only right that the constituents of the office holders select their candidate.

J. W. Lawrence took the floor to explain the law. The law had been changed by a Republican legislature for the sole purpose of defeating any Democratic candidate from the first district which has been Democratic. Under the present law the entire county ballots for each commissioner. The other commissioner districts are nearly all Republican. The object is to have the Republican majorities of these other districts carry the first district Republican. He wished a voice in making the nomination as a Hennepin county voter and Democrat, inasmuch as he is a resident of the First district, inasmuch as he should vote for him at the polls this fall.

Capt. Merriman again came to his feet to further his first proposition. He waxed warm in his zeal, and elicited applause. He insisted upon his motion.

Mr. Johnson replied briefly and pointedly. By carrying the motion every precedent would be violated. It belongs to the name of the First and Second wards to name the candidate, and the law designates that a man must reside in a certain territory in order to be elected to a certain office, then I most emphatically insist that, to that territory belongs the naming of the candidate. It is manifestly wrong that the remainder of the county should force upon the First district any candidate who does not belong to that district.

John Lally from the Fourth ward delegation arose to a point of order and insisted that all discussion cease, and that the convention proceed to work.

The reading of the call was called for, and the chairman read the same, which stated that the delegates from the East side place in nomination the candidates.

Capt. Merriman's motion was carried.

C. C. Haskard nominated John P. Joseph, and Chas. M. Foote nominated Baldwin Brown.

INFORMAL BALLOT.

The informal ballot resulted as follows: John P. Joseph.....37 Baldwin Brown.....54

Upon motion of Chas. M. Foote, the nomination of Mr. Joseph was made unanimous by acclamation.

COUNTY COMMITTEE.

Mayor Ames moved that the chairman appoint the county committee, but the chairman requested that the delegates nominate the committee.

The following gentlemen were then announced as county committee with Capt. Merriman as chairman:

First ward—John T. Lee.

Second ward—C. W. Smith.

Third ward—J. A. Twomey.

Fourth ward—Geo. G. Jacoby.

Fifth ward—James Gullen.

Sixth ward—P. P. Swenson.

Eighth ward—J. H. Atty.

Corcoran—Pat Corcoran.

Brooklyn—Harry Ghosly.

Medina—A. C. Bailey.

J. W. Lawrence suggested that in view of the fact that a district judge is to be elected this fall, that the county committee confer with organization relative to selecting a candidate for the position. It was so ordered, and the convention adjourned.

Denise of James A. Ames.

Yesterday Mayor Ames received a telegram bearing the sad intelligence of the death of his brother James A. Ames, at Ferguson Falls. There has been an error published respecting the illness of the deceased. Some months ago he accidentally swallowed an overdose of morphia, which narrowly escaped resulting in death. After a week's dangerous illness he rallied, and was in a fair way to perfect recovery. He renewed business perhaps too soon, and contracted a severe and fatal cold. Inflammation of the lungs set in, leading to large abscess upon the right lung. As soon as this latter difficulty had been diagnosed by the attending physician, Dr.
