WASHINGTON, Oct. 7, 1 a. m.—Indications for the upper Mississippi valley fair weather, southeasterly winds, falling barometer and stationary or rising temperature.

CITY GLOBULES.

The new grand piano for the high school was received yesterday. The Market house diners are smacking their lips over bear steaks served with cranberry sauce.

Twenty cars of cattle, consigned to Murphy Bros., of Chicago, and eighteen consigned to Gregory, Cooley & Company, will be received at the transfer to-day.

The Indians seem to enjoy their residence in the county jail rather than otherwise, coming out daytimes to crack watermelons and eat peanuts in the sunshine.

John Menz filed a suit in the district court yesterday against the Homestead Building society for a builder's lien on one of their houses claiming judgment for $107.

The board of public works and city council will take a train for Chicago this evening to attend the National Street Railway convention holding on Monday and Tuesday.

Wm. Wilson had so far recovered that the physician of the city hospital discharged him from the city hospital yesterday and he was taken back to his quarters in the county jail.

Napoleon Sabarian, of Vermillion Lake was before United States Commissioner Cardozo yesterday on the charge of selling liquor to Indians. The examination takes place to-morrow.

In the case of D. M. Osborn & Co., vs. J. F. Smith, tried in the United States circuit court, the jury returned a verdict yesterday for a little more than $2,000 in favor of the plaintiffs.

A contractor named Glassey, who has been at work on the line of the Manitoba railroad, came to St. Paul yesterday in search of his brother, who got away with $3,000 of the firm's money.

A suit was commenced in the district court yesterday by Theodore Ayd vs. the city of St. Paul for $1,985 damages, alleged to have been done his property by changing the grade on Oak street.

Chas. R. Groff has filed a suit in the district court against the owners of the great moral soap claiming $60 judgement for their having papered a fence with their paper, which he had hired whereon to advertise his own goods.

Deputy Sheriff J. S. Ames, on his way from Fargo with John Diamond, insane, placed the latter in the county jail in this city for a few hours, yesterday, while waiting for a train for Yankton, where the territorial insane asylum is located.

In the United States court yesterday Judge Shiras and a jury took up the case of Thomas Thompson, administrator, against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company, the action being for damages resulting from a fatal railroad accident.

The funeral of the late Mrs. T. W. Wordell, of No. 388 Wabashaw street, took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Although a stranger in the city she was highly esteemed for her many amiable and noble qualities of heart and mind, and her untimely demise will be mourned by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

The Disciples of Christ, often called the Christian church, and now well known to many as the denomination to which Garfield belonged will hold their annual state convention at Marion, Olmstead county, beginning Tuesday of this week. The Ministerial association, the Home Missionary society, and the Woman's Foreign Missionary society will constitute the convention proper.

The prisoners indicted by the grand jury of the United States district court, were arraigned before Judge Nelson yesterday forenoon to plead. Fred Neot, indicted for passing counterfeit money, pleaded guilty to one count and was remanded. Van Strump, indicted for robbing the postoffice at St. Vincent, also pleaded guilty and was remanded. The boy Gilbride, did not appear, and the remainder pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Geo. Snyder, formerly of the Metropolitan hotel sample room, and now one of the popular proprietors of the Clarendon hotel bar, was the recipient last Thursday of a pleasant surprise party. On that day the employees of the Metropolitan called on the major and presented him with a handsome basket well lined with silver and gold coin, it being a pleasant way they had of showing their regard. George dropped a silent Snyder-like tear and set 'em up all around.

The following teachers' institutes commenced their sessions on Monday: Le Sueur county, at Le Sueur, Thomas Barker, county superintendent, T. H. Kirk, conductor, J. Piper, assistant conductor.

When you have Itch, Salt Rheum, Galls, or Skin Eruptions of any kind, and the Piles, that you know without being told of it, A. P. Wilkes, R. & E. Zimmerman and E. Stierle, the druggists, will sell you Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy for fifty cents, which affords immediate relief. A sure cure.

Steele Mackay's luck has turned at last. According to the Spirit of the Times three managers have ordered his patent chairs which fold up and sink through the floor of the theater at the close of the performance, and they are also to be put in the new Bijou theater. A company is being organized to manufacture the chairs, and the Spirit thinks that if they work well the legislature will order the chairs put into every theater. But the Spirit may be over sanguine.

Miss Minna Wright, the accomplished and brilliant, humorous and dramatic reader, will appear this season, under the admirable auspices of the Slayton Lyceum bureau. It is to be hoped that she will bring long delight a St. Paul audience.

The College of Music. Prof. William Manner, the well-known musician and organist of the cathedral, opens his college of music in McKinnay block, on Wabashaw street, next week, and will receive pupils for instruction on the piano and organ and in vocal music and harmony on the 16th inst. All who know Prof. Manner acknowledge his superiority not only as a musician but as an instructor in musical methods, and his new college will no doubt attract deserved attention.

Footlight Notes. Miss Abbott's collection of diamonds are the rarest and most beautiful and costly, worn by any woman on the stage. Emma Zutta, the little lady who slides down the wire by her teeth in the Barnum circus, draws the neat salary of $600 per week.

Mankato wasps went for Miss Abbott during a recent performance of opera there as if they had been Minneapolis critics. The love scenes in King for a Day and in La Sonnambula afford Miss Abbott and Mr. Castra opportunities for impassioned love making for which they are famous.

Dr. Griffin, the refined step-father of Mary Anderson, writes to a Louisville friend: "While we are boating on the Thames me and Mary is the synchore of all eyes."

From the occasional crashes heard while the scenery of the "Lights of London" was being removed from the Opera house late last night some of it must have been cycloned.

Mr. J. B. Bartlett, business manager of the Emma Abbott Opera company, and by the way, quite a vocalist himself, will sing first tenor at the First Baptist church at the service this morning.

Those who expect to attend the Grand Opera house opening should remember to attend the auction sale of seats for that occasion on Thursday morning in the audience room of the old Opera house.

A New York boy has been killed by locking his fingers, on which he had daubed some bill-posters paste in which was corrosive sublimate. As it was impossible to tie up all the boys tie up your goats.

Miss Mary Dougherty, the accomplished young vocalist who created such a favorable impression in St. Paul, is singing first parts with the Chicago Ideals, and she is said to be a prime favorite with both the company and the public.

Steele Mackay's luck has turned at last. According to the Spirit of the Times three managers have ordered his patent chairs which fold up and sink through the floor of the theater at the close of the performance, and they are also to be put in the new Bijou theater. A company is being organized to manufacture the chairs, and the Spirit thinks that if they work well the legislature will order the chairs put into every theater. But the Spirit may be over sanguine.

Miss Minna Wright, the accomplished and brilliant, humorous and dramatic reader, will appear this season, under the admirable auspices of the Slayton Lyceum bureau. It is to be hoped that she will bring long delight a St. Paul audience.

That water never runs up hill; that kisses taste better than they look, and are better after dark; that it is better to be right than to be left; that those who take Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic never have dyspepsia; constipation, bad breath, piles, pimples, ague and malaria diseases, poor appetite, low spirits, headache or diseases of the kidneys and bladder. Price 50 cents, of P. J. Dreis.

Judge Kilder's Funeral. The funeral of Judge Kilder will take place at 2:30 p. m., at the parlors of the Merchants hotel under the auspices of the Masonic bodies of this city and Dakota. A special train will arrive to-day over the Hastings & Dakota road, bringing friends of deceased to attend the funeral from Yankton, Vermillion, Sioux Falls and other places in southern Dakota, and this morning's trains will bring a number from Bismarck, Fargo and other parts of north Dakota.
