DAKOTAIAN INTERVIEW.

A Globe Representative Talks Over Territorial Matters With the Sheriffs of Two Important Counties-The Popular Voice Declared to Be For the Location of the Capital at Bismarck-"One and Inseparable, Now and Forever" to decide Matter Every Time.

Sheriffs McKetechnie and McFadgen of Stutsman and Barnes counties, Dakota, were interviewed by a GLOBE representative yesterday afternoon in regard to the feelings of the citizens in their localities relative to the location of the territorial capital at Bismarck.

"How are your people regarding the capital question?"

"They have settled down very quietly on the topic, and having taken in the scheme of Yankton to run the whole territory and by seeking to establish the capi-tal there dictate and finally cut the state in two and become the head center of the seceding southern counties, have concluded not to lend any hand to disturb the present location at Bismarck."

"Then your people don't like the idea of sooner or later cutting up the territory into two states?"

"No, we wish to keep the territory in one state after it is admitted to the Union.

itol commission and their location of the state government at Bismarck, on the ground of unconstitutionality of procedure ?" "Well, whatever may be the action, it will be too late for Dakota to change its programme when that body reaches a decision. The appeal to the United States supreme court was not sent to it in time for entry at the present session, and the Biamarck buildings will be too far advanced to make any change, should any such decision be reached later on, and should it then decide adversely, the people of the territory in majority will pass upon the question, even to amending the constitution to meet the situation."

"How are the present territorial officers-elect standing on the question?" "The governor and auditor are located at Bismarck and the other officers are still lingering at Yankton."

"Not a very convenient way of transacting the territorial business."

"Certainly not. But the voters of Dakota are now thoroughly awake to their interests for the present and future and will sustain the Ordway end of this fight at the next election and send the Yankton adherents that are then left to the wall."

I know of none superior to the Weber and none that can compete with them for directory.—Teresa Carreno.

The tone of the Weber Fiano is so sweet, rich and sympathetic, yet so full, that I shall always rank you as the greatest manufacturer of the day.—Emma Thursby.

Weber Fianos excel all others in volume of tone and in power of expression.—S. Liebling.

There are no Pianos in the world that sustain the voice like the Weber—Firms Albert. Weber.-Emma Abbott.
