DEMOCRATS, CALL FOR THEM.
The genuine Democratic ticket can be obtained at the Globe counting room to-day. Democrats, call for them.

Vote the Democratic Ticket To-day.

Turn out early to vote the Democratic ticket.

The path of safety is to vote the Democratic ticket.

Business must go. Vote the Democratic ticket to-day.

Vote the Democratic ticket as you go marching on!

Strike for victory. Vote the Democratic ticket.

Vote for Biermann and against the oppressive Miller's ring.

To-morrow never comes. Work To-day for the Democratic ticket.

The people are tired of Republican rule. Vote the Democratic ticket.

Men! Men! Men! Turn the Rascals out.

It's about all over but shouting, for the men who vote the Democratic ticket.

If you want to do the best deed of your life vote the Democratic ticket to-day.

Rain or shine, storm or smiling clouds, work to-day for the Democratic ticket.

This Noble MacCarthy was peddling Hubbard tickets Monday. Vote the rascal out.

The polls open at 8 a. m. and close at 5:30 p. m. Bring out every Democratic voter.

Men of St. Paul, take a stand to-day for Personal Liberty. Vote the Democratic ticket.

Give the lie to the boast that Hubbard will receive Democratic votes in St. Paul to-day.

A Vote for Hardenburg and Mitch is a vote for the best men for county commissioners.

Be patriotic to-day and add Minnesota to the triumphal Democratic column. Vote for victory.

Young men begin your political life in the right way—and that way is to vote the Democratic ticket.

Give the bumptious Republican party the hot logic of defeat. Vote the Democratic ticket to-day.

To-day every Democrat is a watchman for the liberties of the people. Work for the Democratic ticket.

Vote to-day to turn the aristocrats out of the State government and put in their places men of the people.

The entire Ramsey county Democratic ticket will be elected to-morrow. That is down in the programme.

A vote for Burton for county treasurer, is a vote for a honest, reliable man. The funds are safe in his hands.

Let every Democrat be a Vigilance Committee man to-day, and do yeoman's service for the Democratic ticket.

The Republican party is full of dead men's bones. Keep out of it and away from it. Vote the Democratic ticket.

A vote for Hubbard is a vote for summary, restrictive legislation. A vote for Biermann is a vote for personal liberty.

Scout the traitors at the polls to-day, and when they ask for office at the hands of the Democratic party next year spot them then.

The Republicans are already discouraged, before the ballot is cast. They will be routed to-night. Do your duty, Democrats.

Let Mayor O'Brien's unwarranted interference in county affairs be rebuked by giving Egan the biggest majority on the ticket.

Is there are any Democratic voters who need assistance to reach the polls send carriages for them. Don't lose a Democratic vote to-day.

There are all kinds of bogus tickets in the field. If you cut the ticket out at the head of this column, you will be sure to have the right one.

People should hesitate long before entrusting the custody of the public funds to a man who for speculation through the mania for speculation.

Dr. QUINN will hold an inget on the political remains of Dr. Davenport to-morrow night. No undertakers need apply.

The registration lists indicate a heavy vote in Ramsey county to-day, and a full vote preanges the success of the entire Democratic ticket, state and county.

BUSINESS men give your employees ample opportunity to vote to-day. Set them a good example and go with them to the polls and vote the Democratic ticket.

READ every name on your ticket before casting your ballot. There are so many mixed tickets that this is the only safe way. Trust nothing but your own eyes.

KNUKE NELSON had a stormy reception at Minneapolis last night, but it was not one-half as stormy as the reception which will be given Gov. Hubbard at the polls to-day.

If you are not registered you can still vote to-day if acquainted with any one of the judges of your precinct. Be sure to get your vote in if it is for the Democratic ticket.

The Republican prints of Monday were dismal sheets. They recognise the handwriting on the wall. Hence their dreariness. The men who are happy vote the Democratic ticket.

DEMOCRATS won't fool away any "complimentary" votes to-day. If they had any give Hubbard the last man to get them. Vote the Democratic ticket. Vote it straight and strong.

The solid old line Republicans freely admit that it was a woeful blunder to re-nominate Hubbard. That blunder can be entirely retrieved by electing Biermann to-day. Vote the Democratic ticket.

DEMOCRATS, look well to your tickets! The Republicans have issued thousands of spurious tickets. Don't make a mistake and be imposed upon. Get your ticket from some true and trusty Democrat who will not deceive you.

It is not likely that the regular edition of the Globe to-morrow morning will contain the result in Ramsey county. An extra will be issued as soon as the count is complete. The count will probably last the entire night.

The news from New York is the assurance that the triumph of the Democratic party will be overwhelming. Let the North Star state send greeting that it is redeemed from Republican misrule. Vote the Democratic ticket.

There is a Republican scheme to defraud Democratic electors by a system of bogus challenges. This Democratic committee must be on the alert and see that no Democratic elector is defrauded of his vote. Forewarned is forearmed.

The Democratic party is the people's party. It is the party of progress, of reform, of economy in public expenditures. It is the party of honest men and purity in public affairs. Stand by that party to-day. Vote the Democratic ticket, straight and clean.

The only possible chance for the election of Gov. Hubbard is by his securing Democratic votes. The Democrats who wish to aid in throwing away the victory which is within their grasp should walk plumply into the Republican party and stay there.

The dirty Castle telegraphs the Minneapolis Journal that "Ramsey county will give an overwhelming majority for Hubbard." If a premium was offered for champion liars, Castle could make more money in a minute than he can by inspecting oil in a lifetime.

Mayor O'Brien and his Republican friends have invoked some of the vilest agencies in the city to defeat Mr. Egan for county attorney. The reputable citizens should rebuke this officious mayor and his bogus party by giving Egan the biggest majority on the ticket.

CATHART is asking an election as county attorney on the ground of being "one of the boys." The people of Ramsey county don't want "one of the boys" in so responsible a position. A good criminal lawyer is essential in that position, and Mr. Egan has shown himself to be such.

CART-LOADS of spurious Democratic tickets have been issued by the desperate Republicans, who are nothing unless they can deceive. See that the name of every Democratic candidate is fair and square upon the ticket you vote to-day. Read every name before you cast your ballot.

In order to conduct the criminal business before the district court the services of a thorough and competent lawyer are required. Mr. James J. Egan since his incumbency of the office has demonstrated his capacity in an eminent degree, and should be elected by an increased majority.

WILLIAM E. BURTON, the Democratic candidate for county treasurer, possesses the confidence of every man with whom he is acquainted. He has been known in the community from boyhood, and in the discharge of every trust has proved himself honest and capable. He should have a rousing majority to-day.

The sniveling appeal of Hubbard's greasy organ Monday evening was as ridiculous as untruthful. The sublimity of the prize fool in politics was reached in the whining begging of complimentary votes for Hubbard. Advocacy of Hubbard in that quarter has damaged him immensely. The vote to-day will show it.

The man who was slugged in a prominent saloon last week because he refused to agree to vote for Davenport will be able to vote to-day and drive a nail in the "stiff" coffin by voting for Quinn. Instead of furnishing a corpse, as the slagger doubtless intended, the victim will aid in making a political corpse out of the undertaking coroner.

Look out for Republican repeaters. The Democratic challenging committees must be on the alert at each one of the sixteen election precincts of the city. Spot the rascals who want to cast illegal "complimentary" votes for the begging Republican candidate for governor. Don't leave the polls exposed for a moment. Be on duty and arrest the rascals on the spot.

The defeat of Mr. Lienau, (which, happily, will not take place) would practically end the Democratic party in St. Paul.

Paul. Not on account of Mr. Lienau's personal discomfiture but because it would be an announcement that when the Republicans want a good office in this county they can get it for the asking. A Democratic county which assumes such a position ceases to be Democratic.

No true Democrat will give the begging Hubbard a "complimentary" vote to-day. He is a Republican of the narrow-gauge stripe. Nobody has the admiration for him that genuine, magnetic manhood begets. His praise is feebly shouted by the electomycary sycophants who have had favor from his dainty hand. The best men in the Republican party will rejoice to see the little man defeated to-day.

The Republican blackguards of the Castle stripe will be in a state of suspended animation after to-day. They have run their mud batteries to exhaustion to decry the candidates of the Democratic party. But their mud wouldn't stick. They have consorted with low fellows of the baser sort, but gained nothing by it except to justly forfeit the respect of all good men. No insinuation has been too vile, no misrepresentation too monstrous for their use. The people will rebuke them to-day. Vote the Democratic ticket.

Chief of Police Clark sends a card to the Globe averring that the Mayor consults him in appointing policemen, and that the police will not interfere with the election to-day. The Chief does not, however, deny that two unit appointments of policemen have just been made—one of a wife beater and the other physically incompetent—and as a strange coincidence, Democratic relatives of the appointees, with "political influence," are supporting Cathart for county attorney.

If Chief Clark wishes to divide the responsibility with the mayor for putting a wife beater on the police force, there is probable no law against it. The Globe, however, desires to call attention to the fact that this situation is voluntarily assumed by the chief, as no attempt was made by this paper to drag him into the controversy resulting from Mayor O'Brien's desertion of his former political party. At last accounts the wife beater was still on duty, and his brother is opposing Egan.

THE man who committed suicide at the city hall a few nights ago had between eight and nine hundred dollars on his person. That was one of the finest "stiffs" Coroner Davenport has ever struck. It can be set down that that body will be elegantly cared for. It has already been embalmed and is lying in state, as it were, while the money lasts. Coroner Davenport will welcome any "stiff" who has eight or nine hundred dollars, and the partnership will supply chemical wash and O. G. tops until the corpse can't rest. A vote for Dr. Quinn will settle this kind of graveyard business.

LABORING MEN, the Democratic party is your party. The scheme to which the Republicans are committed is the perpetuation of the enormous surplus it yields among a few aristocratic office-holders. Place the Democratic party in power to relieve the poor man of the Republican burdens imposed for the benefit of the rich. Strike down the party whose policy it is to make the rich man richer and the poor man poorer. Assert yourselves against the greed and tyranny of Republican rule. Vote the Democratic ticket and turn the Rascals out.

Up in the Norsk country of Douglas, Otter Tail, etc., the countrymen by birth of Hon. Knute Nelson's father, remark that Knute is inconsistent. Last year he asked them to vote for him against C. F. Kindred, because he was their countryman. This year he says to them: "We must stand by our party to show we are not clanish; we must vote for Hubbard to keep up our party. Mr. Biermann is a good man and capable, and he's a Scandinavian-American, but we must not vote for him." Next year Knute will turn about and again call upon the Scandinavians to support him, because he's one of them. Vote for Biermann.

The special telegram from Washington, in another column of the Globe this morning, should be an inspiration for voting the Democratic ticket to-day. The Executive of the nation points out how the Republicans may, according to his judgment, bring the Presidency in 1884. He gives up Indiana and New York, but counsels the cool purchase of certain southern states which he names. The necessity for Democratic vigor increases. All men who are opposed to corruption should rally to the Democratic standard. Men and brethren, for the honor of the Republic, vote the Democratic ticket to-day.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR coolly states that if the Republicans do not carry Virginia to-day the reason will be their corruption. He is a man of small. He counsels the policy that was pursued in Indiana in 1880 as the only token-stone for Republican success. Language utterly fails to properly characterize counsel so infamous. Dorsey is a prince of flight in contrast with the man to place whom in the Executive office Garfield was murdered. How men can snip port the Republican party in its present state of rottenness they must settle with their consciences. It is the duty of every patriotic man who is really a well wisher of his country to turn this day to defeat the party so graceless, so corrupt, that openly announces its only road to success is by the debauchery of the elective franchise. Indeed we have fallen upon evil days. God save the Republic if such men must rule. Vote the Democratic ticket.

WORK, TO-DAY.

To-day should be the freeman's holiday. From early morn to setting sun there is work for patriots to do. Democrats are no sluggards. The Democratic party has ever been firm and consistent in its fidelity to the real interests of the people. It has spoken no promises to the ear to be broken to the hope. Let this day bear testimony of the zeal, courage and endeavor of the time-tried sons of Democracy. Seize the ballot. It is the freeman's weapon and the patriot's refuge. It will drive the spoiler from the temple, it will expel corruption from high places. It will restore to the people the plain and simple ways of the Republic, when the great man loved the poor man, and the poor man loved the great. The oligarchy of exclusiveness which has been fostered by Republican power must crumble and disappear. The sovereign people must again control the affairs of state and direct the destiny of the nation. Now is the opportunity to unloosen the chains of thralldom. Democrats, work to-day as you never worked before. Stand by your principles and your representatives, the candidates upon your ticket. Quit yourselves like earnest, honest men, and a great victory is yours. Let your franchise be your inspiration. Shoulder to shoulder, man to man, fight the good fight and reap the full, the grand reward of well doing. Redeem the state. Work like heroes and freemen.

SOLID FOR BIERMANN.

A Bogus Report from Winona County Exposed—Scandinavians for Biermann by 1,200 Majority.

WINONA, Minn., Nov. 5.

To the Editor of the Globe:

To my surprise I read in the Winona Republican that the Scandinavians had a meeting and passed resolutions in favor of Hubbard. This was bogus. I was there myself and they were all Biermann men, with the exception of three or four leaders. To-night the Scandinavians have another Biermann meeting. He will carry this county by at least twelve hundred majority.

ST. PAUL TURNVEREINS.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Exercises—Honors to Six Surviving Founders of This City and An Address by Arthur Koenig—A Fine Programme of Entertainment.

It was impossible for hardly another person to get into Turner hall last evening so thoroughly was it filled by the attendance upon the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Turnverein society in St. Paul, the occasion being one of a very pleasant and social character, interspersed with charming songs and instrumental music, calisthenic and gymnastic exercises, etc.

After a fine overture by Seibert's orchestra the six surviving gentlemen who founded the Turner society in St. Paul twenty-five years ago were presented to the society in the persons of Messrs. Matthias Hohl, Casper Sauer, Rich Stifel, R. J. Leitner, Henry Olesman and Albert Wolf, to each of whom a young Miss presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers amid much enthusiasm on the part of the audience.

This was followed by a very interesting address from Arthur Koenig, the orator of the evening, who gave a brief but succinct history of the origin of the Turner society in Germany, its transplanting to American soil and its flourishing growth here and of the establishment of the society in St. Paul. Among other things of which he spoke, was the action of the St. Paul society on the breaking out of the war which threatened the perpetuity of this free government, at which Turner hall was summarily closed up and every member capable of service shouldered his musket and went to his country's aid.

While the entire programme of amusement which followed this speech was most excellent, the song, "Chimes of Home" by the St. Paul Turnverein choruses on the horizontal bar by the members' class of Minneapolis; club swinging by Albert Engel; exercise on the parallel bars by the members' class of St. Paul, and the pretty marching and groupings with flags by the girls' class of St. Paul, under the direction of the accomplished Turn-teacher, Mr. Betz, were full of interest, and deservedly won the warmest applause from the audience.

Dancing followed, and the young people tripped merrily the light fantastic toe into the wee sma' hours.

AN EXCITING RUNAWAY.

An Unruly Horse Becomes Frightened and Investigates the Interior of a Dry Goods Store on Lower Third Street.

One of the most exciting runaways, while it lasted, that has ever taken place in St. Paul, transpired on East Third street about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and that a number of persons who happened to be in that vicinity were not killed is considered almost miraculous.

About the hour named a horse attached to a buggy, containing two men, was proceeding west on Third street, when the rig collided with a wagon at a point opposite McLeod's restaurant. The driver of the buggy was evidently under the influence of liquor, for he seemed to have no control over the horse, and the latter became frightened and started to run away. The street was crowded with vehicles, and the animal first bolted across the street, running plump into a saddle horse that was tied to the sidewalk, and knocking the latter down. He then changed his course, and in turning around both occupants of the buggy were thrown out. The next incident was a collision with the large lamp in front of McLeod's, which was knocked down, after which the horse turned around and took to the sidewalk. The worst incident was yet to come, for when opposite the dry goods store of Whitman, Frye & Co., he bolted directly for the door. The latter being closed he went head first into the plate glass, shattering the latter to fragments. The excitement at this time was intense. Several lady customers in the front part of the store nearly fainted with fright, while clerks sought places of security behind the counter and on top of the shelves. At this juncture the horse was collared by a policeman named H. G. Murphy, who was slightly injured. The occupants of the buggy were Ned Sullivan and T. D. Beardon, of Post siding. The former was intoxicated and was slightly bruised, while the latter sustained several severe injuries, his right eye being badly lacerated. He was attended by Dr. Walker, who dressed the injured optic.

Shaun-a-Gow Last Night.

The dress circle and gallery of the Opera house were well filled last night, while a fair-sized audience occupied the parquette and circle to witness the performance of the Irish drama, "Shaun-a-Gow," as presented by D. H. Fitzpatrick and company.

The drama is in five acts and the plot is somewhat involved, although simple scope is afforded for the eccentricities of Mr. Fitzpatrick, who is a very clever comedian, and his specialty acts are well performed. The incidents of the play are of the melodramatic order, and several of the episodes are very realistic, notably the singing scene, and the act where the great villain of the drama attempts to discard his wife by the easy method of throwing her into the river. The life of the play is in the sprightly acting of Mr. Fitzpatrick, who appears in the title role, and whose presence on the stage is always the signal for fun and humor.

He sings several songs very acceptably and the scenes wherein he trips the light fantastic are very enjoyable. The cast includes a British informant, an adventurer, an Irish nobleman, a military officer and several young lady actors of more than average stage presence and beauty. Lettie Allen was especially good, and Miss Dollie Hamilton, Miss Davis, Laura Marley and Miss Breslau, all did some acceptable work.

The scenery is good on the whole, and the situations realistic and effective. The same thing to-night.

What are we coming to.

To the Editor of the Globe:

A few years ago some of our fellow citizens were so pure, so immaculate that they could not be influenced to touch politics, not even to sit with those fellows in the council chamber for fear evil association might prove contagious; and to-day what? They are trying to move heaven and earth in behalf of the most corrupt ring that ever disgraced our municipal politics, and for what? That a fledgeling physician without practice may earn an occasional pot moriem fee and learn what respectable physicians study in the institute. Verily politics makes strange bed fellows.

LATE MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

Last night Officer Kennedy had a lively jamboree with a bloodthirsty hoodlum on First street and First Avenue south. He endeavored to arrest one of a noisy party who resisted and a tussle ensued during which the man drew his revolver. The officer managed to strike the pistol arm and finally took the fellow in custody. A pal followed them to the lockup and was also placed in limbo.

Christmas is coming.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Marquis Tseng, Chinese ambassador, has a telegram from Tung Li Gown, expressing the utmost astonishment of the Chinese government at the statement in the dispatch of Tricon to Prime Minister Ferry that Li Hung Chang did not agree with the course of the Marquis Tseng in the Tonquin matter. Both the government of China and Li Hung Chang deny having expressed the slightest desire that Tricon should remain in China as the French agent, and testify their unqualified approval of Marquis Tseng, who has carried out his instructions on the Tonquin question.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The French forces have occupied Keanggrong and Ninh Binh. French messengers left Naigon for Hanoi with presents and decorations of honor for the troops of Annam. A transport with French troops left Singapore the 19th ult. to reinforce the army of Haiphong.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The day after the meeting of the chamber of deputies orders were sent to Admiral Courbet to push operations in Tonquin, and to make the Chinese government show the course it intends to pursue so that France can take definite action.

Madrid, Nov. 5.—Senor Morel and General Lopez Dominguez, minister of war, were acquired proof of fresh intrigues between political exiles and their friends in Spain with views of preparing for another military disturbance. The government discovered these intrigues connected with a ring of speculators at home and abroad. The governors of provinces have been ordered to exercise the greatest vigilance.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The municipal council rejected, 59 to 8, a radical proposal to re-establish the national guard.

The Morning News having published a report of a conversation alleged to have been had by a reporter of the paper with Clemenceau, the latter wrote the paper saying he refused to see the reporter. The letter not having been inserted in the News Clemenceau began proceedings against the manager of that journal, and summoned the director and proprietor as civilly liable for damages. The case comes before the correctional tribunal on Thursday.

CRIMES OF THE DAY.

THE CHILD MURDER AT PRINCETON, WIS., EXPLAINED.

The Deed of a Mistress, Assisted by the Child's Father—Purposely Misplaced the Child in Northampton, Vermont—An Indiana Father Kills His Daughter's Betrayer—Zora Burns' Supposed Murderer Again in Danger of Lynching, and Guarded by Military.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

PRINCETON, Wis., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Ellen Long, a widow, and L. S. Whittemore, father of the boy found in the river with his throat cut, have been arrested for the murder. Detectives who took the case had their suspicions turned to Mrs. Long because of rumors that she once attempted to poison Whittemore's wife and failed. Searching her house they found bloody clothing, which she had been wearing up to the time of the murder, and a butcher knife and two razors stained with blood.

In a well on her premises was found a child with blood marks on it. Neighbors say that criminal intimacy existed between the widow and Whittemore, and that it was known to his eleven-year-old son, who was probably thus disposed of to stop scandal. The boy was missing for ten days, but his father made little effort to find him. The theory is that the boy was killed by Mrs. Long in her cellar, and that the father carried the body to the river and hid it in the place where he pretended to discover it ten days later. Mrs. Long is a daughter of ex-Congress Judge A. H. Myers.

MURDERED HIS MISTRESS.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—Hubbard Milton, colored, shot and fatally wounded his mistress, Annie Hunter, in a Franklin street barge a few minutes before 12 last night. Milton was very jealous, and during the evening the couple quarreled about another man's ring, which the woman had in her possession. At about 11:45 they retired to a room, and ten minutes later the other inmates were startled by three pistol shots in quick succession. All rushed to Hunter's room where Annie Hunter was found lying unconscious on the bed with two pistol wounds in the left side of her head and one in the right. Medical aid was summoned, but to no avail. The woman died at 2:30 this morning. The murderer, after the deed, jumped from the third story window to a shed, thence to the ground but was captured several hours later just outside of the city limits.

LABORERS CAUGHT.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Nov. 5.—At the south side of St. Johns harbor this morning a coal shed fell crushing several laborers. Walsh and Guess were taken out dead and four others, Vitt, Ryan, King and Martin, were dragged out seriously wounded. It is feared others are buried in the coal heap.

A. B. JOHNSON'S SUICIDE.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—The verdict in the case of A. B. Johnson, who killed himself on Saturday, was the result of a pistol shot fired by Johnson in his own office, between midnight and 6 a. m., on Saturday, while in a state of mental derangement.

THE DAY BEFORE ELECTION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—E. B. Haskell, editor of the Boston Herald writes the Mail and Express of this city that Gen. Buller will be defeated by from 10,000 to 25,000 votes. Wm. T. Crossdale, editor of the Day, (Philadelphia) says there is no doubt of the election of the Democratic state officers, and of the legislature electing a Democratic senator on joint ballot. The state senate, however, will be very close as it happens a majority of the holding-over senators are Republicans.

PURPOSELY MISPLACED SWITCH.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Nov. 5.—A train on the Mississippi road was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch, and the engine precipitated into the river. The engineer, Thomas Flood, had both legs broken and his skull fractured. The fireman, Fred Hanver, went down with the engine and was killed. No passengers were injured. Edward Ellis, brakeman, is accused of turning and locking the switch and causing the accident.

Edward Ellis, suspected of having wrecked the train on the Mississippi railroad this morning, was arrested this afternoon and confessed using the switch early this morning, but claims he left it all right. Circumstantial evidence is strong against him.

MISOGYNATION.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 5.—Rev. J. G. Pol-lund, until a few weeks since a presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church north, in Arkansas, created a sensation to-day by marrying a colored girl named Eliza Millhiser. He was divorced from his second wife a month ago.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

OTTAWA, O., Nov. 5.—Fred Franke, returning from a collecting tour five miles west of here, was beaten by two highway robbers, dragged into the woods and robbed of four hundred dollars. He is in a critical condition. The sheriff and posse are pursuing the robbers.

RESERVED FOR HANGING.

LEWIS, Tex., Nov. 5.—Lopez, the Mexican, who was last week given ninety-nine years in the penitentiary, as member of a gang that in 1881 murdered Henry Bishop, robbed his store and outraged his wife and servant girl, had the finding set aside to-day, on account of the verdict failing to state the accused guilty of murder in the first degree.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 5.—A young man named Joseph Commenzing, employed in the clothing house of C. R. Mabley & Co., was shot and killed last night in the city suburbs by an unknown party. The affair is involved in mystery. The shot was heard and the man who fired it seen to leave the spot by two women, but is not yet apprehended.
