

GLOBELETS.

The Rev. Mr. Henn is preaching in Georgia. He is probably a lay preacher. Five hundred thousand alligators were "put on one side" in Florida during the past year.

French Canadian children, as a class, it is said, excel other pupils in writing and drawing at the public schools.

A pather is engaged at present in stirring up the sluggish blood of the Nimrod in Chenango county, New York.

Mrs. Robert Stuart has given Princeton College $150,000 for the new mental gymnasium— or department of philosophy.

Fort Smith, Ark., wants the United States to erect suitable buildings for a jail, United States court rooms, and other offices.

Freckles, odd as they may seem, are fashionable because the Princess Louise has them, and now they are produced artificially.

A genial exchange tells us that Boston girls never giggle. They merely express their delight by a dreamy, far-away north-pole smile.

Newbern, Tenn., has a law that imposes a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 on any person who goes into a saloon on Sunday.

A woman's exchange is to be opened in Washington, and efforts will be made to interest several prominent society ladies in its success.

Senator Sabin, of Minnesota, has rented a handsome furnished home on M street next door to Judge Wylie's. Senator Sabin has taken the house for nine months.

A South Carolina correspondent says that the state treasury has received $100,000 more taxes to date than for the same period last year, notwithstanding the hard times and short crops.

A woman, of Norwich, N. Y., ate burnt bread one day last week and soon after died, on account of the perforation of her stomach by the charred bread, so it is claimed by physicians.

A Boston paper relates that an old gentleman from the country who visited that city the other day and had never been in a large town before, remarked after making a tour of the business section: "I don't like this Boston. There isn't enough out-of-doors to it."

The tide in the Hudson river is said to be unprecedentedly low, and at Kingston, N. Y., recently the oldest inhabitants saw more of the river bottom than ever before.

Vessels were lying around at all points, and very few could move until the tide came to their relief.

The Vandyck portrait of Charles I., after which Mr. Irving makes up for the character, is at Windsor. The portrait of Charles's children, after which they are made up in the play, and which is finer than any Vandyck at Windsor, is in the Royal Palace at Turin.

"A Philadelphia scientist can tell, on examining a hair-pin, the color of the owner's hair." And a Philadelphia woman, on examining a hair found on the shoulder of her husband's coat, can tell whether he has lied or not—and she is not a scientist, either.—Norristown Herald.

A society has been formed and incorporated under the laws of Georgia for the purchasing and preserving of the historic home of the late Alexander H. Stephens, known as "Liberty Hall," at Crawfordsville. The house and premises will be changed in no particular from their present condition. The consideration is $5,000.

The first flock of migratory cranes motored for many years, passed over Perry Ga., going in a southerly direction, one night last week, and one night last week, and, as was at once predicted, their passage was followed by the recent cold snap.

It is said that when these birds are observed to seek warmer latitudes a severe winter invariably follows.

Moses, the lamented fat woman's husband seems to be possessed with a mania for marrying monstrosities. During his visits to Baltimore he divided his time between mourning over his dead wife and equipping with an armless woman on exhibition in the Monumental city, and the two are to be wedded shortly.

One of the most interesting medical theories yet broached is the theory that scarlet fever originated with the horse, and that inoculation from this animal may possibly be used as a preventive of the dreadful disease in the human being. A noted doctor of New York city, who has presented careful studies into this subject, is thoroughly convinced that he is right in this hypothesis, and he believes that it will be possible to reduce the equine virus by cultivation, so that healthy children may be inoculated against the disease.

A lady in New York whose success in raising house-plants has been a matter of comment gives her mode of treatment to a reporter. The soil, she says, about two-thirds good garden soil, and the rest sand. It is kept light and loose about the roots; they are watered as they appear to need it, and not according to any particular rule; but the chief reason for their wonderful growth and bloom is this: "When any of the leaves wither and fall, instead of picking them up and throwing them away, I make little rolls of them and tuck them down in the earth, and let them decay; and this is the only fertilizer I have ever used." "This," she added modestly, "seems to be nature's way. And the plants that have the afternoon sun only, grow and rival those that have the morning sun."

Negro Meeting. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—A largely attended meeting of the colored citizens in Mercantile hall to-night to hear J. Milton Turner, ex-minister to Siberia, discourse on the late decision of the supreme court in the civil rights bill. He made a long and rather desultory speech in which he took strong grounds against the decision and gave the negroes a good deal of valuable advice on general subjects. A series of resolutions were prepared, but owing to a late hour were not offered and their purport even is not known.

Supreme Court Decisions. JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 19.—The case of the Vicksburg Meridian railroad vs. Governor Lowry, in which the road sought by proceedings in mandamus to compel the governor to issue a requisition on the treasury for certain money known as the two and three per cent fund, donated by congress for road improvements in the state, the supreme court, in an elaborate opinion, decided the mandamus could not issue against the governor in any case whatever. In the mandamus case, Foster, district attorney, versus the secretary of state, involving the title to a large quan-

ty of land known as the Pearl River Navigation and Improvement lands, the supreme court reversed the decision of the court below. The merits of the case were not passed upon, but reversed on grounds that the lands were improperly bought.

FASHIONABLE GLOBELETS. Gimp and galoon trimmings are much used with cashmere and other woolen dresses.

Gauntlet gloves are much worn on the street with long, tight-fitting coats with close sleeves.

Chenille fringe in delicate tints is mixed with tassels of glistening beads for evening dresses.

A novelty in velvet for skirt draping shows large chenille polka dots raised from the surface at regular intervals.

A dress of pearly-purple velvet decorated with amber beads and ornaments is one of the recently imported novelties.

The lining of the heavy outside garments accompanying the tailor-made suits is generally in a bright contrasting tint.

The broadened Newport ties, so fashionable during the summer, are now effectively used as sash drapery over evening dresses in the same tint.

Beautiful cashmere for evening dresses in pale tints show designs of flowers, either single or in clusters. A second material of plain color is used in making the dress.

Leaf-shaped ornaments, woven of delicate gray chenille, veined and outlined with tiny jets of cut steel, form the trimming in one of the many lovely suits of gray cashmere.

The newest sleeves are made with only one seam, and fit closely from shoulder to wrist. Those gathered over the top of the arm are no longer fashionable, excepting for evening.

Black lace over corn color or enary satin is one of the fashionable evening combinations; and is also effectively used over red, while white is preferred for pinks, blues, and other delicate shades, and cream lace over pearl gray is another exquisite combination.

Gray remains one of the most fashionable colors for dresses, and millinery purposes as well. The many different shades are almost innumerable, and are known under the vaguest and queerest names.

For hats gray is combined very effectively with rich shades of red, blue, green, and purple, and gray plumes over black velvet are considered most beautiful.

CHAPTER II. "Malden, Mass., Feb. 1, 1880. Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache."

Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner. No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure until I used Hop Bitters.

"The first bottle nearly cured me." "The second made me as well and strong as when a child."

"And I have been so to this day." "My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious kidney, liver and urinary complaint."

"Pronounced by Boston's best physicians—"Incurable." "Seven bottles of your bitters cured him and I know of the result."

"Lives of eight persons." "In my neighborhood that have been saved by your bitters, and many more are using them with great benefit." "Do miracles"—Mrs. E. D. Stock.

Fanny. A cynic's mockery: "How old would you take me to be?" asked a bewigged and superannated coquette. "Several years older than your hair, madame," was the remorseless reply.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Showing that "it depends." "Well, Clara I bet you on the election," said Mr. Blank; "I thought it right to tell you—yes you bet on the election and lost all your money." "Interested in the intuitive half of the family," "for my part, I don't see how a man can rob his family of the necessities of life and throw everything away in gambling." "But, my dear, I didn't lose, I won $500." "Charley you always were a lucky dog."—Boston Transcript.

A great man tripped: Harvard student to Matthew Arnold—"We take great pride in our English ancestry, Mr. Arnold." Mr. Arnold—"You ought to, there is no better stock." Harvard student—"But I am glad the men of English blood are not so numerous in this country as they are in England." Mr. Arnold (somewhat confused)—"Why?" Harvard student—"Because the saving virtues, you know, abide with the minority."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Why an impassioned youth walked forth beneath the stars: "So you've come to ask the hand of my daughter?" "I adore her," exclaimed the youth, rapturously; "my life would be like a sand barrel without her." "Bless you," said the old man. "I regard this as nothing less than providential. You can have her to-morrow if you want to, and don't postpone it later than Saturday. I am going to fail next week and it's as much as I can do to look after the rest of the family."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The three-love of Gladys and Harold: Harold leads her to a fanciful and fanciful in his beautiful glad manhood beside her. "May I kiss you?" he murmurs. She does not speak but the love-light in her eyes makes answer more eloquently than could any words. For a moment she closes her eyes, as one faint with a bliss whose keenness makes it cross the border-land and become pain, and so is gathered into his strenuous embrace. For one second she lies on his heart. For one second the breath of her sweet sighs stirs his hair. Their faces are bearing each other slowly, in the sweet luxury of a passionate delay, to make yet more poignant the pleasure of their supreme meeting at last, when suddenly Harold starts to his feet. Gladys springs from the fanciful. "My God!" she cried, "what is the matter?" Bending over her and pressing her closely to him Harold whispers in low, strained tones: "I have broken my suspender."—Chicago Tribune.

CATARH OF THE BLADDER. STENOZITIS, inflammation, all Kidney and Urinary Complaints cured by "Buckley's" #1.

A Mattster Firm Fails. Chicago, Nov. 19.—The sheriff took possession of the property of Charles L. Epps & Co., maltsters and grain commission merchants, to-day, on a confession of judgment for $8,500. The liabilities are estimated at $100,000 to $125,000, with assets estimated at $40,000 to $50,000. Epps says he was taken by surprise and expects to resume in a few days.

A Change of Base. NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Tribune announces this (Tuesday) that Isaac H. Bromley, for ten years ten a valued member of its editorial staff, has accepted the position as editor-in-chief of the New York Commercial Advertiser, and will enter upon his duties Monday next.

The New Time Adopted. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The city council to-night adopted the new standard time.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Nov. 19.—The city to-day adopted the new central standard time.

OPINION DECIDED THE MANDAMUS COULD NOT ISSUE AGAINST THE GOVERNOR IN ANY CASE WHATSOEVER. In the mandamus case, Foster, district attorney, versus the secretary of state, involving the title to a large quan-

ty of land known as the Pearl River Navigation and Improvement lands, the supreme court reversed the decision of the court below. The merits of the case were not passed upon, but reversed on grounds that the lands were improperly bought.

FASHIONABLE GLOBELETS. Gimp and galoon trimmings are much used with cashmere and other woolen dresses.

Gauntlet gloves are much worn on the street with long, tight-fitting coats with close sleeves.

Chenille fringe in delicate tints is mixed with tassels of glistening beads for evening dresses.

A novelty in velvet for skirt draping shows large chenille polka dots raised from the surface at regular intervals.

A dress of pearly-purple velvet decorated with amber beads and ornaments is one of the recently imported novelties.

The lining of the heavy outside garments accompanying the tailor-made suits is generally in a bright contrasting tint.

A Muddle. NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Some time ago Judge LEZARUS, of the civil district court issued an injunction restraining the mayor and others from interfering with Treasurer Walsh in the discharge of his duties; also council from proceeding with an impeachment against Walsh. Justice Poole issued a provisional writ of prohibition against the judge of the civil district court. To-day the supreme court rendered a decision, saying: "In this case the district court wrongfully exceeded the bounds of its jurisdiction, as the proper and only efficient check is by writ of prohibition. This view of the controversy obviates the necessity of passing on the alleged unconstitutionality of the city charter on the subject of impeachment which will be disposed of whenever it comes up in its proper proceedings. Under these conclusions and under the terms of the provisional order, the writ of mandamus prayed for is stripped of all practical effect and must therefore be ignored. Order that said writ of mandamus be dissolved and the provisional writ of prohibition be made peremptory at the respondent's cost."

New Failures. NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—An assignment was filed for the benefit of the creditors of Moses Henlin & Co., men's furnishing store, preference $50,726. Also schedule of assignment of Simon Lautbach filed. Liabilities $171,500; actual assets $62,312.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 19.—Newman & Bro., boot and shoe dealers, Grand Rapids, with branches at Kalamazoo and South Bend, made an assignment to-day. No statement of assets and liabilities yet made.

More Shutting Down. PITTSBURG, Nov. 19.—In addition to the iron mills in this city previously reported to have shut down, work was to-day suspended at Chess, Book & Co.'s establishment, and two-thirds of the men employed at Graff, Bennett & Co.'s three mills were suspended. This adds 2,000 more to the number of idle men. Some manufacturers say the depression is due to the imperfect tariff laws. None anticipate another panic.

Black lace over corn color or enary satin is one of the fashionable evening combinations; and is also effectively used over red, while white is preferred for pinks, blues, and other delicate shades, and cream lace over pearl gray is another exquisite combination.

Gray remains one of the most fashionable colors for dresses, and millinery purposes as well. The many different shades are almost innumerable, and are known under the vaguest and queerest names.

For hats gray is combined very effectively with rich shades of red, blue, green, and purple, and gray plumes over black velvet are considered most beautiful.

CHAPTER II. "Malden, Mass., Feb. 1, 1880. Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache."

Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner. No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure until I used Hop Bitters.

"The first bottle nearly cured me." "The second made me as well and strong as when a child."

"And I have been so to this day." "My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious kidney, liver and urinary complaint."

"Pronounced by Boston's best physicians—"Incurable." "Seven bottles of your bitters cured him and I know of the result."

"Lives of eight persons." "In my neighborhood that have been saved by your bitters, and many more are using them with great benefit." "Do miracles"—Mrs. E. D. Stock.

Fanny. A cynic's mockery: "How old would you take me to be?" asked a bewigged and superannated coquette. "Several years older than your hair, madame," was the remorseless reply.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Showing that "it depends." "Well, Clara I bet you on the election," said Mr. Blank; "I thought it right to tell you—yes you bet on the election and lost all your money." "Interested in the intuitive half of the family," "for my part, I don't see how a man can rob his family of the necessities of life and throw everything away in gambling." "But, my dear, I didn't lose, I won $500." "Charley you always were a lucky dog."—Boston Transcript.

A great man tripped: Harvard student to Matthew Arnold—"We take great pride in our English ancestry, Mr. Arnold." Mr. Arnold—"You ought to, there is no better stock." Harvard student—"But I am glad the men of English blood are not so numerous in this country as they are in England." Mr. Arnold (somewhat confused)—"Why?" Harvard student—"Because the saving virtues, you know, abide with the minority."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Why an impassioned youth walked forth beneath the stars: "So you've come to ask the hand of my daughter?" "I adore her," exclaimed the youth, rapturously; "my life would be like a sand barrel without her." "Bless you," said the old man. "I regard this as nothing less than providential. You can have her to-morrow if you want to, and don't postpone it later than Saturday. I am going to fail next week and it's as much as I can do to look after the rest of the family."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The three-love of Gladys and Harold: Harold leads her to a fanciful and fanciful in his beautiful glad manhood beside her. "May I kiss you?" he murmurs. She does not speak but the love-light in her eyes makes answer more eloquently than could any words. For a moment she closes her eyes, as one faint with a bliss whose keenness makes it cross the border-land and become pain, and so is gathered into his strenuous embrace. For one second she lies on his heart. For one second the breath of her sweet sighs stirs his hair. Their faces are bearing each other slowly, in the sweet luxury of a passionate delay, to make yet more poignant the pleasure of their supreme meeting at last, when suddenly Harold starts to his feet. Gladys springs from the fanciful. "My God!" she cried, "what is the matter?" Bending over her and pressing her closely to him Harold whispers in low, strained tones: "I have broken my suspender."—Chicago Tribune.

CATARH OF THE BLADDER. STENOZITIS, inflammation, all Kidney and Urinary Complaints cured by "Buckley's" #1.

A Mattster Firm Fails. Chicago, Nov. 19.—The sheriff took possession of the property of Charles L. Epps & Co., maltsters and grain commission merchants, to-day, on a confession of judgment for $8,500. The liabilities are estimated at $100,000 to $125,000, with assets estimated at $40,000 to $50,000. Epps says he was taken by surprise and expects to resume in a few days.

A Change of Base. NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Tribune announces this (Tuesday) that Isaac H. Bromley, for ten years ten a valued member of its editorial staff, has accepted the position as editor-in-chief of the New York Commercial Advertiser, and will enter upon his duties Monday next.

The New Time Adopted. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The city council to-night adopted the new standard time.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Nov. 19.—The city to-day adopted the new central standard time.

OPINION DECIDED THE MANDAMUS COULD NOT ISSUE AGAINST THE GOVERNOR IN ANY CASE WHATSOEVER. In the mandamus case, Foster, district attorney, versus the secretary of state, involving the title to a large quan-

ty of land known as the Pearl River Navigation and Improvement lands, the supreme court reversed the decision of the court below. The merits of the case were not passed upon, but reversed on grounds that the lands were improperly bought.

FASHIONABLE GLOBELETS. Gimp and galoon trimmings are much used with cashmere and other woolen dresses.

Gauntlet gloves are much worn on the street with long, tight-fitting coats with close sleeves.

Chenille fringe in delicate tints is mixed with tassels of glistening beads for evening dresses.

A novelty in velvet for skirt draping shows large chenille polka dots raised from the surface at regular intervals.

A dress of pearly-purple velvet decorated with amber beads and ornaments is one of the recently imported novelties.

The lining of the heavy outside garments accompanying the tailor-made suits is generally in a bright contrasting tint.

The broadened Newport ties, so fashionable during the summer, are now effectively used as sash drapery over evening dresses in the same tint.

Beautiful cashmere for evening dresses in pale tints show designs of flowers, either single or in clusters. A second material of plain color is used in making the dress.

Leaf-shaped ornaments, woven of delicate gray chenille, veined and outlined with tiny jets of cut steel, form the trimming in one of the many lovely suits of gray cashmere.

The newest sleeves are made with only one seam, and fit closely from shoulder to wrist. Those gathered over the top of the arm are no longer fashionable, excepting for evening.

CITY NOTICE. OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER, ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA, NOV. 20, 1883. All persons interested in the assessments for the construction, relaying and repairing of Sidewalks, in the city of St. Paul, Minnesota, under contract of Peter Berkey, (estimate No. 4.), for term beginning April 1, 1883, and ending November 1, A. D. 1883, WILL TAKE NOTICE that on the 15th day of November, 1883, I did receive a warrant from the City Comptroller of the City of St. Paul for the collection of the above named assessments. The nature of this warrant is, that if you fail to pay the assessment within THIRTY DAYS, after the first publication of this notice, I shall report you and your real estate so assessed as delinquent, and apply to the District Court of the county of Ramsey, Minnesota, for judgment against your lands, lots, blocks, or parcels thereof, so assessed, including interest, costs and expenses, and for an order of the Court to sell the same for the payment thereof. The following is a list of the supposed owners' names, a description of the property in front of which walks have been built, relaid or repaired, and the amounts assessed against the same, to-wit:

Hopkins street, South side. Brunson's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. H M Smyth, N 1/2 of 4 4 $22 44 Same, N 1/2 of 5 4 22 44 Same, N 1/2 of 6 4 22 44 C D Brown, N 1/2 of 7 4 22 44 Same, N 1/2 of 8 4 22 44 Same, N 1/2 of 9 4 22 44 The Third Grace M E 4 5 23 44 Same, N 1/2 of 5 5 23 13 Amelia C. Gludson 2 5 22 44

Jackson street, West side. Roberts & Randall's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Westcott Wilkin and R E Nelson 1 13 $25 29

Lee avenue, North side. Clarke's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. J C and W S Adams 2 13 $17 56

Armstrong street, North Side. Finck's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Dennis Egan 5 4 $22 81 Louisa Weal 15 5 6 18 Same 17 5 6 19 Same 18 5 6 19 Henry Heavly 19 5 6 19 C M Dooty 20 5 6 19 John Kovce 21 5 6 19 August Schneider 22 5 6 19 S B Miller, N 1/2 of 23 5 6 19 Albert Mass 24 5 6 19 Wm E Horn 25 5 6 19

Bates avenue, East Side. Lyman Dayton's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Nicholas Groh 10 3 $20 88 Maria D. Hankins 9 3 7 33 Joseph Wosika 11 3 16 12 Mateo Cikanik 12 3 6 51 Same 13 3 6 51 F J Pahl 14 3 6 51

Broadway, East Side. Kitson's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. E J Lewis and James M Welch 15 37 $14 62 Wm Miller 16 37 14 62 Samuel G Smith 17 37 14 62 Same 18 37 14 62 Louis Jones 19 37 14 62 G Bohm 20 37 18 65

Chesnut street, North Side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Wm Foulke, S W 40 ft of N W 180 ft of 11 26 $49 39 A H Wilder, S E 25 ft of N W 125 ft of 11 26 18 21 G W Taylor, S E 25 ft of W G Taylor 12 26 27 65 Same 13 26 27 65 Arctic Storage Co. 14 26 27 65 M S Kallay, N W 1/2 of 15 26 24 62 W B Ricker, S E 1/2 of 16 26 24 62 Pat Kough, N W 1/2 of 17 26 27 65 Let Fee, S E 1/2 of 18 26 27 65 Estate of G Hewitt 19 26 27 65 E L Welles 20 26 27 65 Wm Song 21 26 27 65

Concord street, South Side. Bell's Addition to West St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. G W H Bell, W of E 375 ft and E of W 150 ft. of 13 $49 04 Chas H Leman, W 175 ft of E 275 ft of 13 63 89 Nellie Westenhagen, E 100 ft. of 13 82 21

Dakota Avenue, West Side. West St. Paul Proper. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Jos Mines, (W of Dakota Avenue) 1 33 $8 16 Nic Rabbitt, N 1/2 of (W of Dakota Avenue) 2 33 4 09 Henry Eggers, (W of Dakota Avenue) 3 33 3 26 Same W of Dakota Avenue 6 34 4 80

Doosan Street, East Side. Winslow's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Theo Boland 5 2 $19 07 Wm Theobald 6 2 19 07 W R Bowen 5 2 19 07 Same 6 2 19 07 Anna Ziegler, N 1/2 of H P and B P Van Hoven B 1/2 of 4 17 67

Fourth Street, South Side. Whitney & Smith's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. J H Sanders, E 1/2 of 12 3 $22 44 E C Palmer, W 1/2 of E 1/2 of 12 3 22 46

Fourth Street, South Side. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. H W Gutsche, W 1/2 of 1 2 $23 96 J T Nordstrom, W 1/2 of 1 2 0 74

Fourth Street, South Side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. F R Smith 8 19 $50 53

Hopkins Street, North Side. Brunson's Addition to St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. B A Corrigan 19 8 $22 44 F J Muller 11 8 22 44 David Kleinfelder 12 8 22 44 Jacob Mann 7 8 22 44 F W Toppel 8 2 22 44 C F Henige 9 2 22 44 John Layprey 10 2 22 44 Marzette Armbruster 11 2 22 44 Same 12 2 22 44

Cottage Lots, St. Paul. Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. H A Heedrickson, (N'ly of Fort street) 7 1 $15 02 Same, (N'ly of Fort street) 8 1 25 22

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. George White 1 1 $18 67 Same 2 1 17 94 Alex Harding 3 1 17 94 Charles Miller 4 1 15 21 Alex Harding 5 1 15 21 Same 6 1 15 24 Same 7 1 15 24 Same 8 1 17 94 Same 9 1 17 95 Same 10 1 17 96 Same 11 1 17 96 Same 12 1 17 96 Same 13 1 17 97 F W Ryburn 14 1 17 97 W S Collins 15 1 17 97 Ernst Bartusch 16 1 17 96 Wm A Field 17 1 17 96 Anna Thompson 18 1 17 94 Same 19 1 17 94

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Wm Dawson, part N'ly of Fort street of S 1/2 of SE 1/4 of S 1/2 of SW 1/4 of section 1, town 28, range 23, except St Clair street and Western avenue 287 73

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. F & E Buchmeier, (N'ly of Fort street) 9 $18 38 Snow and Dorn, (N'ly of Fort street) 8 40 76 B Converse, (N'ly of Fort street) 7 40 76 Estate of G D Snow and Michael Dorn, (N'ly of Fort street) 6 9 74 Same and same, (N'ly of Fort street) 21 25 55 Jos Horvath, (N'ly of Fort street) 22 38 54 Same, (N'ly of Fort street) 23 37 84

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. Maria E Haas, (N'ly of Fort street) 9 $28 86 Same (N'ly of Fort street) 8 30 92 Same (N'ly of Fort street) 7 30 92 F A Benz (N'ly of Fort street) 19 36 72 Same (N'ly of Fort street) 20 36 72 Same (N'ly of Fort street) 21 25 42

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. St Paul City R R Co 1 1 $16 95 Same 2 1 16 95 Same 20 1 16

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. John Clarkin 1 9 $6 51 Same 2 9 6 51 Same 3 9 6 51 Monroe Shantz 15 8 6 18 Same 14 8 6 18 A L Trudgen 12 8 6 19 Same, W 1/2 of 13 8 6 19 S B Miller, E 1/2 of 11 8 6 19 Math Terk 10 8 6 19 Jacob Harner 9 8 6 19 Michael Murray 8 8 6 19 G H Jensen 7 8 6 19 M Robertson 6 8 6 19 Same 5 8 6 54

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. John Clarkin 1 9 $6 51 Same 2 9 6 51 Same 3 9 6 51 Monroe Shantz 15 8 6 18 Same 14 8 6 18 A L Trudgen 12 8 6 19 Same, W 1/2 of 13 8 6 19 S B Miller, E 1/2 of 11 8 6 19 Math Terk 10 8 6 19 Jacob Harner 9 8 6 19 Michael Murray 8 8 6 19 G H Jensen 7 8 6 19 M Robertson 6 8 6 19 Same 5 8 6 54

Supposed owner and description. Lot. Block. Assmt. John Clarkin 1 9 $6 51 Same 2 9 6 51 Same 3 9 6 51 Monroe Shantz 15 8 6 18 Same 14 8 6 18 A L Trudgen 12 8 6 19 Same, W 1/2 of 13 8 6 19 S B Miller, E 1/2 of 11 8 6 19 Math Terk 10 8 6 19 Jacob Harner 9 8 6