SOCIAL WORLD

Berlin has several new churches built in commemoration of Luther. The annual play reading of Plymouth church comes Monday evening, Dec. 17. The next Turner hall concert by Seibert's orchestra will be given next Sunday evening.

Plymouth church fair, Thursday evening, was a good success despite the stormy weather. Two horses were found loose in the streets yesterday and were placed in Turnball's stables.

Now that the cold winter evenings are upon us and the coziness of the parlors is so great a favor.

The ladies of the Clinton avenue M. E. Church of the Sixth ward will give an entertainment and supper on Tuesday evening, the 11th inst.

Bishop Ireland will deliver the second of his series of lectures at the cathedral to night, his subject being "Reformation in the Catholic Church."

The Crookston Chronicle publishes a good abstract of Dr. Dana's sermon in connection with the dedication of the new church there last Sunday.

Miss Emilie Naber, of Seattle, M. T., left for her home last Tuesday, after a delightful visit to her cousin, Miss Winterhalter, of West Third street.

Dr. Dollinger, the great Catholic historian, conceived the honoring of Luther, by all Germans for his services to the language and literature of the Fatherland.

Mr. D. E. Fogarty, vice president of the First National bank of Livingston, and Wm. Dawson, Jr., left last night for New York, to be absent about two weeks.

The week just closed at the Opera house by the Boston Ideals is considered the best of the season, not excepting the dedication week by the Emma Abbott company.

St. Paul is very quiet in a criminal point of view, there having been but four delinquents lodged in the city hall from Friday morning up to 12 o'clock last night.

Miss Mamie Richardson, of Moorhead and Grace Porter, of Fargo, adorned box A at the Opera house yesterday afternoon. Col. P. Donan acting as chevalier and entertainer.

The new Congregational church at Billings, Montana, was the gift of Ex-President Billings, of the Northern Pacific railroad, and cost $10,000. It is the handsomest in the territory.

A gentleman well known and highly esteemed in St. Paul, Mr. A. E. Prondit, of Madison, Wis., is to be married to Miss Clara H. Liscombe, of Minneapolis, at the residence of the bride's parents.

The C. K. A. club will hold their third social party at Seibert's dancing parlors Tuesday, December 11, instead of Wednesday evening. The music is furnished by Travis & Gribbler's parlor orchestra.

The Congregational club commemorates Forefathers' day by a public meeting the evening of Dec. 21. The club will be the guest of the First church, Minneapolis, and wives of the members, and invited guests will be present.

James Donahue's two horses, attached to a lumber wagon, turned up missing while left for a few minutes in front of a blacksmith shop in this city on Thursday night, and have not been found. Donahue is a resident of Washington county.

By invitation Prof. Evans' dancing class at Stillwater visited his school here yesterday afternoon. There was a very pleasant meeting of both classes at Sherman hall, the professor providing a sumptuous luncheon in the dining room in connection with the building.

Judge Geo. W. McCrary and Mrs. McCrary will arrive in St. Paul to-day noon, to remain during the term of the United States circuit court. While in the city the judge and his wife will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Hillis, at 470 Ashland avenue.

It is expected that Miss Emma Thureby and Mr. Myron Whitney will be engaged to assist at two of the Choral society concerts this season. Miss Thureby will probably appear at the next concert and Mr. Whitney at the grand rendition of the Messiah in May.

The fourth annual ball of the White Bear Sportsmen's club will be held at the Leap house, White Bear lake, on Thursday, the 20th inst. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the event and the numerous friends of the club may feel assured of having a royal good time.

The average list of lodgers at the hotel de tramp is from twenty to forty, nightly. Last night Landlord O'Keefe made them useful as well as ornamental, and organizing them into a scrub brigade, washed the floors of the city hall as clean as that of a model New England farm house in ye olden time.

The choral society will give its second concert in the last part of January, giving Walpurgis Night, with such outside talent that will render the concert a grand success. It is understood that the stock of the society is all being disposed of in a way that indicates that the organization will soon be on a substantial basis.

Cards are out for a competitive drill and social assembly under the auspices of the Emmet Light artillery, at their armory,

Friday, Dec. 28th. The drill will commence at 8 and ending at 9 p. m., and as the battery has a record for good entertainments, the coming one promises to be the event of holiday week. Tickets can be procured of the members.

On the walls of the city hall are placarded rewards offered by Edwin F. Connelly in behalf of the Detroit police department of $1,000 for any evidence which may lead to the conviction of the murderer of Patrolman Geo. C. Kimball, killed on his beat in that city, and of $2,000 for the murderer of Jacob Crouch, shot down in his house, at Spring Arbor, Jackson county, Mich.

The new school house in connection with St. John the Evangelist's church, corner of Ashland avenue and Mackubin street, will be formally opened on Monday evening. The ladies are to hold a fair and a very good time will be had. On Tuesday evening Prof. Garratt has arranged a nice little musical treat, instrumental and vocal, and several of our well known friends have kindly offered to assist.

The young gentlemen employees at the Mannheim dry goods house have made extensive arrangements for an invitation reception at Sherman hall on the evening of Dec 14, (Friday). The affair promises to be a success and will be enjoyable to all those holding invitations. Programme, supper and orchestra will be the three shining stars of the evening for the enjoyment of all participants.

On Wednesday next there will take place in Racine, Wis., one of the most elegant weddings that ever occurred in that state. It is the marriage of Miss Florence Knapp, of that city, to Mr. Alf. E. Boyesen, of Fargo, brother of the celebrated Prof. Boyesen, of Cornell university. Col. P. Donan, the silver-tongued orator, after spending two days in St. Paul improving his musical education at the opera, left last evening to act as "best man" on that interesting occasion.

There will be a Christmas sale of useful and fancy articles, embracing a variety of dolls for the little ones, at the Guild House of Christ church, on Tuesday and Wednesday December 11th and 12th, from eleven o'clock to five, and on Wednesday evening from seven o'clock to ten. The proceeds are for the benefit of St. Luke's hospital. We trust the sale will be liberally patronized by those seeking Christmas presents, as all of the articles will be suitable for that purpose.

Little Sisters of the Poor. We have, on more than one occasion, made mention of the concert for the benefit of the Little Sisters of the Poor, at the residence of Mrs. U. L. Lamprey, No. 29 Bluff street, on Thursday evening, Dec. 13th. The following is the programme:

- PART I. Selection—"Pique Dame," Suppe. Vocal Quartette, By the St. Paul Ideals. Piano Duet—"La Gazza Lutra," Rossini. Misses Marie and Katie Geist. Soprano Solo—"Across the Far Blue Hills, Marie," accompanied by Miss Blumenthal. Miss Coddling, accompanied on piano by Miss Hitecock. Violin Solo—"From De Beriot," Prof. Muehlentbruch. Traverso accompanied on piano by Miss Hitecock. Xylophen Solo—"Celia Muszkarski," A. A. Mr. Pottgiesser with orchestral accompaniment.

Marriage Belts. A delightful home wedding that will linger long and pleasantly in the remembrance of those present, occurred last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. R. Barden, in Minneapolis, when his daughter, Miss Clara Barden, and Mr. Juo. B. Johnston, of St. Paul, were united in holy matrimony. Relatives and a few intimate friends to the number of forty-five were present, and as most of the guests were from St. Paul, special cars were engaged to carry them to the sister city. The entire lower portion of the house was in brilliant contrast to the tropical plants that decorated the rooms. Smilax trailed from doors, windows, pictures, chandeliers and stairs, while flowers in profusion perfumed the air, and adapted their beautiful colors to the numerous designs that decorated every available place. At 7 o'clock, while Danz's orchestra discoursed the wedding march, the bridal party took their position beneath a floral bow and arrow, and the marriage ceremony was impressively solemnized. Rev. Maurice D. Edwards, of St. Paul, officiating as clergyman. Congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the happy pair, while the senses of sight and scent were feasted with the happy faces and beautiful flowers. The palate was not neglected, and the beautiful collation served in May's best style, was heartily enjoyed by all, while the ear was delighted with the sweet strains of music that floated in from the hall. Dancing finished the evening, and all united in the sentiment that it was the most charming wedding they had ever attended. The only jewels were pearls. About midnight the guests retired to the cars in waiting, and early the next morning were taken to St. Paul over the Manitoba road.

The presents were numerous and costly, showing in what dear remembrance the happy pair were held.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston have taken up their residence for the present with Mr. and Mrs. R. Barden at 718 Sixth avenue south, Minneapolis, where they are at home to all their friends. May fortune smile upon them, and happiness take them to their heart.

The Athenaeum. OR, THESE MEN! As indicated last week, the celebrated comedy, bearing the above title, will be enacted by the dramatic division this evening. The piece, which is exceedingly interesting and amusing, has undergone a sufficient number of rehearsals, and will, no doubt, give great and general satisfaction. The cast is as follows:
