P. F. LYONS, Sergeant Signal Corps, U. S. A., TO-DAY'S WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, 1 a. m.—Indications for the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys warmer, fair weather.

CITY GOBULES. The best hay is selling in Haymarket square for $9 and $10 per ton.

The annual reception of the Winona guards takes place at that city Dec. 28.

There will be no sessions in either branch of the district court until to-morrow at 10 a. m.

Thomas McDonald was hauled in for assault and battery at the city hall yesterday afternoon.

term and close as usual Dec. 1. He also rendered an opinion to the effect that the salary of county auditors terminated Jan. 1, and at that time the salary of the new incumbents commenced.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delivery wagon belonging to Webster Smith, while proceeding along Wabashaw near Seventh street, collided with a buggy driven by a lady named Mrs. Morisy.

A sad accident befel one of the bell boys at the Merchants hotel yesterday, which may have the effect of crippling him for life.

A. T. Cross got so full of corn juice yesterday afternoon that he was ready to corral anything which came within his reach, and while coming up Jackson street at about 5 o'clock gobbled a $40 ooon-skin overcoat from a nail in front of Merrell Ryder's fur store, for which he was arrested and placed in the city hall.

Oil Cloths. Rugs—all sizes, new designs, handsome goods, new bindings—best goods St. Paul ever saw, at John Mathies', 17 East Third street.

PERSONAL. D. L. Wilbur, Jamestown, is at the Merchants.

James P. Curd, Louisville, is at the Merchants. Secretary of State F. Von Baumbach is at Alexandria.

H. M. Setzer and wife, Fergus Falls, are at the Merchants. Dr. G. H. Barnley, Chicago, was at the Merchants hotel yesterday.

Major T. M. Newson left Monday evening for a business trip to Chicago. J. A. Hena, editor of the Ortonville Star, was on a flying visit to St. Paul yesterday.

J. S. Gardner, of Brainerd, of the Crow Wing county commissioners, was in the city yesterday. P. M. Myers, secretary of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company, was in the city yesterday.

D. A. Duncan, C. F. McComb, Wm. M. Gallagher and Wm. E. Perry, of Duluth, were in St. Paul yesterday. Col. Clark W. Thompson, of Wells, president of the State Agricultural society is at the Metropolitan.

Secretary H. H. Hart, of the state board of charities and corrections, has gone to Brown county on official business. J. W. Hunter, Frank Ohlenor, W. L. Wilder, and J. G. Hamilton, Grand Forks, were at the Merchants hotel yesterday.

J. A. Chene, connected with the school book publishing house of Ivison, Phinney & Blakeman, of Chicago, is on a trip to this city. Capt. J. D. Wood, of the Fergus Falls Democrat, was in the city yesterday on a quick business trip and returned to his home last evening.

Frank Dayton and wife of Portland, Oregon, C. I. French, of New Haven, Conn., J. O. Johnson, of Northfield, and J. Winslow, of Fargo, are guests at the Metropolitan. John Jameson, assistant superintendent of the mail service, arrived in St. Paul yesterday, on route to Washington. He has been on a tour of inspection of the offices on the line of the Northern Pacific railroad.

A letter received Monday from M. P. Nichols, from Riverside, San Bernardino county, California, mentions the arrival of himself and sister at that place, where they anticipate passing the winter. The latter speaks of the Jamesport, Mo., accident, and the happy deliverance of Mr. and Miss Nichols, who came out of the wrecked car with but few bruises.

Every Housewife Will find it to her interest to call and examine our Aurora and Minneapolis carpet sweepers, John Mathies, No. 17 East Third street.

A Frustrated Highwayman. Tom Quinn, a Sixth ward bruiser, knocked down John Snyder at about 10 o'clock last evening on Mendota street, in West St. Paul, with a heavy blow under the eye, but the attacked man rose to his feet and closed in with his assailant, when a policeman came to the rescue and captured the slinger and had him transported to the city hall. It seems that Mr. Snyder came to the city from Dakota yesterday morning, having $900 in his possession, which he deposited in one of the banks during the day, and was on his way to the residence of Mr. Fonerth in West St. Paul, with whom he was stopping, when he was met by the highwayman, who is well known to the officers, and had been shadowing him with the idea that he had money on his person.

Notice. The office of Building Inspector will be removed to Chief Black's office in city hall, December 11.

For Torpidity of the Liver take Allen's Iron Tonic Bitters. A1 genuine bear the signature of J. P. Allen, druggist, St. Paul, Minn.

Holiday Opening. Thursday, Friday, Saturday. M. C. Thayer's store, 418 Wabashaw street.

Paddy Moran, for ten continuous nights a lodger in the hotel de tramp, received his pay from the N. P. railway yesterday, and after treating several traps to fifty cent dinners, at the Union depot, sent his love to landlady O'Keefe and hid him to the dallas of Wisconsin.

[A John Chinaman on St. Peter street was scared out of his "washee shop" by a tawny son of Ham late last night who wanted his shirt, but could not produce his teacher receipt therefor. John sought the aid of the "police," and Sambo was finally persuaded to wait for his change of linen until morning.

A family on Rice street having in prospect an assessment benefit of over $200 in their favor got very merry over their good fortune yesterday, and got into the tallest kind of a wrangle over a division of the spoils. At last accounts it did not look as though this particular money would be long absent from the treasury.

The new furnaces and heating apparatus are in running order at the new central fire hall, and the fire alarm telegraph wires are all ready for their battery connections at that point. The work of removing from the old quarters at the city hall to the new will be commenced to-day and probably by Friday or Saturday the entire transfer will be made to the spacious building on the corner of Eighth and Minnesota streets, though there will be no formal opening of the new quarters until Christmas day.

Attorney General Hahn rendered an opinion yesterday that the terms of all the county auditors, treasurers and county commissioners under the new constitutional amendments expire Jan. 1, instead of March 1 as formerly, but the office of superintendent of county schools will not be affected by these amendments the present term and close as usual Dec. 1. He also rendered an opinion to the effect that the salary of county auditors terminated Jan. 1, and at that time the salary of the new incumbents commenced.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delivery wagon belonging to Webster Smith, while proceeding along Wabashaw near Seventh street, collided with a buggy driven by a lady named Mrs. Morisy, throwing the latter to the ground. She was badly frightened and her vehicle was somewhat damaged, beyond which no harm was done. It is said that the driver of the wagon was very careless.

A sad accident befel one of the bell boys at the Merchants hotel yesterday, which may have the effect of crippling him for life. The lad's name is Thomas Thornton, and about noon he got astride of the banister leading from the third to the second story, and attempted to slide down stairs. In some manner he lost his balance and fell over the railing to the next landing, striking the floor on his head. He was rendered senseless, and sustained serious injuries about the head and shoulders. Dr. Murphy attended the lad, and he fears that a fracture of the skull was sustained.

A. T. Cross got so full of corn juice yesterday afternoon that he was ready to corral anything which came within his reach, and while coming up Jackson street at about 5 o'clock gobbled a $40 ooon-skin overcoat from a nail in front of Merrell Ryder's fur store, for which he was arrested and placed in the city hall, a crowd of small boys following up in procession to the very threshold of that corrective institution.
